

Chapter 90

Vicky also knew the seriousness of the matter, and even replied, "President, the fastest speed will take thirteen minutes to arrive."

From the airport to Pearl River International, the normal speed takes one hour.

They had just traveled some distance, and even the rest of the journey would take at least forty minutes to get there.

To be able to compress it to thirteen minutes, Vicky had done his best.

After all, a car is not an aeroplane, and no matter how well it performs, it can't fly over.

Biden Lu clearly understood this as well, and he tensed his lips without speaking again.

And at this moment, Patrick Hong received a call from one of his subordinates, his brow furrowed.

"I know, I'll ask."

After he hung up the phone, he first called Rovell Mu.

"Hikizawa, you're over at Pearl River International today aren't you?"

Rovell didn't know what had happened at this point, and was a little confused by the news as he replied, "Yeah, what's wrong?"

"Do you know what kind of guest is in room 8828?"

"8828? "Rovell was stunned for a moment, then his pupils shot open.

"I know, what happened?"

"You should hurry over and take a look, I'm not sure what exactly is going on, but nothing must happen to the people inside, or our entire Mu family will be finished with it."

Rovell frowned and looked a little unhappy.

"Someone threatened you? Who could threaten your head?"

Patrick Hong's voice came over coolly, "Is Biden Lu okay?"

Rovell: "..."

He suddenly thought of something, and his appearance changed sharply.

"I'll be right over."

Hanging up the phone, Rovell Mu got up without saying a word, grabbed his clothes and ran out.

However, before we reached the door, we were stopped by Mu Hongxin.

"Where are you going, brother?"

Rovell sank, "I have something to go out for a while, you and Miss Guan continue to eat here, I'll be right back."

But Mu Hongxiao won't let her, her little mouth pouting, "I won't! You said you'd take us out to dinner. What's wrong with you running off halfway through? Brother, it's fine if you've run before, but today is my birthday, you can't leave if you say anything."

Rovell was a little impatient.

"It's not like I'm not coming back, something seems to have happened in the opposite box, Jenny is still in there, I'm just going over to take a look, a few steps away, I'll be back in a few minutes."

Mu Hongsheng's appearance changed slightly at the news.

She stopped the door even more stubbornly and gritted her teeth, "No, you can't go."

Rovell's brows furrowed even deeper as he looked suspiciously at Rovell.

"Red Stain, did you do something behind my back?"

Fedora was a little guilty.

Her eyes flickered and she straightened her chest, "I didn't, I just don't want you to find that woman, brother, I'll let it go, Sister Yue Wan is also here today and you have to go across the street to find her, what position do you put Sister Yue Wan in ah?How could you?"

Guan Yuewan smiled awkwardly, "Fedora, don't say that..."

However, where would Fedora pay attention to her, the more she said, the more she looked like that, not to mention more aggrieved.

"Brother, Sister Clara is still lying in the hospital and the baby is gone, she's the cause of all this, at this point, you're still protecting her, are you still a man?"

Rovell tightened his eyebrows.

For a moment, take a deep breath.

"Dad just called, saying that Biden Lu put out a threat to our Mu family, and I suspect that something happened to Jenny Jing."

Guan Yue Wan was stunned, her face changing slightly.

But Fedora was instantly excited.

"What did you say?Biden Lu threatened our family for that b*tch?What's so great about her?Is a jilted, broken shoe worth his time?"

Rovell Mu looked cold.

"Red

Image.What are you talking about?"

Mu Hongxin was stagnant.

"I've been dating Jenny for six years and nothing has happened, what broken shoes? Who taught you those words?"

"I..."

Guan Yuewan stood up in a hurry and stepped forward to pull on Rovell Mu's arm.

"Mr. Mu, Hong Shen is also talking nonsense on a whim, but I also don't think it's appropriate for you to go over there now."

Rovell frowned.

"Miss Kwan, are you going to see death as well? Although she's a bit of a mouthy and cold person, but if something does happen..."

The expression on Guan Yue Wan's face froze for a moment.

"I didn't mean it like that, it's just..."

Guan Yue Wan leaned over and said a couple of words in Rovell's ear.

Rovell's face changed dramatically.

"Are you serious?"

Guan Yue Wan nodded heavily.

"So, for Maya's sake, you can't go either, understand?"

.....

The box across the street hadn't moved.

Biden Lu arrived ten minutes later.

The quickest it would take was thirteen minutes, and he was hard pressed to shorten it by another three minutes.

Summers swore he'd never driven so fast in his life, and when the throttle hit the floor, the car almost took off off the horizon and went straight up.

As soon as you enter Pearl River International, a waiter will immediately warmly welcome you.

"Sir, do you have a room reservation? Still..."

"Where's 8828?"

The waiter was stunned as he looked at Biden Lu's face like a cold face of hell, feeling a little apprehensive.

"Sir, what are you..."

"I asked you where room 8828 was."

Biden Lu's gaze was as cold as ice, and Vicky sternly said, "Speak! I'll kill you later!"

The waiter shuddered in response.

"Straight ahead on the 8th floor on the left."

Biden Lu drew his steps and headed for the lift.

The lift soon arrived, the doors still closed, and a hand suddenly came through to block the soon-to-be-closed doors.

"Wait a minute!"

Only a group of panting people came, and when they saw Biden Lu and Vicky, they all shook.

"Lu, you're coming over."

Biden Lu stared at them with a cold face.

The crowd hung their heads in guilty conscience.

They were the people that Biden Lu called in the car to deliver, just because tonight are not here, and at this time of the day they came over that road and traffic jam, so a group of people are raw run over.

I didn't think it was too late.

Biden Lu gloomily tugged at the corner of his lips and coldly said, "Expecting you guys, I'm just afraid that the cauliflower will be cold."

The group hung their heads like schoolchildren being trained.

"Lu, I'm sorry, we were wrong."

Biden Lu tensed the corners of his lips and did not speak.

A group of people to the eighth floor, Biden Lu as the first step out of the rapid step, the rest of the people followed.

The waiter didn't recognize them, and was surprised to see a group of men barge in menacingly.

A waiter stepped forward and asked, "Sir, may I ask who you are..."

"Get out!"

Since someone picked him off by the handful, he soon found room 8828.

The door was unlocked and there was no sound inside.

Biden Lu stood in the doorway, clenching his teeth tightly, his handsome face tautened into a string that was ready to break at any moment.

His face was cold and he said in a chilling voice, "Open the door for me."

The rest of the group saw the situation, and about guessed what was happening inside, and were somewhat silent for a while.

Chapter 91

One of them had already gotten the key and went up to the door.

The locked door immediately opened with a loud click.

Almost as soon as the door opened, everyone turned their backs in tacit agreement.

Everyone's faces almost showed their intolerance at the mere thought of a possible scene in the box.

However, it was seen that Biden Lu was just standing there quietly, not moving at all.

Someone noticed something was wrong and looked back in confusion.

The next second, surprised stares.

Only inside the box, there were four burly men lying across the floor, each with a bleeding head and a broken finger, and the man was unconscious, blood permeating the carpet and staining the beige carpet a bloody, dark red.

Jenny cowered in the couch, his hands a half-broken wine bottle.

She was hugging her knees, all curled up on the couch, her hair a mess, both arms full of bruises, and the fingers holding the bottle even more bloody, as if cut by glass.

As if hearing a noise, her eyes were transfixed.

Looking away from the door, obviously consciousness has been confused, yet the face still subconsciously showed a guarded look, the whole person like a frightened rabbit bounced to sit up.

"What people?"

Biden Lu stepped forward and walked inside step by step.

"Stay back!"

Jenny lowered his voice to a low growl.

She was already somewhat delirious, and the alcohol, combined with the drugs, made her look incredibly wretched and confused.

Yet she still held the bottle aloft, like a female warrior charging into battle, protecting herself to the death and determined not to fall until the last moment.

Biden Lu's gaze sank as he passed by a man lying on the ground, his foot mercilessly stepping over the other man's hand.

"Ah-!"

Another scream.

As if Jenny heard the voice, her body trembled and her entire spine arched.

She waved the bottle in her hands twice haphazardly, staring ahead but with no focus, and hissed, "Stay back! Or I'll kill you!"

Biden Lu continued to walk forward.

Jenny seemed to realize that the enemies this time were no longer as easy to deal with as the ones from earlier, and she scrambled to touch her phone.

"I want to tell Biden Lu, I want to find Biden Lu, don't come over here, or Biden Lu won't let you go, he won't... ah!"

Biden Lu fiercely held her hand.

"Get off me! Let go of me!"

"Jenny, it's me."

He tried to control her wildly waving hand while still having to be careful not to touch the wound on her hand.

The voice was low and dark as he said, "Don't be afraid, Jenny, it's me, I'm here."

Jenny, however, seemed to hear nothing, to see nothing, and still struggled hard, swinging the bottle at him as he struggled and stabbed him.

"Don't come any closer..."

Vicky stood in the doorway looking frightened, there were several times when the president was almost cut by the glass of the bottle for fear of hurting Miss Jing.

He couldn't help but speak out, "President, why don't you let the bodyguards come, Miss Jing is not conscious right now, in case it hurts you..."

Biden Lu, however, was oblivious to his words, and with a deft stroke of his hand, he snatched the wine bottle from Jenny Jing's hand, and then hugged her hard into his arms.

"Jenny, it's me, I'm Biden Lu, don't be afraid, I'm coming."

He kept repeating such simple and monotonous words, and after a long time, Jenny finally calmed down a bit.

She couldn't believe her eyes as she looked up at his face, a beautiful little face now full of tears and tinged with flakes of red, unable to tell how decrepit and wretched it was.

"Biden Lu, is that really you?"

"It's me." Lu Jing looked at her deeply and took her hand and caressed her face.

"I don't believe you can touch it, it's really me."

There was still blood on Jenny's fingers, caressing over his brow, his upturned nose, his thin lips.

She burst into tears.

A head threw himself into his arms and held him tightly around the waist.

"It's really you, ooooooh...you're finally here!Why didn't you come until now?Do you know that I almost got, almost got..."

"I know."

Biden Lu hugged her tightly, pressing his palm on the back of her head and pressing her head into his arms.

"Don't worry, it's okay now, you're brave, they didn't take advantage of you."

"Ooooooh...I'm so scared..."

"Don't be afraid, I'm here and no one will dare bully you."

Jenny whimpered and nodded her head, tears and snot all rubbed on his shirt, Biden Lu also did not mind dirty, took off his jacket and wrapped it around her, then he hit her across and held her up.

"Be good, I'll take you home, okay?"

"Well."

Jenny buried her head in his arms, and Biden Lu walked out with the woman in her arms.

As he reached the door, he stepped forward and with a grim expression, he ordered, "All four of them are useless, I don't want to see them again in Visterdem in the future."

The hearts of the people were hardened, and they replied, "Yes."

"It's time for the Mu family to learn a lesson, Vicky, put out the word to terminate all cooperation with the Mu family, but in the future, anyone who cooperates with the Mu family is an enemy of me, Biden Lu."

Vicky's heart was shaken and he nodded, "Yes."

Biden Lu didn't stop any longer and took Jenny Jing with him.

It wasn't until his figure had completely disappeared from the lift that Vicky squared his head and looked up at the four men lying in the compartment with cold eyes.

He coldly hooked his lips and said to the few bodyguards behind him, "Since they've seen things they shouldn't have and touched people they shouldn't have today, they don't need those eyes and hands, you know what to do, right?"

Several of the bodyguards immediately responded, "Got it."

"Take it outside and get it! After all, is it a lawful society, huh?"

The last one was an ironic laugh.

After Vicky finished giving instructions, he also left.

He was also busy giving notice to go down and terminate the partnership with Mu, so he didn't have time to linger here.

On the other side, Biden Lu carried Jenny Jing into the car, sat her down in the driver's seat, and fastened her seat belt for her, before going around to the other side and getting into the driver's seat.

"Biden Lu, I'm so sick, so hot."

Jenny kept pulling the jacket of the man wrapped around himself.

Biden Lu looked at her little blushing face, his eyes lost in fascination

The look of departure, eyes deepened.

Reaching over and covering the clothes she had ripped off, she said in a quiet voice, "Bear with me, I'll take you to the hospital right away."

He started the car and it drove off like an arrow.

Jenny, however, only felt unbearable.

It was like a fire was burning in her body, getting hotter and hotter, so hot that she was almost ready to explode.

She scrabbled around in her chair, not knowing how to get to the man, and at once seemed to find an iceberg and immediately pressed her face against it.

"Biden Lu... let's not go to the hospital, okay... I'm hot... I want some water....."

Chapter 92

The woman's tender little face rubbed against his arm, the temperature scorching and bringing a flake of enticing breath.

Biden Lu's Adam's apple rolled and mumbled, "Okay, wait a minute."

He pulled over to the side of the road and took a fresh bottle of mineral water from the boot, then returned to the car and carefully fed the water to her mouth.

"Jenny, drink water."

Jenny cupped his hands and drank several large gulps right away.

The heat in my throat was temporarily diluted a little by the cold water, yet only for a few seconds, more itching and heat came in a steady stream.

She couldn't resist, and reached up to pick up her collar, rubbing against the chair.

"It's so hard..."

Biden Lu fastened his seatbelt and said in a deep voice, "Bear with us again, we'll be at the hospital soon."

Jenny, however, suddenly fell to the side and landed headfirst on his shoulder, and if it wasn't for the seatbelt holding him in place, I'm afraid that the whole person would have fallen into his arms.

"Biden Lu...I can't stand it anymore...will you help me?We're not going to the hospital."

She said as she pulled off her clothes, her face rubbing against his neck like a kitten.

Biden Lu only felt the scalding heat as if it were a fire that instantly ignited his skin.

As he drove, he freed a hand to hold the woman in place.

"You have a wound that needs to be taken care of, sweetie, just bear with me a little longer."

"I don't want it... Biden Lu, help me... I feel so bad..."

She kept humming, her voice soft and glutinous, with a hint of crying.

But any man, when he hears a woman's voice like that, he just can't hold back.

Besides, it's her own woman!

Biden Lu tightened the steering wheel on his hands, his eyes fell on a high-class apartment complex not far away, he remembered that he seemed to have a suite here, so he drove the car over.

The car soon reached the vicinity of the flat, and suddenly there was a very soft "pop".

It was Jenny who unbuckled the seat belt.

"Mmm... Biden Lu... you're cold... let me hug you, okay?"

The woman wrapped her arms around his neck and her whole body wrapped around him.

Biden Lu's body tensed up even more because of her movements and the words she spat out, saying in a mute voice, "Jenny, sit still, I'm driving."

"Don't come on... Biden Lu... I'm so hot... help me!"

She unconsciously rubbed against him, and eventually even threw herself all over him, sitting directly across his body.

Biden Lu had no choice but to free a hand to hold her up and press her head against his shoulder.

"Then just sit there and don't move, we'll be there in a minute."

"Well... Honey..."

Soft, hot k*sses suddenly landed on his neck, and then the woman suddenly opened her mouth and bit him on the Adam's apple.

"Crunch-!"

The sound of the urgent brakes rang out, and Biden Lu almost lost control of the steering wheel, his entire body drew a breath of cold air.

"Jenny!"

"Well?"

The woman in his arms raised her head in confusion, her watery eyes looking up at him in a haze, like a lost deer.

Biden Lu's words originally reached his mouth, but under her attachment and watery hot gaze, they were all broken into pieces and swallowed back.

It took half a minute before he husked, "Don't move, just hold it for two more minutes, eh?"

As if Jenny understood his words, he nodded obediently.

"So can I just hold you like this?"

"Good."

Jenny really stopped moving around and hugged his neck nicely, the whole thing hanging onto him like a wombat.

Biden Lu drove the car into the underground garage of the community, and before getting off the car, he called Vicky and asked him to bring a doctor over before carrying Jenny Jing out of the car.

Jenny nestled in his arms and hugged his neck to k*ss his lips.

"Honey...I want you..."

Biden Lu was somewhat amused.

He moved away from her face slightly, avoiding her k*ss.

Jennyton was a little angry and drummed his cheeks in exasperation.

Biden Lu sneered, "Only at this time do you want me?I don't usually see you this enthusiastic."

Jenny: "....."

She had a moment of weakness, but the drug took over and that weakness seemed so weak that it was soon overwhelmed by the bouts of sickness that were rising in her body.

Jenny licked her lips and said cheekily, "It's still because I've been drugged now?Would you be able to take advantage of it so easily otherwise?"

The sneer on Biden Lu's lips was even deeper.

"Fine, then I choose not to take advantage of that today."

Jenny was extremely angry.

Opened his mouth and bit down hard on his shoulder.

The man, however, seemed to feel no pain as the lift went up and he held her like that without moving a muscle.

In the end, it was Jenny who felt his mouth sour before letting go and pounded his hard muscles with a swinging fist.

"What meat! Hard as hell!"

Biden Lu seemed to be smiling.

"Without this muscle, your evening benefits could be cut in half, would you be willing to do that?"

Jenny: "....."

Yuck! Shame on you!

Boing Boing...could you be a little more shameless? She's really dying!

Wasn't this man usually very passionate? Nothing had happened between the two of them since that night, but she could tell that he wanted something to happen.

Why don't you do anything now?

With her being like this, shouldn't he just slickly come up and strip her and get right to the point?

Jenny was on the verge of tears, and there was nothing he could do about it.

Can only hug his neck constantly in his chest rubbed ah, soft voice condescending plea: "husband, I feel so bad, I'm about to explode ... you quickly help me ah ...."

Biden Lu gave a faint "hmm", the lift door opened, and he hugged Jenny and walked out.

The flat was a coded door, Biden Lu pressed a code he was familiar with, and sure enough, the door opened.

He walked in with her in his arms.

As soon as the door closed, the woman came up with a monkey's kss, her arms around his neck, her long thin white legs hanging on his waist, kssing with urgency and fierceness.

Biden Lu never knew that this woman could have such a fierce side.

Just how bad was the k*ssing?

Where's the k*ss?It's clearly chewing!

Or the raw kind!

Jenny's consciousness was confused, vaguely only knowing that Biden Lu had taken her to a room, and as to whether this room was a hotel or somewhere else, she simply couldn't care anymore.

Hot k*sSES trailed from his lips all the way down to his Adam's apple, licking him heavily.

A man's muffled grunt sounded in the darkness.

In the next second, there was only a pop.

The lights in the house were turned on, and the warm yellow light shone down from above, only to see the woman in her arms with flushed cheeks and drunken eyes, her jacket having long since fallen to nowhere, her clothes ripped open, revealing a piece of delicate skin white with a scarlet flush.

Biden Lu's eyes darkened heavily.
