

Chapter 900

So it wasn't like Georgie was alone in a room when she went to bed at night.

Instead, she slept in a room with Yue Ling, and outside, there were four men guarding her.

Bella Qiao could only smile as he looked at this lineup of caretakers.

Even if you're a great immortal, you can't escape it!

She sighed silently and didn't think much of it, closing her eyes and resting.

The countryside is always the quietest at night, and after nightfall, there is basically no sound around except for the occasional insect chirping.

Soon, the sound of a woman's even breathing was in my ears.

The earth-shaking grunts of the men outside could still be heard through the door panel.

Bella Qiao was originally very tired, but for some reason, at night, she was suddenly unable to sleep a bit.

A question occurred to her.

When she had escaped from the villa before, it was clear that the six gods had brought her out with them.

But then she woke up in the car and only saw Yue Ling, not Six Gods.

Where did he go?

Although Bella Qiao was also very scrupulous about that man and was certain that the other party did not have any good intentions towards her, but at least she was familiar with him after having dealt with him a few times before, so with him here, perhaps there would be a greater chance of breaking through.

In the meantime, she couldn't help but think of it this way.

At that moment, an extremely soft noise suddenly came from the window directly opposite.

Startled, Georgie subconsciously turned to look at the window, but saw a shadow flashing there.

Her face changed slightly.

Turning to look at Yue Ling beside him, he saw that the other party was sleeping with his eyes closed, not noticing any movement outside the house.

Her heart couldn't help but become apprehensive.

She hoped, of course, that the people outside were Gu Si Qian's people, but what if they weren't?

Forget it, whether it is or not, it's better than staying in the hands of these guys.

Thinking that, she didn't make a sound to inform them.

And at this time, there was suddenly a very light smell wafting in from where the door was cracked.

She frowned, thinking the smell was a little strange, and when she responded, she stared at it.

Holy shit, that's fu*king dope!

They're not Koo Sze Kian's men!

However, by this time, Bella Qiao had already inhaled many smells, and it was already too late to react at this time.

I saw the side of Yue Ling softly fell down, along with a few "bang" outside the sound of falling to the ground.

She gritted her teeth and held her breath, originally trying to hold on a little stronger.

However in the end couldn't withstand the strong drug, both eyes rolled over and passed out as well.

Waking up again, I found myself in a very strange room.

On all sides were bare walls with an iron-gray metallic sheen, and there was nothing in the large room but a hard iron bed.

Jochie was lying on this metal bed, and she felt like she couldn't see anything because she was blindfolded, but maybe the cloth over her eyes wasn't thick enough, so she could vaguely see a little white light swinging overhead.

Where are we?

She thought in a blur of consciousness.

The arm lifted a little, and there was a clattering sound of the chain swinging.

Bella Qiao was on edge.

After moving a little harder, it was determined that it was, indeed, two long chains that had locked her limbs to the iron bed.

A sudden chill ran up her spine.

Just at this moment, the sound of boots on the ground "da-da-da-da" was suddenly heard in my ears.

Her heart was racing and she asked subconsciously, "Who?"

No one spoke.

She could only hear the "da da da da" footsteps getting closer and closer, and then she felt a pain in her neck.

A dose of some unknown drug was injected into her body, she stiffened, and in the next second, she lost consciousness and passed out completely.

Castle.

It was three days before Gu Si Qian came back again.

As the car drove into the castle, Ober saw it and had wanted to go up and ask where Georgie was.

But as soon as he saw Gu Siqian's face, he immediately understood what was going on and wisely didn't lean in to ask more questions.

He walked over to Gu Siqian and said, "Young Master Lin Song is here in the parlor, saying that he has something to see you about."

"Got it."

Kusken said in a gloomy voice, turning and walking into the parlor.

In the meeting room, Lin Song's heart was very anxious.

He already knew about Bella Qiao's disappearance, and today was about that.

As soon as he saw Gu Siqian enter, he immediately stood up in his seat and said, "Siqian, how's it going? Any news yet?"

Gu Si Qian's face was so gloomy that it could almost drip water.

He came over, no more of his formerly reserved demeanor, and grabbed a glass of water from the table before saying, "No."

"How did that happen?"

Lin Song was taken aback.

Kusken said with a sinking face, "I know who has her."

Lin Song was stunned.

"What do you mean? Do you know who got rid of her?"

Kuskan nodded.

"Who's that?"

However, Gu Si Qian did not answer.

In the meantime, he looked up at Lin Song, "What are you running over here for?"

Lin Song choked on his words and got so angry, "What else could I be? Of course, I heard that Ah Qiao was in trouble, so I came over to take a look ah, although our Lin family doesn't get involved in your road affairs, Ah Qiao is my friend, I can't just ignore it, right?"

Gu Si Qian's coldly curved lips, a pair of deep eyes filled with the light of birds of prey.

"This has nothing to do with you, and you don't have to get involved."

He knew that Lin's father hadn't really agreed with Lin Song getting too close to him for fear of being calamitized, and although he said he didn't care about Lin's father, Lin Song was after all his friend, and at this juncture, if the other party had to hold Bella Qiao back, there would definitely be a bad fight, and he didn't want to drag an innocent businessman's family like Lin Song down with him.

How could Lin Song not know what was in his mind?

Not a moment more angry.

"Gu Si Qian, I said why have you become so grannyish now? I came over today to find out what's going on, and if there's anything I can do to help, I'm certainly obliged."

"If there's nothing I can do to help, I'm not going to step in and drag you down, and I just want to hear the truth, can't I hear it all?"

Kusken looked at him again.

This time, though, there was no hiding it.

He said quietly, "It's the Chinese Society."

Lin Song was ruthlessly shaken.

Even though he wasn't in the mix, he'd heard the name of the Chinese Society.

Know that it was a larger, more complex, and more woodland-rooted organization than the Dragon Corps.

If Bella Qiao really was captured by them in the past...

His heart chilled and his face immediately sank.

"So what are you going to do now?"

Gu Si Qian said in a deep voice, "I have my own ways, you are not allowed to interfere, and don't come over here for a while."

Chapter 901

He said, and poured himself a cup of tea, and drained the cup in one gulp before saying, "Ober, send Lin Shao out."

Ober came in from outside and looked at Lin Song, looking embarrassed.

"Lin, please."

Lin Song looked deeply at Gu Si Qian.

It took a few seconds before he said, "I know, I'm leaving."

Afterwards, he turned and walked out.

However, only just reached the door, and then suddenly stopped.

He stood there, his back to Gu Siqian, and said in a deep voice, "Although I know I can't do anything for you in this matter, Ah Qiao is not only the woman you like, but also my friend, everything I can do, I will do, don't worry, I won't drag the Lin family into this, but you can't stop me from thinking about it either."

Kuskan didn't say anything.

Only then did Lin Song leave in big strides.

When he was gone, Guskan remained sitting there.

It took a long time before I pulled out my phone and made a call out.

"Seven, my brother has something to discuss with you guys, tell your man to pick up the phone."

.....

Jenny has been busy for a while.

Anning International has recently been planning a new movie, which is to be directed by Yim Sivah.

She was busy casting actors for the movie with Yan Sihua during this time.

Because this movie is a movie that Yan Sihua has been preparing for a long time, for the time being, he does not plan to use the existing actors in the entertainment industry, and decided to start a sea audition, from among the public vegetarians.

This is not going to increase the workload by much.

Jenny, as the biggest investor in the film, will naturally follow along as a judge.

She had just finished her work and was on her way home in the car when she got the call from Kusken.

Hearing his words on the phone, his eyebrows quirked a little and he asked, "What is it?"

"You can't make the big decisions, call your man over here and talk."

Jenny snickered.

"I'm sorry about that, but he's not here, so you can call back another time."

Afterwards, you just hang up the phone.

Up ahead, Mo Nan is driving.

Hearing her tone of mischief, she hung up the phone and smiled, "Who is it? Get you so angry."

Jenny Jing rubbed her eyebrows somewhat tiredly and said in a soft voice, "Gu Si Qian."

Mo Nan lagged.

The two were in a plane crash before and fell into the hands of a trafficker with serious injuries, and it was Gu Siqian who saved them.

Therefore, there were some things between Jenny and Gu Siqian that Mo Nan knew about.

Not only did she know, even Biden Lu also knew a general idea, but perhaps it was because she didn't want to feel too diabolical, so she didn't get to the bottom of it.

But, by the way, since that meeting, there hadn't been any contact since then.

Why did you suddenly contact me today?

Mo Nan's heart felt strange though, so he wouldn't think much of it.

Soon, the car was home.

Now that Jenny has become a mother, she has always been very attached to her family. The thing she looks forward to most every day after work is rushing home to see Ann and Little Jingze.

Little Jingze is now two years old, and it's the time to start misbehaving, and none of the nanny maids in the house can keep an eye on him.

Biden Lu had to be busy with his work again, so it was impossible to keep an eye on him at home, not to mention Jenny Jing, while the old lady and the old man had been in poor health lately, staying over at the old mansion to recuperate, not to mention coming over easily.

And Jenny didn't want the kids to make noise, so he didn't say anything about asking them to help.

The good news is that Kyozaawa can't handle anyone else, but is a sister control.

It was almost obedient to Ann's words.

That's what saved her a lot of trouble.

The car slowed into the gate, and as soon as they heard the engine outside, both children ran out all at once.

When they saw Jenny get out of the car, all their eyes lit up.

"Mummy!"

The two children, all at once, jumped at it.

Jenny took a full load and couldn't help but laugh, "You guys be gentle, if you jump me later, all three of us will fall on all fours."

Little Competeze milked his voice, "No, no, no, it's twelve feet to the sky, one person has four feet, three people have twelve feet."

When Jenny heard this, she couldn't hold back a puff of laughter.

"Who has four feet? You have four feet?"

Little Competeze is still a little confused, he's been learning how to count these days, and he's a little obsessed with learning how to count, and he loves to count everything.

But this time, he didn't think he'd miscalculated.

One person is called 4 feet to the sky, but 3 people are 12 feet to the sky, right?

Why are Mommy and Sister still laughing?

He didn't know what they were laughing at, so he simply didn't think deeply about it and laughed along merrily.

Jenny picked him up and took Anh again, asking as he walked to the house, "What did you guys play at home today?"

The two kids just reported back to her on it.

Jenny went to the living room, put down the little competitor, and played her unfinished game with An An. The mother and son were happy together.

The phone that she hung up on, however, never rang again.

She didn't care, after all, that person Gu Siqian was originally strange and inexplicable in her heart.

Now that he wasn't bothering her anymore, it was just as well.

But I didn't expect that the other party didn't want to bother her again, but from her tone just now, she heard that Biden Lu wasn't here at the moment, so she was just bothering at a different time.

So at dinner tonight, the phone rang again.

Jenny Jing pulled it out and took a look at it, his brows furrowing when he saw the caller ID.

Biden Lu sat right next to her and asked, "Who's calling?"

Jenny hesitated, but in the end, he didn't hide it from him.

"Kusken's, and one has called this afternoon, saying he wants to see you about something, and I don't know what it is."

Biden Lu's eyes darkened a little.

He said quietly, "Give me the phone."

Jenny was a little appalled.

She was well aware of the incompatible relationship between Biden Lu and Gu Si Qian, which had been hard because of the fight between the two families, but later, knowing the relationship between her and Gu Si Qian, she saw both sides as enemies.

Now you're taking his calls?

Jenny only felt as if he had discovered a new continent of amazement.

But surprise aside, she did as she was told and handed over the phone.

Biden Lu answered the phone and instead of answering it here in front of the child, he walked outside to answer it.

Jenny didn't care about him, and after he left, he said to AnAn, "AnAn, you can't just eat vegetables, you have to eat some meat oh."

I said, placing a piece of meat in her bowl.

An An has now grown into a little girl, although not yet ten years old, but based on the good genes of Jenny Jing and Biden Lu, the whole person out of the pavilion, has been almost one meter six.

Girls in this time period have learned to love beauty.

Chapter 902

She was pretty enough on her own though, after all, both parents were so good looking, and no matter how much she inherited, it couldn't be bad.

But she was still secretly aware of the figure.

Jenny noticed that she had been secretly reducing her appetite lately, and was also always averse to eating meat, preferring only low-calorie fruits and vegetables.

The mind is not helpless.

After all, she knew that beauty wasn't the most important thing at this age, growing taller and nourishing herself was.

So at every meal, she would go to great lengths to get her to eat more meat.

Ann saw that she couldn't hide, so she ate the meat she had caught.

Curious again, "Mommy, who did Daddy go to talk to on the phone?"

Jenny Jing looked at her and said in a soft voice, "Adult matters, children stay out of it."

Ann said, "Oh."

Quickly finishing off the bowl of food, he said, "I'm done."

Little Competeze is a sister control, and when his sister refuses to eat it, he refuses to eat it either.

Also putting the bowl down and milking it, he said, "Mamma, I'm done eating too."

Jenny looked at the big one and the small one, somewhat helpless.

I had to get a paper towel to wipe their mouths and said, "Let's go play after we eat."

The two children cheered as if they had been pardoned, and immediately ran to the back of the toy room.

Jenny looked at their backs, lost his smile, and shook his head helplessly.

She was alone, sitting at the table, looking at a table full of exquisite food, but somewhat unappetizing.

Turning back, I saw that Biden Lu still had his back to this side and was answering the phone.

In the meantime, the brow is not slightly furrowed.

Although Gu Si Qian didn't explain what it was about over the phone today, his intuition told Jenny that it must be something big.

Otherwise, someone as proud as Gu Siqian wouldn't have come to work with Biden Lu.

Thinking this, she lowered her eyebrows slightly, a heart lifting slightly.

It didn't take long for Biden Lu to finish the phone call.

He came over, and Jenny even asked, "How's it going?What did he want with you?"

Biden Lu gave her a faint look, returned the phone to her and said, "Finish eating first."

Jenny choked.

I was actually curious, but since he said so, I didn't ask any more questions and ate my food nicely.

After dinner, Jenny asked the maid who specialized in taking care of the two children to watch over the toy room and take them to bath and bed when the time came.

Then, only then did they return upstairs to their own bedroom with Biden Lu.

As soon as he entered the bedroom, Biden Lu said, "Gu Si Qian asked me to cooperate, saying that he found out who was on your plane in the first place and hunted you down."

Jenny was ruthlessly shaken!

Unbelievable stares.

At first, she and Mo Nan had crashed on the plane, and then after returning safely, she had sent many people there to find out who was behind the initial move against them.

But the people sent out batch after batch were like a stone sunk in the sea, and no news came back.

Then, finally, we found out a little bit of information about the whereabouts of the killers who were after her in the first place.

But when they arrived at the scene, they found that those people were already dead, and their bodies were almost reduced to bones.

Obviously, it was killed right away after things failed.

These people were ruthless and ruthless, and they acted in a very decisive and ruthless manner, so naturally it was impossible for them to leave any leverage on anyone.

After all, the Lu family's influence is only in the country, over there is a relatively unfamiliar territory, so then there are all sorts of things busy, in addition to now every day out to strengthen security, over there, although still tracing, but not always on the focus.

And now, Gu Si Qian told them that he had found out who those people were?

How could this news not be surprising to Jenny?

She hesitated and asked, "So what does he mean?What does he want to work with you on?And who are those people?"

Biden Lu said in a deep voice, "He didn't say, only that he wanted me to come over tomorrow and talk about it in person."

Jenny vetoed it right away without thinking about it.

"No, I don't approve of you going over there."

Lu Jing looked at her with deep eyes.

Jenny Jing said in a deep voice: "You don't know Gu Si Qian that person, he must have trouble he can't solve by looking for you, now the relationship between the Lu family and the Gu family is already very delicate and tense, if he is looking for him to find it, it's really cooperation that's fine, what if he didn't just dig a pit for you to jump into? Wouldn't you be jumping into a pit yourself if you went like that?"

Biden Lu said in a deep voice, "But this is a great opportunity."

He paused and said, "In this world, there's only a thousand days to be a thief, not a thousand days to prevent a thief, Jenny, last time you were lucky and they didn't succeed, but what about next time? What about next time? There's no guarantee that any of us will always have this much luck, so if we do manage to ferret out that group, I'm all over it."

Biden Lu's words caused Jenny Jing to shake fiercely.

She looked at his deep eyebrows and his calm but sure face, and her heart suddenly became a little complicated and hesitant.

"But..."

"There's no more buts."

Biden Lu decisively said, "Don't worry, he doesn't dare to set a trap for me, after all, the domestic Gu family side is still under my control, although he is the illegitimate son of the Gu family and has always been very prejudiced against the Gu family, but he is also reluctant to give up such a large share of the family business."

"So, he didn't dare to do anything to me, and the reason he called me over this time should be that we met the same wave of enemies."

"An enemy of an enemy is a friend, even if it's temporary, but what's wrong with being able to mutually benefit each other?"

Jenny was silent.

I have to say that Biden Lu's words touched her.

It wasn't that she was saying that Gu Si Qian would necessarily harm Biden Lu, it was just that in her eyes, that man was tricky and had always refused to suffer.

How could he sell such a big favor to him for no reason at all?

There must be something wrong with it.

Thinking that, she frowned and said, "Okay, it's not impossible to go over there, but I have to come with you."

Biden Lu frowned.

Jenny said, "You are not allowed to refuse, or none of us will go."

Biden Lu wanted to say something more persuasive, "Jenny, you..."

"I don't want to listen to all that preaching."

Jenny directly interrupted him, looked into his eyes and said: "I do not want to listen to the child for the sake of the overall situation of what to say, Biden Lu, we are husband and wife, one glory and one loss, all the big picture is not as good as you, if there is really anything, I also prefer to stay with you, not willing to live alone in this world."

Biden Lu shook fiercely.

A heart just like that was suddenly hit hard by something, sore and soft.

Distressingly so.

He reached out and took Jenny into his arms.
