

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 91

Hearing this, Zoey Gu's face changed slightly and turned to look at the hospital bed not far away.

He threw Liam Lu's suit jacket casually above, half of the quilt was folded, and the pillow lay crookedly in the middle of the bed.

He has always been a particular person and is extremely organized. If it weren't for going too quickly, it would never be like this.

Thinking of this, Zoey Gu couldn't help frowning, and took the phone out of her pocket to call Liam Lu.

The phone rang for a long time and no one answered it.

She didn't give up on fighting again, but ended up directly over there.

Zoey Gu finally realized that something was wrong and turned to look at the babysitter next to her.

"You call Shiyue to see if Liam Lu has ever gone back?"

The babysitter nodded and turned around to get his mobile phone. After a while, he ran back in a panic, panting.

"Miss Gu, the husband did not return to the garden. Nor...not with Miss Yun."

At this moment, even Alina Yin on the side couldn't help but worry and looked at Zoey Gu nervously.

"Aunt Gu, what's wrong with Dad? Is he sick?"

Zoey Gu pursed her lips, held her mind and raised her hand to touch Alina Yin's head, and said softly.

"Alina Yin, don't worry, Dad will be fine. Auntie will look for him now, okay?"

Seemingly hesitating, Zoey Gu picked up her mobile phone to call Shiyue, and nodded at the nanny, got up and left the ward.

After two beeps, the more surprised voice sounded over there.

“Miss Gu?”

Zoey Gu answered in a low voice, and then asked softly.

“Is Liam Lu with you?”

Shiyue became more confused, “Didn’t Lu Shao accompany you and Alina Yin in the hospital?”

Zoey Gu’s heart sank completely, and the steps beneath her couldn’t help but quicken.

“Others are not here, nor are they returning to the garden. The nanny said that something was wrong with him today...”

Before he finished speaking, Shiyue over there suddenly screamed.

“I’m x, bad! Today is the fifteenth, and Liam is sick!”

fall ill...

The unfamiliar vocabulary suddenly caught Zoey Gu’s pause, and the phone almost fell out!

She raised the volume in disbelief, trembling questioningly.

“What nonsense are you talking about? What’s wrong with Liam Lu?!”

“...”

Shiyue realized that he had missed his mouth, and hadn’t spoken for a long time.

“Shiyue, speak! What happened to Liam Lu? Where is he?”

As if suddenly awakened, the sound of a chair being kicked over and a messy footstep sounded on the other end of the phone.

Immediately, it was Shiyue’s violent sound.

“Miss Gu, I will check Liam’s position right now. But remember...no matter what happens, you must not hurt Lu Shao’s self-esteem!”

Zoey Gu was taken aback.

What on earth is Shiyue talking about?

Since Liam Lu returned to Berven City, he had always hurt her. When was it her turn to hurt him?

Shiyue's work efficiency is very high.

However, in just over ten minutes, he quickly found out the location of Liam Lu, and immediately sent the location to Zoey Gu.

Berven City Hotel.

Zoey Gu saw the address, but suddenly became a little hesitant.

She told Shiyue more and more.

“Since he has found it, you can go there. If he is really unwell, you can take him to the hospital...”

Unexpectedly, Shiyue interrupted her without finishing her words.

“Miss Gu, no one is more suitable to go than you.”
