

Super Rich Dad Chapter 891-892

Chapter 891

After hearing the waiter's words, Ning Kun looked at the other party with a slight smile and said, 'Arrange a private room for me, I'm waiting for a few friends.'

Jiang Hao saw a complicated smile on the waiter's face, then nodded and led Ning Kun and him inside the cafe.

Then after escorting them into a private room. She pressed on the wall again, and a combination lock appeared on the wall.

Immediately after she pressed the combination lock, the entire wall split in two, revealing the inside.

Ning Kun walked behind the attendant and nodded with some satisfaction at this scene: 'It looks like you guys aren't useless in Hedong. At least this stronghold is still quite exquisitely made.'

The attendant smiled slightly before taking off the overalls he was wearing, then turned and saluted Ning Kun.

'Li Miao, a member of the third group from Hedong, reports to you.'

Jiang Hao looked at the woman with a faint smile on her face. He couldn't help but speak a little strangely, 'Didn't I say there were many people in River East, why are you the only one here?'

Li Miao glanced at Jiang Hao, a look of confusion flashing across her eyes as if she was wondering who he was.

Ning Kun casually sat on a chair and smiled before speaking, 'This is Ning Kun, the person who came to Hedong with me this time, he is the only bloodline left from the Shen clan, you should get to know him.'

After hearing Jiang Hao's identity, the woman hurriedly saluted Jiang Hao as well and said, 'Sorry, I might have been a bit rude just now.'

Jiang Hao waved his hand and glanced at Ning Kun somewhat awkwardly before smiling at Li Miao and saying, 'It's okay, it's okay. But are you the only one here?'

Li Miao gestured for Jiang Hao to sit down before following suit, then took out the remote control and with a press, several screens rose up from the table.

'This is only the stronghold in the south of the city, although the north and west of the city are a bit troublesome, we have established ourselves there as well.'

As he said this the screens rising from the table suddenly lit up and the lights in the room dimmed at the same time.

'Greetings, I am the head of the north stronghold of River East City, Chu He.'

‘It is an honour to meet you, I am the head of the west branch of the city. Liu Zu.’

A man and a woman were sizing each other up as much as Ning Kun while they were across the screen, after all, they would be working together for a long time to come, no one wanted their boss to be a brainiac.

Ning Kun nodded quite satisfactorily after sizing them up: ‘It looks like you guys still have certain requirements for yourselves despite being in such a working environment, which makes me feel satisfied.’

After hearing these words from Ning Kun, several of the heads of the stronghold all smiled.

Jiang Hao sat on the side and watched them with some boredom, if it wasn’t for the fact that he had come with Ning Kun. If it wasn’t for the fact that he had come with Ning Kun, he might not even have been able to get in here.

Just as Jiang Hao was getting bored, Ning Kun distilled his clothes and then said, ‘Please report on the situation in your respective strongholds.’

Li Miao listened and spoke first, ‘The situation in the south of the city is a little better. But it’s not much better, we have a total of fifteen people in the operation team and thirty people in the intelligence team in the south of the city, so our money is fine for now.’

After hearing this Ning Kun nodded in satisfaction. After all, Hedong was not like the Northern Province or Chu Jiang, it was already not easy to have such a force, and this was only one branch.

He then looked at Liu Zu, the head of the west branch of the city, who was wearing a pair of glasses on the screen. He looked svelte and civilised.

If it wasn’t for the meaningful light that emerged from his eyes from time to time, it would be easy to give the illusion that this guy was just a gentleman who reads books.

‘The situation on the west side of the city is basically the same, ten people in the action group and thirty in the intelligence group, because last time there was a mission, the action group sacrificed three people.’

After saying this, Liu Zu took off his glasses and bowed his head in silence for three seconds, and even Ning Kun’s mood became a little heavier.

He then let out a light sigh and roared, ‘It’s alright. I believe their spirits in heaven will rest in peace when they know what we did.’

Chu He from the north branch of the city seemed to be a somewhat shrewd man. He smiled slightly at Ning Kun before slowly saying, ‘The situation in the northern part of the city is a bit complicated, so I will submit the details to you in written form by Li Miao later.’

After hearing this, Ning Kun looked towards Chu He and nodded. Then he glanced at Li Miao, the only woman among the three people in charge of the east of the city.

They were all about the same age as each other, so Ning Kun became a little more casual.

After coughing lightly, he looked at the three of them and said, 'This time, the headquarters sent me over for two things. The first thing is to arrange for me to make contact with the He Dong Shen family, so if any of you can help with this, say something.'

Hearing this, Li Miao fell into deep thought and said, 'The Shen family lives in the east of the city, but their people come to the south of the city every day to make purchases and generally do not stay much longer.'

Hearing this, Jiang Hao said with a little doubt, 'Can't we do something from the people they buy from, we have to think of a way, right?'

Ning Kun glanced at Jiang Hao, with a hint of blame in his eyes, but he didn't understand what was going on here, so if he spoke up rashly, he would easily offend the people here.

Fortunately, Li Miao only smiled when he heard Jiang Hao's words, and did not feel offended.

I don't know if it was Jiang Hao's illusion, but he always felt as if Li Miao had a special kindness towards himself ever since he knew he was the only bloodline left behind by the Shen clan.

'You might not understand a bit, the people sent out by the Shen Clan to make purchases are all the same person for a long time, if anything happens to him, not to mention you trying to reach the Shen Clan, even trying to stay in the Northern Province would be a problem.'

Liu Zu lifted his glasses after saying this, then calmly looked at Ning Kun and spoke, 'If you really want to find a way to make contact with the Shen family, I may be able to provide a channel here.'

Ning Kun nodded before speaking, 'Tell us about it, if it works we'll try, because someone at headquarters is starting to take on the overseas Shen family, Shen Tianyang, and they're a little worried about the reaction from the Shendong family's side.'

Hearing that someone at headquarters had started to make a move against the overseas Shen family Shen Tianyang, a brilliant light flashed in Liu Zu's eyes, but he did not open his mouth to ask.

Instead, he said directly, 'Although the Hedong Shen Family appears to be slightly cleaner on the surface, they actually have their own black industries in private, and it just so happens that I know some people in the north of the city, so I can arrange for people to go in and slowly work their way up.'

Ning Kun took a deep breath before smiling bitterly, 'Such a method might be good if used to plant a nail, but we need one that is slightly faster.'

After Chu He looked at the crowd present, there seemed to be some hesitation in his expression.

After Jiang Hao saw this scene, he cautiously spoke up, 'Mr. Chu He Chu, is there any way you can talk about it?'

Chu He looked at Li Miao and then at the indifferent Liu Zu before speaking cautiously, 'Perhaps there is something we have forgotten. Isn't there a young master from the Shen family who is studying at your school in the south of the city, why don't we start with that?'

Hearing this, Ning Kun was silent for a moment and then fell into deep thought.

To be honest he did not want to involve the child in these matters. But considering the importance of the matter, Ning Kun spoke after a moment of silence, 'Whose child is it. How old is he, do you have any information in your hand?'

A smile appeared on Chu He's face after he nodded slightly, 'This Shen family doesn't know if they are big-hearted, or if they simply don't worry about being targeted, they haven't hidden any information about their child.'

As he said this, he took out a document from his desktop and then opened it and uploaded it to the projector.

Looking at the photo of the boy with somewhat cold eyes, but handsome looking, about fifteen or sixteen years old.

Chu He slowly spoke, 'This boy is called Shen Qingzhi, aged sixteen, and is the son of the eldest of the three Shen family members. The mother is called Zhen Suqin, the daughter of the leader of a small local gang in Hedong.'

Ning Kun was silent for a moment after hearing this, then he turned his head to Jiang Hao and whispered, 'Now you have two ways, one way is to go follow Yu Shaobai and then find an opportunity to make contact with the Shen family.'

Jiang Hao glanced at Ning Kun somewhat helplessly before saying in a deep voice, 'Then what's the second way?'

A mysterious smile appeared on Ning Kun's face before he pointed at the cold-faced boy on the projection screen and said, 'The second way is for you to become a teacher for this bearish boy and then find an opportunity to make contact with the Shen family, one of the two options, what do you think?'

Jiang Hao couldn't help but exclaim with some surprise when he heard this, 'What? Let me be a teacher for this bear? Are you sure you're not joking?'

Li Miao and Chu He laughed out loud when they heard this, and even the corners of Liu Zu's mouth, who had a face that was used to being indifferent, twitched. Sort of laughing!

Li Miao sat on the side, laughing while looking at Jiang Hao after sizing him up for a while and spoke, 'I think this thing can work, it just so happens that a physical education teacher from your school in the south of the city passed away after accidentally running into a gun battle on his way home, they are in need of a good teacher.'

Liu Zu raised his glasses and then looked at Jiang Hao and said, 'I think it's not a bad idea, this is the best way to reduce unnecessary actions.'

Chu He laughed out loud twice and smiled at Jiang Hao, 'Young man, don't say I didn't give you a hand, the students in that school are all the children of the bigwigs in the east of the city. If you take care of one or two of them, you'll be able to walk around!'

Jiang Hao looked at them with a sad face and shook his head, 'No! Laozi refuses! Don't even think about such a thing. I'd rather follow Yu Shaobai than face a bunch of bear kids!'

After saying this, Jiang Hao's tone couldn't help but lower his voice before continuing to speak, 'Especially since these bear kids all have an amazing father in Hedong. Maybe I just might have provoked someone!'

Ning Kun coughed lightly to curb the laughter on his face, then coughed lightly to look at Jiang Hao who had some trouble on his face.

'First of all, you should know that this solution is kind of the best, otherwise if you rashly go to the Shen family. I'm afraid the consequence would be being thrown out, which is still considered good.'

Li Miao looked at Jiang Hao after laughing and also followed in a soft comforting voice: 'Actually there's nothing wrong with going over, it's just the PE teacher, it's not like you need to do anything, chances are you won't even have a class, they won't bear on you.'

Jiang Hao looked at Li Miao and then at Ning Kun before taking a deep breath and saying in a deep voice: 'How much is the salary. We have to talk about this first!'

Ning Kun at this time hurriedly raised his head to look at the ceiling, resolutely not saying a word. It was as if he hadn't heard anything!

Li Miao, on the other hand, looked at Jiang Hao after a slight daze, as if he didn't quite understand what he meant by salary.

Jiang Hao sneered twice before pulling your Ning Kun's neck and saying, 'Don't think I don't know. If I do well in school, you can have a few points in the future in Hedong!'

After saying this he looked at Ning Kun with a look of deadly denial and continued to laugh: 'Let's be honest. I'm not going to face a bunch of bear kids for nothing!'

Seeing that he couldn't hide, Ning Kun muttered a bit and complained, 'Obviously you need to get in touch with the bear kids yourself, so why are you asking me for my wages?'

'You give or you don't give!'

'Fine, fine, I'll give it, I'll give it, I'm a billionaire, you still care about a salary of ten thousand dollars a month, cheapskate!'

After seeing Ning Kun promise to pay his salary, Jiang Hao let go of his neck, then after moving his body bones, he said disdainfully, 'A mosquito is still meat, don't come with me.'

Li Miao and the others looked at the way Jiang Hao and Ning Kun were getting along with each other and were silent for a while, waiting for a moment before there was another round of laughter.

Ning Kun's face was slightly red as he glanced at the crowd, then said, 'Alright, alright, stop laughing!'

Li Miao looked at Ning Kun and nodded, then smiled playfully and said, 'Alright, no more laughing, when do you think we should start letting him go to school?'

Ning Kun gritted his teeth and glanced at Jiang Hao before saying in a deep voice, 'Better now! The sooner the better! Let those bear kids at school torture him to death!'

Liu Zu shook his head somewhat helplessly, seemingly thinking that Ning Kun was not very reliable in his actions, so he hung up the video call after a simple greeting.

After watching Ning Kun drop the line, Chu He followed suit and said, 'Well, since you said so, then the rest is none of my business, I'll send the information to you later.'

Ning Kun nodded and watched Chu He also exit the video conference, before looking at Li Miao and smiling, 'See how long it will take for this matter to be implemented.'

Li Miao glanced at his watch before estimating in his mind, 'We have arranged for a few people from the intelligence team at your school in the south of the city, so if it needs to be implemented as soon as possible, it should be ready tomorrow and the day after tomorrow.'

Jiang Hao and Ning Kun looked at each other, and Ning Kun hurriedly spoke up, 'Good, good, the best is to arrange for him to go for an interview tomorrow, and then help him go through the induction procedures as quickly as possible!'

Li Miao glanced at Jiang Hao with some amusement before nodding, 'OK, I'll do this now, next time if there are any instructions, you can just contact me on the phone.'
