

Chapter 931

If Lilly could call him a father, how good would it be?

Dad for nothing?

It's better!

He likes Pan Haoyang!

At this breakfast time, Suzi didn't have any trouble getting started, and Pan Haoyang was always feeding Lilly.

Suzi was so shocked that he didn't know what to say.

Just after eating, Lilly clamored to go out.

Suzi thought about going out. At least he could observe the topography of Jiaxing Island. Jiaxing Island is a small place and can travel around one week in a day.

The mother and daughter held hands, and came out of the east courtyard with interest. They happened to meet the doctor who was living in the west courtyard. The doctor had just opened the door of Lin's house and wanted to change the dressing of Lanita's head.

By coincidence, Lanita was lying on the deck chair in the yard.

Suddenly seeing Lanita's white tape, Lilly smiled and leaned forward and back: "Haha, mom, look, that ugly monster was still a purple bag yesterday, but the purple bag has disappeared today, but she Now it's a white tape again, and her head is pasted up, like a painted peeler, mom, it's so fun, look at it, mom, is your phone turned on, you take a picture, I want to see this ugly monster The ugly picture, mom..."

The solemn one in the yard sat up angrily.

She rushed towards Shen only angrily.

But it was also weak.

And Lanita's face was also pale like a ghost, very scary.

Shen Zhongyi, who had just laughed at Lanita, immediately hid behind his mother.

At this time, Lanita rushed to Suzi and Shen Only two or three steps, but Pan Haoyang lifted her foot and kicked Lanita fiercely.

Fortunately, Lanita hadn't come to the place yet, and seeing Pan Haoyang's fierce kick and wished to kick her to death, Lanita turned around and ran back home.

She was crying and howling angrily, throwing things around.

It is very difficult for the hurting doctor to apply medicine to her.

Outside the courtyard, Pan Haoyang's cold and flat voice said to the courtyard gate of the Lin family: "I repeat, She Niang and Shen are the only guests I invited! Very precious guests, who will dare to touch their mother and daughter in the future? Root vellus hair, Pan Haoyang kicked her into the sea to feed the fish, I absolutely counted as the fourth child!"

As expected, Pan Haoyang signed the only one to get into the car with Suzi, and the car drove away in a hurry.

Behind, Moira stared fiercely at the exhaust fumes from the car, and then took out her mobile phone to broadcast a set of numbers: "Hey... as long as you get things done! I will give you one million at a time! In the future! And will give it to you again!"

After closing the line, Moira said viciously: "I don't believe it, I won't kill you this time! Suzi, you can't think about it anyway!"

Suzi can naturally think of how much Moira hates her.

It can also be thought that Moira must always look forward to her death, Suzi, and even do everything possible to kill her and the only one.

However, Suzi couldn't figure out where the danger was.

Suzi was sitting in Pan Haoyang's car, surrounded by Pan Haoyang's bodyguards and some of the Pan's domestic helpers.

The only first stop Pan Haoyang took Suzi and Shen was on the beach by the sea. It is now the time when it is not hot or cold in early summer. The sea breeze is very suitable. There are really many people playing on the beach. Pan Haoyang is also very comfortable. Seeing Suzi and Shen Only mother and daughter running and jumping, laughing and making noise.

A smile appeared on his face involuntarily.

Very happy smile.

When he was extremely comfortable, Pan Haojing's cell phone rang suddenly. He picked it up and glanced at it. It turned out to be an unfamiliar phone.

Originally didn't want to pick up, but after thinking about it, he still connected, and his tone was very unfriendly: "Where are you! You can call my assistant if you have something to do, how can you call me directly!"

At the other end, Arron's Leng Ping voice came: "It's me, Arron."

Chapter 932

Hearing this sound, Pan Hao subconsciously sat up straight in shock:
"You...you dare to call me?"

Arron did not answer, he only said: "Pan Haoyang, I want to ask you something, fifty years ago, do you know the secrets of the Pan family and the Xia family?"

Pan Haoyang: "..."

He was dumbfounded not knowing what to say.

Now, Arron's wife and daughter are in his Pan Haoyang's hands. To put it bluntly, they are prisoners, but at this moment, Arron is not nervous at all?

Isn't he going to kill Suzi and Shen's only life?

If that's the case, wouldn't he Pan Haoyang pick up a big bargain?

However, Pan Haoyang still asked Arron unbelievably: "The surname is Fu! You...you are also a man! You are also the king of Nancheng! You...don't you know, your wife and children? In my hands?"

At that end, Arron's tone was still calm and cold: "What do you want to say?"

"You are not afraid that I will treat them..."

"If they lose a hair, you will have a different head long ago." Arron said lightly.

Pan Haoyang: "...you...what did you say?"

Arron's tone was a little impatient: "You heard it!"

Pan Haoyang: "You... mean, my every move..."

"Your every move is in my control. I feel relieved that my wife and daughter are there. If you dare to be disrespectful to them, they will have less hair, you will have a different head long ago!" Arron's tone was always so plain.

However, Pan Haoyang was able to hear an invisibly fierce murderous aura.

Although he rarely goes to Nancheng.

Growing up, I went to Nancheng once.

However, his understanding of Arron, how Arron seized the power of the Fu family, how to deal with his brother, and how to eradicate dissidents from the road, one by one, and what Arron accumulated overseas. Pan Haoyang didn't know anything about those forces.

Don't say that he Pan Haoyang is jealous of Arron, even if he Pan Haoyang and his elder brother Pan Haojing are joined together, they will also be extremely jealous of Arron.

The reason why Pan Haoyang and his elder brother were able to live so peacefully all this time was entirely because of the backing of Nancheng Shu's father and the Jun family in Kyoto.

However, even so, Arron was still able to take it lightly, calling him Pan Haoyang very calmly.

This suffices to show that what Arron said was not half-hearted.

Because Arron never made false statements.

Even more, he is actually very cruel, but he will only let you see the three points.

For example, now, since Arron can calmly say the words that make his head different, if it is actually done, it may be divided by five horses, or even worse.

However, at this moment, Pan Haoyang was not afraid of anything.

If it were him, he was not afraid of Arron.

The big deal is death!

After a pause, Pan Haoyang suddenly sneered: "Arron! What do you have to do!"

Arron: "..."

Suddenly, he was stunned by Pan Haojing's words.

"I know! Your achievements in the last ten years are known to me! I know that your overseas power is far greater than your local power in Nancheng. I know that even if you do not take the Fu Group, your overseas power Sooner or later, the Fu Group will be annexed! I know that if you want to take my Jiaying Island, even if the Jun family and the Shu family help us together, we may not be able to defeat you!"

Arron really didn't understand: "What do you want to say?"

Pan Haoyang said bitterly: "What I want to say is! I am more humane than you! I know how to love women and children better than you! You cold-blooded animal! Your own women and children, you can safely send them away. In the hands of the enemy, you didn't plan to want Suzi and the only mother and daughter, you didn't plan to, I'm a baby! You can give them two mothers and daughters, and I can give them!"
