

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 871

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 871-“Of course, Max’s people,” answered Kay.

Adam eyed Kay warily. Who was he?

He spent so much effort with no result, but how could this man discover the perpetrator so quickly?

Charmine’s red lips curled up dangerously.

Max, again? It seemed as though they just wanted to get into the action as fast as they could.

Of course, if they planned on attacking, she would not sit idly!

“You two go get some rest,” said Charmine to both men, ‘Til handle everything else from here.”

Adam wanted to ask how she would do so, but before he could, she had turned and left.

Her back was cold and arrogant, yet she exuded an air of calmness.

Adam had a quizzical expression as they both left.

Since when did Charmine have such a powerful man by her side? She was so powerful that others could be repressed and made inferior...

After Charmine had left the company, she drove back to Violet Villa.

It was quite a journey. By the time she arrived at the villa, it was already midnight.

She suddenly recalled something. Oh no-she completely forgot about Anthony’s text!

Was Anthony waiting for her all along?

Inside the villa...

Anthony was in the gym, throwing one dart after another at the dart board.

The small darts flew rather fiercely as the sharp ends went deep into the board.

His expression was as dark as ink as he emanated a baleful aura.

Twelve in the morning.

It was midnight, and Charmine had not come home!

What did she do with William? Talk? Flirt?

With those images in mind, his large hand clenched as another dart shot out.

It was then that footsteps were heard outside.

Judging by the pace and rhythm, he knew all too well that Charmine was home at last.

He wanted to go out with her right away, but on a second thought, he stopped and remained inside the gym.

When Charmine saw that the bedroom was empty, she went to Chris' room.

It was twelve in the morning, and Momo was still searching things on his phone.

She quickly walked over and asked, "Momo, why aren't you asleep?

Where's Daddy?"

"Huh? I... I was about to listen to a lullaby." Chris simply played a lullaby and put down the phone.

He said to Charmine, “Mommy, although Daddy is boring, straightforward, serious, emotionless and not as gentle, caring, stunning as other men, please don’t dump him. He has his redeeming qualities. The good thing is that it’s a buy-one-free□one deal! Think about it, no matter who you’re with, it’s impossible for you to get a free, adorable boy like me! So stay with Daddy, it’s worth it!” 2

Charmine failed to fight back her grin. So, even Chris thought Anthony was terrible?

She came home late for one night, and he was that worried?

“Don’t worry, Mommy won’t leave him. I’ll look for him now.”

“Okay! Daddy is training in the gym,” Chris provided information willingly.

Charmine frowned. It was so late-twelve in the morning-yet Anthony was still in the gym?

She felt that something was off.

After covering Momo in a blanket, she walked toward the gym.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 872-From outside the gym, she saw that Anthony was in his black training clothes, seemingly shrouded with dark clouds.

With a dart at hand, he fiercely flicked his wrist and threw it.

The dart knocked out the other darts from before, almost hitting the bullseye.

The bullseye was shot thoroughly, consecutively.

Such strength...

Charmine gulped. “Anthony, are you alright?”

“I’m fine,” answered Anthony coldly, not once bothering to look at her.

The first thing she did when she came home was to look for Chris instead of him. Hmph! 1

With that in mind, he ignored her entirely and continued to throw the darts.

Charmine frowned. What was wrong with him? He seemed strange...

She asked again, “What happened?”

“Nothing.” Anthony kept his cold face on as he threw the darts. He had no intention of caring for her.

Charmine frowned. Really, nothing?

Why did his tone sound as if he was angry?

However, a person like Anthony had seen all things. Why would he get angry because of a few small matters?

Perhaps she had been tired and was over-analyzing things.

“Good that you’re fine. I’ll go and have a shower, you and Chris should get some rest.”

With that said, she turned and left. 2

Anthony’s eyelids jumped. She actually left?

She spent the whole day with another man. He waited for her the entire day, yet not only was she unaware of it, but she even headed straight for the shower after coming home? 2

Anthony threw out the dart in his hand and marched out.

However, Charmine was quick. She had gone back to the bedroom and locked the bathroom door.

She locked it naturally.

This was her habit all along.

Locked outside, Anthony's expression was so dark that ink could ooze out of it.

She spent the whole day with another man, and the first thing she did upon coming home was to shower? 1

Was she trying to get rid of some evidence? 1

He had the urge to rush in. However, he stared at the door for a long while before he finally decided to walk to the sofa by the side and sat on it.

He would wait for her to come out, and he would make her pay! 3

With that, he waited for one whole hour...

Charmine had a long day, and that relaxing warm bath she had made her feel so much better.

Once she wore her pajamas, she blew-dry her hair before exiting the bathroom.

Upon getting out from the bathroom, she saw Anthony sitting on the sofa. His legs crossed as his body leaned back on the sofa languidly. He exuded a dark and cold aura.

She was shocked, "You're not sleeping yet? It's late."

Anthony eyed her with a cold mien, his eyes glaring every inch of her skin.

Charmine was wary of how Anthony did not even utter a word to her, though he always had that coldness to him anyway.

Perhaps he was waiting for her to sleep?

She quickly walked to the makeup table and put on her skincare, from water to cream and to the eye essence.

Anthony's expression grew darker.

"You're so used to seeing another man outside that you don't show interest in me after coming home?" came Anthony's snide remark out of the blue.

Charmine who was massaging her eyes suddenly halted. What?

What did he say?

She did not hear him clearly...

Anthony glared at her dumbfounded face. Suddenly, he stood up and walked toward her.

Charmine felt a powerful pressure crashing toward her. Her heart somewhat skipped a beat as she tensed up.

He was angry... There must be some misunderstanding...

Seeing that he was getting closer to her, she suddenly recalled what Chris said. She suddenly recalled that she spent time with William today.

She asked instantly, "Anthony, you know William?"

“How do you feel after spending a day with him?” His tone was cold, filled with coldness and unpleasantness.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 873- Charmine frowned. This man said he was fine when he was, in fact, obviously jealous! He was very jealous!

She quickly explained, “You misunderstood. I was only collaborating with William in making a medication. Uncle Pop was there all along. We were properly inventing a medication!”

“What, unless you thought of doing things that aren’t proper?” replied Anthony.

Charmine was speechless.

When the man got jealous, what else could the woman do?

She reached out to wrap her arm around Anthony’s arm. She lowered her voice and tried her best to speak gentler, “Hey, I’m telling you the truth. Uncle Pop was my witness. Furthermore, we have our marriage certificate. What’s there for you to be worried about?”

Anthony’s face remained cold. “Last year, there were nine thousand, four hundred and seventy-one thousand couples, but four thousand, one hundred and fifty-four thousand divorce cases. The rate of divorce is as high as forty-three percent. Even if couples got married, half of them ended up with divorce.”

Charmine almost spat out blood.

This man stayed home for the whole day to investigate the statistics of divorce, so much so he memorized them all? 1

As she was about to speak, Anthony pushed her arm away and coldly spoke, "Reflect on what you've done. Don't think I'll forgive you with a few sentences you said!" 1

With that said, he turned away to the other side of the bed and sat down, still cold as ice.

Charmine frowned. He seemed genuinely pissed, and he had no intention of forgiving her so easily.

Since there was no use after trying to speak to him, then...

She decided to walk to the other side of the bed and removed her clothes.

Anthony was facing her with his back as he sat on the other side of the bed.

However, the angle of the light coincidentally projected her shadow in front of him.

He could clearly see Charmine's silhouette as she removed her pajamas. Her hair was long, very alluring. 1

The light perfectly drew out her beautiful body curves as well.

Was she thinking of sleeping naked?

Just as Anthony thought of that, Charmine laid in bed, her long legs leaning toward him.

"It's a beautiful night. Are you sure you're just going to sit?"

Her tone was so gentle and different from her usual tone.

Anthony could see her long, outstretched leg on the bed in the corner of his eyes.

One leg was stretched out, perfectly showcasing the line, while the other was slightly bent, moving up and down. She looked alluring as she did it, her lean legs looking much like a fine work of art.

Anthony was furious. He was ready to ignore her for the entire night so she could attempt to make it up to him, but at this moment, he was unable to swallow his saliva. All the anger in him instantly vanished. 3

After a moment, he gave in and leaned toward her. His large hand picked up her chin.

“Charmine, is this what you do with William?”

Charmine frowned. “Am I that kind of woman to you?”

Anthony’s expression darkened as he said coldly, “You drank the water he handed you.”

William poured her that glass of water. He held it out to her, and the warmth of his hand would have lingered still. 2

Furthermore, if William drugged her, how would she handle it?

She was so unguarded with William!

Charmine’s eyelids jumped. Anthony even knew about this?

It seemed that someone was watching over the mini science lab. They even took photos of it and sent it to Anthony.

However, it was merely a glass of water. How could Anthony make such a big deal out of it?

She could not help raising an eyebrow. “Anthony? Are you sure you’re going to be so narrow-minded?”

“What? Used to how generous and gentle William is? Complaining about me now?” Anthony looked at her coldly. 1

Charmine was speechless.

“Anthony, can you stop fooling around? We’re just colleagues. It was only a glass of water; nothing intimate at all. If you keep acting this way, I’ll get angry.”

Anthony’s face hardened.

Angry? She, angry at him?

She went out for one day and he waited for her for one whole day. She did not even apologize, and now she wanted to get angry?

“Seems like I’ve spoiled you, Charmine!”

With that said, Anthony suddenly grabbed her chin and kissed her harshly.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 874- Anthony was punishing Charmine with an arrogant kiss.

“I warned you the other time that if you get close with another man, I won’t let you off easy. It seems that you really want that punishment!”

With that said, he kissed her briskly like a whirlwind as he pulled at her camisole.

Charmine did not know where she got the strength from, but she pushed him and took charge instead.

She glared at him from above. "Snap out of it, Anthony. I can give it to you, but not under such conditions! You misunderstood me, and that means you don't have enough trust in me!"

Angered, she stood up and was ready to leave.

She pulled a long bed robe and wrapped it around her body before going out of the door.

The moment she shut the door, a large hand suddenly came out, ready to hold the door open.

With a loud 'thump', the door closed onto his four fingers.

Charmine clearly felt it. When she looked back, Anthony's face had turned green.

His four knuckles were bruised.

Her chest tightened, and all of her anger vanished instantly. She asked, "How is it? Does it hurt?"

"No."

Retrieving his hand, Anthony turned and walked back further into the room.

Charmine looked at his arrogant and lonely figure-she could not leave him alone. She turned back to him and closed the door behind.

When Anthony heard her footsteps, his thin lips vaguely curled up. He sat down on the sofa.

Charmine took out two ice cubes from the mini fridge. She wrapped them with a bandage and sat down beside him.

She reached out to hold Anthony's hand, but Anthony refused. She insisted and put his hand on her lap. She held on the iced bandage and clamped it between his bruised knuckles.

The two did not speak.

Charmine was treating him with full concentration. She thought of what happened today and felt that she was too impatient. She tried to explain patiently, "When I left home in the morning, I didn't know William was already in Burlington. I would've told you had I known. We had no intimate contact when I got to the lab, and the glass of water was poured by Uncle Pop, and William merely handed it to me. We used to work in research before, and we're really just colleagues. You knew the person sending you the photos is ill-intended. If you lash out at me, isn't this exactly what they wanted?"

With that said, she reiterated, "Anthony, it's not easy for US to have come this far. We need to trust each other. I hope you can understand that the thing I hate the most is when someone doesn't trust me."

Five years ago, everyone accused her, nobody trusted her, rendering her unable to defend herself.

Five years later, even as she returned, everyone trusted Tiffany. She had enough days when she was doubted! 1

Anthony looked up at her. "Whether I'm angry at you has nothing to do with whether I trust you or not."

Charmine was confused.

She was dumbfounded.

Anthony looked at her and continued, "You're my lady, but however much I trust you, other men aren't allowed to look at you. I don't wish for you to have close contact with any other man, especially men who like you!"

His tone was possessive and arrogant.

It was not until then when Charmine suddenly realized that Anthony was a jealous man.

Relationship-wise, he was too possessive...

Suddenly, Anthony pulled her to his chest and lowered his head to kiss her.

Unlike the arrogant kiss earlier, he was much gentler and more caring this time.

After kissing for a long while, he let go of her and looked at her sincerely.

"Charmine, remember: you're the only one who can make me jealous. It has nothing to do with trust." 2

Charmine displeasure from earlier had vanished completely due to this kiss.

She leaned into his chest and explained sincerely, "I'm researching a selective amnesia drug. I want Julian, Alexander, and the others to take it. Once it succeeded, I can guarantee that I won't have any more contact with him."

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 875-
"Between now and then, I'll keep my distance from him."

Anthony frowned. Selective amnesia drug?

Well, it would be ideal if Julian and Alexander could forget about her body.

However...

"How long is this project going to take?"

"Well..."

Thinking it through, Charmine hooked her hands around his neck. "The duration isn't certain, but what happened today was an accident. I'll only spend a maximum of four hours there every day. If you really do mind, I could bring you along?" 1

Bring him along?

Anthony's face eased. He carried her to the bed.

"No need. Four hours? I'll check on you anytime," he spoke, placing her on the bed as he did and gazed at her.

"If I realize you two have any intimate action, I'll punish you."

Before Charmine could assess what Anthony meant by 'punishment', he kissed her again, but he managed to hold himself back before he got too heated.

Charmine could feel his restraint. It stung her heart, knowing he was holding it back.

"Actually, you don't have to hold back. I'm willing to."

Perhaps Anthony's insecurity was due to the restraint between them.

If this would make him feel more secure, she was willing to...

However, Anthony huskily replied, "Til wait till the day we tie the knot officially."
3

This was the basic respect he would show to her.

Charmine was speechless.

As a grown man, he was willing to hold himself back for her. It had to be painful.

She looked around and decided to change the topic.

"Right, my company has a situation again. I'm planning to bring you, Waverly, and Susan for a press conference."

Anthony reached out to ruffle her hair. "I'll listen to you."

Charmine's eyes twinkled. Waverly would have it bad tomorrow!

Downstairs, Waverly was unable to fall asleep.

Susan told her earlier on about Charmine and William. She thought she could use this chance to get to Anthony.

Never did Waverly foresaw she would be blocked, literally, from going upstairs throughout the day.

That big and ugly robot barricaded her way, giving her no chance to get close to Anthony.

She also thought Charmine would be in for a shouting match when she got home, punished even, but Waverly heard nothing like that from upstairs. It was as if nothing happened.

Damn it! Anthony spoiled and loved Charmine so much!

Furthermore, she knew about William, a renowned young scientist in Kansas. He was, for these women, the Prince Charmine.

Even the royalties looked up to the scientists. William's reputation was praiseworthy in Kansas.

Charmine managed to snag such an amazing man, and William even fancied Charmine?

Waverly was so angry that she could not sleep.

It was only when the sun rose that she felt tired.

Knock, knock, knock!

There was the sound of knocking on her door.

In this villa, only Anthony or Charmine could knock on her door.

No matter who it was, she had to put on her best look in front of them.

Waverly got rid of her tiredness and went out of bed quickly. She quickly put on her clothes and some makeup. 1

It did not take long before she opened the door.

She had an elegant posture, but the moment she saw the two by her door, her face became distorted!

v

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 876-She saw Anthony and Charmine by the door.

The two still had pajamas on-one was in black and the other in burgundy. The silk material made them look lavish.

However, Charmine's collar was lower. Just a look, one could clearly see a lot of hickies on her neck.

That left very few discrepancies as to what they did last night.

Seeing that Waverly was sizing her up, Charmine's red lips parted as she spoke, "Apologies. I wonder who complained to my man and told him that I had flings with another man. He was so angry that he punished me to his liking." 1

She emphasized the word 'punish' as she spoke.

Waverly's face turned green. She clenched her fists and tried to repress her anger. "What do you want this early in the morning for?"

"We want you to accompany Anthony for a press conference," spoke Charmine as she handed her a document.

When Waverly accepted the document and read the content, it was all about the Jordan Group!

Waverly was asked to announce with Anthony that the Bailey Corporation would fully support the Jordan Group.

Furthermore, Susan had to attend to clarify she did not take care of her assistant, that it was on his own accord and grudge that he attacked the Jordan

Group. There was no one behind this anymore, and nobody would attack the Jordan Group.

It was apparent Charmine had figured out the reason behind the staff resigning.

She wanted to use Anthony to come clean!

Waverly's face sank. "I'm not going!"

Forget helping the Jordan Group. Anthony and Susan publicly insulted her, so much so she could not go outside for a few days.

If she went out at that moment, many would interview her for that.

She did not want to be embarrassed again.

Charmine frowned. "Are you sure you're not going? Then I'd have to go with Anthony. We'll say that you're lazy and sleeping, telling everyone that you have social anxieties. Don't blame US."

With that said, Charmine added on, "Oh, right. I forgot to remind you. If the reputation of the Jordan Group isn't saved, Anthony will give me three of his companies to play.”

Her calm voice was filled with an apparent threat.

Waverly’s face stiffened.

If she did not go, would they ruin her reputation, all while Charmine would get three of Anthony’s companies?

“Are you threatening me, Charmine?!”

“So what? Can’t you be?” Charmine scoffed arrogantly.

Served them right for attacking Jordan Group behind her back again.

If they chose to attack, they should be ready to pay the price!

Waverly’s hands clenched tightly. Her face looked horrible.

Charmine had always been so strong-willed. Ever since she came back to Burlington, she had always been so arrogant! 1

However, Waverly had no choice but to play by her rules.

“Okay! I’ll go!”

Asking her to go out?

Well, Charmine gave her that chance to hold a press conference with Anthony, and she hoped Charmine would not regret it!

She went in to get changed.

Charmine’s red lips curled up with satisfaction. The drama was exciting.

She went back upstairs with Anthony and said to him, “You go get changed. I’ll call your mother.”

Anthony wanted to do it, but after carefully thinking about it, he agreed.

His little wild kitten was about to agitate others... 1

Charmine went to the study room and logged into her account on the computer. She sent the press conference invitation to Susan, along with the content.

When Susan saw it, her eyelids twitched. She instantly phoned Charmine.

“Charmine, why would you think I’ll attend the press conference? Why would I care about your

Jordan Group?!”

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 877-“Your verified daughter-in-law caused problems. Are you not going to save her?” replied Charmine calmly.

Susan halted. Waverly? What did she do this time?

Charmine said, “Waverly asked people to spread the rumors of how the man in black was instructed by someone else, that whoever it is won’t let go of the Jordan Group and will harm more lives. Now that I can’t keep the staff in my company, don’t you think I have to fix it?”

Susan’s face sank.

Waverly actually did such a thing?

She spread that the person behind was evil, that whoever it was would harm many more? Was she not referring to her? 1

To save herself, after the man in black was caught, they only said it was some personal grudges.

When they announced it to the public, the man in black did not show his face.

With what Waverly had done, the man in black would have to explain to the public, and it might backfire for Susan!

Charmine toyed with her dainty nails as she warned, "Mrs. Bailey, if you don't come, I'll have to bring the man in black to clarify, and if he accidentally mentioned you..."

"Charmine! You're a young lady! What makes you think I'll be scared? I'll have ways to make the assistant silent!" scoffed Susan. 1

"As Anthony said, if my company can't solve the danger and shut down, he'll give me three of his companies to play with. Mrs. Bailey, come or not, you better consider it properly," concluded Charmine languidly before hanging up. 1

Susan's hand that held the phone jolted. She almost broke the phone.

Damn it!

Charmine was threatening her with Anthony's heart. She had the audacity and did that!

Worse still, she could not neglect this threat!

It was Waverly's fault! She did more harm than good. How could she be so dumb?!

On the same morning, the Bailey family announced that they would hold a press conference.

Many moguls and reporters arrived at the press conference venue, all equally curious.

The Bailey family had not held a press conference for a long time. What was the reason behind this one?

At Violet Villa...

After Waverly got changed, she went downstairs to wait elegantly. 1

It did not take long before Anthony and Charmine came downstairs.

Anthony was in his suit as usual while Charmine wore a high-collared top with a black suit.

The top completely covered the hickies on her neck.

When Waverly saw, she smirked. "However loving you are, you still have to hide around when you get out."

Her tone was mocking.

She was mocking how Charmine could not reveal herself with Anthony in public. She was laughing at her for being a rat afraid of the light.

If it was someone else, they would feel guilty or even upset.

However, Charmine raised an eyebrow at her, and her red lips curled up." On that note, do you have anything at all to hide?" 2

As she spoke, her eyes scanned Waverly's neck.

Waverly was wearing a low-collared top, and her fair neck showed no trace of scars.

Forget a hickey; there was not even one red spot!

She thought she was the unsullied Snow White, but after what Charmine said, she felt empty and embarrassed!

Her palms clenched tightly. There was a surge of anger rising in her that could not be repressed.

Charmine was arrogant because of Anthony! What did she have to be so arrogant about? 1

Anthony's fiancée known to the world was her, Waverly!

She had to agitate Charmine today, and she had to get Anthony in it.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 878-Luke came with the car not long after.

Anthony looked at Charmine. "Come with US?"

Histone was inviting.

"No need," declined Charmine simply. "I have a driver. You guys can go ahead and help me set up."

She fixed Anthony's uncrumpled collar, sounding like she could care less.

Thinking of how this press conference was made for the Jordan Group, he had to agree. He went out with Waverly.

Waverly followed right behind him. Even though she looked elegant outwardly, she was devastated on the inside.

This press conference was hosted for the Jordan Group! It was to help save the Jordan Group!

Even though she hated Charmine, she had no choice but to participate in it. The feeling was, nonetheless, still devastating.

Luckily, she had something up her sleeve... 1

More and more people started arriving at the press conference venue.

Charmine sat in the car driven by Kay, intending to go straight for the press conference when an assistant came toward her. "Ms. Jordan, Mrs. Bailey would like to speak to you."

Charmine frowned. Why was Susan looking for her?

She did not want to go over, but the female assistant added, "Mrs. Bailey invited you, so it's an honor for you. She also said that if you don't come, she'll attack Momo any time."

Her tone was mocking and threatening.

Charmine glared at the female assistant and followed her to the backstage.

In the dressing room...

Susan was tasting the tea, her every movement elegant like an expensive lady.

Even though she was in her fifties, she was so well-maintained that she looked only in her thirties.

When she saw Charmine walking over, she suddenly raised the tea glass and threw its contents in her direction.

It was boiling hot water in the glass!

Hmph! So, Charmine genuinely thought she could threaten her over the phone just like that?

Just as the hot water was about to splash onto Charmine, she suddenly made a strong tug nimbly.

In the blink of an eye, she pulled the assistant that led the way toward her.

Splash!

The boiling hot water splashed onto the assistant's chest, and she shrieked in pain as her neck turned red.

Charmine frowned. "Mrs. Bailey, what did this assistant do wrong? Why are you so angry?" 2

"You...!"

Susan was so frustrated. Damn Charmine! How dare she spoke to her in that tone!

Before she could speak, Charmine continued, "However wrong your assistant may be, she's still a human being. How could you bully someone like this? If this matter went out, everyone will think

Mrs. Bailey is a bully with no conscience."

"Watch your tongue! I'll teach you a lesson today!" barked Susan as she picked up another tea glass, about to splash it onto Charmine.

Suddenly, there was a movement in front of her. In a flash, Charmine was already in front of her.

Charmine held Susan's wrist as her red lips parted, "Mrs. Bailey's face looks green with fierce eyes—you don't look like a luxurious lady anymore. One might even feel that you're a crazy woman coming from nowhere! Ah, yes, do be careful. Anthony said that if I'm hurt or unhappy, he'd give me his three companies to make me happy. Do you think I'll get them if you splash this water onto me?"

Her voice was calm but very oppressive.

Susan's veins were showing on her forehead.

How would Charmine threaten her?!

She was a senior and Charmine should be scared of her, yet she repressed her entirely!

How could a woman who wanted to be her daughter-in-law be as wild as this? How could she be so unruly?

"Charmine, didn't your parents teach you some manners? Have you thought of what'll happen if you treat me this way?!"

"Thanks for your concern. My Grandpa only taught me to hit back if I'm bullied. If the sky falls, they'll hold it up for me, while you..."

Charmine's eyes sized her up. "I wonder how your parents taught you? Did they teach you to splash hot water at people? Did they teach you how to be a crazy woman?"

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 879-
“You... You...!”

How frustrating!

Susan wanted to yell at her, but Charmine had let go of her hand. “As for the outcome, I, Charmine, only care about the present!”

With that said, she walked outside.

Susan raised the glass, wanting to splash the water at her.

Then, Charmine took out her phone, clicked on the Whatsapp icon, and walked as she left a voice message, “Darling, didn’t you say you want to give me the three companies? You may H “Enough! Shut up! Shut up!” growled Susan.

With a loud bang, the glass was placed back on the table.

“Get out of my sight! I’ll pretend as if I didn’t see you today!”

Charmine’s red lips curled up into a stunning smile as she walked away.

She wanted to hurt her? Did she think she could actually harm her?

Aggravated, Susan sat on the sofa as she panted heavily.

Utterly enraging!

She wanted to teach Charmine a lesson before the press conference, wanting it to be harsh when Charmine did a 180-degree and agitated her instead.

After Charmine had left backstage, she walked to the front stage.

Many reporters lined up in front of the meeting room.

Meanwhile, Anthony and Waverly stood next to one another as questions after questions were met, reporters interviewing,

“Ms. Waverly, may I ask what it was when Mr. Bailey called you off for lying?”

‘Why did your mother-in-law call you dumb?’

“Is it true that your relationship with your mother-in-law is bad?”

“Ms. Waverly, please answer US?”

Everyone pestered Waverly with their questions.

Waverly’s face was not looking well; she looked awkward. 1

She had stayed inside for a few days without coming out, but who would have thought that everyone still remembered and still asked her about it?

However, Anthony did not ask the bodyguards to come over. They were all standing still, allowing the reporters to fire their shots

Seeing that she did not answer, they turned to Anthony.

“Mr. Bailey, can you please answer? Why did you say that Ms. Waverly lied?”

‘What did Ms. Waverly lie to you about?’

“Please satisfy the curiosity of all netizens!”

The reporters were going crazy. It was so rare to see the two together, and if they did not dig out anything, they would go crazy!

Anthony glanced at Waverly who was beside him.

Waverly felt guilty under his gaze.

Why was Anthony looking at her? Was he really going to answer the reporter’s question? Was he really going to answer them?!

As she was hesitating, the host on the stage suddenly said, "Welcome all the guests. Please be seated, or be ready to be asked to leave."

This was the host of the Bailey family, the family known to be straightforward.

The reporters were extremely despondent. Since they did not manage to ask anything, they could only walk to their seats and sit down.

Waverly looked up at the stage with gratitude, seeing Susan behind the stage.

It seemed that it was Susan helping her. Susan was not useless after all.

Taking their seats, everyone was riddled with curiosity.

Why did the Bailey family suddenly want to host a press conference? Did major events occur?

At that moment, a slender figure suddenly walked to the front row.

She wore a white-collared top along with her black wide-leg pants. With her black suit, she looked audacious and arrogant, much like a powerful woman.

It was Charmine?

Charmine actually came to this press conference?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 880-Under everyone's keen gaze, Charmine walked to the front row calmly.

Anthony and Waverly were standing there.

She reached out her hand genially. "Mr. Bailey, Ms. Waverly."

Her tone was very ordinary, as if she was nothing more than a regular collaborator.

Anthony reached out his hand calmly and shook hands with her in front of everyone.

At an angle where nobody could see, his thumb gently caressed her palm.

Charmine's heart skipped a beat.

This man had the audacity and did that in front of everyone!

She instantly retrieved her hand and went to shake hands with Waverly.

Sitting close by, Waverly could see everything they did.

There were so many reporters, yet they were so loving in front of her!

How could they have so much fun while everyone made fun of her?

Anger welled within her, but she maintained a poise expression outwardly as she elegantly shook hands with Charmine.

Unbeknownst to everyone else, Waverly added strength into her handshake with hatred burning her eyes.

Ha! She would score one against Charmine today. She wanted to see the look of despair on her face! 2

However, Charmine exerted more pressure into her grip.

With that squeeze, she used so much force that Waverly's four fingers almost crumpled into a ball. 1

Waverly was in so much pain that she nearly shrieked, but just as she was about to speak, Charmine had let go of her hand.

Charmine wore an aloof expression, one that seemed as if nothing happened, as she walked to the side and sat down. She remained calm as if everything was fine.

Waverly's face turned green. She merely used some force yet Charmine tried to crack her bones!?! 5

How despicable!

Luckily, she planned an arrangement for this moment. She must make a move with Anthony today!

The reporters were even more curious. Charmine, Anthony, and Waverly were that close?

What were they going to announce during this press conference?

Fredrick and Max D'Cruz were present as well as they sat in the front row quietly. Their faces were darkened and showed no emotions.

With everyone's curiosity, Anthony and Waverly walked up to the stage, where a podium was prepared with a microphone on.

Anthony, clad in his black suit, stood elegantly.

He said into the microphone, "The Bailey family is partnering with the Jordan Group, and I look forward to the Jordan Group's future development. However, I heard that many staff are resigning from the Jordan Group, and there are even rumors spreading that someone will intentionally destroy the Jordan Group.

Therefore, I'd like to make some clarifications."

An assistant then started the Powerpoint Presentation on the big screen behind him.

All the reporters exchanged looks with one another.

They came to this press conference early in the morning with the thought that something pivotal happened in the Bailey Corporation. They waited for so long, yet after all that waiting, Anthony only wanted to announce his support for the Jordan Group?

Did someone resign? Were there not some rumors spreading around?

Was President Bailey of the Bailey Corporation coming up just for this small matter, that the Boss

Bailey of Burlington was personally clarifying for the Jordans?

At that moment, the photo of a man in black appeared on the big screen.

On the left was the man in black with something covering his face when he was captured. On the right was him in a suit.

This man looked alert and formal.

This was the man who persuaded thirteen men to commit suicide?

That aside, he looked awfully familiar...

Anthony said, 'This man is one of my mother's assistants, Samson.' 1

An uproar filled the venue.

Anthony's mother?!
