

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 90

Logan Fu lowered his head to look at the hand holding him tightly, his eyes darkened a bit, and he raised his eyebrows to look at Zoey Gu somewhat unexpectedly.

“Why, the child is not from Liam Lu?”

Zoey Gu’s face turned pale, and those dark and terrifying past moments jumped before her eyes, causing her to breathe a little bit.

“No.”

Thinking of the nature of Logan Fu’s work, she looked at him nervously again and said anxiously, “And Mr. Fu, please don’t treat my past...”

“Curious to investigate your past?” Logan Fu interrupted her suddenly.

He suddenly chuckled, and felt that Zoey Gu in front of him was so cute and tight.

“Although I am doing the job of checking people, I also have basic professional ethics. Besides, this kind of thing that requires countless people to be mobilized once, why should I do it?”

After Logan Fu finished speaking, he pulled his lips and smiled, then raised his eyes to look at Zoey Gu with determination, and said nonchalantly.

“But Zoey, I know what you want to do.”

Zoey Gu was startled, and subconsciously raised her head to look at Logan Fu, and met those clear eyes, her heart choked slightly.

“I don’t understand what you are talking about?”

She turned and looked away, but Logan Fu’s unexplained chuckle sounded in her ears.

“It’s your business to understand or not, I just give you a piece of advice. Liam Lu’s identity background is not something you can bear. If you want to walk to him, whether it is him or you, you have to pay a huge price. “

After sending off Logan Fu, Zoey Gu walked back to the ward in a daze.

Alina Yin had already woken up and was sitting on the bedside obediently, eating the nanny’s meal bit by bit. Seeing her, she immediately opened her eyes and smiled.

“Aunt Gu, great, we are in a ward!”

Seeing the little guy, Zoey Gu hurriedly raised her hand and rubbed her face, walked over with a strong spirit, and looked at her with a smile.

“Alina Yin wakes up? Aunty, can feed you?”

“it is good.”

The nanny next to Alina Yin who was still returning home to the garden passed the bowl and spoon in her hand to Zoey Gu. An unnatural look flashed across her face when she looked at her.

“Miss Gu, I’m sorry for what happened before. I wronged you without understanding the facts. I hope you don’t blame me.”

Zoey Gu stretched out his hand to wipe Alina Yin’s mouth, and glanced sideways at the nanny.

“It doesn’t matter. You have been taking care of Alina Yin and have a deep feeling. It is inevitable that something will happen to her, but I can understand her heart.”

On the night of Alina Yin’s accident, in order to wrong her, the nanny and Anna Yun insisted that she had harmed Alina Yin. She saw the double reeds sincerely, but she also felt it was understandable. After all, Anna Yun is the future wife of the Lu family, and it is normal for the servants to stand in line.

The nanny didn’t mind seeing her, so she took a sigh of relief, and then tentatively asked softly.

“Then Miss Gu, do you think there is something wrong with Mr. Lu today?”

Zoey Gu was taken aback for a moment, and looked at her uncertainly.

“Why do you ask?”

“I think my husband might be uncomfortable. He just got up from your bed when I brought the food in. I saw him shaking, as if he couldn’t stand still. He suddenly put on a hat to cover it. Face, said hello and hurried away.”