

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 921 – 930

Chapter 921

Levi has never thought about it, and one day he can actually feel the tenderness and love passed from his father.

After all, in his impression, he has always lived with Mommy.

Mommy treats him very well, Aunt Jessica also takes good care of him, and his uncle spoils him very much.

He once wondered if he had daddy's pampering, would that pampering be the same as his uncle.

However, when Levi took a comparison between Aunt Jessica and Mommy, he felt that his father's pet and uncle's pet were definitely different. Of course, he doesn't mean that his uncle and Aunt Jessica do not spoil him as much as Daddy and Mommy.

On the contrary, they are very good to themselves.

It's just that some emotions are irreplaceable.

Daddy is daddy, mommy is mommy, which is different.

Levi looked at Walter gently rubbing his wounds, feeling his nose sour, and soon he realized that he was moved by his father.

Soon, Levi reacted, snorted, and retracted his hand.

Walter paused, raised his eyes and asked him: “What’s the matter?”

He wanted to pull his hand again, but Levi pushed him away and slid out of the bed, away from him.

Seeing that the little guy was far away from him with an expression of anger on his face, Walter guessed that he should be angry with his previous attitude towards Stella.

Thinking of this, Walter pursed his thin lips, “What are you doing so far away? Come here.”

After hearing this, Levi made a face at him, turned and ran out of the ward.

Walter frowned, lifted the quilt and wanted to leave the bed, probably because of the violent movements, a sharp pain in his brain made him stop his movements, and he subconsciously reached out and pressed his head.

Just now, another white light flashed in his mind, and many pictures ran directly.

This situation has happened many times before.

Once he saw Stella, then Song An, and then...he saw Levi.

So, his memory is stimulated again and again, and then want to break the seal?

Walter pursed his thin lips displeasably, his eyes were cold, but unfortunately he still can't remember anything, but...what happened before him can explain everything.

Phillip was staying in the corridor, and suddenly heard the door of the ward opened, and then the little guy ran out.

His face changed slightly and he got up quickly.

“Levi, how come out?”

Did something happen?

Levi stopped, “Uncle Xiao, my daddy is awake.”

Hearing that, Phillip was taken aback for a moment, and then a smile of joy appeared in his eyes.

“Mr. Walter wakes up? I’ll go in and see him.”

Phillip walked directly over the Levi and went inside. After entering, Phillip felt that something was wrong again, so he stepped back and picked up the Levi and walked in.

Levi originally wanted to struggle, but thinking about the appearance of the daddy inside, he stopped struggling, and actively put the bracelet around Phillip’s neck, making a very intimate look.

When the little guy approached him, Phillip felt stiff.

He was such a big person, he had never held a child so intimately, and the child was still a child of Mr. Walter, and he was so close to him, Phillip suddenly felt that the child was also quite cute.

If... he gave birth to one himself...

As soon as his thoughts arrived, Phillip stopped immediately, not daring to think anymore.

He entered the ward holding millet beans.

Walter relieved his pain for a while, and when he was about to go out to fight Levi, he saw a tall man walking in holding Levi.

This scene halted Walter's steps and narrowed his eyes dangerously.

His son was actually hugged by a tall man, and then he hugged each other's neck affectionately, and the two looked very affectionate.

Who is this man?

Phillip walked in with the millet beans, and when he saw Walter getting up, his eyes were filled with joy.

It would be great if Mr. Walter is fine.

However, this thought didn't last long before it dissipated, because Phillip felt the murderous intent and coldness coming from Walter's body, and for some reason, he was completely confused.

He just came in, Young Master Ye... why is he hostile to him? The look in his eyes was as cold as poisoned, and he was so thrilling to hold Levi.

Levi was thief in his heart. After feeling the anger on Walter's body, he hugged Phillip's neck a little bit tightly.

Originally, Phillip stood trembling, and suddenly he felt Levi hug him tightly again. He thought to himself that this kid was really sticky. Could it be that he had an unspeakable fate with him? The ugly scar on his face not only didn't scare him away, but he was so affectionate with him, and Phillip felt strangely moved.

However, this movement did not last long before it disappeared, because Phillip could clearly feel that after Levi hugged his neck, Walter's fierceness skyrocketed a bit.

Phillip was stunned, and after thinking about it for a while, he quickly reacted.

It turned out that he was used as a gun by Levi.

For an instant, Phillip's heart moved cleanly.

Sure enough, it was Mr. Walter's child, he shouldn't have any expectations at all. Mr. Walter is a devil, and his species must be a little devil!

"You." Walter's eyes fell on Phillip, his thin lips just spit out a word.

Phillip immediately revealed his identity.

"Mr. Walter, I am Phillip, your assistant."

Phillip wasn't that stupid, and quickly revealed his identity. After all, he knew Mr. Walter's devil character.

Sure enough, after listening to Phillip's words, Walter narrowed his eyes, and the sharp aura on his body was reduced by half.

"Assistant Manager?"

"Yes." Phillip nodded, grabbing Levi to place him on the ground, and explained softly: "I am very worried after the accident happened to Shao Ye, so I came here with the young master this time."

Assistant...little master.

These two titles quickly let Walter sort out the identities of the two in front of him.

The sharp aura on his body converged and replaced by indifference.

Knowing that Phillip was his assistant, and there was no threat, Walter no longer looked at him sharply, but turned to Levi.

“Little guy, come here.”

Levi quickly hugged Phillip’s neck and shook his head.

Walter’s eyes darkened.

Phillip smiled wryly and whispered to Levi.

“Little Master, Shao Ye is calling you, go down.”

Levi tightened his neck, and Phillip felt that he could hardly breathe and was helpless.

“Uncle Xiao, Daddy’s land is too bad, you should call my mommy and ask my mommy to come and pick up Levi home. Don’t stay with Daddy. I want to go home.”

Phillip: “...”

Walter: “...”

Speaking of Stella, the expression in Walter's eyes softened a bit, but soon returned to his indifference. He approached Levi step by step, and his thin lips uttered, "You don't need to call your mommy, daddy just can take you home."

Chapter 922

At the end of the conversation, Phillip bends down and placed Levi on the floor very wisely, and whispered, "My dear Levi, go to your daddy's place."

After speaking, he seemed to think of something, and raised his head to look at Walter.

"Young Master Ye, is there nothing wrong with your body? You fainted just now, right now you wake up with nothing else? Or... I call the doctor over to see?"

Walter's thin lips were pursed. Apart from the severe pain in his head when he got up just now, he has no other condition. Because he probably guessed the cause and effect, Walter felt that he should have been stimulated by the brain. Almost broke the seal, that's why this happened.

If it's just that, what's the problem with him?

Thinking of this, Walter said coldly: "No, go back now."

After speaking, he lowered his head and glanced at Levi who was unwilling to come, his eyes softened, and his voice lowered a bit.

"Come here, Dad will take you home."

Levi: "..."

He pouted, although he didn't want to admit it, but he seemed to have been given the time by Daddy's words just now. He felt his little heart numb, and then he walked toward Walter with disbelief.

When he reached him, Walter raised his hand and fished him up. Levi snorted and turned his head away.

"Bad daddy, I don't want to follow you, I just want to see Mommy."

Phillip looked at this scene and shook his head helplessly in his heart.

The son of Mr. Walter is too arrogant.

"Ok."

Walter didn't mind what Levi said, anyway, as long as he stayed in his arms obediently, his son ran into another man's arms, even though that person was his assistant, that wouldn't work.

Thinking about this, Walter inadvertently raised his eyes and glanced at Phillip.

When Phillip was about to leave with Walter, he suddenly felt a faint sight falling on his face, his body froze, but soon this sight moved away.

Because Walter went out holding Levi.

Phillip followed them and left the hospital together.

Although he was a little worried about Mr. Walter's body, there should be no problem with his appearance.

And if he is worried about Mr. Walter, wait until he sees his young grandma. In comparison, Stella is the one who is most worried.

The living room fell into a strange silence for a while, and no one spoke.

Yu Chijin didn't expect that Walter's memory was stimulated at all, and all he was thinking about now was what if Walter remembered everything and then hated what his grandpa did? When the time comes, the grandson, who has finally recognized him, is going to abandon him like this?

Who will give the property he left behind?

Yu Chijin glanced at Song An, she was sitting there lazily, with a casual look.

If he leaves all the property to Song An in his will, it is estimated that this girl can donate all these things without blinking.

Although donating can do good deeds, it is also his lifetime effort.

After Yuchijin found Walter, he planned to get him engaged to the Duanmu family. After he died, he would donate part of his property to do good deeds, and the rest belonged to Walter.

But if Walter recovers his memory, he is afraid...

Thinking of this, Yuchijin sighed heavily in his heart.

Knowing that no one wants to inherit his property, he shouldn't have worked so hard.

Seeing that everyone was silent and awkward when sitting, Yu Bo looked at Yu Chijin and then looked away.

“Miss An An, there is nothing wrong with Shen Shao’s body? Do we need to visit the hospital?”

Hearing, Song An replied lazily.

“No, he was only temporarily irritated and fainted. There is no major problem. He survived the previous air crash. It can be seen that he is a catastrophe and will have a blessing. Don’t worry about it.”

Hearing that Walter was okay, Yu Bo nodded in relief.

Yu Chijin suddenly raised his eyes.

“I don’t worry, Yu Bo, you accompany me to the hospital.”

“Hey, smelly old man, you don’t want to get into it. I didn’t see a group of us gathered here. I just don’t want to disturb Walter’s recuperation. You have to go to the hospital to toss him in the middle of the night, right?” Song An sneered. With a cry, “I was the first to refuse.”

Yuchijin finally couldn’t help but frowned and said to his daughter.

“An’an, Ah Shen is my grandson. I can’t visit the hospital as a grandfather? And you see what you are talking about, what do I mean to toss him?”

“Isn’t it?” Song An glanced at him, her eyes full of sarcasm: “After you saved the person, you took him home through his amnesia, changed his name and surname, and erased everything before. It sounds good, you are for his own good, but in reality you are selfish, afraid that no one will inherit the property under your name after you die. If you want to say you are willing to give him the property, my aunt will not say anything, but if you really want to do it for his good, you shouldn’t do this kind of thing. Stella has been doing things with him for so many years. She is still pregnant. When you were young, you harmed my sister. Now you want to continue harming your grandson? Don’t you want to give a white-haired person to a black-haired person again, will you wake up?”

When he heard the words of a white-haired man sending a black-haired man, Yu Chijin was stunned, as if he was drinking.

He looked at Song An, his emotions started to get agitated, so his lips were shaking.

Song An didn't leave any feelings, and continued to prick him: “Now there are only two choices in front of you. Either you acquiesce in all this, maybe Walter is willing to call you Grandpa in the future, you can still be as shameless as today come and eat. Either you continue your selfish thoughts, but you will definitely not succeed, and...In the end you may end up with nothing.”

Yu Bo was sweating profusely at the side. Miss An An hadn't seen her for many years, her teeth were very sharp, and in front of so many people, she really didn't give any face to the old man.

Jessica was stunned. She didn't expect Walter's aunt to be so fierce, because she didn't dare to speak loudly when she thought that Yu Chijin was an entrepreneur worth more than 100 billion yuan. Sentence piercing heart.

She felt that she should leave. After all, this was a family affair, and it was too bad for her to listen to all of them as an outsider.

But at this time, he didn't dare to leave rashly, so he could only sit like a puppet.

Stella also remained silent.

Although she was very grateful to Yu Chijin for saving Walter, Song An was right.

If Yu Chijin really wanted to prevent her from being together with Walter, she would definitely not succeed.

At this moment when the time was so tense that it was about to happen, everyone suddenly heard the sound of the door opening.

Chapter 923

Click...

“Let me down, bad daddy, let me down quickly, I’m going to find Mommy!”

The child’s childish voice sounded in the quiet environment, and it came clearly from the hallway.

Everyone’s complexion changed.

Boom!

The next second, they heard that the door of the house was closed.

Stella was stunned for about two seconds, then stood up and walked outside the door. Song An and Jessica also got up, Yu Chijin and Yu Bo looked at each other, and both saw doubts in each other’s eyes.

After a long while, Yu Bo opened his mouth and asked, “Could it be..... Shen Shao is back?”

Yu Chijin hurriedly got up on crutches.

Before Stella went out, he saw Walter who came in holding the millet beans. He was still coming back from the outside with the chill, his handsome face was a little pale from the cold, but his figure was still straight. Her thin lips were pressed tightly, and she didn't seem to feel cold at all.

The most important thing is that his left eye seems to be a little black.

Millet was held in his arms with one hand, like a little chicken.

“Let go of me, you bad daddy!”

Levi wanted to come down and walk on his own since he was outside, but no matter how hard he tried, Walter did not let go of his hand holding him.

Obviously it's just a hand, but Levi can't shake it at all.

Finally, he was still out of breath.

Levi was very discouraged. He felt that his daddy's strength was too great, and he would bully him as a child and he hadn't grown up yet, so he didn't have the strength.

“What are you...” Stella hesitated, not knowing how to speak.

At this time, Walter was probably still lying in the ward, why suddenly he came back holding Levi.

There are too many things happening today.

Walter, who had been silent for several days, suddenly broke out and asked who the child in her stomach was. She hadn't thought of a good word yet. Levi, who was far away in China, suddenly appeared in her house, and then asked Walter to squat down to give her with a punch from him, he directly hit his daddy into the hospital. Then they went home, Yuchijin suddenly appeared again, and Walter returned with Levi.

No, there are too many things, and one after another, she feels that her psychological defenses are almost unacceptable.

Stella shook her head and reached out to press his head.

She always feels that everything that happened today is not true.

Stella felt a little pain in her head.

With both hands, she suddenly grasped her slender wrist, Stella paused, and looked up to see Walter walking in front of her, and stretched out the hand that did not hold Levi, holding her wrist, and holding her. The hand pulled it down.

Then his big hand replaced her, gently rubbing the place where Stella had just pressed for her.

“Uncomfortable?”

Walter opened his mouth, his voice dull.

The low voice and the coldness of Walter’s fingertips pulled Stella back to reality. She stared at the person in front of her blankly, and finally realized that everything that happened tonight is real.

“Mummy, what’s the matter with you?” Levi was still resisting Walter, and suddenly heard Walter’s question to Stella, the little hands and feet stopped, staring nervously. Stella asked.

Both father and son care about themselves so much. Stella felt that she was hit by surprise, her nose was sour, she shook her head, “It’s okay.”

“Why did you come back? Didn’t you lie down in the hospital?”

Song An's voice came from behind her, Jessica walked over with her, and saw Phillip not far behind Walter, Jessica whimpered in her heart, quickly ran towards him, and then hid in him. Behind.

Phillip: “?”

Jessica: “It's great. I was the only one who was an outsider. Now that you are here, I finally have company.”

Phillip: “...”

Just now, seeing him running towards her at the first sight, a weird feeling still arose in Phillip's heart. Now that he heard such a sentence, all his thoughts were suddenly shattered.

You shouldn't have illusions about this woman, Phillip secretly said.

Song An's concerned expression was printed on her face, especially obvious. When looking at her, Walter doubted her identity, because when he saw her, there were fragments flashing in his mind. She was...

Song An found that he had been staring at her, so he thought of the words the doctor said in the hospital, and subconsciously asked: “Have you recovered your memory?”

Hearing, everyone's eyes were focused on Walter.

Yes, the doctor said that if he can restore his memory, he won't know until he wakes up. People like them are not in the hospital. Naturally, they don't know what kind of situation Walter will be after waking up, and whether he has restored his memory.

Levi beans have appeared, and all the things that were hidden before have been broken, and now there is no need to continue to hide them.

Walter frowned and pursed his thin lips.

“Bad daddy has no conscience, he can’t remember it at all.”

After talking about it, a disappointment flashed across Levi’s face, and he couldn’t help but stretched out his hand to pinch Walter’s face, pinching his facial features into deformation.

Everyone: “...”

Even though Walter frowned, it seemed to be the movement of Levi silently, and a look of helplessness flashed under his ink-colored eyes.

Yu Chijin and Yu Bo were late. When they heard Walter’s voice, Yu Chijin remembered what Song An said just now. Although he didn’t want to admit it, Song An’s remarks did speak to him. In her heart.

He is just a handful of old bones, there is not much time left, and there are so many accidents in his life, maybe he will pass away someday with two feet.

What’s the point of what he is forcing then?

Yu Chijin even thought, if Walter thought of everything, then he could do whatever he wanted, as long as he still recognized himself as a grandpa.

Of course, these ideas were just thought of by Yu Chijin, no one knew.

After approaching, Yu Chijin quickly saw that Walter was still holding a child in his arms. He looked about four or five years old. Yu Chijin was taken aback for a moment, and subconsciously looked at Yu Bo beside him.

Yu Bo also happened to see the child.

It's just that Levi was pinching Walter's face, so they could only see the back of Levi's head, not his front face.

But Yu Chijin had an idea soon in his mind.

He looked at the little back of his head, and Walter's picture that was almost deformed but was still not angry. On the contrary, there was only a look of helplessness in his eyes.

Could it be...

Yuchi... Is this Walter's child?

No, how is this possible? At the beginning, he had already been investigated, and he knew that although the two people had been together for a long time, they seemed to have always been at odds with each other, and they had no children.

So he broke up the two directly cruelly.

But now, who is this kid who emerged out of thin air?

Levi squeezed, and suddenly felt a line of sight falling on his back, he stopped the movement in his hand, and slowly turned his head back.

Chapter 924

Yuchijin noticed his turning back. At first, he was still thinking about whether his ideas were reliable. When he went back, he would find someone to check if he was...

This thought hadn't disappeared, Yu Chijin saw the face of Levi turning around.

That face...

Yuchijin's pupils dilated rapidly and looked at Levi in disbelief.

For a moment, he suspected that there was a problem with his eyes, otherwise he was too worried about his grandson, that's why he saw the child's face in front of him like Walter.

However, that is clearly the face of a child.

Although he was born exactly the same as Walter, he was still childish. His eyes were dark, clear and bright, and they belonged to a child's unique cleanness and simplicity.

Looking at Walter again, those eyes were as sharp as a falcon, and they were equally black, but there was no temperature at all.

"Huh?" Levi's gaze met Yuchi Jin's turbid gaze, and the little guy uttered a cry and asked curiously, "Who is this old grandfather?"

In fact, he already knew the identity of Yu Chijin.

It's just that if he shows it in front of adults, it will definitely surprise them.

Although Song An hates Yuchijin very much, after all, she is asking about Levi, and he is still a child who has not grown up. She dare not show her appearance in front of Levi, so as not to do badly for children. Set an example.

After all, the child is still young, it is when he is learning and will imitate the actions of adults.

She couldn't attack Yu Chi Jin, but she wouldn't introduce herself, so she simply turned aside.

The room was quiet for a moment, and Yuchijin's trembling voice was heard.

"You, you are..."

Yu Bo approached him and whispered: "Master, that face looks exactly like Shen Shao, it must be Shen Shao's child?"

Yuchijin only felt his chest tremble and couldn't say a word.

He and that woman actually already have children? And it's so big?

Stella smiled slightly and said softly to Levi, "Levi, he is your daddy's grandfather."

"She didn't dare to directly say that Yu Chijin was his grandfather Zeng. What if Wei Chijin was unwilling? Are you unhappy after listening to her? Simply talked about his relationship with Walter."

As for whether Yuchijin was willing to recognize this child, it was not particularly important to Stella.

"Daddy's grandfather?" Levi blinked and looked at Yu Chijin purely: "Mommy, does Levi want to be called Grandpa Zeng?"

Stella was taken aback for a moment, and slowly looked at Yuchijin.

She saw that Yuchijin's eyes were filled with excitement, walking step by step, he was a little incoherent with excitement.

"Yes... it's Grandpa Zeng, you... you..."

He said you, you have been a long time, and Levi suddenly stretched out his hands towards him.

Yuchijin was stunned for a while.

“This, this is...”

Walter’s face was expressionless, and his voice was cold.

“I want you to hug you.”

Yuchijin didn’t react at once.

He really did not expect that the two of them would have a child of such an age, and... The first time this child met, he had to hold him.

“Huh?” Seeing that he hadn’t reacted for a long time, Levi’s expression on her small face became distressed. After a glance at Yu Chijin, he looked at Stella: “Mommy, doesn’t Grandpa Zeng like me? Willing to hug...”

Stella: “...”

This little guy actually threw the problem to her.

Her situation is already very embarrassing, how does this make her answer? Saying that you don’t like it offends others, and that you like it...

“Bad guy, don’t you know to ask your daddy? While scolding him for bad daddy, he didn’t know to throw this kind of problem on him.”

Just when Stella slandered this in her heart, Yu Chijin spoke with a trembling voice.

“No, it’s not... Grandpa Zeng... how can I hate you?”

Yu Chijin forced himself to calm down, and finally said a complete sentence to Levi, and at the same time, Yu Chijin also reached out to Levi.

“Come on, Grandpa Zeng hug.”

Levi blinked and stared at him without moving.

Yu Chijin’s hand froze in mid-air, and when he saw Levi staring at him, he suddenly became a little nervous, “Aren’t you angry because of what happened? Grandpa Zeng didn’t mean it just now, Grandpa Zeng...”

Before he finished speaking, Levi suddenly stretched out his hand and rushed towards him. Yu Chijin quickly caught him and hugged him in his arms.

Although he is older, his legs and feet are not as convenient as young people, so he usually wears a cane, but he can still stand and hold Levi beans to this degree.

After holding Levi into his arms, Yuchijin felt that his heartbeat frequency was getting faster and faster. Although the hand holding him was old but very vigorous, even though Yuchijin tried to hide it, his hand still trembled slightly.

The little guy in my arms...

Yes...

his...

Great grandson.

It’s a relative!

Except for An An and Walter’s relatives.

Something seemed to be pouring in his heart and throat, making him unable to make a sound. After Levi was taken into his arms, he fawned around Yuchijin's neck, looking very cute and cute.

Of course Levi knew that Grandpa Zeng had embarrassed his mother. He had heard Aunt Jessica say a word or two, but Aunt Jessica did not want to say more.

So Levi thought about it and decided to go to Mommy. He wanted to get justice for Mommy and subdue Daddy and Grandpa Zeng!

Watching this scene, Song An couldn't help but whispered.

"As for? I haven't held a child in my life..."

When she said this, although she was complaining, her eyes became a little helpless.

Naturally, Stella could see Yu Chijin's excitement. She pursed her lips, and there was a touch of gentleness in her eyes. Unexpectedly, Yuchijin liked Levi so much, and he looked shocked.

She doesn't know. After he knows that he and Walter already have millet beans, will he go his own way?

Yuchijin held the millet beans cautiously, not daring to use force, lest he would break the little guy in his arms with a little bit of strength.

It took a long time before he found his own voice, sanding his voice and demanding Levi.

"Good, good great-grandson... Call, call Grandpa Zeng."

Levi grinned, revealing a row of clean and white teeth, watching Yu Chijin obediently and let out a cry.

“Hello, Grandpa Zeng~ My name is Levi, and you can call me like Mummy in the future.”

This sentence deeply penetrated Yu Chijin’s heart.

He was holding millet beans, but suddenly felt that he was a double shadow in front of him, Yu Chijin was a little worried, and could it be that he was dreaming? But gradually, it gets darker and darker...

At last...

Standing nearby, Walter’s expression changed, and he raised his hand to support Yuchijin.

Yu Chijin was overly excited and fainted.

Chapter 925

Yuchijin suddenly fainted, which no one had expected.

It was also fortunate that Walter reacted quickly, otherwise he would have to fall down with Levi.

At this moment, Walter supported the two of them, and the others hurried forward to help.

Although Song An usually hates Yuchijin, when she sees him suddenly fainting, she has to say: “First lift him up and lay it flat on the bed.”

Song An's words played a leading role, and Yu Chijin was soon put on the bed, and Song An stepped forward to check the situation for Yu Chijin.

When Yuchijin fainted, Levi was picked up by Stella and held him in her arms. At this moment, he pushed Stella's neck and was a little worried, but at this time he did not dare to speak nonsense.

Everyone gathered around the bed and waited.

Walter squeezed's thin lips, and asked aloud, "Call for an ambulance."

Although he didn't know why Yu Chijin fainted suddenly, he felt that the situation was very familiar, thinking about it, isn't this situation the same as his not long ago?

He pulled Levi into his arms, and then he lost consciousness.

At that time... he doesn't know how the little guy reacted?

Will he be nervous?

However, he was stimulated by memory at the time, what about Yuchijin?

"No need to."

After checking on Wei Chijin, Song An stood up calmly and explained softly: "He just fainted because he was too emotional. There is no need to call an ambulance or go to the hospital."

Hearing, Stella sighed. It turned out that it was only because he was too emotional that he fainted...

Nothing else.

But... is this the pot of Levi beans?

Thinking of this, Stella turned her head and glanced at the Levi who was hanging on her body. Levi received his eyes, probably thinking of his thoughts. His expression and eyes immediately became pitiful, and his little hands pulled helplessly. Pulled Stella's collar.

When Song An saw this scene, she squinted her eyes slightly, and then said, "Stella, you don't want to hug Levi beans casually in the future."

"Huh?" Stella and Levi didn't expect that they would be named suddenly, and they turned to Song An in surprise, "What's wrong?"

Song An glanced at Walter with complicated eyes, then returned to Stella's face.

"You forgot what the doctor told you when you went to the hospital for an examination a while ago?"

Everyone was also confused.

"You can't lift heavy objects when you are pregnant, and you have signs of miscarriage and the fetus is unstable. Even though Levi is your child, it is already so old after all, so don't hold it in the end."

Walter narrowed his eyes when he heard the words showing signs of miscarriage.

When he personally sent Stella to the hospital a while ago, the doctor personally mentioned this to him, and now he wants to come... The night that Duanmuxue was drugged by Duanmuxue was spent with Stella.

And that night... she asked it again and again.

When she woke up the next morning, she disappeared. Could it be...

Thinking of this, Walter's gaze grabbed Stella tightly. Stella was also taken aback by Song An's words just now. She blinked, "It's okay, just hug..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Walter stretched out his long arm and took the Levi.

Levi felt that Mommy's embrace was fragrant and soft, and she was taken over by Walter before she enjoyed it enough. Although he was very dissatisfied, he had to let go of his grandma's words and return to his daddy's arms.

Because of his anger, Levi was hugged and pinched Walter's face.

Walter frowned slightly, did not say anything, but gave Stella a deep look, "I'm coming."

Stella: "..."

When the child was picked up by him, Stella said nothing.

Fortunately, Levi has been lack of fatherly love since he was a child, so he can hug him more.

"Well, you go out first, I'm here to guard."

Song An drove everyone out, and then left Yu Bo. He walked to the bed and sat down, looked at Yuchijin for a while, and said coldly, "I wouldn't be bothered if it wasn't for you to be Grandpa Levizeng. Save you."

Watching this scene, Yu Bo couldn't help reaching out and touching his nose.

After the rest of the people left the room, Jessica couldn't help but speak, "Stella, what Aunt Song said just now..."

She looked at Stella anxiously. After all, her child came at an untimely time. Just after checking out that she was pregnant, Walter had an accident, and then Stella suffered a lot by herself. Although this was not what she wanted, things had already happened.

Stella gave Jessica a look, "I'm fine, don't worry."

After thinking about it, Jessica looked at the faces of the family of three for a while, then suddenly said: "Levi, will you sleep with Aunt Jessica tonight?"

Levi had not yet agreed, so Walter pursed his lips: "No."

Jessica: "..."

Walter's eyes were deep: "You are the guests, just take a good rest at night."

Hearing, Stella also reacted and nodded: "Well, I'll clean up the guest room for you, Jessica, come and help me."

So the two left together.

After the two left, Levi stared at Walter with dark eyes.

"Why can't I sleep with my aunt and aunt?"

Hearing this, Walter glanced at him indifferently, with an indifferent tone: "Because you are a boy."

"So what?"

“There is a difference between men and women.”

Levi snorted: “But I haven’t grown up yet! Aunt Jessica doesn’t mind either!”

“I mind.”

His daddy and mommy are here. He ran to sleep with other women. What are their parents?

Phillip on the side watched this scene, silently complaining in his heart.

“If you want to stay with Levi, you have to find an excuse to say that there is a difference between men and women. Levi is just a four or five-year-old child with no farts. Why are there so many differences between men and women?”

Of course, Phillip only dared to make complaints silently in his heart, not daring to say these words.

Finally, Walter returned to the room with the millet bean.

Stella and Jessica went to clean up together. When she opened the guest room, she saw that the bed and quilt inside were all fixed, and she was surprised, because Walter had told her before.

Everything in each room is ready, and she chooses which one she likes to live in.

Jessica went in behind her, and when no one was gone, she immediately went forward and wrapped her arm: “What’s the matter? Just now Aunt Song said that you have signs of miscarriage, did you not have it when you were abroad? Protect yourself? If I knew you were like this, I should have died with me, really!”

“Well, don’t worry, I’m really fine, this is an accident.”

Speaking of the reasons for the signs of miscarriage, Stella remembered what happened that night, and the roots of her ears turned pink.

Chapter 926

“Accidents? There are so many accidents, I am still worried.”

Stella suddenly thought of a question: “Tonight, the room at home seems to be insufficient for sleep.”

This apartment had two halls and three bedrooms. One was occupied by her and Walter, and the other was occupied by Yuchijin, so only one was left.

Song An Jessica Xiaosu...

It takes three more rooms.

“Huh? That’s okay. If I don’t sleep enough, I just go out and book a hotel.”

Hearing, Stella couldn’t help but frown her eyebrows. They ran all the way from China and didn’t eat much for the New Year’s Eve. They had to go out to stay in a hotel. They had a bad year. Why? can?

“No, I think of a way.”

Stella thought about it, and then said: “I see, three rooms, you and my aunt and I live in one room, Walter brought Levi and Phillip, and the rest will be left to Walter. Grandpa and Uncle Yu are here.”

Jessica: “...a bed, is it enough for three people?”

After speaking, Jessica glanced at the bed behind her, her eyes straightened immediately.

This is a big bed, and it is specially made, let alone three people, four people are more than enough to lie down.

Jessica didn't know what to express for a moment, and could only say that it's nice to have money.

"Are you sure you want me to sleep together with you tonight? After all, this sudden situation, I think you and Mr. Walter must have a lot to say."

So she just proposed to let Levi sleep with her, that's why.

"I want to take the millet beans away and leave a little space for Walter and Stella so that they can have time to talk."

Stella was taken aback for a moment. Thinking of the current situation, she and Walter did have a lot to ask, but...At this time, she felt that she had nothing to say.

So Stella said: "It's okay, it's a long time in Japan. If you have anything to say later, it will be the same. You don't have to say it tonight."

Jessica: "...Well, since you think so, then I won't say anything, but... I really think it's too much for the three of us to squeeze a bed, and... I am also a little hungry, now If this happens, it's impossible to eat again. Why not let me find a hotel to stay, and then I will stop by and find something to eat outside."

"..."

This guy!

Stella thought about it, "Should we wait for Walter's grandfather to wake up, let's get together for a simple meal?"

After all, it's not too late, eat a meal, then sit down, there is still time to digest.

Stella didn't ask Jessica again, but turned around and went out, just when Song An came out of the room, she stepped forward: "Auntie, how is the old man?"

Hearing her question, Song Anduo glanced at her, "What are you doing so nervously? He wants to separate you and Walter, do you still care about him?"

Hearing, Stella was stunned, then lowered her eyes and said softly.

"No matter what, he is the one who saved Walter. I can only be grateful for him, nothing else."

Song looked at Stella quietly for a moment, a faint smile on her lips.

Walter did not misunderstand him.

The Stella in front of him was a person who knew the importance. Although the things that Yu Chijin did were annoying, Stella could ignore these premonitions because she was only thinking about the important thing.

She really admires this kind of mind.

Because it was her own words, she might run away with such a stubborn grandfather according to her temper, and it was impossible to think of such a deep level.

But Stella thought about it.

“In that case, the aunt will not say anything.”

“That’s right...” Stella conveyed all the arrangements for tonight to Song An. Ning An shook her head after hearing this, “You don’t need to keep my place. Wouldn’t it be a waste of money if I didn’t go back to the hotel I booked? Huh? Besides, the old fellow Yuchijin won’t stay here. Just arrange a place for Jessica and Phillip.”

“But...”

“Don’t worry, everyone has their own choice. Do whatever you want.”

It’s all for this, Stella couldn’t say anything anymore, and could only swallow the words that came to his lips.

Soon, Yuchijin woke up.

After waking up, he was lying on the bed, looking at the strange ceiling, motionless.

After Yu Bo noticed that he was awake, he hurried over.

“Old man?”

Hearing the sound, Yuchijin subconsciously leaned toward the source of the sound.

“Master, are you okay?”

Seeing Yu Bo and looking at the scene in front of him, Yu Chijin blinked and asked, “Where am I?”

Yu Bo: “...Father, have you forgotten what happened just now?”

What happened just now? Yu Chijin felt the lights flashing in front of him, and his old voice trembled.

“Isn’t I dreaming just now?”

Is that kid who looks exactly like Walter?

He Wei Chijin, has a great-grandson???

No matter how he thinks about it, he feels that this is untrue.

“Master, it’s not a dream.” Yu Bo coughed lightly, “Shen Shao and Grandma Sun did have a child, four or five years old, and they look exactly like Shen Shao. Most importantly, Grandma Sun is also pregnant now. , And I heard from Miss An An just now that her fetus doesn’t seem to be the same, and there are signs of miscarriage.”

Hearing, Yu Chijin’s eyes widened immediately: “What did you say?”

Are there signs of miscarriage? How can this be?

That’s his future great-grandson!

Yu Chijin was about to sit up immediately, but his bones were too old. Yu Bo could only help him out of bed. Yu Chijin was about to walk out in a hurry. Yu Bo said helplessly, “Master, don’t worry. Grandma Sun is fine now. .”

“Did you just say...”

“It’s all right, Miss An An is watching, but she is the doctor.”

Hearing, Yu Chijin breathed a sigh of relief, then recalled what had happened just now, “What happened to me just now?”

“The old man was so emotional that he fainted.”

Are you too emotional? Yu Chijin thought of the appearance of Levi, and couldn't help rubbing his hands: “Then...I really have a great-grandson?”

“Yes.” Yu Bo smiled: “Now, the old man won't stop Master Sun from being together with Grandma Sun, right?”

Hearing, Yuchi Jin's face was stern, and his tone became severe.

“Yu Bo!”

“Father, what Yu Bo said is from the bottom of the heart. You used to think that the two people were separated and combined, so you wanted to re-select a spouse for Shen Shao, but now? They are indeed happy in love, and there are more. Children, if they were to be separated at this time, it would really be...”

Too inhuman.

Yu Bo dared not say this sentence.

But apparently, Yu Chijin had already expected what he was trying to say later, his face was heavy, and he hummed, “Is that called dismantling? Do you think the two of them wavered?”

Chapter 927

Yu Bo thought for a while, it seemed that the father's stopping did not shake the two of them, but made them more determined.

In this world, there should be no chance, only inevitable.

Otherwise, how could he fall in love with Grandma Sun again after losing his memory? And still unwavering?

“That’s right, what the old man meant... will not force Shen Shao to be engaged to Miss Duanmu anymore?”

Yu Chijin suddenly became dissatisfied with what he said, “What do you mean by forcing them to get engaged? Yu Bo, what do you say by yourself? Moreover, the current situation of Xiaoxue’s girl, it is estimated that she can no longer be engaged to Ah Shen. Up.”

Speaking of Duanmuxue’s situation, Yu Bo was also a little sorry, “It’s a pity that such a good girl, how she could do such a thing?”

Both of them sighed.

But soon, Yu Chijin thought of important things.

He has a great-grandson now, so he has to go see his great-grandson again.

Yuchijin quickly got out of the room with Yubo’s support, but the living room was empty at the moment, and there was no one.

It gave Yuchijin the illusion that nothing happened just now and everything was just his own fantasy.

At exactly this time, Stella and Jessica opened the door together and returned.

When they entered the door, it happened to meet Yuchijin’s eyes.

Stella froze for a moment, then smiled, “Grandpa, how do you feel when you wake up? Is there anything uncomfortable?”

Grandpa heard that sentence that Yu Chijin was extremely uncomfortable, but thinking about her going to be with Walter in the future, calling him Grandpa, there was indeed nothing wrong.

It's just that he hasn't fully accepted it yet, and he feels very awkward.

Yuchijin snorted softly, did not answer her question, just asked, "What did you go out for?"

Stella and Jessica glanced at each other, and then explained: "We sent my aunt down and took the car, and she went back to the hotel first."

Yuchijin frowned suddenly, "An An returned to the hotel?"

"Ok."

Originally, Yu Chijin wanted to stay here tonight for a while and see more of his great-grandson, but now it seems...he probably couldn't stay longer.

Otherwise, his precious little girl would have to blame him again.

Thinking of this, Yu Chijin coughed slightly: "Just..."

"Grandpa, it's not too early tonight. Why don't you just stay here? Because I didn't have enough for dinner, I plan to cook some noodles and make it later. How does Grandpa feel?"

Is she inviting him?

Yuchijin suddenly got up again and snorted coldly: "Cook the noodles to make the peace? You make the peace by yourself. I and Yu Bo are going back first."

Well? Sure enough, Song An said that Yuchijin would not stay overnight.

Fortunately, she also felt that it was not good to just cook some noodles, but it would be different if Yuchijin didn't stay.

"Then Jessica and I will send you out."

Yu Chijin: "..."

Unexpectedly, she didn't even say a word to stay, Yu Chijin was so angry that he wanted to stare at her, but after all, she had said the words to leave, and it seemed too shameful at the moment.

So he leaned on crutches and walked forward grumpily, and Yu Bo quickly followed.

Stella and Jessica sent them downstairs together.

Yuchijin and Yu Bo came by car. The driver had been waiting downstairs for a long time. They were all waiting in the car and fell asleep.

Yu Bo went up and knocked on the car window. The driver woke up immediately. He was probably a little awkward. The driver reached out and wiped his face to make him sober. Then he opened the door and said respectfully, "Master, Yu butler."

After speaking, he opened the back seat door easily.

Yu Chijin looked back at Stella, Stella smiled immediately after touching her eyes.

"Grandpa, Uncle Yu, be careful on the way."

There was still not a word to detain him. It seemed that he was determined to ask him to leave.

Yu Chijin retracted his gaze, and without a word to Stella, he bent over and entered the back seat.

On the contrary, it was Yu Bo with a smile on his face and warmly spoke to Stella.

“Grandma Sun, then we’ll go back first. It’s heavy in the middle of the night, and it’s cold outside. Go upstairs quickly.”

“Thank you Yu Bo for caring. I watched you leave and went back immediately.”

“it is good.”

Yu Bo also followed into the car, the door closed, and the car gradually moved away from the parking lot.

Not far after driving out, Yu Chijin looked at Stella’s figure in the rearview mirror and snorted dissatisfiedly: “Grandpa and grandpa yelled so affectionately. He hurriedly hurried me to leave. Send it down.”

Yu Bo, who was next to him, knew that Yuchijin was complaining, and couldn’t help but ask.

“The old man meant, want to stay?”

Yuchijin immediately said, “Who said that?”

“Uh...” Yu Bo smiled awkwardly: “I thought the old man wanted to stay after hearing what the old man said just now.”

“Even if I wanted to stay, it was just to take a look at my great-grandson. What happened? Not only did Grandpa Zeng not see him, he was kicked out.”

“Old man, you can’t say that. Grandma Sun said in front of us just now. She cleaned up the guest room for us and wants us to eat noodles. It’s just... the old man doesn’t want to.”

“I don’t want it?” Yuchijin said loudly like being stepped on a sore foot, “If I don’t want her, can’t she leave me a few more words?”

Yu Bo: “...”

After a moment of silence in the car, Yu Bo could only speak for Stella.

“Father, I believe that Grandma Sun is not leaving you, but because the old man is her elder. If you say no, she will definitely do what you want. She is also afraid that forced stay will make the old man unhappy.”

After speaking, Yu Bo sighed helplessly in his heart.

When did the old man become so arrogant? If you want to stay, do you have to coax him to stay?

“Are you justifying her?”

Yu Bo: “No, I am not...”

“Then stop talking!”

No way, Yu Bo could only shut his mouth and stopped talking.

On the way back Stella and Jessica, Jessica waited for a long time before saying: “How do you feel, Mr. Walter’s grandpa doesn’t seem to want to leave?”

“No?” Stella’s expression was a little surprised: “My aunt said that he won’t stay, and just now he heard that I was cooking noodles to make peace. He was obviously disgusted.”

Jessica touched her nose, “Could it be that he feels wrong?”

After the two went back, Stella was about to go to the kitchen to cook noodles, but Jessica said to let her come. She wanted to show off her cooking skills, so Stella didn’t stop her and let her go.

Stella put away the remaining ingredients that she hadn’t eaten much before.

To be honest, she would like to have a hot pot after she was discharged from the hospital today.

But she didn’t expect so many things happened, and now she really don’t have the mood to eat these slowly.

Chapter 928

Walter hadn’t come out after taking Levi before.

The two father and son were locked in the room and didn’t know what they were doing.

Stella thought for a while, went to open the door, and after entering, they saw the two sitting on the carpeted floor, looking at each other.

It may be that she came in at the wrong time, and neither father nor son spoke at this moment.

“What are you doing?”

Hearing Stella's voice, Levi quickly got up from the ground, and then ran towards her.

"Mummy~"

Seeing that he was about to jump on her thigh and hug her, he stopped when he approached Stella.

Ouch!

Levi stopped and looked at Stella standing in front of him, thinking of what Daddy had just said to him.

"From now on, you can't approach your mom at will."

Levi heard this and immediately asked unconvinced: "Why?"

This bad daddy is not good to her mom, and he is not allowed to approach her mom!

Walter said coldly: "You didn't hear what you said just now? Your mommy has a baby. You can't ask her to hug or pounce on her like before. Do you understand?"

Levi was very angry, but he had to admit that what his father said was right, and he heard everything Song An said just now.

Mommy is indeed in poor health now, so he can't let Mommy hold him as often as before.

So angry!

Levi thought for a while and said directly to Walter.

“I don’t need to approach Mommy casually, neither will Daddy. I’m a child, but my father and motherland is a big man, so you can’t approach Mommy casually.”

Hearing, Walter frowned immediately.

“I have a sense of measure.”

“No!”

When the two father and son competed extremely fiercely because of this matter, Stella opened the door and entered, so the father and son silenced at the same time in a particularly tacit understanding.

After all, to discuss this topic, don’t let Mommy hear it.

But when he saw Stella, Levi subconsciously wanted to run towards Mommy and wanted her to hug him.

As a result, when he ran to her, Levi suddenly thought of the conversation between the two.

Stella also looked at Levi in confusion.

“What’s wrong?”

Obviously this little guy was going to hug her, but suddenly stopped, which made Stella a little puzzled.

Levi blinked his clear eyes, and milky explained: “Daddy told Levi just now that Mommy now has a baby, so you can’t approach Mommy at will, lest you hurt the baby.”

Stella: "..."

She subconsciously looked at Walter.

Unexpectedly, the two of them staying here are talking about this?

"It's okay, as long as Levi doesn't hit her stomach, Mommy won't have a problem." Stella reached out and touched Levi's head, squatting down with a chuckle.

In the next second, Levi shook his head purely, with firmness in his eyes.

"No, Mommy, I have made an appointment with Daddy, and neither Daddy nor I can approach Mommy at will."

The named Walter's eyebrows jumped and he narrowed his eyes dangerously. When did he say this? Oh, it seems this little guy is very cunning.

Thinking of this, Walter got up and hugged Levi directly.

"Well, it's an appointment."

Levi: "..."

Daddy suddenly admitted in front of Mommy? Ahhh, Levi guessed that Daddy would not be honest.

Just as he was about to say something, Stella interrupted him.

"Jessica has cooked the noodles, let's go out to eat a little bit, I will rest later."

"it is good."

Walter smiled slightly, squeezed Levi's cheeks, and walked out holding him.

What Levi wanted to say was pinched by Walter, and he could only stare at Walter with big eyes and lower his voice.

“Bad Daddy!”

There was a faint smile on Walter's lips, and the ink-colored eyes were successful.

The little guy wants to play with him without seeing who is Lao Tzu?

Levi put his hand around his chest and did not speak any more.

This round made him better. It is not too late for a gentleman to take revenge for ten years. He wants to let his daddy know that his Levi is not so easy to provoke.

A group of people sat down to eat noodles.

It was originally Lunar New Year's Eve, and everyone should get together to eat a good meal, but because of various accidents, they are now eating noodles here.

However, Sheng Zai Jessica's cooking skills are very good, even the next one is delicious.

After dinner, Walter took the millet beans directly into his arms, “go to take a shower.”

Levi: Has he not finished eating yet???

Jessica saw that Walter was so affectionate with Levi, so she hugged Stella's arm and said coquettishly: "Stella, their father and son seem to get along well, otherwise you will sleep with me tonight?"

After speaking, Jessica pretended not to see Walter's sharp eyes and avoided it.

Stella didn't realize it, and nodded: "Okay."

Phillip pretended not to feel the thunder and lightning, and silently ate his share.

Late at night

Stella was lying on the bed, all around her quietly, only the little Yan beside her heard the sound of breathing.

She turned her head and glanced out of the window. It was quiet all around.

At this time, she should be sleeping, but...her heart still hit her body again and again.

What happened today quickly flashed through my mind, as if watching fire.

Jessica said that she wanted to sleep with her. Before she fell asleep, she pulled herself to say a lot and said that she might not need to sleep tonight.

But in a blink of an eye, she fell asleep.

That's nice.

Stella also hoped that she could do this, but she was still excited.

Stella turned over and sat up.

Suddenly feel a little thirsty, go drink some water.

After thinking about it, Stella got up and put on her shoes, and walked outside on tiptoe.

After leaving the room, Stella gently closed the door. She did not turn on the light in the living room and walked towards the kitchen, feeling the darkness.

After entering the kitchen, Stella poured herself a glass of warm water by the light outside the window and took a few sips.

When she almost drank a glass of water, and at the same time a feeling of fullness came, Stella put the glass back in place and turned around to leave.

At this moment, a tall black shadow suddenly flashed before his eyes.

Without waiting for her to react, the dark shadow shrouded directly and pulled her into his arms.

The familiar breath rushed over, and Stella was taken aback for a moment, and then she knew who was holding her.

Walter...

He actually... didn't fall asleep?

Originally, Stella thought she was the only one who couldn't sleep, but Walter was the same as her.

Then why can't he sleep?

Is it because there are too many things happening during the day? Haven't figured out how to receive it yet, or are you too excited because you know you have a son?

Thinking of this, Stella raised her head, "Why are you... uh..."

She had just spoken, her lips were severely caught in the dark.

Chapter 929

In the dark

"When you can't see anything, it feels stronger."

Stella was only wearing pajamas, and after being held in Walter's arms for a while, she could feel the heat transmitted from him through the clothes.

His body is very hot, like fire.

There was a burning hot on her lips, Stella only felt that her lips were running over again and again, and finally not satisfied with this, he squeezed her chin with a big hand and then moved away.

"Open your mouth."

Stella: "..."

You kiss, why do you still talk?

Talk as you speak, what are the requirements?

Stella didn't move.

“Huh?” In the darkness, Walter’s voice was hoarse, like old red wine pouring through his throat.

Seeing that she didn’t speak, Walter simply pinched her chin, got a little closer and kissed her face gently.

“Why don’t you speak?”

Stella finally couldn’t help it: “You have enough, give me...”

As a result, Walter lowered his head and kissed while taking advantage of her time to speak, and smoothly occupied her territory.

Stella’s breathing suddenly became a little heavier, and her hands subconsciously grabbed Walter’s collar, her whole body was weakly nestled in his arms, his eyes closed, his eyelashes trembling gently.

For a moment, Walter stretched out his hand to squeeze the blue silk on the back of her neck, moved his thin lips, and whispered, “Why didn’t you tell me earlier?”

“What?”

When Stella looked confused and sentimental, she suddenly heard Walter say something, but she didn’t understand what the content was at all, so she could only respond indiscriminately.

Such a delicate appearance made the ink color in Walter’s eyes become more intense.

However, at this moment, a footstep suddenly came from the living room. It was especially clear in the darkness. Walter narrowed his eyes, pressing Stella, who was a little messy, into his arms, staring outside. .

A milky voice rang in the living room.

“Daddy? Is that you?”

The voice of Levi...

When he heard this sound, Walter frowned immediately.

This little guy...obviously he watched him fall asleep, why did he get up now? And listening to his voice, is it coming in the direction of the kitchen?

What does he want to do?

“Daddy~”

In the past, he was a bite of a bastard daddy, but now his daddy screamed so affectionately, and he appeared at this time, saying that there was no ghost, Walter couldn't believe it.

His brow furrowed deeper, but Stella in his arms regained her senses after hearing the voice of Levi.

Is Levi coming?

Stella's first reaction was to push away Walter, who was holding her. Walter was pushed away because she didn't expect it. After that, Stella nervously arranged her clothes.

A pretty face was completely red in the dark.

The roots of the ears and neck were hot, and she didn't expect Levi to hit him and make friends with Walter.

Although Levi is still a child, Stella still feels embarrassed because of her thin face.

Before Walter could solve his lovesickness, he was pushed aside, his brows frowned further, and he stepped forward and whispered: "Don't worry about him, as long as we don't say anything, he doesn't know we are here."

After speaking, his big hand once again wrapped around Stella's shoulder.

But this time, Stella didn't let him hug her as he wished. Instead, she stepped back and pushed him away, whispering: "Don't come here, let the children see that the influence is not good."

She looked out anxiously while tidying up her clothes.

Sure enough, the voice of Levi came again.

"Mommy? Hey, I seem to hear Mommy's voice~ Mommy, is that you?"

Walter: Damn, this little guy did it on purpose.

Hearing the voice of Levi getting closer, Stella was almost certain that he was almost walking to the door of the kitchen. When she just wanted to go out, a pair of big hands behind her pulled her back, and she fell back to Walter Xuan's arms.

In the darkness, Walter held Stella expressionlessly, and when he wanted to reach out to close the kitchen door, he suddenly heard a click and the kitchen light switch was pressed.

The room was completely dark just now, but now it was suddenly bright as day.

“Hey, I found you!”

Millet is standing at the entrance of the kitchen, his hand is still climbing on the switch.

He opened a pair of shiny eyes, looking at Stella and Walter Xiaochei.

Stella was stunned for a while, suddenly remembering that she was still being hugged by Walter, her face changed, and she quickly got out of his arms.

“Millet beans.”

Levi turned around, “Mummy, what are you doing in the kitchen most of the night?”

Stella: “...”

How can she answer this kind of question? Can she say that she just wanted to have a glass of water, but Walter pulled her over and kissed her?

It must be impossible to teach bad children.

Stella took a deep breath and smiled slightly: “The noodles your Jessica cooks are a bit salty, so Mommy was a little thirsty until midnight, so she came out to drink a glass of water. Why did the millet beans come out? Are they thirsty too? La?”

After finishing speaking, Stella secretly praised that he had accompanied Ming, and his adaptability was good.

Said that Jessica’s noodles were a bit salty. She came out to drink water. If Levi asked what Walter was for, Stella could also say that he was thirsty, so he came to find water to drink. Up?

But Stella didn't expect Levi to play cards according to the routine. He blinked his eyes and said purely, "But why Aunt Jessica and Uncle Xiao didn't get up?"

Stella: "..."

She felt that the smile on her lips stiffened. Sometimes it is not a good thing that her son is too smart. If he is a little fool, then after listening to her own words, she should only nod her head and say that she wants to drink water. .

"I don't know if it's the mother and child connecting the heart or something, Stella thought so, and Levi suddenly said, "Mommy, I also want to drink water."

Stella returned to her senses and nodded: "Okay, Mommy will pour you some water, you will wait a while."

After speaking, Stella immediately got up and poured water on the millet beans.

She poured two glasses of water, one for Walter and one for Levi.

However, what she didn't know was that when she poured the water, Walter and Levi's eyes met in the air, after a fierce collision.

After a while, Walter was sure that this little guy did it on purpose.

He lifted his lips and smiled in the forest.

"Aren't you asleep? Why did you get up?"

Levi looked innocent: "Aunt Jessica's noodles are so salty, Levi is so thirsty, I wake up thirsty~"

The smile on Walter's lips became even colder: "Really?"

Stella was very embarrassed when she heard these words.

In fact, Jessica's cooking skills really didn't say that everything was just right, and she would never make such a low-level mistake.

But why is this?

They are a family of three, all thirsty?

Chapter 930

It was late at night, but Levi was sitting on a chair holding a water cup, sipping the water in it obediently, drinking slowly in small sips.

He said he was thirsty, but the look and action of drinking water didn't seem to be thirsty at all.

Saying he was not thirsty, he slowly drank the glass of water.

The kitchen was quiet, and the three of them were silent at this time. There was only the sound of Levi drinking water in the room.

After a long while, Levi raised his head, looking at Walter's cold eyes with clean and flawless eyes, and asked curiously: "Daddy, aren't you thirsty? Why don't you drink it?"

Stella: "..."

Before Walter could speak, Stella said: "Your daddy had a drink just now, so you have to wait for a while to drink. If you drink two glasses at a time, your stomach will get a little up."

Hearing that the original look appeared on Levi's face, without saying anything, he bowed his head and drank all the water in the cup obediently.

Seeing that the water in his cup finally bottomed out, Walter's thin lips pressed tightly. Just as he wanted to say something, Levi handed out the cup in his hand.

"Mummy, I want to have another drink."

Walter: "..."

He squinted his eyes slightly and stared at Levi, not knowing why, he always felt that this little guy was deliberate.

Otherwise, how could Levi just wake up after he left the room, and then found the kitchen, and now he still relies on drinking water here and still does not leave.

Stella didn't doubt the millet beans. Hearing that he asked for another cup, she nodded and picked up the cup to pour another cup for the millet beans.

Walter spoke at this time.

"Drinking too much water at night is bad for the liver. One cup is enough. Go back to sleep."

Hearing, Stella's movements paused, and her eyes looked at Walter. The two eyes met in the air, and his eyes moved from her to Levi.

Levi has a simple expression.

“But Levi still feels thirsty, and mommy just said that Daddy has to stay here and wait for a while before drinking water? Can’t you drink too much at one time? Then Levi stay with Daddy Wait~”

Walter: “...”

Although the cub in front of him had just recognized him, and he was also very surprised, but at this time, Walter really wanted to pick him up and throw him back into the room. Although his expression is simple, Walter has seen the confrontation in the room before and the sudden change of Levi seeing Stella.

Therefore, Walter really didn’t believe it when he said he didn’t come here to cause damage on purpose.

Thinking of this, Walter’s thin lips raised slightly, and he walked over to hold down the back of Levi’s head: “It’s cold, go back to the house and sleep, and I will bring it to you later.”

“Huh, I don’t want it.” Levi unceremoniously slapped the big hand on the back of his head, turned his head to look at Stella, and started acting like a baby: “Mommy, I’m going to wait here, okay? Well?”

Stella was basically responsive to her son’s request except for those she couldn’t agree to before.

Because Levi is sensible and never asks her unreasonably, if he does, unless he can’t agree, otherwise Stella will generally satisfy him.

So how could Stella refuse such a small request? Looking at her son’s expectant eyes and cheeks, Stella responded with a smile.

After she agreed, Walter’s brows furrowed slightly, her thin lips pressed into a straight line, her lower jaw tightened.

It seems that this little guy is here deliberately.

“Thank you Mommy~ I love you!” Seeing Stella’s promise, Levi blew a kiss to her.

Walter finally felt the threat from Levi.

Stella thought for a while, suddenly raised her head and looked at Walter.

“You go back to sleep first, after a while he drinks the water, I will send him back.”

It’s too embarrassing for the three people to stand in a stalemate here, especially when you think of the things she did with Walter in the dark, Levi’s eyes are black and bright. Although he is still a child, Mr. Stella It feels like he knows everything.

“Daddy, did you hear me? You go back to bed first, Mommy will send me back later~”

Ah.

Walter’s lips twitched slightly, and an unknown light flashed in his eyes, and then he took a step to the side of Levi, pulled a chair and sat down.

“What’s the hurry? I still have a glass of water to drink.”

He sat down and deliberately stayed very close to Levi with a low voice.

“Not going back?”

Levi didn’t even look at him, as if he hadn’t heard what he said, but looked up at Stella.

“Mommy, I am a bit cold sleeping with Daddy, can I go to sleep with Mommy?”

Hearing, Walter’s eyes deepened, and he narrowed his eyes.

Stella was a little surprised: “Cold?”

She looked at Walter: “What’s the matter?”

“Is it cold?” Walter looked at his beloved son, “I will go back then, and Daddy will put you to sleep.”

Stella was relieved and nodded: “Your father is right. I will let your father sleep with you when I go back.”

The two father and son hadn’t seen each other much before, and they were very strange in the past. Moreover, Levi’s prejudice against his daddy should be more than a bit. Sleeping together can help the two fathers and sons to connect and cultivate relationships.

This is pretty good.

Thinking of this, a smile appeared in Stella’s eyes.

Levi: “...”

Daddy put his arms to sleep?

Just thinking of that picture made Levi feel disgusted, her little nose and eyebrows wrinkled.

“Why, dislike your daddy?” Walter raised his eyebrows.

Hearing this, Stella thought of the scene in the rental house before. The little guy punched Walter in the face and asked him who the wild species was.

Bastard...

When Walter said this, Levi heard it.

This is not a good thing.

Back then, Stella was hurt many times by his poisonous tongue, and Walter was even more arrogant than he thought.

“I am an adult, so I may be relieved of these things.”

“But what about children? What will happen to him? How will you treat your father in the future?”

Thinking of this, Stella couldn't help worrying.

“Levi, you...”

Levi is too smart. Before she could say anything, Levi had already spoken up.

“Don't worry, Mommy, I won't dislike daddy, so let's put it this way, daddy, shall we go back together now?”

Walter's expression was faint, “Sit down for a while and finish drinking the water. Go back first.”

Levi suddenly hugged his arm: “No, I want Daddy to hold me back.”

He started acting coquettish again, this time the target was Walter.
