

Super Rich Dad Chapter 877-878

Chapter 877

Ning Kun looked at Jiang Hao's surprised expression and smiled, then pointed at Old Cap's back and spoke, 'What makes you think he can control the route to the east of the river as well as the Xue family?'

After saying this, Ning Kun's face looked a little strange.

'To tell you the truth, that city in the east of the river is not like our northern capital, you know that, and the crime rate there is always high. To put it de thoroughly, it's a city of sin.'

Jiang Hao still knew about this matter, as it was something Old Black had told him before.

Hearing Ning Kun mention it again, he was curious and said, 'If that's the case, why haven't you been governing Hedong?'

Looking at the puzzled look on Jiang Hao's face. Ning Kun couldn't help but smile a little to himself.

'That city even if we wanted to govern it, that would only be possible if they were willing, the point is that they themselves have all gotten used to living like that.'

It's perhaps a bit ridiculous to say that. There are many people who have lived in prison for decades, and if they were suddenly given freedom, they would feel a little less used to it.

Even if the other person is released, he will still find a way to go back again, thinking that it is his home.

He Dong is such a city, and the people inside that city are so used to that kind of life that if one day it does get better, they will instead question whether something worse is going to happen!

This is perhaps a kind of sadness, after they have already experienced worse things, they will no longer think about the future.

Thinking of this, Ning Kun gently shook his head and spoke, 'Maybe it's because that city is beyond redemption, fortunately there is still the He Dong Shen family, they are considered the only arbitration in the area.'

Previously, Jiang Hao had learned something about the Hedong Shen Family from the information Sally had given him, and from the information on it, it looked as if the Hedong Shen Family was the local arbitration body.

No matter what was going on. They would set aside manpower specifically to settle disputes for some people.

I remembered that when Jiang Hao first saw this, he had laughed and said that the Shen Clan was trying to better control Hedong, but it turned out that he had never thought that he would let his own men become the arbiters of Hedong!

Thinking about it at the moment, Jiang Hao smiled lightly and spoke, 'Perhaps this is also considered a misadventure, a good thing of sorts.'

Ning Kun nodded in agreement, without the existence of the Shen family, I'm afraid that at this point in time, Hedong would be even more rotten, and it would be questionable whether it could even continue to exist!

While the two of them were pondering, Old Man came over with two small notebooks in his hand and handed one to Jiang Hao and Ning Kun.

Ning Kun looked at Old Cap and smiled before speaking, 'To be honest, you should go and wear a blindfold, otherwise I'm afraid everyone in your car would be thinking about jumping out.'

It wasn't really a joke, nor was it humorous, but Old Cap looked at Ning Kun and nodded with a smile, somewhat confused as to what he was thinking.

Jiang Hao gave Ning Kun a strange look in his eyes. Only when Old Hat returned to the driver's seat to start the truck did he speak up, 'I don't think making fun of people's disabilities is considered a good thing.'

Ning Kun froze for a moment at those words, then burst out laughing, pointing at Jiang Hao and laughing a little out of breath.

'Hahahaha, you, are you kid taking pity on him, I'm telling you, if he finds out, you won't even want to ride this car again!'

Looking at Jiang Hao's somewhat confused look, Ning Kun casually lit himself a cigarette before taking a deep drag.

'Which eye of Old Cap was actually dug out by himself, to talk about this matter, it's a bit far away.'

Jiang Hao looked at Ning Kun's complicated expression. Somewhat curiously, he said, 'Anyway, there's nothing going on right now, so you can tell me about it.'

Hearing this, Ning Kun pondered for a moment before nodding his head. With the melody of the worn out truck bumping along, he slowly spoke up.

'It was about three years ago, at that time I was still in school and hadn't come out, the place where I arranged my internship was in Hedong, I've told you about this matter, you should know.'

Seeing Jiang Hao look at himself and nod, Ning Kun lightly exhaled a mouthful of green smoke and continued, 'Old Cap had been running this line for over ten years at that time. It was also the time he sent me to Hedong that his eyes went blind.'

Jiang Hao heard this and spoke with some curiosity, 'How did his eyes go blind?'

'Because he saw something he shouldn't have seen and met someone he shouldn't have met, and that was a famous tiger in Hedong, named Yu Shaobai, the young master of the Hedong Qinghe Society.'

Jiang Hao had previously been in Chujiang and wasn't very aware of the Qinghe Society. But as long as one followed the direction of the east of the river, there wasn't a single person who didn't know about the Qinghe Society.

They had been established for about thirty years and had about twenty thousand people under them, so they could be called a single-handed force in the east of the river.

That time when Old Hat was sending Ning Kun to Hedong, he accidentally bumped into Yu Shaobai, the then Young Master of the Qinghe Society, and ended up not recognising him.

Yu Shaobai said at that time that since this pair of eyes could not see the person, what was the use of keeping them.

After hearing this, Old Hat was also a ruthless person and put his hand on his own eye socket and snapped it out hard for himself, then offered both hands to Yu Shaobai.

Originally, Yu Shaobai wanted a pair of Ning Kun's strokes, but it was Old Cap who gritted his teeth and begged for mercy, saying that Ning Kun was not a member of their circle. He was also coming to Hedong for the first time, so he was saved.

Although he was missing an eye, after this incident. Anyone who is on the road in Hedong will have to give Old Hat some face.

The reason is that when Yu Shaobai left, he said that since Old Cap had given him a gift, he would have to take care of him. Then he had to take care of a few points.

Although it may seem to some that Yu Shaobai is a man of the world, in reality, it's just a game of stick in one hand and carrot in the other!

After saying these things. Ning Kun turned his head to Jiang Hao and smiled: 'If you stay in Hedong, others can not know each other, but this Yu Shaobai and the Qinghe Society must remember well, or get into trouble, I can not protect.'

Jiang Hao heard this face look a little angry and spoke: 'Thirteen sections do not also have branches in the East of the river, do not just watch each other so arrogant!'

Ning Kun gave Jiang Hao a cold look, the situation in Hedong was so complicated that they could not find a reason to intervene in some matters even if they wanted to.

Moreover, the people there had a common problem, that was xenophobia, extreme xenophobia, which was why Old Hat had to take them on a trip to the Black Street before sending them to Hedong.

This was to get them an identity card similar to the one used for Hedong, so that as soon as people took a look at them, they would know that they were considered Hedong people!

Even though a place like that is almost like a rubbish graveyard, for some people, it's considered a dream paradise!

At River East, as long as you have the strength, you can try out for whatever position you are in.

They don't look at what you've been through before or who you are, they only care if you have the strength to lead people to riches!

Hedong has a separate economic system, they are more often than not like the ancient times of long ago. It's all about bartering.

Only when faced with doing business with the outside would they use money, but that doesn't mean that Hedong is a barren place.

It's funny to say that even though that city is hopelessly rotten, the money that flows out of it every year is definitely not much less than any other city!

While this surprised many people, it couldn't help but attract the attention of some people at the top. They were looking at Hedong as if it was a land of dreams!

Perhaps it was also because of this that more people went to Hedong to explore, and the people of Hedong slowly became somewhat xenophobic.

Thinking about this. Ning Kun took a deep breath before looking at Jiang Hao and spoke, 'You actually have only one purpose in going to Hedong this time, and that is to contact the Hedong Shen Family and investigate their intentions.'

Jiang Hao nodded before saying in a deep voice, 'I understand, but before that, I would like to meet this Qinghe Society first, including that Yu Shaobai.'

'I won't worry about the others, but if you want to meet with Yu Shaobai, then I advise you to put out that idea, the other party is not someone you can afford to pang right now.'

Although he said that, but looking at Jiang Hao's body injury seems to be almost well, so he smiled badly and opened his mouth, 'Why don't you pretend to be my bodyguard, so that Yu Shaobai might make contact with us.'

Ning Kun was not wrong in saying this, no matter how rich and powerful a person was, there were not many who could recruit de to a level four martial artist.

First and second level martial artists were the least valuable, as their level was extremely somewhat difficult to get started with though. But with a little training, the other could rival a second tier!

And a third level martial artist is like a watershed, if you are short of money you can spend a little is on with Yu Shao Bai, he won't come to you when he has nothing to do.

By the time since you have to be taken care of by the other side, then not a word when Yu Shaobai wishes!

It's like being a tenant in general, the landlord will waive your rent, equal at the time, and you have to step up when he needs it.

Not knowing what had occurred to him, Ning Kun jerked up from the car then looked at the road they had come from and frowned in contemplation.

Seeing this, Jiang Hao spoke in a strange manner, 'What's wrong, did you forget something you didn't take?'

When Ning Kun heard this he hurriedly nodded and said in a deep voice: 'I have a chest containing the kind of armor we wear for the beast guards, it's the best protection we have!'

Jiang Hao sent a box out from under his body, then tossed it to Ning Kun with his eyes closed and said in a deep voice: 'You think I'm as stupid as you are, such important things. How could I possibly forget to take it!'

Just after saying these words, Jiang Hao looked at Ning Kun and couldn't help but fall into silence.

Not to mention whether the Hedong Shen family would be on their side, just by the way they had come, Hedong was not a good place to be.

Even someone like Ning Kun, who had been lurking in Section 13 for so long, was worried that he would be slaughtered, which was why he carried such strong defensive armour with him.

Thinking of this, a worrying thought rose in Jiang Hao's heart about this trip to the east of the river.

At the time when Jiang Hao was preparing to leave for Hedong, Sally was sitting quietly in front of Shen Tianyang in Chujiang City.

The two were only meeting for the first time, but they knew from each other that they had already had their hands on each other in private for who knows how many times!

The funny thing is. Neither Sally nor Shen Tianyang had put each other in their eyes.

To Sally, Shen Tianyang was just by virtue of her brain. That was why you hadn't been able to find her place.

But at this time, looking at the woman who was sitting in front of him smiling, Shen Tianyang sneered twice before speaking, 'The other day your eldest uncle just left, I didn't expect you to come again, it looks like you are bullying people!'

Sally looked at Shen Tianyang and smiled strangely, then reached out and played with the pen in her hand and said absentmindedly, 'No, no, no. I just came here today to say hello to you.'

After saying this, Sally's eyes looked at Shen Tianyang with great aggression.

'Perhaps my eldest uncle told you the other day that as soon as I appeared in Chu Jiang, then it would mean that our two sides are officially at war.'

Looking at the calm and collected look on Shen Tianyang's face, Sally gave a secret praise in her heart and laughed, 'If eldest uncle he didn't tell you, then I will inform you again now.'

Just as Sally was sizing up Shen Tianyang. Shen Tianyang was likewise sizing up Sally.

Both sides were like two beasts locked in a cage, both of them already feeling hungry and thirsty for something to fill their stomachs.

To Shen Tianyang, if he could swallow Sally in one bite, the benefits would be simply amazing!

But considering Sally's identity, Shen Tianyang was a bit wary, God knows if that group of madmen who were thinking of saving the world would turn against him over this matter!

After all, it wasn't like they hadn't done something like this before, even the retaliatory action against him some time ago had already made Shen Tianyang a bit overwhelmed!

Thinking of this, Shen Tianyang closed his eyes and pondered for a moment before looking at Sally and smiling, 'Well then, let's stop chatting and get down to business.'

Speaking of which. He lit himself a cigar and then looked at Sally with a sardonic smile, 'Let's start with your eldest uncle, who came over here and declared war on me without knowing anything. I'm very bitter about this matter!'

No matter how famous Chen Shilong and Zhao Tianzhong had been under Shen Tianyang before, Shen Tianyang had to deny that he had two such men.

Otherwise, when the time came, they would give Sally the reason to send this war. Their side wouldn't even have the most basic preparations yet!

Looking at Shen Tianyang's office, Sally opened her mouth somewhat helplessly to advise: 'You'd better think it over, this is Chujiang after all. And it's still inland, you can't fight us.'

At this moment, the words that Sally said were more like a provocation to Shen Tianyang than advice or persuasion!

He looked at Sally for a long time in silence before coming back to his senses, then laughed loudly and spoke, 'Girl, do you really know what I want to get? Or do you think I see you your family so much?'

After saying this, Shen Tianyang got up and faced the window, quietly looking at the skyscrapers outside.

'Many years ago I said that sooner or later, the Shen clan will have to sink before me, have you heard that?'
