

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 921

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 921-"If Anthony is safe, it should be fine. I don't mind taking this slap to my face. If anything happened to him, your D'Cruz family would have to be responsible for it as well!"

Waverly's face stiffened. Susan lashed out on her instead?

Why was she to blame? She only provided Susan with a plan, and they were the ones after the D'Cruz family's benefits. They did it voluntarily!

She was the D'Cruz family's wealthy heiress. It was already past twelve at night, it was her birthday. Everyone should be cherishing her like the star she was to be, yet the accusations were turned to her instead?

Anthony isn't a weak man-he'll be fine. Let's discuss after finding him."

His hoarse and old voice sounded tired.

Waverly's eyelids jumped. Discuss after finding him?

Was he implying they would talk more about whether they would let her be with Anthony after they found him?

Anthony was a grown man who disappeared for only a day, yet they were so anxious and blamed her for it?

How repulsive!

With that, everyone waited. No one dared to sleep until he came home, and no one was willing to get some shut-eye.

After all, Anthony was the Bailey family's future patriarch. If anything was to happen to him, the entire Bailey would be affected as well as the entire country.

The wait lasted throughout the night.

Meanwhile, Charmine and Anthony slept soundly.

They both held one another despite the low temperature, and it was a loving sight.

Eventually, Charmine was awakened by the sound of footsteps.

She has always had exceptional hearing. Since it was very quiet, she could hear movements within a few hundred meters.

The footsteps were coming from far away, and it sounded much like footsteps of a man.

Charmine woke up in shock. A man?

Was it Julian's?

She opened her eyes and realized the sky had turned bright.

It was brighter than usual as the sunlight shone past the fully grown trees, and shadows of the leaves hovered over them.

Under the sunlight, someone walked to the entrance.

The figure was obviously Julian's. He found her!

He stopped above the pit and called out from above, "Charmine! Charmine!"

Charmine quickly put on her tank top and gently woke up Anthony.

Anthony woke up and saw what was happening.

Who would have thought that Julian would be the first to have found them?

So it was Julian who kidnapped Charmine!

Was he not destroyed? Had he not learned from that?

Anthony hugged Charmine tightly. "Don't worry, I'll make sure he'll suffer a feeling worse than death!"

Charmine had zero qualms to that.

Perhaps Anthony did not have to do it-she would do it herself!

Nonetheless, Julian had gone insane, and they had to be careful.

The two of them leaned on the dark corner of the wall and waited quietly.

It was dark looking down from ahead, thus Julian should not be able to see them.

As long as Julian did not hear back, he would leave.

They never thought Julian would linger for much longer, not once leaving. It came as a bigger shock when Julian yelled, "Hold on, Charmine! You must hold on! I'll come down and save you! I'll help you out!"

He unraveled a rope and threw the other end down below.

He was coming down!

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 922-Charmine frowned; she never even replied to Julian. Should he not be assuming she was dead or had left? Use mud to bury her, mayhaps?

Did Julian still want to come down and save her?

Next to her, Anthony's expression was as dark as ink. As a man himself, he knew what this meant.

It was apparent that Julian still loved Charmine.

Anthony exuded a murderous aura as he said to Charmine, "You may think of a way for him to die. He can't be kept alive."

Charmine was speechless.

One moment ago, Anthony was thinking of a way to make him feel worse than death, but he backtracked and wanted him dead again? 1

Just as they mulled things over, Julian had at last descended with the rope. His movement was agile, and it was apparent he was well-trained.

Anthony let go of Charmine to prepare for an attack.

When Julian landed, he saw the mud pit and swung his body to the drier side of the cave.

After landing, he looked around and said, "Don't be scared, Charmine. I'm here, and I'll protect you. You won't die! We'll be together forever-"

Before he finished speaking, he saw Anthony and Charmine in the corner.

He glowered. "An...Anthony? Why are you here?!"

"Thanks to your plan!"

Anthony's expression was stone-cold, much like his tone.

So, Julian wanted to be with Charmine forever, was he? He had not given up on Charmine, huh?

Anthony launched toward him like a phantom as a savage-like aura permeated from his body.

He powerfully kicked at Julian's ribcage and, with an audible crack, sent him flying to the wall about two meters away, 1

He grimaced in pain as he gripped at his chest and spat out a mouthful of blood.

His ribcage... He just recovered not long ago, and Anthony cracked them again!

Anthony marched forward and stepped on his chest. 'You kidnapped Charmine and tried to ruin her! Who gave you the permission, hmm?"

As he spoke, he forcefully stepped on him.

"Argh!"

Julian cried out in pain and spouted another mouthful of blood.

One could hear that his cracked bones had stabbed into his organ.

However, Anthony did not plan to retrieve his leg. When he thought of how

Julian tried to hurt Charmine and put metal cuffs on her, he wanted to crash

Julian to death!

Charmine quickly went up to pull at Anthony. "You'll be too easy on him if you kill him down. Calm down for now."

Anthony removed his leg on his abdomen, though his expression was still merciless.

At that moment, Charmine's ears twitched slightly.

Though they were below ground, she could hear the movement from a few hundred meters away, and she detected the sound of multiple sets of footsteps.

More were coming, and they were not Kay and his men.

She instantly said to Anthony, "Someone's here, and they're not ours. We must get out of here, now!"

Anthony frowned. They could be the Baileys' bodyguards.

Given the current situation and it was Waverly's birthday, they must have wanted to bring him back to attend Waverly's birthday.

Well, if they dared to do so, they must be prepared to pay dearly for it.

He landed another kick on Julian.

"Argh!"

Julian was kicked into the mud pit, and half of his body was submerged in it.

Anthony removed his suit and tossed it at Julian before he said to Charmine, 'You walk in front, and I walk behind.'

“No. You’re wounded, so you walk in front and I walk behind.” Charmine was determined.

Whoever walked behind the other could support the person walking in front.

Furthermore, the one behind could help the other from slipping.

Anthony, however, gave her no room for back talk as he carried her and put her on the rope, all while snapping orders.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 923-“Go up!”

Instinctively, Charmine held onto the rope.

Of course. With her capability, she did not need Anthony’s help anyway.

The drug’s aftereffect had vanished overnight as well.

She held onto the rope and used her legs to push herself up, all while her hands pulled her up the rope.

Julian seemed to sense what they were doing, and he called out instantly,” Wait

up! You guys can’t leave! Charmine is mine! Charmine can only be mine! Stay...don’t leave!”

Anthony’s already remorseless face turned even darker as he swung his leg.

Instantly, mud flew up and went toward Julian, into his mouth, 1

Mouth filled with mud, Julian frantically tried to spit it out, horrified and disgusted.

He never thought he would end up in a pit after struggling to find a rope and got lost in the forest countless times. He did everything to save Charmine, yet she worked with Anthony to do this to him? 1

His bones were broken once again and they dug into his organs. He was in so much pain that he felt like dying!

All that, and those two left him behind? A heartless, evil couple they were! They had the heart to leave after all that?

Meanwhile, Charmine had gotten out of the pit with agility, but she spotted a group of men coming their way as she looked ahead.

She quickly pulled on the rope and urged Anthony to hurry.

Anthony glared at Julian and growled through gritted teeth, "Remember, Charmine is my woman. If you want her, I want you to feel worse than death!"

Bidding his final words, he then climbed up the rope.

At that moment, Julian saw clearly how Charmine waited for Anthony above the pit. They were like a perfect match about to be reunited, while he...

No! He would not let that happen!

The rage in his head overwhelmed him at that moment. A dagger suddenly appeared in his hand as he jumped off the ground and launched at Anthony to stab him powerfully on his back. 1

Anthony, still scaling up the rope, had no time to dodge the sudden attack. Instantly, the sound of a knife embedded into flesh was heard as the dagger stabbed into Anthony's calf.

Anthony grimaced in pain, though he managed to kick Julian forcefully away with his pointed leather shoe, and it aimed right at Julian's lower jaw.

Crack!

His lower jaw was broken!

Julian cried out in pain and fell back into the mud pit before he fainted from the pain.

Charmine's heart clenched when she saw Anthony hurt.

She quickly pulled up the rope to help Anthony upward.

At last, Anthony fully emerged from the pit though with a bleeding calf.

Moreover, the wound on his arm broke open.

It was severe, and they had to go to the hospital quickly.

Charmine said to him, "Why don't you go back with them-"

"No need."

Anthony pulled out the dagger from his calf and tossed it inside the pit. He then tugged at Charmine to leave.

If he went back, those people would not have learned their lesson!

How dare Senior Bailey drugged him? He wanted them all to understand who actually had a say in the Bailey family! 1

Charmine was pulled by him to escape.

When the Bailey Ace team arrived at the pit, they saw someone laying in there, but because of its depth, they could not see the face and could only see the black suit.

The suit was Anthony's!

Everyone started getting into the pit.

Unbeknownst to the men, Anthony and Charmine were way ahead of them. 1

Charmine was supporting Anthony. He was bleeding more and more, and if this went on, something would happen.

Not far from where they stood were more men that came toward them, and they were...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 924- Charmine was prepared to pull Anthony quickly into another cave.

However, the people in front happened to be Kay and his men!

They were coming from ahead, and just as they were about to miss her,

Charmine rushed toward them.

"I'm here!"

Kay and his men looked back and saw Charmine standing in front of the cave.

She had mud all over with only a beige tank top on. 1

The group looked shocked. Their Boss Jordan was reduced to such a state!

Someone did this to Boss Jordan!

Kay instantly tossed the towel he prepared to Charmine as he said, "Boss Jordan, who hurt you? We'll destroy him now!"

"No need; he's already destroyed. Let's go." Charmine put the towel on her and walked into the cave to support Anthony.

Even though Anthony's calf was hurt with fresh blood oozing out of his wound, he still straightened himself and exuded his usual regality.

He walked out of the cave without waiting for Charmine to hold onto him.

Just as Charmine was about to catch up to him, she spotted something of bright red color inside the cave.

Her red lips curled upward at the sight as she instructed Kay, "Collect it and keep it well. Send it to Skyview Tower."

"Yes, Boss Jordan!"

Kay instantly went inside the cave.

Under the protection of the Gragoul team, Charmine and Anthony managed to return to Violet Residence.

To hide from the Baileys and D'Cruz family's people, they returned to Violet Villa first.

"Hurry up and clean up your wound," said Charmine to Anthony, "I'll treat your wound."

"No need. I've got other plans to settle," refused Anthony as he walked to her working desk and brought her laptop over.

Charmine frowned. "What plan is that important? Treat your wound first."

"You go and clean up first. Go back to the Bailey mansion with me later," concluded Anthony as he turned her body toward the bathroom. 1

Charmine frowned. Go back to the Bailey mansion with him?

She suddenly understood what he was doing.

So he wanted to...

However, he was so severely wounded. She wanted to say something, but Anthony was already seated in front of the laptop and started working on it.

Charmine saw the look of determination in his eyes. She knew Anthony too well and quickly went to the bathroom to clean herself.

After cleaning up, she put on simple jeans with a khaki trench coat.

Seeing that Anthony was working on the laptop, she did not disturb him. She went to the tunnel to check on Chris in the other villa.

After not seeing him for the entire night, she wondered how Chris was. She wondered if he had a seizure again...

She then noticed that the villa was empty, with no one in sight. Even the maids in the villa were on leave.

Just as Charmine was preparing to leave through the tunnel and find out what happened from Kay...

Cluck! Cluck! Cluck!

A mechanical sound resonated in the air.

Charmine turned to the sound and saw that a two-meter tall robot made its way to her, standing in front of her.

The robot opened and closed its mouth, and it replayed Chris' recording that went,

"Mommy, you're home! I'm Momo, I'm Momo! I knew Mommy would come home safely! Don't worry, Mommy, I'm at the Bailey mansion. I'm helping you both!"

Charmine frowned.

The Bailey mansion? Chris went there alone?

Those people did not even like him. What if they harmed him?

She instantly went through the tunnel and said to Anthony, "Come on. Let's go to the Bailey mansion right away!"

Still working on the laptop, Anthony smirked coldly. "We should go."

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 925- Anthony would make the Baileys pay!

At the Bailey mansion.

None of them slept a wink that night as they gathered in the living room, waiting for news on Anthony.

Waverly was already very sleepy, but she could not sleep as everyone else was awake. She accompanied them for a night, causing dark circles to form under her eyes.

It was past eight already. It was her birthday and she had to attend her birthday banquet, yet she just had to stay with them...

Then, a person in charge of the company ran over as he anxiously reported, “Senior Bailey, Madam, I’ve got news. It’s bad!

“As he hadn’t returned for a day, the President had missed yesterday’s and this morning’s international conference. Many countries pulled out from the deal, and the loss was as much as sixty billion!”

Senior Bailey held a cup of tea and was ready to drink when he heard the news, and the teacup fell to the floor and shattered.

Everyone in the room looked alarmed-they looked absolutely terrified.

60 billion! What concept was 60 billion?!

Even if they were the Bailey family, this loss would hurt them for a few months!

Derek, who sat in the corner, had his gaze darkened. 1

Anthony went missing and caused such a great loss. The shareholders would surely not be pleased.

It made an interesting drama, indeed.

Suddenly, a Bailey Ace leader ran over and reported, “Senior Bailey, it’s bad.

We found Mr. Bailey’s suit in a cave, Julian, and a dagger with blood. Julian had no visible wounds, so the blood could be of Mr. Bailey's. He's still missing..."

Grandma Bailey jolted in her seat, and she would have fallen to the floor had the maids not been there to support her.

Anthony was hurt... He was hurt by a dagger...

Chris was initially silent as he sat in his corner, but he, at that moment, burst out crying.

He wailed with deep despair, "Waa...! Daddy must've been hurt by the dagger!

His heart might be stabbed, or his face, or even his head... Waa...!"

Each word he said formed an image in Grandma Bailey's head.

No matter if it was his heart, face, or even his head that was hurt, it was bad!

He was the Bailey family's future patriarch. How could he be harmed?!

Grandma Bailey gripped at her chest and scowled at everyone in the room, "It's all your fault! All of you are brainless! Are you happy now? We lost sixty billion, and we still don't know if Anthony is alive or not! Are you all happy!? I'm warning you: If he doesn't come back, all of you have to die with him!" 2

She glared from Senior Bailey to Susan, and she of course remembered to stare daggers at Waverly.

Waverly lowered her head; she was tired and angry.

Was Anthony that useless that Julian wounded him?

Wait, no... Was Julian not supposed to be with Charmine? Why did Anthony meet him instead?

Unless...

She felt greatly unsettled, while the rest in the room were very anxious and worried.

That went especially for Senior Bailey. He regretted everything so much that his face had turned green.

Forget losing 60 billion, they even found Anthony's blood! It had taken a turn for the absolute worse!

Although Anthony had not come home after having Chris, Senior Bailey had always favored Anthony and had decided to let him take over all of his shares.

If anything was to happen to Anthony...

At the thought of it, he instinctively raised his walking stick and slammed it dangerously close to Susan's foot. "It's all your fault! It's all your fault! You ruined things with those silly ideas!"

Susan's face turned green. Although the walking stick did not touch her, it was equivalent to smacking her face, destroying her dignity! 1

This day was the most insulting day in her life!

She could not help glaring at Waverly with fury.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 926- Waverly did not look well. Of course she knew Senior Bailey and Grandma

Bailey both accused her.

Even if they looked as if they were scolding Susan, they were actually scolding her! 1

Sick of keeping secrets, Susan eyed her indignantly. "Someone gave me this idea, and she threatened me as well. She said if she can't be with Anthony, she'd then go back to Kansas. I did it out of kindness; I merely wanted to match them up! Now, however, I see clearly that this someone should've gone back!"

Her tone was filled with disgust as she spoke.

Waverly frowned. "Mrs. Bailey, what do you mean by this? I was merely giving you the idea, and you people were the ones executing it-" 2

"Enough, enough, stop bickering! You're all wrong, yet you're here making a ruckus?" Grandma Bailey cut them off sternly.

It was clear she was not giving Waverly a chance to speak.

Chris hid in the corner, as if they terrified him, and he dared not to breathe.

However, the truth was that his eyes were filled with a glint of pleasure.

He wanted that nobody to get scolded! He wanted his Grandma, Grandma, Great-Grandpa, and Great-Grandma to hate this nobody!

The entire room was full of hatred as each of them felt constrained.

Only Derek was charged with anticipation. If Anthony died out there and never came back...

Just as the thought filled him, the butler suddenly ran toward them. “Mr. Bailey is back! He’s back!”

Instantly, everyone looked toward the door.

They saw that outside the door, Charmine propped up Anthony as they walked toward them, step by step.

His body was covered with mud while his arms, legs, and shoulders were all scratched. There was even a dried wound on his calf.

He looked grimy though still exuded a regal aura, like a warrior returning from a victorious battle.

Behind him were 100 elite, professional-looking bodyguards that wore agent costumes with bulletproof jackets. 1

The bodyguards heavily guarded the living room.

With Charmine supporting him, Anthony’s face was cold as frost as he walked into the living room.

When Grandma Bailey saw his appearance, she instantly went forward with a pained heart. “Anthony... Oh, my Anthony! What happened to you...?”

“We should be asking our Senior Bailey, shouldn’t we?” snapped Anthony as he glared at Senior Bailey.

Senior Bailey saw how Anthony looked, and his heart felt like it bled painfully.

This was his favorite grandson! His grandson had never looked as vulgar as this! 1

He shut his eyes in pain and said in a hoarse tone, “From now on, Grandpa won’t meddle in your affairs and who you want to be with. Grandpa has no say...”

Anthony merely scoffed, “Charmine saved my life, and I don’t need your permission anymore. I came back today, hoping that Grandpa will give your shares to me.”

He made a gesture as he spoke, and Luke instantly brought over a contract to Senior Bailey.

He looked down to see the contract with the words printed, [Voluntarily give out

30% shares to Anthony Bailey.]

Anthony already owned 40 percent of the shares, and with this 30 percent, he would be in complete control of the entire Bailey family. In the future, none of them would have any say!

Senior Bailey frowned. “Are you forcing me to retire, Anthony?”

‘You nearly cost me my life, Senior Bailey, and asking you to give your shares is already the kindest act from my side.” Anthony showed no emotion at all. He looked at Senior Bailey as if he was a nobody.

It was indisputable that Senior Bailey attacked him, and he had objected to Anthony being with Charmine due to his power to have the final say.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 927-
Without the final say, what threat could there be? Who else would attack

Anthony and Charmine?

Senior Bailey glared at Anthony for a long while before, finally, he gave in.

“Alright. I’ll give you my shares under one condition: This matter will be closed, and nobody should mention it. Moreover, you must come home once a week.”

2

He noticed Anthony’s aloofness in the way he spoke. Senior Bailey did not wish for Anthony to still hate him after getting the shares.

As he was in his old age, he wished nothing but for the whole family to gather again.

Derek instinctively shot up at that. “Grandpa, do you not want to reconsider ...?”

He only had 10 percent of their shares while Anthony had 40 percent, the highest shares-percentage in the family. If he obtained Senior Bailey’s shares, it would be almost impossible for Derek to gain control of the Bailey family. 2

Senior Bailey merely said, “You don’t have the right to speak here! Anthony, you only have to answer me. Do you agree with this?” 1

Anthony looked at Charmine who was by his side. “My family is strict. Please ask my lady for permission.”

Charmine was speechless.

She came here to be a mere spectator, yet Anthony gave out such an important decision-making power to her?

Also, did he just say his family was strict as if she controlled his everyday activities, not letting him go out?

Seeing that everyone was staring at her, her cheeks turned red as she quickly said, "I don't mind."

Anthony looked at Senior Bailey afterward. "She doesn't mind, so I don't mind as well."

Senior Bailey's lips twitched. Oh, his grandson!

Whatever...so long as he agreed.

He picked up a pen and signed the contract. His signature sealed the contract.

Derek was enraged. He thought Anthony would die out there somewhere, never thinking he would come striding in and take up so much shares!

Curse him! 2

Grandma Bailey did not care about these anymore. She said to Anthony, sounding hurt, "Anthony, Grandpa has already given it to you, so hurry up and go to fix yourself. Looking at you now makes me feel so bad!"

Anthony saw that Luke had taken the contract away, so he also turned to leave.

He did want to clean up. After all, he still had to attend Charmine's birthday banquet.

Chris hopped toward them and held onto Charmine's small hand.

Grandma Bailey instructed, "Prepare some clothes for Anthony, and ask the family doctor to come right away!"

Everyone was so busy that nobody had time to avoid Charmine nor ask her to leave.

Furthermore, they had completely forgotten about Waverly.

Waverly sat there blankly, her head swarmed with disbelief.

Was Julian not supposed to be punishing Charmine? How did she end up saving Anthony and coming back together?

Senior Bailey walked a few steps and suddenly turned back, saying to Waverly, "Do head home, Ms. D'Cruz. Since Anthony isn't in a life-threatening situation anymore, I won't hold this against you this time. However, as you see, he's hurt.

We need to take care of him, so none of the Baileys will attend your birthday banquet today." 1

Waverly's hands clenched tightly.

Nobody would attend her birthday banquet?

Almost the entire Kansas would attend, but her fiance and his family members would not attend? How was she supposed to explain to the entire world?

She would become the joke of the town! 1

Suddenly, Senior Bailey said, "Forget today; don't come back anymore. I don't think you're a good match with Anthony-you two are incompatible. Do reconsider and cancel the engagement.” 6

Waverly felt her head buzzing.

Cancel the engagement?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 928-She spent so much effort and calculated everything for things to turn out this way and finally got engaged with Anthony...yet even Senior Bailey wanted to cancel their engagement? i Grandma Bailey jolted as well.

Although she did not like Waverly, she only planned to teach her a lesson. After all, this matter was serious and they had to think it through.

Had this old man had an epiphany?

Senior Bailey stared at Waverly. “My Anthony was never hurt before, yet he nearly lost his life after meeting you! You two aren’t a good match. Go back and think it through. Let’s see if you two will cancel the engagement, or we will do it.”

Waverly clenched her fists, her expression contorted horribly.

“Don’t worry. After today, I’ll think it through!”

With that said, she marched away.

Hmph! They wanted to cancel her engagement?

She had to host her birthday banquet so majestically, and she wanted the whole world to see how she was showered by glory. She wanted the Baileys to realize that she, the heiress of the D'Cruz family, was far superior that they could not afford to keep her.

They would surely regret treating her this way!

Inside the bedroom...

Anthony went into the bathroom.

Chris closed the door and handed the phone to Charmine happily.

"Mommy, Mommy, have a look. Nobody was scolded from last night till now!"

Charmine took the phone and saw the recorded video. She was touched.

"Momo, you came here to watch and record the video for Mommy?"

"Not entirely. It's just that nobody nearly risked your life and Daddy's, so I wanted to teach her a lesson! This video can be useful in the future." Chris' eyes twinkled like stars.

Charmine instinctively ruffled his head. "Good job, Momo, you're the best! No matter if Daddy and Mommy are with you or not in the future, you have to be as brave, okay?"

"Don't worry, Momo is no three-year-old boy anymore! Furthermore, now that Daddy and Mommy are in danger, Momo must take good care of himself. I won't become a burden for you both and make you worry about me," Chris' voice was soft and childlike as he spoke. 2

Charmine was even more touched. She gave him a gentle peck on his forehead.

‘That’s my boy. Mommy loves you!’

Chris grinned from ear to ear when she kissed him.

Grandma Bailey happened to walk in when she saw the scene. When Grandma

Bailey entered, she happened to see this scene before her. It boggled her indeed, but Charmine and Chris seemed rather similar to one another. They had similar facial features.

Was she having a vision?

Charmine was with Julian five years ago and was sent away to Africa. How was it possible for her to give birth to Anthony’s child? 1

She recollected her thoughts and walked toward them.

When Chris saw her, he instantly stood before Charmine and greeted Grandma

Bailey politely, “Great-Grandma.”

“Don’t worry, I’m here to thank Ms. Jordan. I won’t hurt her,” Grandma Bailey comforted Chris and turned toward Charmine then.

“Hearing what Anthony said, you saved him?”

Charmine said calmly, “Not in a sense. Someone happened to toss me into the forest and I happened to bump into Anthony, so we helped each other to get out.”

Grandma Bailey frowned. In other words, Charmine was attacked as well...

Waverly not only made them attack Anthony, but she even made Julian attack Charmine. How despicable!

“I’m glad that you both made it back,” she muttered emotionally. “You saved me the other time, and now you saved Anthony. We don’t know how to thank you.

Coincidentally, today’s your birthday, so here’s a little something from me.”

As she spoke, she took out a box for Charmine.

Charmine accepted and opened it to see an emerald jade. It was exquisite and expensive-looking, filled with the stories of generations.

Charmine heard that this emerald jade was passed on since the Baileys’ first generation. They only passed this on to the wife of each patriarch...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 929- Charmine closed the box and handed it back. “It’s still too early. I can’t take this.”

“Take it. To be honest with you, even the old man agreed for you to be with Anthony; we just need to discuss things among ourselves now. With the two of us supporting you two, you’ll be fine.”

What Grandma Bailey meant was that she liked Charmine even more already.

She looked good. Even though she had a stunning face, she did not fake herself nor overdid it like other women out there. 2

Seeing that Grandma Bailey was determined, Charmine could only keep the jade all while she felt confused.

Not long ago, Grandma Bailey tried to bribe her, wanting her to leave. Who would have thought she would grow to be a supportive ally?

At that moment, Kay walked in. "Boss Jordan, your family is looking for you. They've gone crazy."

It was only then Charmine recalled that she had to host her birthday banquet. Everyone was waiting for her to go back.

She looked at the bathroom and said to Grandma Bailey, "I got to go. Please take care of Anthony. If he doesn't listen, just say I told him so."

"Alright, that'll work!" Grandma Bailey nodded with pleasure. At long last, there was a way to tame Anthony. 1

Charmine was on her way to exit when Grandma Bailey suddenly called out to her, "Happy birthday. Charmine!"

Three simple words but filled with peace and love.

Charmine's back stiffened. She never thought she would hear such a blessing from Grandma Bailey.

'Thank you,' she spoke sincerely.

Chris quickly rushed toward her and gave her a key. "Mommy, Mommy! Daddy and I have prepared you some gifts, and they're all inside a room on the third floor. You must see it before attending the birthday banquet!" Chris reminded Charmine.

Charmine nodded. "Okay."

Meanwhile, at Violet Villa...

Senior Jordan and Joey went to look for Charmine at the villa in person.

When they saw Charmine returning, Senior Jordan went forward to ask," Charmine, where did you go? Do you know we've been looking for you one whole night?"

"Sorry, Grandpa. I went away for work and only came back today. Sorry to have worried you."

Charmine had always been polite toward her grandfather.

Senior Jordan let out a sigh of relief right away. "Good that you're fine, good that you're fine. Let's go to Skyview Tower. All the guests are waiting outside, and they're waiting for you."

"Outside?" Charmine asked suspiciously.

"A bunch of bodyguards claimed to be from Anthony," said Joey, "and they said that you must be the first to enter. None of the guests could even enter the hotel, you see."

Charmine frowned. Had Anthony truly prepared an extravagant surprise for her at the hotel?

Suddenly, she thought of Chris' words as Charmine then said to them," Wait for me, I'll get changed and leave."

"Alright, no hurry. Take your time," assured Senior Jordan.

Charmine walked to Anthony's villa through the tunnel and went straight to the third floor.

One of the rooms was locked with a colorful birthday card on the door. It looked festive.

She took out the key Chris gave her, curious as she did.

She wondered what gift they prepared for her that they locked inside the room...

With a twist, the door was opened.

She pushed open the door and gradually looked over.

Inside the room...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 930-The room's floor was covered in a snowy white fur blanket, and nestled between them was a red gown worn by a mannequin. While it looked like a simple red gown, it had a gradient effect where the upper half was fiery red and it grew whiter toward the dress's tail. 1

It was like a flaming rocket that shot into the clouds: fierce like a piranha in the darkness, utterly stunning and dreamy.

There was a simple knot that connected the top to the sleeves. The long red flowy cloth was as long as two meters. It looked surreal as it was beautified with a few touches of classical charm.

Charmine was shocked. Although this gown was simple with no embellishments, it was apparent that a grand-master made this.

In a daze, she walked to the gown.

The big balloon on the ceiling exploded and countless fine pieces of fur fell from above. It was as if the world was snowing.

A furry cat-shaped robot jumped out from the corner, hopping around as it sang,

“Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you! Happy birthday to you...”

The voice was of a young girl, cute and soft.

The small robot kitten stopped by her foot as if it was an actual pet.

Charmine stood there with fur falling all around her. The soft furry kitten by her foot made the gown in front of her even more stunning.

It was as if she had come to the land of the fairies. Her heart felt entirely warm.

She would have seen this gown at twelve yesterday had there not been any accidents...

She bent down to carry the kitten.

Its touch and fur felt very real.

As she held the kitten in her arms, it blinked. “Madam, I’m your birthday present.

From now onward, I'll also be your pet. You may instruct me to close the door, close the curtains, close the air-conditioning, listen to music, attack that nobody, attack the bad guys, protect you, and more..." 2

Charmine frowned. This kitten had that many features?

Chris obviously prepared and designed this for her. Was Chris' coding skill already so advanced? 1

She wanted to play with the kitten, but knowing that everyone was waiting for her, she had to get changed quickly. She put back the kitten before leaving quickly.

Meanwhile...

At Moonlight Shore, the hall was filled with people early in the morning.

Other than all of the wealthy heirs and heiresses, countless reporters and influencers were live-streaming the event.

There was even a special event on Instagram live streaming Waverly and Charmine's birthday banquet.

Whoever's live stream had more views would win the event, and the winner would get the complimentary one-year promotion from Instagram.

Charmine did not want to agree, but thinking of what Waverly did to her yesterday, she agreed to it.

Waverly wanted to win against Charmine. She wanted Charmine to know she was out of her league!

Waverly was in the live-streaming room as moguls or prominent figures would pop by from time to time. There were either superstars from Kansas or the big names in that country.

It only took a while for her live stream to reach a few hundred thousand views.

Meanwhile, the door to Skyview Tower was not even open. There were only some snacks outside the door with few people passing by.

were only 10,000 views.

Back at Moonlight Shore, someone called out, "Waverly is here!"

Everyone turned to look and the camera turned over.

One could see Waverly elegantly walking over from the far end of the red carpet.
