

Super Rich Dad Chapter 907-908

Chapter 907

Jiang Hao looked at Yu Shaobai and laughed lightly twice before sighing, 'I believe that you, President, are hoping to change this situation, but why don't you stop and look at these people in front of you?'

A change certainly meant sacrificing bloodshed, but if it could not be solidified, what was the use of gaining even more.

To be honest. At this moment, Jiang Hao was more inclined to the attitude of how the Shen clan family had treated Hedong back then, spending ten years to slowly indoctrinate Hedong, and all things would slowly change.

And what Yu Shaobai wanted, as he was doing now, was just the same as some people in Hedong before. They just want to get what they deserve, not to really change.

Thinking of this. Jiang Hao shook his head slightly before getting up and arching his hand at Yu Shaobai, 'That's all for today, Chairman Yu, please let me think about it for a while longer if you can.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao turned around and intended to leave. Yu Shaobai turned his back on Jiang Hao and looked at the information in his hands for a moment in silence and said, 'Are you really going to leave like this?'

As he said this, Yu Shaobai turned his head to look at Jiang Hao's back.

'Who do you think is the one who really wants to do well in this Hedong, the Shen family? No, the Shen family is just trying to slowly take control of Hedong, they aren't even thinking about the future of Hedong!'

Yu Shaobai knew that if he let Jiang Hao go this time, I was afraid that in the future, this man would be in the Shen family's camp.

Although the Shen family today was not as sharp as it was more than ten years ago. But the bottom is still not shallow, if it continues like this.

If the Qinghe Society wanted to overthrow the Hedong Shen Family, then I'm afraid it wouldn't be possible to wait another twenty years, let alone see this day in his father's lifetime.

Jiang Hao turned his head and looked deeply at Yu Shaobai for a few moments before he couldn't help but smile and said, 'If you really intend to do what's best for Hedong, listen to my words, give up when it's time to give up, sometimes giving up might get you more.'

After saying this Jiang Hao left straight away, not caring in the least about Yu Shaobai behind him, because he knew that Yu Shaobai would never make a move on himself.

Just as Jiang Hao finished talking to Yu Shaobai on his side. Han San was sitting somewhat nervously in front of Ning Kun.

‘What should we do, Mr Jiang has been going to see Yu Shao Bai for so long, nothing will happen, right?’

After saying this, Han San bit his fingertips somewhat nervously and spoke, ‘Yu Shaobai is notoriously inhuman, if he does anything to Mr. Jiang, and I’m not by his side!’

Seemingly frightened by the thought, Han San spoke with a hint of crying in his voice.

Ning Kun leisurely looked at the newspaper in his hand and crossed his legs and said, ‘Let it go, he won’t do anything to Jiang Hao. At least he’s a level 3 martial artist, so it’s okay if he doesn’t please him. You want to make a move on him?’

When he heard that Jiang Hao was a Level 3 martial artist, Han San was stunned and looked at Ning Kun for a moment before saying, ‘Really, don’t scare me, do you?’

Ning Kun gave Han San a disdainful look. He said, ‘If I tell you the real strength of Jiang Hao, I’m afraid you’ll be scared to piss your trousers.’

After laughing lightly, Ning Kun did not reveal Jiang Hao’s real strength, but shook his head with a light smile and said, ‘Anyway, don’t worry, Yu Shaobai will never do anything against Jiang Hao. But this matter does give us a reminder.’

Han San wiped the corners of his eyes after hearing this and said, ‘What reminder, you tell me, I’ll definitely pay attention next time.’

‘The other party doesn’t look like he’s been watching us for a day or two, he’s probably been watching us since we were on our way to Hedong, otherwise he wouldn’t have known where we were as soon as he returned.’

After saying this, Ning Kun looked at Han San with some suspicion and said, ‘When you sent Jiang Hao to school recently, did you find anything unusual, such as being followed or something.’

Han San pondered for a moment before shaking his head and saying, ‘I’ve always been very careful in this regard. Absolutely nothing like that happened because Li Miao had given me an explanation before.’

Jiang Hao’s identity was the bloodline of the Shen clan family back then. Just because of this, no matter if it was someone like Li Miao or Han San who had received favours from the Shen family. Neither would easily relax their protection of Jiang Hao.

Looking at Han San’s serious look, Ning Kun was silent for a moment before he was sighing, ‘It looks like this. I guess it’s just that the other side has been secretly watching us all along... some fun, to be watched even here.’

Han San pondered for a moment before taking out his phone to look at Fate and Misery and spoke, ‘Why don’t I contact Li Miao over there now and ask her to clear out the south of the city, maybe we can catch a few interesting people.’

Ning Kun shook his head slightly and then said in a deep voice, ‘Forget it, let’s just pretend we don’t know about this matter, this might instead make the other side underestimate us a bit, otherwise if we reveal it too early, I’m afraid it will lead to certain trouble.’

The two of them were talking about this when Jiang Hao came back with a piece of meat in his hand and saw Ning Kun and Han San sitting in the living room with some sad faces, so he greeted them with a smile.

Then he put down the vegetables he had bought in the kitchen and said, 'You're back early. I say, Han San, you're really something, you didn't know to go to the market to buy some vegetables when you came back.'

Ning Kun looked at Jiang Hao and rolled his eyes helplessly and said, 'Come on, you are now at level 3 or 4, do you still need to eat to provide energy for your daily activities?'

Jiang Hao shrugged helplessly and then looked at Ning Kun and laughed, 'You think I don't want to, say what you guys just talked about, can you tell me?'

After saying this, Jiang Hao lit a cigarette for himself and looked at Ning Kun and Han San with some curiosity, the expression on Han San's face looked quite amusing.

Han San looked at Jiang Hao in a dumbfounded manner, and after seeing that he was indeed not missing any arms or legs, he was surprised and said, 'My God, how did you get out of Yu Shao Bai's place, we sacrificed ten people today, do you know that?'

Jiang Hao smiled slightly after speaking, 'Yeah, I know, and I also made a deal with them, if the eight hundred don't shoot arrows and can't shoot anyone, then that person will be mine, he just needs to shed the apple on my head and wake up.'

Ning Kun listened to Jiang Hao than a thumbs up and said: 'I did not see out you kid now also quite capable words, are close to be able to who ah open me to work alone!'

Jiang Hao looked at Ning Kun and laughed for a while before sitting down, then looked at the coffee table in silence.

Only after a long time did he say: 'Right now I'm afraid Yu Shaobai will soon pull some things out, whether these things will affect us or not, we'd better all make early preparations as soon as possible.'

Chapter 908

In fact Jiang Hao's feeling was not wrong, just after he left, the black robed man stood quietly behind Yu Shaobai and said in a deep voice: 'I told you before, he won't follow us.'

Yu Shaobai laughed lightly and spoke slowly, 'It doesn't matter, at least it also made me see one thing, this person should be heading for the Shen family.'

After saying these words. Yu Shaobai pondered for a moment without looking back and said, 'Did you find out what you were told to find out, the identities of the two of them.'

The black-robed man shook his head slightly: 'What can be found out on the surface can never be true, if it was true, there would be no need for them to come to Hedong, and the detailed information, I can't investigate.'

‘Waste. I’ve raised you for so long, and you can’t even do such a trivial thing?’

Compared to his inability to pull Jiang Hao together, the incompetence of his own men made Yu Shaobai feel a little more shaken.

‘This generation of the Shen family has gradually sunken into silence. They say that the Shen family’s three greats are in fact nothing more than a bunch of mere clay chickens and dogs, I must break the myth of the Shen family today!’

At this moment, Yu Shaobai was not as calm and aloof as he had been just now, instead, his aura was now a bit of a saber-rattling aura!

There was a hint of hostility in his eyes!

‘Has anything unusual happened to the Shen family during this period of time, investigate clearly and study the plan of action with me, at first, let’s start with this most unproductive Shen Zhiqiu.’

The black-robed man nodded slightly upon hearing this and retreated, at this point in time, it would be better for Yu Shaobai to stay away, lest he suffer an unwarranted disaster.

Just as the black-robed man went to investigate Shen Zhiqiu’s affairs during this time, at this time in the Shen family mansion, Shen Feng was being forced to act as a referee, watching his two younger brothers play ball with his own son.

Thinking of this, Shen Feng let out a somewhat helpless sigh. Perhaps it was because the school had a new PE teacher.

Every time his son came back from school, he gradually behaved differently, and several times when he was asked what happened, he did not say anything.

Finally, when everyone was tired of playing, Shen Sihai sat on a chair and drank water in big gulps, and there was no trace of his gloomy smell.

Shen Zhiqiu, on the other hand, was lying on the court like a child, laughing and panting heavily as he did so.

When Shen Sihai finished the water he tossed the bottle of water to Shen Zhiqiu, who reached out to take it and poured in two gulps before exclaiming, ‘Yes!’

Then he looked at his nephew, Shen Qingzhi, and laughed, ‘I didn’t see it, little nephew, you’ve started playing ball recently, you’re not the same as before.’

Shen Qingzhi sat on the ground and took the water, looked at his third uncle and smiled before saying, ‘Third uncle, you should move more, look at your legs. They’ve all become a bit thicker, hahaha.’

Shen Feng looked at his son and shook his head helplessly, his eyes were full of doting, then he said, ‘Qingzhi, you should go and do your homework first, I have something to talk to your two uncles.’

He was not a child and knew that his two uncles and father were very busy and it was not easy for him to find time to play ball with him today.

But just as he was about to go and do his homework, he suddenly thought of Jiang Hao for some reason.

So he stopped and looked back at Shen Feng and said, 'Dad, can I invite our teacher to come and sit at home, he is really nice. When he went to give us a lesson today, he was worried that we were hungry after exercise and brought us pastries.'

Shen Feng nodded with a light smile at these words, 'Fine, such a good teacher. Why don't you invite him back to sit down, why don't you wait for two days and tell him to come home for dinner.'

After saying this, Shen Feng turned his head to look at Shen Zhiqiu and smiled before speaking, 'It just so happens that your third uncle's birthday is coming up, so by the way, let him come over and have a meal together.'

When Shen Qingzhi heard this, he jumped up happily, and then trotted back to his room to start his homework.

Shen Feng looked at his son and shook his head helplessly before saying, 'This brat. He's probably been brought down by that gym teacher and has become a bit playful and active all day long.'

Shen Zhiqiu snorted and said, 'Children should be like this, why do you want Qingzhi to behave like you did when you were a child, what's the point of being dead all day long.'

Shen Sihai sat on the side and laughed out loud when he heard this, laughing at the same time. From time to time, he looked at his elder brother.

When Shen Zhiqiu saw this, she also gave Shen Sihai a disdainful look and laughed, 'Second brother, you're no better, compared to big brother, you're probably not even as good as big brother!'

The second brother, Shen Sihai, couldn't laugh anymore and looked at Shen Zhiqiu and said, 'Hey, don't forget who protected you when you were beaten as a child!'

Shen Feng sat on the side and watched Shen Sihai and Shen Zhiqiu fighting with each other, and laughed lightly twice.

To him, it was already a happy thing that the family brothers could still be so harmonious.

Only when he remembered the news he had just received, a haze could not help but rise on Shen Feng's face.

Shen Zhiqiu, who was himself a person with a delicate mind, stopped laughing after noticing that something was wrong with his elder brother.

He looked at Shen Feng in a strange manner and said, 'Big brother. Is something wrong, why do you feel like something is not right?'

Shen Sihai also noticed this at this time, so he looked at Shen Feng curiously. He waited quietly for him to speak.

Shen Feng looked at his two brothers and then said after a moment of silence, 'The nail we put in at Qinghe will send back news that Yu Shaobai is planning to make a move against our Shen family.'

Shen Sihai laughed coldly after hearing this and said, 'I thought there was something wrong, just this? Just let him do it. I'd like to see who gives him the courage to make a move against our Shen family.'

In this part of Hedong, only the Shen family was the strongest back then, they entered Hedong in less than a month and they had hardened and defeated all the forces!

That's why. Any time something happened in the East of the River, they would come to the Shen Family for consultation.

Shen Feng shook his head after looking at Shen Sihai, 'You can't say that, Yu Shaobai isn't a stupid person, since he's going to make a move, he shouldn't leave himself open to anything.'

Shen Zhiqiu was silent for a moment after hearing this and said, 'You are worried that Yu Shaobai will most likely target me when the time comes, right?'

Shen Feng looked at his brother and nodded slightly and did not say anything, his eyes already said everything.

The brother is a third level martial artist, but he has never been in charge of the family's affairs, plus he is more rambunctious, so he is the easiest person to deal with.'
