

Chapter 921

Only then did Nangong Jin wave his hand, "Go down."

Nan Gong Yul bowed and left.

When he had left, Nangongjin sat there for a while longer, then got up and went to the back.

It was a quaint mansion, large, with a few rooms in the front and a large garden in the back.

The garden is lined with rocks and mountains, planted with many beautiful exotic flowers and even a few ancient trees that are hundreds of years old, and is a rare and ancient charm.

Nangong Jin followed the stone path of the garden all the way in, coming to a rocky hill in the middle and stopping.

Then he pressed a few times on the rockery, and suddenly, the rockery, which was still a jagged and strange rock, immediately cracked open a crack, and there was actually a tunnel entrance.

He followed that entrance.

The smell inside was damp and cold.

A winding, rocky road lay at his feet, and he followed it down for about a minute or two before the view before him opened up.

I saw that it was a large stone house, with ice all around it, and in the centre of the house, there was a transparent crystal coffin.

If anyone else had been here at this time, they would have been amazed.

Because inside that crystal coffin, there was a white-haired old man lying there.

The surprise was not here, but that the old man and Bella Qiao actually looked five or six times alike.

Only her hair was all white and her face was covered in wrinkles, so she was at least seventy or eighty years old at a glance.

She lay there quietly, her face peaceful, and Nangong Jin walked over to her, looked at her quiet sleeping face, reached out his hand, and gently stroked her hair.

“Shallow.”

He murmured quietly.

It's a very bizarre scene of a young man, who is affectionately calling her little name, Shallow, to an 80-year-old man in a coffin.

But he didn't seem surprised at all, curling his lips slightly, looking at her and saying softly, “Wait for me for a little while longer, and soon, I'll be able to wake you up, Shallow.”

The old woman naturally still had her eyes closed, as if she had no life at all.

He cherished her hair little by little, and said to himself: “What I can't get, that person will be able to get it back instead of us, Shallow, as long as you gather twelve pieces of heavenly jade, you can wake up, and then I'll take you to see the world now, okay?”

Do you know that this world now is completely different from the one we were in before, and there are many, many very new things here that you'll love when you wake up?

Shallow, I love you and I'll always be with you, waiting for you.”

He finished, bowed his head, and placed a soft k*ss on her forehead.

Then, before turning away.

And now, the other side.

After clearing all the territory left by the Chinese Society, Biden Lu and Jenny Jing had no more reason to stay on this side.

Plus, they can't afford to be away all the time due to their busy domestic schedule, so they were ready to start back.

Lu and Gu used to be best friends, but later the relationship became stiff because of their interests, and the world thought that the two families would have a war sooner or later.

But I didn't expect that through this cooperation and contact down the road, not only would there be no more friction between the two sides, but instead there was a strange understanding.

Jenny could see that Biden Lu no longer used

I hated Gu Si Qian so much before.

Gu Si Qian, on the other hand, had changed his mind about Biden Lu because both Biden Lu and Jenny Jing had contributed a lot to this rescue of Bella Qiao.

So, these two formerly eight poles can't even stand together, death is impossible to stand together, but now somehow some fishy taste of each other.

After all, they are both two intelligent people who know that division and unity must be more beneficial to each other.

So, both of them were in tune with each other, and Jenny was naturally happy to see it happen.

That night, because he knew that Biden Lu and Jenny Jing would be returning to China tomorrow, Gu Si Qian had organized a party for them to celebrate in the evening.

The location was chosen in the castle, but this time more people came, not only Gu Siqian Bella Qiao and Biden Lu and his wife, even Kepler and Nina Hua who had been in F country also rushed over.

Because Nina Hua was also planning to return to China in the next two days, and after talking to Jenny on the phone, he learned that they were also going back tomorrow, so he simply changed his flight and went back with them.

Since they were going back together, they naturally had to meet up first, and that's why they came directly to Lin City from the F country.

The castle was brightly lit and bustling.

Lin Shen also brought a few friends over, and of course his little girlfriend, and although they hadn't officially made an official announcement, they could tell by the way they got along that it was already a nine-tenths of the way there.

At dinner, Georgie even poked fun at him and asked when he could have his wedding drink.

Unexpectedly, how smart is Lin Shen?

A straightforward phrase, and when your happy hour is over, ours will be immediately available.

Bella Qiao choked on his blocked chest, blushed, and immediately stopped talking.

Next to that, Gu Si Qian was happy.

Quirking his lips in a smile, he said, "Are you serious?As soon as we do it, you do it right away?"

Lin Shen had always only fought to win and lose in such matters, regardless of anything else.

So immediately placed a bet, "Of course, a man of honour, a man of his word, you do it today we can do it tomorrow, how about it?Siken, is this what you're planning to do?"

Bella Qiao glared at him, afraid that Gu Siqian would say something shocking, and even said, "Nothing of the sort, don't listen to his nonsense."

I said, quickly changing the subject.

"This steak is delicious, come on, Jenny, you try a steak."

I said, getting a steak on Jenny's plate.

Jenny smiled, "I can't eat any more, I'm full."

Biden Lu looked at her, "How much did you eat, how come you're full? No, eat some more."

Because Jenny had been feeling fat lately, she was intentionally losing weight.

But Biden Lu wouldn't let her, and every time he would find all kinds of excuses to make her eat more.

Jenny was helpless and unable to refuse, so now when they ate, it was usually when she was at her most speechless.

She pouted and said, "I've already eaten a lot tonight, so don't do that, make it look like you're feeding a pig."

Biden Lu smiled, "If you're really that good at eating, I'm happy."

The sweet conversation between the two of them made Lin Shen's flesh ache.

Doing an exaggerated flesh movement, he said, "Okay, okay ah you two, make me get goose bumps, all old married show what love?"

Biden Lu looked at him, "A man without a wife has no right to speak."

Chapter 922

Lin Shen: "....."

Nina Hua laughed, "Biden Lu is right, Lin Shen, I think you should drink more wine tonight, wait until you really marry this little beauty beside you, then we can talk."

Lin Shen hatefully drank a whole glass of red wine.

Then, turning to Gu Siqian, he complained, "Siqian, you have to hurry up, you can't get married without getting married, look at how these people bully us, when you get married, I'll immediately follow."

Gu Si Qian looked at him, but he didn't refuse.

The group of people ate the meal with great enthusiasm, and afterwards, Nina Hua was clamoring to go out since it was his first time in this place and he didn't know the customs of the outside world yet.

But Jenny and Lin Shen and a few others didn't want to go out, so in the end, Kepler had no choice but to go out with her.

When she went out, Jenny Jing and Lin Shen were a few people, playing cards in the living room.

They were playing a local style of play over here, which Jenny didn't know at first, but after being taught a few hands-on by Bella Qiao, he immediately knew how to play.

Bella Qiao also deliberately took a large box of cash out, and said: "We are not allowed to deny tonight ah, win or lose, must be cashed."

Lin Shen looked at her box of cash and was stunned.

"My God, Joe, where have you been robbing?Where do you get so much cash?"

After all, it's rare to use cash in this day and age, and who would normally keep so much cash in their home.

Just a cursory glance here shows at least a little over a million.

Bella Qiao gave him a blank look and said, "What do you care where I came from!Where's your money?Take it out."

Lin Shen's face changed.

"I'm just here for a ride, I've got ten thousand dollars on me, where is it as much as you?"

As I said, I took my wallet out.

Jenny also said, "I don't have much cash either."

Bella Qiao frowned at the sight.

Finally, by Biden Lu spoke, "Let's say, losing a direct mobile phone transfer can be done, not cash so troublesome, but also have to count, delay time."

Bella Qiao saw it, thought about it, and agreed.

"All right then, let's add a wee friend first."

So the group added friends again before starting to play cards.

After a few games of cards, Jenny had mixed wins and losses, but in the end, it was a no-win situation.

Whereas Bella Qiao is highly skilled and has been winning, Lin Shen is miserable in comparison.

It was almost winless the entire night, getting beaten every time by Georgie.

Lin Shen couldn't help but shout, "Ah Qiao, did you cheat? You said you must have cheated, didn't you?"

Bella Qiao laughed, pushed away his hand that was coming to touch his cards and said, "fu*k you! I don't need to cheat when I'm playing with you. I can beat you with my eyes closed, okay?"

Lin Shen yelled, "No! It's not fair!"

"Quick, transfer the money!"

The group was hip-hopping and the whole house was filled with their laughter.

And not far away, Gu Si Qian looked at the scene and slightly curled his lips.

He didn't disturb them, but walked out in silence.

Jenny actually noticed him and saw him walking out, her heart slightly pounded, and for some reason, she always felt that there was something strange about Gu Siqian tonight.

But she was playing cards at the moment, plus in a really good mood, so she didn't think much of it, much less catch up to ask.

A couple of guys played cards for a couple of hours, starting at eight o'clock and going until midnight.

The point was just scattered.

In the end, it was Bella Qiao who won the most, and Jenny won a little, in fact, she couldn't win on her own, but fortunately, Biden Lu was sitting beside her.

However, he had a good habit of never pointing fingers when Jenny was playing.

Only a little mention when she can't make up her mind which card to play.

It's just this one, but it turns defeat into victory every time.

After a few rounds, Bella Qiao and Lin Shen quit, and have asked them to shield the families from being allowed to watch.

Jenny laughed, and finally had no choice but to let Biden Lu go to the side to play chess with Kepler.

Kepler was never fond of playing these things, and chess was still more to his liking, so after they went to the chess room, they never came out again.

After the card game was over, Jenny felt a little hungry and asked Bella Qiao, "Are you guys hungry yet?"

Bella Qiao said, "Not to mention, I don't feel anything if you don't mention it, and I feel a little hungry if you do."

Jenny smiled, "It would be nice to have a hot bowl of supper at this time of night."

Lin Shen said, "I want me too."

Bella Qiao gave him a blank look, "It's so late, why aren't you going home yet, what are you eating for supper?"

Lin Shen was so angry that he waved his fist at her, "You won so much money from me tonight, what's wrong with me eating one of your late night snacks? No matter, I'm going to eat."

Of course Bella Qiao was only joking with him, and the sight of him was not by.

"Tsk, just eat it, what's with that righteous look."

I said, and went to the kitchen to order the cook there to make a few bowls of supper out.

Just went in, thinking that Biden Lu and the others were not there, so they came out again and asked Jenny Jing, "Do they want to eat?"

Jenny was stunned and thought, "I don't know, wait a minute, I'll go ask her."

Bella Qiao nodded.

So, Jenny headed to the next chess room.

However, I didn't expect to see Biden Lu and Kepler standing there not far down the corridor before entering the chess room.

She was slightly startled and puzzled, and was about to ask them, but Biden Lu had already seen her.

Even put a finger up to her lips in a silent gesture, then waved her over.

Jenny was surprised and didn't know what he meant by that.

But she complied, and walked over to a vacant lot in front of her, only to find they were looking at it.

Only in the clearing, Gu Si Qian was squatting there, concentrating on something.

Jenny asked curiously, "What's he getting?"

Biden Lu smiled, "You'll find out later."

He looked like a sellout, making Jenny frown.

At that moment, Gu Si Qian seemed to have finished arranging things on the floor, turned around and asked, "How was it? Is the location right?"

Biden Lu picked up the iPad in his hand, took a look at it, and compared an ok pose to him.

Only then did Gu Si Qian turn this way.

Walking down the cloister, I realized that Jenny was there.

Jenny asked curiously, "What were you just drumming up there?"

Kusken smiled, "Nothing, some trinkets that are of little use."

Jenny frowned.

Her intuition told her that Gu Si Qian was lying.

But they wouldn't say, so she couldn't keep asking questions.

Chapter 923

So, without saying anything else, "Oh" was said.

Biden Lu asked her, "Aren't you guys playing cards?What are you doing here?No more games?"

Jenny said, "No more games, the card game is over, we're all feeling a bit hungry and want to fix some supper, I came over to ask if you guys want to eat, if you do, let the kitchen make more."

Biden Lu didn't answer in a hurry, but looked at Gu Si Qian and Kepler.

Kuskan didn't know what to do, and did it to the point where his head was sweating.

As I wiped my sweat with a towel, I said, "I'll eat some."

Kepler also nodded, "Then I want some too."

Only then did Jenny respond, "Okay, then I'll go tell them."

Then, before turning around and walking inside.

Unexpectedly, she hadn't even taken a few steps before Gu Si Qian called out to her.

"Eh, wait."

Jenny looked back at him, "What's wrong?"

Gu Si Qian smiled, "When you go over there later, ask Bella Qiao to come out and tell her I have something for her."

Jenny raised an eyebrow.

Her eyes darted searchingly around Gu Siqian's face, and she couldn't tell what he was selling, but in the end, she nodded, "Okay."

After she left, she went straight to the kitchen.

At this time, Bella Qiao was in the kitchen arranging for the maids to make a snack.

The snack is a very simple shrimp dumpling that is fresher and lighter, just right for the season.

After Jenny entered, she asked, "How was it? Do they eat?"

Jenny nodded, "Well, it's all about food, you can ask them to make more."

Bella Qiao nodded, "Okay, I got it."

She said, and turned to the cook to instruct her.

When she ordered, Jenny remained standing nearby.

When she finished giving her account, Fang said again, "By the way, Gu Si Qian asked you to go out and look for him, saying that he had something for you."

Georgie froze, looking at her in surprise.

"Looking for me? What do you want from me?"

Jenny seemed to be smiling, "Who knows."

She said, as if suddenly remembering something, and the smile in her eyes took on a hitch in her eyes.

"Maybe there's some kind of surprise for you, so hurry up and go, or be careful if you're late."

Georgie gave a slight pause, followed by a smile.

"No way, he's not the kind of guy who knows how to be romantic."

But although the mouth said so, the step of the foot, which was uncontrollably quicker, went to the back of the garden.

Jenny Jing was curious, so naturally he followed.

On the way there, he ran into Nina Hua again, who saw how they were hurrying and asked curiously, "Why are you guys going?"

Jenny said, "Go watch the fun."

Watching the fun?

Nina Hua was dumbfounded and immediately jumped up from the couch.

"What's the buzz? I want to see it too!"

So, what should have started out as a scene of just two people, was suddenly a huge wave of people.

The group arrived at the back of the garden on the grass, originally thought, Gu Siqian should be there waiting for them, did not expect to arrive only to find that the garden is empty, where there are still people?

Not only had Gu Siqian disappeared, even Biden Lu and Kepler had disappeared.

Jenny was stunned and a little surprised.

Bella Qiao was confused, "Jenny, you said he had something for me, where is he?"

Jenny also shook her head in puzzlement, "I don't know ah, there was still that cloister there just now, how come it disappeared after a while."

Just at this time, a deep magnetic voice suddenly sounded from the castle.

"Georgie, you go twenty years ahead."

Everyone was startled.

Turning my head, I realized the sound was coming from the first floor.

A group of people looking upstairs, only to see Gu Siqian standing alone on the first floor of the terrace, is looking down at them, holding a hand does not know whether it is a microphone or speaker of something, the sound is amplified through that.

At this time, Jenny's brain suddenly had a flash of light and his eyes brightened as he remembered something.

Not caring whether Bella Qiao was willing or not, she immediately pushed her forward a step, then pulled Nina Hua and hurriedly retreated back to the cloister.

Georgie hadn't reacted.

On the first floor terrace, the man's gaze was so deep that when he looked at her it was as if he saw through her eyes to her heart's content.

Her heart involuntarily throbbed a little.

I don't know why, but my heart suddenly beat faster.

She pursed her lips and took twenty steps forward, as he said.

It was an even emptier patch of grass with nothing around it, not only was there no one, there wasn't even a jump light anymore.

It was only then that she noticed that the garden was surprisingly dark tonight.

There were supposed to be streetlights everywhere before, but tonight none of them were uniformly lit, causing her to feel like she was now in a vast expanse of darkness.

Bella Qiao's heart was a little afraid of the dark, even though it was a very familiar environment, but she herself was a little afraid of the dark, and this time of year, coupled with her unstable mind, she always felt like something was going to happen, so she was even more afraid.

However, they apparently didn't make her wait too long.

Only Gu Si Qian said in a deep voice, "Begin."

As soon as the words fell, only a “whoosh” sound was heard, and the surroundings instantly lit up.

It wasn't one bright light, but countless, flying straight up from the earth plane all at once.

There were so many that even flew right past her into the sky.

Bella Qiao was shocked and looked up subconsciously, only to see that it was a multitude of small drones, hovering in the sky, creating a huge picture.

That image is....

Her heart was in a rage!

Only the small colorful lights, staggeringly arranged, finally formed a picture, and that picture was exactly the scene of her first encounter with Gu Siqian when she was eight years old.

Gu Si Qian's deep and magnetic voice came from above.

“We met when you were eight years old, when we were both kids, and we never imagined the future of our lives would have so many bonds and attachments.”

“I still remember the day I first met you, you had two pigtails, you were not very big but you had a lot of breath and a lot of heart, and you told me that you were the granddaughter of the dean's grandfather and I was his apprentice, and rounding up we were brother and sister, and I said, I don't want to be brother and sister with you.”

“You were sad and crying, and I was calm on the surface but actually panicked, and that was the first time I knew that girls cry so easily.”

The man smiled softly, as if reminiscing about something long past.

Those beautiful images, like the world's most fragrant wine, have been deposited in the memory, fresher and more fragrant over time.

The little dot of light in the sky suddenly changed and turned into another picture.
