

Super Rich Dad Chapter 874-876

Chapter 874

Time slowly passed, Shen Tianyang looked at Feng Tianzhi after being silent for a long time, he really couldn't stand such a stagnant atmosphere.

Then he said, 'What exactly do you want to do today, is it just to sit with me like this and waste time?'

Although the matter of the Northern Mansion came from his hands, as long as many things were not put out in the open, then Feng Tianci naturally had no reason to target him at will. This was something that Shen Tianyang knew very well in his heart.

After all, everyone was not a small person, and every word they said would directly affect the life and death of countless people, so when weighing some matters, both sides would be more cautious.

Feng Tianzhi stared closely at Shen Tianyang and sneered twice before suddenly taking out a few medals from his arms and throwing them in front of him.

'You should know very well what I mean by coming to you today. Here are just a few of them, but the exact same as these, there are a whole thirty of them lying around my office right now.'

After saying this, Feng Tianzhi's eyes looked aggressively at Shen Tianyang and said in a deep voice, 'What does it mean, do you want me to tell you everything?'

At this moment, Feng Tianzhi's eyes were like a furious and hungry wolf, looking at Shen Tianyang as if he was looking at his prey.

Such a look was precisely the kind of look that Shen Tianyang detested the most, because he had always believed that only he was worthy of the name of predator, that he was the king at the top of the biological chain!

After a moment of contemplation, Shen Tianyang leaned back comfortably in his chair, his eyes looked at him with some contempt and spoke, 'I'm sorry, I'm not quite sure what you're talking to me about, as for this pile of rubbish you brought, are they worth a lot of money?'

As he said this, Shen Tianyang sneered sorrowfully twice, pressing close to Feng Tianzhi to gauge his expression and whispered, 'Otherwise, why are you showing off to me with this pile of rubbish?'

Feng Tianzhi himself was an unruly and untamed person, and upon hearing this he immediately pulled a dagger from his waist and stuck it in front of Shen Tianyang.

'Perhaps you think they are a pile of rags. But let me tell you, every medal here represents one of my children, and now that they are dead, I want to find someone to avenge them.'

There was an unquestionable determination in Feng Tianzhi's words, even to the point of determination, and the look he gave Shen Tianyang became a little crazy!

Such a look Shen Tianyang had seen on many desperate people, but what left him speechless was that Feng Tianzhi was not that kind of person!

He was in a high position in Section 13 and had many strong men and generals under him, so why would he draw his sword against himself because of the lives and deaths of a mere thirty people, this was what puzzled Shen Tianyang the most!

After both sides were silent again for a long time, Shen Tianyang raised his hands and said, 'Well, put away your eyes, you have no need to do this at all, right? You know very well what kind of consequences there will be if you kill me.'

After saying this, Shen Tianyang got up and poured himself a cup of coffee, then quietly looked at Feng Tianzhi and continued, 'The point is, you can't kill me yet, so my personal advice is to put your stuff away and get out of my office now.'

Watching Shen Tianyang's movements, Feng Tianzhi took a deep breath before getting up with a cold smile, casually pulling out the dagger stuck on the table and putting it back on himself.

As he walked to the door, he turned his head to look at Shen Tianyang as if he had remembered something and said, 'I didn't come here today to play mad dog with you, but to tell you that when that child Sally comes, war will be declared between us. There is no room for manoeuvre!'

Watching Feng Tianzhi leave his office, Shen Tianyang would be lying to say that he did not have fear in his heart, at this moment, most of the power he had on hand was left overseas. It was simply not a match for Section 13.

More importantly, since he had sent letters to the remaining 34 families asking for help, so far, no more than three people had replied, and among them, the He Dong Shen family had simply refused to help.

This made Shen Tianyang feel a little apprehensive in his heart, regretting why he had not sent more people in the first place. He regretted why he had not sent more people to simply wipe out Sally in the Northern Province!

Shen Tianyang knew that Sally's coming to Chu Jiang could only be considered a trigger between the two sides, what really made him feel afraid was that the other side still had such an ace in their hands, Jiang Hao.

It was true that very few people knew about the Shen clan, and even among the thirty-six branches, only the few who were involved were informed.

But once the Thirteen Sects had pulled Jiang Hao out and then declared his identity. And then Shangdian was used as evidence!

Everything would be over, and that's what scares Shen Tianyang the most!

Looking at the window  at the darkening sky, just like his own heart, at this time Shen Tianyang felt the threat from the weak for the first time!

After a moment of quiet contemplation, he took out his mobile phone and began to use his power overseas, trying to accumulate as much power for himself as he could while the thirteen sections had not yet begun their blockade.

Just as he was sitting on these matters, Sally, who had just arrived in Chujiang, was looking at Feng Tianzhi, who was standing in front of her, with a smile on her face.

‘Eldest uncle, it’s been a long time since I’ve seen you, you still have an aura of rejecting people, which makes me not close to you.’

Feng Tianzhi’s face was grim as he looked at Sally and nodded before turning around and opening the car door to sit inside.

Only after Sally got into the car did she say in a deep voice, ‘Did that little brat, Old Black, not follow you back this time?’

Sally shook her head gently. It wasn’t that far from Beifu to Chujiang, but she hadn’t slept too well on the plane.

‘The situation in Beifu is more stable now, so I’ve left the big picture to Old Black in charge. Also there’s a man called Ning Kun under Third Uncle that I’ve commandeered, he won’t have any problem with that, right?’

When Feng Tianzhi heard this, he shook his head and said, ‘That’s fine. You can use it if you want, does the little princess of Section 13 still need to make a report on what she wants to use.’

After taking a deep breath, Feng Tianzhi remembered what happened when he went to see Shen Tianyang today. So in a deep voice, he continued, ‘I have already spoken to Shen Tianyang and will declare war with him as soon as you return, are you ready for it?’

With the existing strength of Section 13, they could indeed gain the upper hand at this time and press Shen Tianyang tightly.

However, if time dragged on, the consequences would be hard to predict, especially since Sally had already learnt something from Section Three when she was on her way back.

‘Forget it, this matter will wait for now, Shen Tianyang has used Shen Wennian’s death and the matter of the Shen family in the Northern Province to ask for help from the other families, we must wait for some time to see their attitude.’

Speaking of this, Sally moved her neck slightly to look at Feng Tianzhi and smiled, ‘So, before that, let’s clean up some internal debris, to be honest I’m really disgusted with those who eat their strength!’

Chapter 875

News of Sally’s arrival in Chu Jiang flew everywhere at once as if on wings, and for the next while Sally pulled off a bloody clean sweep.

For a while. Everyone in the former Chu Jiang branch felt a little self-conscious, afraid of being caught up in the ripples!

Old Black, who was in the Northern Province, looked at the internal tip-offs in his hand and was a little worried about Sally's sudden change in character. He had always been worried that Sally would be affected by what happened on the Northern Province side.

After going to Chu Jiang. If this suppressed mindset exploded out, the consequences would be horrific!

Ning Kun was clearly aware of this as well. Sitting on the sofa, he looked at the internal report in his hand and said with a somewhat helpless smile, 'It looks like Old Chief is really angry this time, this is the first time I've seen Old Chief look like this!'

Old Black glanced lightly at Ning Kun before saying helplessly, 'You think that's scary? No, what I'm worried about is that this might just be the beginning.'

They had already done some calculations on Chujiang half a year ago, Shen Tianyang had corrupted quite a few of their people in Chujiang, and if they wanted to take back control of Chujiang again, they would inevitably have to start a big battle.

However, it seems that while Sally is in the midst of an intense purge, Shen Tianyang is not doing anything.

It was because of this situation that Old Black was a bit worried about Sally's safety, after all, an old fox like Shen Tianyang. Surely he wouldn't do something useless.

Ning Kun looked at Old Black and smiled, he knew what Old Black was worried about, so he spoke softly, 'Just put your heart in your stomach, that place headquarters in Chujiang isn't very far away, they will cooperate with Old Chief.'

After saying this, he continued somewhat helplessly, 'Instead of caring about the old boss's side of things, why don't you care about when Jiang Hao and I will go to Hedong?'

The mission for Ning Kun and Jiang Hao to go to Hedong had been drawn up by Sally before, in order to find out what kind of formation the Hedong Shen family was in.

If the He Dong Shen family was biased towards Shen Tianyang, then they would have to find a way to use Jiang Hao to bring the other side in.

This is why Jiang Hao also wanted to go over there, apart from the fact that he wanted to see if the He Dong Shen family was involved in the incident back then. There was also a more important reason to make use of Jiang Hao's identity to do something.

Thinking of this, Old Black looked at Ning Kun for a moment in silence before speaking, 'I have almost arranged for you to go to Hedong, wait for a few more days and someone will come to pick you up, just follow him when the time comes.'

Ning Kun looked at Old Black in a somewhat strange manner and said, 'Isn't he from the Xue family? Earlier, Old Master said that he would use the Xue family's connections to get through to the East of the river.'

For some reason, a bitter smile appeared on Old Black's face when he heard about the Xue family, such a look Ning Kun rarely found on Old Black's face.

Perhaps since he had taken this position, many things had shifted. Many of the people who used to fear Sally didn't really fear Old Black.

All in the face of something, even if it was easy to do. It also made Old Black feel a bit tired.

Inside the office Old Black looked at Ning Kun in silence for a long time before opening his mouth and smiling, 'It's fine, I will send you and Jiang Hao to Hedong anyway, if you need anything next, you can just contact me again.'

Hearing these words. Ning Kun shrugged and got up and left Old Black's office, walking to the back garden of the villa to quietly watch Jiang Hao take Lin Yan for rehab.

He didn't know what methods Jiang Hao had used, but since he had attached Lin Yan's arm, she had been able to move it slightly for some time.

Perhaps it was because he was worried that Jiang Hao would feel guilty and blame himself. No matter how painful the treatment was, Lin Yan still had a smile on her face, as if she couldn't feel it at all.

At this time, Jiang Hao helped Lin Yan walk around the back garden, occasionally letting her reach out and grab a little something to exercise the agility of her arms, and gradually let go of her heavy heart.

Some days when Jiang Hao remembered what had happened that day, he felt a pang of fear in his heart.

If he had arrived a little later. If Ning Kun and Old Black's support had been a little later, Lin Yan was afraid that all she would have faced would have been death.

Every time he thought of this. Jiang Hao's eyes would flash a hint of a different colour when he looked at Lin Yan.

After walking with Lin Yan for a while, he spoke quietly, 'There's something I'd like to ask you. When you first saw that Sally was in danger, why did you rush out without even thinking about it.'

Perhaps it was because Jiang Hao's words had evoked Lin Yan's experience of that day. Her face instantly turned a little pale.

After noticing this Jiang Hao hurriedly spoke up, 'Sorry, I didn't mean to make you uncomfortable, I was just a little curious as to what you were thinking at the time.'

Not to mention Zhao Tianzhong's strength over with Chen Shilong, just a Shen Wennian alone, Lin Yan should have known that this matter was something she couldn't get involved in at all, yet she had just rushed up.

Thinking of this, not only Jiang Hao, but even Lin Yan herself felt that she must have taken the wrong medicine at that time!

So Sally, who had come to her senses, let out a bitter laugh and said, 'I don't know, maybe I was confused at the time, so I didn't care about anything and rushed up.'

Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan and shook his head in silence before a bitter smile appeared on his face.

'I'm going to go to Hedong soon, I guess we won't see each other again for a long time, you must take good care of yourself, understand?'

Hearing Jiang Hao's words, a complex look surfaced on Lin Yan's face.

She knew that sooner or later she and Jiang Hao would have the day to part, she just didn't expect this day to come so quickly.

After taking a deep breath, Lin Yan stopped standing in place and looked down at the ground.

'Perhaps it will be a joke to you to say this, from a long time ago I was imagining that when I was in danger, a prince on a white horse would stand up for me.'

Lin Yan raised her head and turned to look at Jiang Hao, tears welling up in her eyes at some point.

'Thank you for fulfilling my fantasy that day, only, I didn't expect that a prince would stand up for me, but it wasn't the prince that belonged to me.'

After saying these words, Lin Yan bowed her head and ran away.

Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan's back but didn't even have the courage to chase after her, he just stood in place and sighed softly.

Ning Kun, who was watching this scene from afar, shook his head and then walked up to Jiang Hao and stopped him by the shoulder, 'Some days I envy you, but some days I hate you, know why?'

Jiang Hao turned his head and looked at Ning Kun helplessly, then shrugged his shoulders and said, 'I know you have nothing good to say, so shut up.'

Ning Kun skimmed his mouth before saying in a deep voice: 'Old Black's side has notified us that they are ready to leave for Hedong to make contact with the Hedong Shen family in the next two days, so you'd better get ready early!'

Chapter 876

After three days had passed, Old Black called for Jiang Hao and Ning Kun, then one of them gave an envelope and spoke, 'Here is a little money for you to use on the road.'

Jiang Hao laughed with disdain after hearing this, 'I may not have anything else. But something like money, do you think I would have less?'

Ning Kun gave Jiang Hao a somewhat helpless blank look, then opened the envelope and poured out forty gold coins from inside.

'What do you know, you kid, don't think you're so powerful like that. You've only just stepped into this circle, there's still a lot of things you don't know!'

Hearing these words. Jiang Hao opened the envelope and took out a gold coin and looked at it carefully, only to see that it was beautifully engraved with a flower pattern and a mysterious string of numbers.

Old Black looked at Jiang Hao and smiled faintly before speaking, 'These gold coins are not just any gold coins, with it, you will be able to enter some places you normally can't enter, and you will also be able to contact some people you normally can't contact.'

After hearing this, Ning Kun interjected, 'And don't underestimate this gold coin, just one gold coin like this represents a whole 200,000 in the underground world.'

After saying this, Ning Kun surveyed his envelope and spoke, 'It looks like you have some lack of confidence in us, giving so much. Did the old boss specifically order this?'

Old Black shrugged at his words before speaking, 'Not really, some of these gold coins belong to Jiang Hao originally, the other part is for special use, after all, that place in Hedong, you know.'

After saying this, Old Black looked at Jiang Hao with some gravity and spoke, 'Since you're leaving today, do you want to go say goodbye to Lin Yan?'

Jiang Hao thought for a moment and shook his head, a lot of things had already been said before, so going over it again now would only add to the troubles.

Ning Kun looked at Jiang Hao's somewhat gloomy appearance. After a deep sigh, he reached out and patted Jiang Hao on the shoulder.

'It's better not to look at it, it will be more difficult to look at it, I still understand a few of the feelings you are feeling right now.'

After saying this, Ning Kun looked at Old Black and spoke, 'Since we've been given this thing, are we going to set off now?'

Old Black nodded in silence and walked Jiang Hao and Ning Kun to the villa's main gate, where a slightly battered truck was quietly waiting.

The driver looked as if he was an unusual old man who didn't look at anyone.

Jiang Hao looked at the other man with some curiosity for a few moments. It seemed to be noticed by him, so he turned his head to look at Jiang Hao.

It was at this moment that he was surprised to find out. This driver actually only had one eye, and the other all the time eye was empty of anything!

Ning Kun looked at the other party but looked as normal and gestured two times, then looked at Old Black and spoke, 'Didn't you say before that the Xue family would be in charge, why did you call Old Hat over this time?'

Hearing this, Old Black shook his head helplessly. If the Xue family's side wasn't a bit difficult to get around, why would he bother using this old man.

After shaking his head in silence, he glanced at Ning Kun and Jiang Hao somewhat helplessly.

Then he said in a deep voice: 'You must be careful in everything when you go to Hedong this time. Hedong is not like the Northern Province, it is a city of sin.'

Jiang Hao and Ning Kun looked at each other and then looked at Old Black and nodded, then they climbed into the truck.

Only after Old Black watched the two gradually walk away did he say in a deep voice, 'Come out, Miss Lin, they've gone.'

Dragging her arm, which was still a little inconvenient, Lin Yan slowly walked out from the corner and then stood side by side with Old Black.

'Since you can't let go. Why didn't you come out and talk to him earlier, why did you have to be like this now. Wouldn't you make it hard for yourself.'

Lin Yan even laughed bitterly twice after hearing this, why wouldn't she understand. It was just that Jiang Hao's identity was no longer a secret, the old man of the Lin family had already called and told her about it.

And most importantly. She had also learnt from her own grandfather what Jiang Hao was carrying, so she had no reason to speak up to stop it.

Looking in the direction where Jiang Hao had disappeared, Lin Yan was silent for a long time before she spoke, 'Will he be in danger?'

Old Hei shook his head at his words, then lit himself a cigarette and said, 'Danger is just a common occurrence, you should trust them.'

After saying this, Old Black turned his head to look at Lin Yan's face with a somewhat sad look and smiled, 'Well, there is still a little bit about you here, to help him, you also have to work hard.'

When Lin Yan heard this she turned her head and looked at Old Black a little strangely, a blush flashing unconsciously across her face.

At this moment, on the somewhat dilapidated truck, Jiang Hao looked at Ning Kun with a puzzled expression seemingly still a bit confused about the current situation.

Although Hedong was a somewhat dangerous city, but it was not so special that even the tools to get there were so special, right?

Jiang Hao couldn't help but roll his eyes as he watched the truck in disrepair, worried that it would stall out halfway!

As if sensing what was on Jiang Hao's mind, Ning Kun closed his eyes without looking at him and said, 'Are you thinking about how we're going to get to Hedong?'

Jiang Hao knew that his mind had been broken by Ning Kun, so he spoke in a good-natured manner, 'Of course, are we really going to the East in this thing? Give me a break, that would take forever.'

Hearing this, Ning Kun couldn't help but laugh out loud, lying inside the bucket and looking up at the sky, he laughed, 'You'll know later, Old Cap is just a shuttle, we have to go to another place before going to Hedong.'

Hearing this, Jiang Hao looked at Ning Kun in a somewhat strange manner and asked, 'To what place?'

Ning Kun was about to speak when suddenly the car stopped, he closed his eyes and listened carefully for a moment before saying, 'The place we are going to is here, get off.'

With these words, Ning Kun jumped out of the car, Jiang Hao surveyed the surroundings, only to see that they were parked in a somewhat dilapidated street.

The people around them were dressed in strange clothes and were staring at them with a bit of mischief in their eyes.

After Jiang Hao got down from the car, he smelled the air as if there was a faint smell of decay.

So he frowned and asked, 'What is this place, are we still in the Northern Province?'

Ning Kun smiled and glanced at Jiang Hao before saying, 'Of course, this is a black street in the lower part of the Northern Province, we need to do some formalities here before we can go to the East of the River, we need Old Hat to take care of all this for us.'

After saying this, the one-eyed Old Hat hunched over, and then extended his hands to Jiang Hao and Ning Kun respectively.

Ning Kun took out a gold coin from the envelope and handed it to Old Hat, while Jiang Hao followed suit and took a gold coin and handed it to Old Hat.

The driver, Old Hat, smiled and then turned to leave, while Jiang Hao could not help but wonder and said, 'This went for 400,000?'
