Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 891-How fake!

Grandma Bailey was not pleased, but since she was the host, she tried to defend her. "Hand cramps are normal, very normal. Even a prodigy will slip up at some point. Look at this, the flowers are blooming so beautifully.

Let's go and admire the flowers."

Dorothy instantly went forward to help up Grandma Bailey.

Since it was Grandma Bailey, the rest followed her to admire the flowers.

Waverly followed behind Anthony, tense-looking as she did.

everyone else that she could not play the piano!

She was embarrassed. She must make Charmine embarrassed as well!

As she followed behind Anthony, she secretly texted Britney when he was not looking.

[Go with the plan. Make sure nothing goes wrong!]

With that, she admired the flowers with the rest as if nothing was happening.

The flowers bloomed so beautifully as they seemingly glowed in yellow majestically. With Susan's approval of letting anyone pick at the flowers, many men picked it up and tucked it behind their wives' ears.

Susan picked one personally and handed it to Anthony.

"Anthony, don't be so cold. You're an adult now, you should learn to please your fiancee. Come, give this flower to Waverly. I'll help you two take a photo.”

She forced the flower into Anthony's hand.

Anthony looked at Waverly and then at the flower before he...tossed the flower away!

He just tossed it into the bin by the side.

Everyone was dumbfounded. What was Anthony doing? Why did it seem that he was having a fight with Waverly?

Waverly's face stiffened. Anthony was giving her a hard time!

At that moment, Anthony spoke up, 'The flower is too small. How could she have it?"

As he spoke, he personally picked the biggest flower and gradually raised his hand to put it on Waverly's head.

Waverly lowered her head shyly-she misunderstood him after all.

Was Anthony finally willing to do something intimate to her? Progress, at last!

The delighted Susan stood by the side as she took out her phone to capture the gesture.

With these photos, she could surely agitate Charmine!

It came as a surprise, however, when Anthony placed the flower on top of Waverly's head instead. 2

It was placed on the center of her head! 2

Everyone placed it by the ear, a sweet and delicate gesture, but Waverly had a huge flower on top of her head!

She looked like a tasteless village woman!

The people around them burst out laughing at the sight.

“Oh my goodness! He’s so straightforward! He’s a clueless man!”

“Hahaha! Dear me, what a pitiful sight! It’s hilarious!”

Waverly heard the crowd mocking her, and her face stiffened and darkened.

Anthony did this to her on purpose! He did it on purpose! 3

With her stiffened face along with the golden flower on her head, she looked like

she was taking a mugshot. 2

Susan’s hand that was about to capture a photo halted.

This...Waverly was too ugly. She looked worse than the flower! 1

Also, was she planning on just standing stiff? Could she not do anything else?

Waverly remained awkward for a long while before reacting. Noticing Susan’s gaze, she quickly took it down as if it was not a big deal. “Anthony, this isn’t how you put a flower. This is how you should do it.”

As she spoke, she reached out and took the flower from her head, ready to put it by her ear.

All of a sudden, however... "Argh!"

A loud cry resonated in the air.

Waverly staggered a few steps backward and the flower in her hand was thrown a few meters away.

She panicked as if she had seen a ghost. Her heels broke and she fell on the ground ungraciously Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 892-The loud cry attracted everyone's attention.

Everyone turned back to see Waverly falling to the ground.

Her originally beautiful face was filled with panic, and strands of her hair fell out of place. She was in so much shock and did not look elegant at all.

Susan was angry. Waverly was trying to embarrass her!

However, she had to calm herself and support her. She asked, "What happened?"

"Worm...a worm...!" Waverly looked badly shaken, still.

worm on the flower and it wiggled toward her palm. She gradually felt the worm's soft flesh. Disgusting! Utterly disgusting!

Susan's face darkened. She could no longer hold back her fury.

In a wealthy family, even if they had flowers, they would have maids picking out worms by hand every day.

Waverly called out a worm in the flowers she grew, and that was indirectly embarrassing her!

The people admiring the flowers kept some distance from the flowers instantly...

McKenzie walked over. "Ms. Waverly, did you see it clearly? How can there be a worm on the flower? When I came here in the morning, I saw Mrs.

Bailey arranging for the maids to examine all of the flowers."

"But it's there..."

Waverly wanted to speak before she realized something.

If she continued, she would have offended Susan.

She instantly stood up and fixed her composure, quickly saying in a calm tone,

"Right, I saw it wrongly. Indeed, I saw it wrongly."

How would the people believe her?

A few of them laughed. They were no longer picking the flowers, and most of them stopped admiring the flowers.

All of the flowers were imported from Fresno to grow. Before Susan could earn praises from the attendees, Waverly just had to ruin it...

Susan could not stand it any longer. She massaged her temple. "Everyone, do enjoy your stroll and look around. I'll check if the tea is ready."

She left. Thinking of the tea, her face became even darker.

She prepared cakes made with the flowers. They were the finest cakes, yet she was unable to present them.

Waverly was so foolish! So dumb!

Waverly could sense that Susan was unhappy. She was just as furious.

Susan did not take good care of her flowers and terrified her, yet she was blaming her?

Nonetheless, since everyone was looking around freely, she finally had her opportunity!

Anthony also found an excuse to leave.

She walked toward Grandma Bailey and said elegantly, "Grandma, let me walk around with you."

"Okay."

Although Grandma Bailey was not happy, she followed her anyway. 1

Meanwhile, at the Jordan Group...

Charmine was sorting out some matters. She was speeding up the company's globalization.

Since they built traditional buildings in Burlington, they would have to build local traditional buildings in other countries to sell out.

At that moment, her phone rang.

She took out to hear a voice note from Chris that went,

“Mommy! Mommy! Save me!” 4

Charmine frowned. Was Chris in trouble?

She instantly called him, but all she heard was, “Sorry, the number you dialed is unavailable.”

She stood up and marched out. She walked as she called Kay, “Find out Momo’s location within three minutes!”

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 893-With that, she hung up and let Adam take over the company matters she was handling.

She left the company exactly three minutes later.

Kay walked over to report to her, “After investigating the matter, we found that Momo left school. We haven’t found his current address, but we’re certain that the last message was sent out from the Bailey mansion.”

The Bailey mansion?

Charmine frowned. Had Chris gone to the Bailey mansion to look for Anthony?

anything to Chris...

With that in mind, she went inside the car and rushed toward the Bailey mansion, all while she attempted to call Anthony.

He did not pick up.

She had to go ahead alone.

At the same time, Anthony was trying to get away from Waverly. Since Senior Bailey looked for him, he went inside Senior Bailey's meditation room.

The meditation room was a resting space for Senior Bailey. Upon entering, they had to remove all weapons and phones. They had to wash their hands and disinfect their body.

Anthony never got to enter back then, but there he was, sitting on the cushion and meditating with Senior Bailey at that moment.

As long as he could get away from Waverly.

Unable to contact Anthony, Charmine drove toward the Bailey mansion, though she pulled over at a place far away from the mansion.

If she went in just like that, she would be blocked from entering.

Since nobody knew her relationship with Anthony, what would others think if they found out she came all the way for Chris?

She tied up her hair and put on a black mask before leaving the car.

She walked as she phoned Kay, "Locate the final location."

"Radius XXX," Kay reported the exact location.

Charmine hung up. She found an unnoticeable back wall and jumped over with agility.

The backyard that opened up to a mountain was silent, and no one was around.

Noticing a maid was cleaning nearby, Charmine walked over and pricked her, prompting the maid to fall silently to the ground.

She dragged the maid to an unnoticeable rockery before putting on her clothes.

With that, she walked toward the yard.

According to the resource Kay provided, she located a garden by the backyard.

Who would have thought that upon entering the garden, Grandma Bailey had fallen on the ground. Her face was green.

Charmine realized something instantly; it was a trap!

Based on her face, she could tell that Grandma Bailey's life was in trouble!

Although Grandma Bailey was not as easy to her, she was Anthony's grandmother. If anything happened... 1

She had to walk toward her and knelt to examine Grandma Bailey.

When she knelt...

"Grandma Bailey!"

A startling yell was heard.

Swiftly after, ten or so people walked into the yard.

The person calling was Waverly who was walking in front.

With a call, everyone saw Grandma Bailey on the floor and the disguised Charmine kneeling beside her, hand outstretched as if to feel her neck.

'What are you doing?!' barked Susan.

Instantly, she pushed Charmine away and knelt by Grandma Bailey's side.

She reached out anxiously to feel her breathing. When she sensed air coming out, she was more relieved. She called out loudly, “Doctor! Call the doctor! And capture this maid!”

Someone ran away anxiously, while the bodyguards marched toward Charmine.

Seeing that they were approaching her, she had a glint of darkness in her eyes.

Damn Waverly! She trapped her! How could she use Grandma Bailey?

As everyone treated her as the perpetrator, if they realized she was Charmine, things would go down south really bad...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 894-Within a short period of assessment, someone had reached out to grab Charmine’s arm.

Charmine’s body turned away with agility. “Grandma Bailey won’t live past five minutes if nothing’s done to help her!” she snapped.

What?

Would not live past five minutes?

Everyone reeled back in shock.

but you even cursed her? Someone, come here and remove her mask!”

The people surrounded Charmine and were about to grab her.

Charmine merely said, “You don’t have to, I’ll do it myself!”

In front of everyone, she took the initiative to remove her mask.

Her stunning face was shown, calm and cold.

When everyone saw her face, they all gasped instantly.

“Ch...Charmine!”

‘The Jordan Group’s director?’

‘The Jordan Group’s director pretended to be a maid and came in to harm Grandma Bailey?’

The most shocked of all was Susan.

Realization dawned on Susan as she noticed it was Charmine’s voice, no doubt.

She did not recognize it earlier!

Charmine sneaked into the Bailey mansion!

She growled angrily, “Charmine, you’ve gone too far! How can you harm Grandma Bailey? She’s a senior!”

“I knelt beside Grandma Bailey, and you accused me of harming someone? Now you’re carrying Grandma Bailey, you’re the one closest to her. Did you harm her?” scoffed Charmine.

“You...! Don’t try to talk back! You’re in this yard, alone, and dressed as a maid.

You’re ill-intentioned! Someone, come and capture her! Send her to the police!”

Not bothering with talks and reasoning, Susan gave her verdict right away.

At that moment, Grandma Bailey-Still on the ground-had blood flowing out from her nose!

Someone shouted, "Grandma Bailey is bleeding. This... This isn't a good sign!"

"Susan, you must be careful. My senior at home started bleeding and instantly died!"

Susan was horror-stricken to hear them. She called out loudly, "Doctor? Why's the doctor not here?!"

Waverly went forward and knelt by Grandma Bailey to feel her pulse. She examined her eyes.

After a moment, she frowned. "She's suffering from intracranial hypertension accompanied by cerebral hemorrhage, and blood reflux is also produced. If she's not sent to the hospital, she won't live past five minutes, just as Charmine said!"

She emphasized the 'as Charmine said'.

Everyone panicked. Sent to the hospital within five minutes? How was that possible?

Grandma Bailey was in a perilous situation...yet Charmine was able to tell with just one look and even guessed the time accurately?

Everyone looked at Charmine suspiciously.

Susan growled at her, "Charmine, what did you do to Grandma Bailey? How can you be so evil?!"

“You should ask that to Ms. D’Cruz who’s by your side.” Charmine’s eyes landed on Waverly coldly.

“Who was the last person accompanying Grandma Bailey? And who lured you all to come here?”

Charmine’s words were cold and manipulative.

The crowd thought about it. Waverly was accompanying Grandma Bailey for a walk, and she did call out to them and said Grandma Bailey was missing. She was the one who led everyone to start searching for her. 1

Unless...

Waverly remained calm. “I’m the Bailey family’s daughter-in-law. There’s no reason for me to attack Grandma Bailey. Charmine, it’s you. Wasn’t it just a small conflict between you and Grandma Bailey? Why did you have to sneak in to attack her? If we didn’t catch you, you would’ve escaped! And yet you’re still trying to accuse me!?” Her counter was powerful.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 895-Only then did Susan think about it. Waverly had a point.

Grandma Bailey once went to look for Charmine. Other than Anthony, Charmine hated everyone in the Bailey family. 1

She must have thought of ways to kill the Baileys, whoever stopped her from being with Anthony! 1

Since Waverly had the approval of the seniors, why would she attack Grandma Bailey?

“Call the police,” fumed Susan, “call the police right away! Send Charmine to the police station!”

Ten or so bodyguards went toward Charmine.

Abruptly, Grandma Bailey bled even more, and Charmine instantly pushed the bodyguards away, taking out a bag of needles once she did. “Only I can save Grandma Bailey. It’d be too late by the time the doctor comes here!”

“Go away! Are you not tired of harming Grandma Bailey? Are you that raring to want to attack her again? Do you think we can’t do anything to you?” Susan blocked her from getting closer to Grandma Bailey. She said to the bodyguards,

“Are you even trying to keep your job? You can’t even take down a woman!”

“Yes, Madam!”

The bodyguards took out their electric baton from their uniform and waved it at Charmine violently.

Just as about ten bodyguards were about to electrocute her, ten or so men in black jumped over the fence.

In the blink of an eye, it merely took a while before all of the bodyguards fell to the ground.

“Argh!” They moaned painfully.

Everyone watched with disbelief, backing away in fear as they did.

Charmine actually brought so many people over? There were so many of them, all so skilled. Were they filming a spy movie?!

Susan was shocked. Before she could react, Kay and the rest went forward to pull Waverly and Susan by the side.

Soon, the space cleared up.

Kay said to Charmine, "Boss Jordan, please go ahead!"

Instantly, the Gragoul team formed a line and all the heiresses were blocked outside.

No longer met with any obstruction, Charmine marched toward Grandma Bailey and knelt before her.

Blood oozed out of Grandma Bailey's eyes. 1

Her intracranial hypertension had reached an irrepressible state.

She instantly took out silver needles and quickly pricked many spots on Grandma Bailey's head.

There were 19 needles in total, all in an effort to keep her from dying!

Charmine's forehead was glazed with sweat. Whether she could live or not, it depended on Grandma Bailey's own doing.

Obstructed at the side, Susan watched on as needles were pricked onto Grandma Bailey. Her face turned white in terror.

“Charmine, stop! You can’t do this to Grandma Bailey! Murdering is illegal, don’t you know that?!”

She growled as she wanted to rush in, but the bodyguards were strong like a wall. It was impossible to knock them over.

The Baileys bodyguards, meanwhile, still writhed on the floor, unable to get up as they suffered in pain. 1

Waverly had a worried look on her face, though she inwardly scoffed.

Given Grandma Bailey’s current situation, even if Charmine was the best doctor in the world, she would be in great trouble!

As expected, the 19 needles vibrated.

Grandma Bailey’s blood did not stop flowing, and instead, more blood oozed out.

Fresh blood came out from her nose, ears, eyes, and mouth.

She was going to die!

Everyone watched. The timid ones had fainted, while some even cried out in fear, “Murderer! Charmine is a murderer!”

As the crowd slowly spiraled into chaos, steady and powerful footsteps suddenly came toward them.

Everyone looked over and saw Anthony, Darryl, and Senior Bailey marching over.

Seeing that, Susan was more secured. She instantly rushed toward Anthony.

“Anthony, look at her! Look at Charmine! Charmine is attacking your favorite Grandma!”

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 896- Anthony, Darryl, and Senior Bailey looked at the yard.

They saw that Grandma Bailey was on the ground, pricked with needles on her head. Blood oozed almost everywhere.

They also spotted Charmine dressed in a maid’s costume, kneeling by the side.

Overtaken with rage, Darryl roared at the row of bodyguards,

“What are you standing there for? Hurry and capture Charmine! Save Grandma Bailey!” 1

‘These aren’t our bodyguards. They’re all taken down!’ yelled Susan in reply.

It was not until then Darryl noticed that there were bodyguards lying on the ground in pain.

Charmine’s bodyguards, on the other hand, were strong like a wall as if they were warriors in the desert-undefeatable!

His eyelids jumped. Charmine had such powerful bodyguards!

As he gazed at his wife on the ground, Senior Bailey demanded, “Charmine, you let go of her! Hurt me instead, but let go of my wife!”

He stumped his walking stick as he yelled.

Darryl was even more furious. “Look at what an evil woman you’ve brought into your life! If your grandmother is dead, be ready for a lifetime of regret!”

“Go and stop her! Only you can stop her!” Susan pushed him.

The crowd was dumbfounded.

Was Anthony not with Waverly? Why did he have things to do with Charmine?

What did she mean by only Anthony could stop her?

It seemed as if they had realized a secret...

Anthony’s eyes landed on Charmine. She was dressed in a white-and-black maid’s costume. Half-kneeling on the ground, she used a handkerchief to help wipe off the blood from Grandma Bailey.

Her face remained focused as if the noise around her did not exist. In her eyes, there existed only the patient.

Anthony walked toward the row of bodyguards, one step at a time.

When Kay saw him walking over, he frowned.

However, after a moment, he made way for Anthony.

Hmph!

He wanted to see Anthony attacking Charmine. He wanted Charmine to see the kind of person Anthony was!

Even Anthony did not trust her. Why was she insisting on being with Anthony?

Since there were so many people here, Anthony would not be able to harm Charmine.

This time, Boss Jordan would finally snap out of her daze! 1

As everyone watched on, Anthony walked toward Charmine.

The Baileys thought he would attack Charmine while the Gragoul team was ready to protect Charmine.

Waverly's eyes were filled with delight.

Charmine harmed the person Anthony most cared about. Surely, Anthony would not like Charmine anymore!

Which was why it came as a surprise when Anthony, instead, knelt next to Charmine!

He knelt right next to her!

Following that...

He took out the pocket square from his pocket and reached out to help Charmine wipe off the sweat on her forehead.

He was wiping Charmine's sweat!

Everyone was stunned. They remained transfixed as if they saw a ghost.

Charmine fatally harmed Anthony's favorite grandmother, but not only did Anthony not attack her, but he even wiped her sweat?

Kay and his men were ready to pull out their weapons. However, they all remained transfixed on the spot, finding it hard to believe.

Were their eyes tricking them? Why did the complete opposite happen instead?

Only Charmine remained calm. She looked up at Anthony and continued to work on helping Grandma Bailey.

Grandma Bailey had blood coming out from her ears. She had to fix it soon or it would have severe side effects!

Anthony was accompanying her by the side.

She was wiping blood off Grandma Bailey while he wiped off Charmine's sweat.

The Baileys almost exploded with anger.

Susan growled loudly, "Anthony, are you crazy? Don't you even care for your grandmother anymore!?"

"Bad kid! I'll beat you up! I'll beat you up!" Senior Bailey raised his walking stick and launched at the group of bodyguards. 1

Just as his walking stick was about to land on the bodyguards...

"Cough! Cough! Cough!"

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 897- Grandma Bailey suddenly started coughing.

A mouthful of black blood spouted from her mouth as she coughed, though her sickly green face slowly eased for the better. Moreover, the needles on her head no longer vibrated.

The crowd reeled in shock.

Grandma Bailey woke up? She was visibly on the brink of death, yet she managed to regain consciousness?

Also... Charmine was using the needles to save her and not to harm her?

Enter title...

Charmine exhaled deeply in relief. Once she removed the needles on her head, she stood up and said to Anthony, "Grandma Bailey is stable right now, but she'll be weaker in the following days. She'll need some time to recover."

"Okay."

Anthony trusted her, he reached out carefully to help Grandma Bailey up and signaled to Luke with his eyes as he did.

Luke and his men instantly brought the stretcher toward them.

Anthony helped Grandma Bailey onto it, but since her body was quite heavy, Charmine had to help out.

Grandma Bailey, with her complexion purplish-green, was much better. She was able to open her eyes.

When she saw Charmine, her eyes squinted. "Char...Charmine..."

Susan saw that Grandma Bailey regained consciousness, thus she instantly rushed over. She grabbed Grandma Bailey's arm and asked, "Mother, what happened? Why did you faint? Did Charmine harm you?"

Lying on the stretcher, Grandma Bailey instantly explained to Susan's speculation, “No... She didn’t... I...I fainted suddenly. Nothing did it...”

Susan frowned suspiciously.

So, it was not Charmine?

Charmine did not harm Grandma Bailey?

Turning her weary gaze around, Grandma Bailey briefly understood something.

She looked at Charmine weakly and said, “Child, thank you... I’m grateful to have you...” 2 “It’s nothing. Please reserve your energy and recover well,” assured Charmine.

Grandma Bailey nodded-she liked Charmine even more.

She almost died, yet it was Charmine who saved her... Charmine gave her a second chance at life...

She gradually closed her eyes, allowing the people to carry her out as she internally made her decision.

At that moment, a butler suddenly rushed over. “It’s bad, it’s bad! A maid was knocked out! Her costume was stolen!”

Instantly, everyone looked at Charmine.

Darryl scoffed, “Charmine, if you didn’t harm Grandma Bailey, why did you sneak into my mansion? Why did you harm our people?”

Charmine did not bother to explain. She took out her phone and played the voice message.

Chris’ voice was instantly heard. “Mommy, save me! Save me!”

The crowd was perplexed as they exchanged glances.

The Young Master Bailey was in trouble? Why did he send this to Charmine, and why did he call her 'Mommy1'?

Seeing that everyone was suspicious, she explained calmly, "The Jordan Group and Bailey Corporation are partners. As we had many meetings, the Young Master always liked me. When I received his message today and I couldn't reach President Bailey, I located the message that was sent from the Bailey mansion. So I had to come over to find out."

With that said, she turned her gaze to her clothes.

"I had no choice but to put this on. The Baileys didn't really like me, and they wouldn't have given me a chance to get in."

The crowd listened. Was that it?

Raised in wealthy families, each of them could deduce things, seeing as they had seen many internal conflicts.

According to what she said, Charmine was trapped to come to the area and was framed.

If it was not for her good medical skills, Charmine would have been responsible for killing a human!

Susan, Darryl, and Senior Bailey knew even more beyond that.

Someone used Chris to trap Charmine, and this person also used Grandma

Bailey to frame Charmine!

The person who would do that...

Instantly, all of the Baileys looked at Waverly. 2

Only Waverly had this motive.

Furthermore, Waverly was the last person Grandma Bailey was with. She was also the one who called everyone over!

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 898-
Scrutinized by their gaze, a glint of panic was ignited in her eyes, though she remained calm and explained, "Indeed, I was the last person with Grandma Bailey, but after a while, Grandma Bailey said she wanted to be alone, so I left her.

"When I noticed that Grandma Bailey hadn't come back after a long while, I got worried and so I asked everyone to look for her together. As she said, she fainted. It's common for elders to have high pressure."

With that said, she looked at Charmine's phone. "As for why Momo is in trouble, perhaps we should find Momo first. Everything will be explained."

Her words were rational and calm.

Susan eyed her again. Was it really not her?

Other than her, who else would attack Charmine? 1

It seemed they had to find Chris before making a conclusion.

"Use all our men," said Anthony to Luke, already ahead of them, "Find Momo!"

Anthony said to the crowd, “We have a situation now. Please leave.”

The crowd nodded and left.

After leaving the Bailey mansion, they all gossiped among themselves.

“Why do I feel that Anthony has no feelings for Waverly, that he cared for Charmine instead?” 2

“I never heard Chris calling Waverly ‘Mommy’, but he called Charmine that?”

“Hey, Anthony helped Charmine to wipe off her sweat! Thinking closely, he even had his family standing up for Charmine!”

“What happened today was obviously someone framing Charmine. If there’s nothing between Charmine and Anthony, why would they frame her?” 1

“My thoughts exactly! Have you forgotten? It was Susan’s assistant who killed the thirteen lives! Perhaps Anthony likes Charmine, but the Bailey family is keeping him from being with her?”

The crowd added onto one another. Startled at the development, they vaguely had an answer in their minds.

Inside the mansion...

Anthony glared at the remaining people in the scene.

“Every one of you misunderstood Charmine. Don’t you all owe her an explanation?”

Kay said instantly, “Exactly. If we hadn’t stopped you from getting to her, you guys would've taken her down, and you would've had a hand in killing Grandma's Bailey. An apology is a must!"

Susan gritted her teeth. She had to apologize to Charmine?

She was a senior!

Still recovering from the aftershock, Senior Bailey said, "No need to apologize; anyone would've misunderstood given the situation. However, Charmine did save my wife, and we thank you for that. Why don't you stay for a meal today while we wait for news on Momo."

With that said, he did not give Charmine any chance to reject as he left with his walking stick.

Kay and his men were displeased. They were about to speak up but Charmine gave them a look.

Despondent, the Gragoul team reluctantly jumped over the walls and disappeared right away.

Their movements were nimble and lithe, much like special agents would.

The crowd watched them in shock.

Charmine had such bodyguards? Each of them far surpassed the Baileys' bodyguards... 1

Anthony did not care for the crowd. He took Charmine's hand into his and left.

Waverly frowned. She looked at Susan and explained, "It really wasn't me. However much I dislike Charmine, I won't try to harm Grandma."

"Don't worry, have some rest and wait for the news. Once we find Momo, everyone will have an answer." Susan patted Waverly's shoulder and left. In her heart, she vaguely had her conclusion.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 899-
McKenzie followed behind Susan. After a considerable distance, she asked,

"Auntie, what do you think?" "Although it's common for an elder to faint, why would she faint out of the blue? There are so many drugs we haven't heard of in the world.

Furthermore, Waverly did try to kill people on the Jordan Group's site to hurt Charmine. It has to be her!" theorized Susan coldly.

McKenzie looked as if she was thinking. "Indeed, but it's not definite. Perhaps Charmine put up this act so everyone will like her and hate Waverly?"

Susan's footsteps halted. "You have a point! Why didn't I think of that? The two of them aren't kind people anyway!"

When McKenzie heard this, she was satisfied.

She wanted Susan to hate everyone, and that way, she could reap the benefits all to herself!

By the side of an empty pond.

Anthony stopped walking and released his grip on Charmine, expression displeased as he did.

“You knew this was a trap, so why did you stay? Do you know how dangerous it was?”

If she did not come with Kay and the men, knowing Susan, she would have hurt her!

Charmine answered calmly, “I never do things I’m not confident in. If I dared to do it, I’d be capable of facing it. Furthermore...”

She met Anthony’s eyes and answered solemnly, “She’s your grandmother.”

Three simple words were clearly pronounced, and warmth spread throughout his chest.

She would still involve herself because she was his grandmother, even though she knew it was a trap?

After chasing after this woman for so long, she finally responded to his feelings!

Charmine sighed, “I’m most concerned for Momo. I wonder if anything happened to him. Waverly would do anything to harm me!”

“Just because she wants to harm you, doesn’t mean she’d dare to hurt Momo. If not, it’ll be too apparent that it was her,” assured Anthony.

Charmine frowned.

Just as she mulled things over, Luke brought Chris to them. “President, Charmine, I found Momo!”

Charmine looked back to see Chris with a little backpack on, looking visibly upset.

When Chris saw her, he launched himself toward her. “Mommy! Mommy!”

Charmine instantly hoisted him in her arms. “Momo, where did you go?”

“I’m sorry, Mommy! After school, I realized my bear pin was left in the car, so I had to come to the Bailey mansion. Since they all don’t like me, I had to hide my trace. I wanted to find Daddy secretly, get the car key, and leave. However, I didn’t find Daddy, and saw a dog biting on my bear pin. The dog ran to the back of the mountain. I chased after it...”

If Luke had not found him, he would not have known what happened. He did not even know that he dropped his phone and caused so much trouble for Charmine.

Charmine’s eyes narrowed. As expected, Waverly was crafty in her scheme.

At this angle, this all looked like a misunderstanding.

As Chris was fine and was unhurt, there was no evidence to accuse Waverly of.

As for that message, it was probably made with some software. 2 to sort out or figure out.

This was the one lucky thing out of this misfortune-as long as Chris was safe.

At that moment, a maid came toward them. "Master, Ms. Jordan, lunch is ready."

Charmine frowned.

Sharing a meal with the Bailey family?

She looked at Anthony. There was no need for this...

Since they had found Chris, she should leave with Chris instead of staying back...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 900-
"Come with me," persuaded Anthony.

He pulled at Charmine's hand and walked to the dining hall.

Charmine was restless.

The Baileys liked Waverly and they, together, looked much like a family. This would make her seem like an extra.

It would not look good if she stayed...

Chris hooked his arms around Charmine tightly. "Mommy, I don't want to eat with them..."

Every time they saw him, they would berate and look down on him. It had been a long time since he came to the Bailey mansion.

Seeing the look of fear on his face. Charmine suddenly thought of something and placed Chris on the ground.

She took out a wet tissue and cleaned Chris' dirty face as she spoke," Momo, remember: You're Anthony's flesh and blood. You have Anthony's blood flowing in you. Your Mommy Annabel is a kind-hearted woman, and not some despicable woman. You have nothing to hide, and you have to believe that you're an adorable kid. Man up, and show it to the world! No matter how much others loathe you, you only have to be yourself. Let them know that you're the Young Master Bailey!" 1

Her words were encouraging and motivating.

Chris seemed to have understood something, and he nodded. "I understand now, Mommy. I know what to do!"

Charmine smiled. She fixed his hair and held his hand as they walked into the dining hall.

Her words were to both encourage Chris and also herself.

No matter whether they liked her or not, she only had to be herself.

The three of them arrived at the dining hall.

There was a long rectangular table with Senior Bailey sitting as the host.

Darryl and Susan were sitting by the side, while Waverly and McKenzie sat on another side.

The past Chris would cower in fear whenever he had to face something like this back then. He would be too scared to face them on those days.

At this moment, however, he had a smile on his face as he greeted them politely, "Great Grandma, Grandpa, Grandma, Auntie Houston, Auntie D'Cruz."

His childish voice was soft and harmless.

His eyes were no longer scared-they twinkled charmingly instead.

When Senior Bailey saw him, he frowned slightly. Was this the same Chris in his memory?

He hated Chris not only because of his unknown mother but also because of his naturally weaker body since birth. He lived in the incubator for so long that the doctors even said he would not live past eight.

He would rather not have such a great-grandson with a short lifespan. He did not want to develop any feelings for him, lest he would have to watch him die.

Therefore, they all started hating and disliking him.

Chris did not look like a Bailey at all, always hiding and scared of them. He was even too scared to appear in their sight.

Who would have thought that Chris was suddenly so brave today?

Senior Bailey made a rare invitation, "Have a seat."

Chris held onto Charmine's hand and walked toward the dining table.

He did not sit with McKenzie and Waverly. In fact, he sat with Darryl and Susan.

Seated on the second seat, Darryl suddenly noticed a soft and squishy boy was sitting beside him.

This boy had always made the effort to hide from everyone before, yet he chose to sit beside him all of a sudden?

They were so close that he could detect the sweet, childlike scent from him. His hands were puffy, and it made one want to pinch him.

Cough, cough, cough!

Darryl looked away from Chris.

After sitting down, Chris pulled Charmine to sit by his side while Anthony sat on the other side of Charmine.

Two figures, one adult and another a child, protected Charmine from each side as if afraid of her getting bullied.

With this seating, there were five sitting on the right with only McKenzie and Waverly sitting on the left. It seemed as if the two of them were the extras. 1

Waverly's face turned pale. She was Anthony's lawful fiancée, yet...

Susan did not like it either. She wanted to match Waverly with Anthony yet ended up with this situation occurring. Charmine stole the spotlight!
