

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 931

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 931- Waverly was dressed in a European-inspired brocade royalty gown that opened up a few meters long and had puff sleeves. It was incredibly ornate as if she was a lavish princess from the royal family. 1

Furthermore, the brocade had diamonds as embellishments. With each step that she took, the gown sparkled in all angles.

She displayed glory, elegance, beauty, exquisiteness, and majestic temperament.

Everyone watched with astonishment. She was indeed the wealthy heiress of the D'Cruz family from Kansas.

Charmine had more than 10,000 people in her live stream. However, half of them had gone to Waverly's live stream to view her brocade gown spangled with diamonds.

Waverly walked on the red carpet and enjoyed everyone's admiration for her.

Her lips curled up gradually; she exuded a swan-like elegance from within.

She would always be the most beautiful and most attended one. Charmine could never take that away from her! 1

At that moment, someone called out in the hall,

"Hurry! Go check out Charmine's live stream. Charmine's out, too!"

At Skyview Tower...

As everyone highly anticipated it, an ordinary car pulled over.

Charmine, Senior Jordan, and Joey came out from the car, with Charmine supporting Senior Jordan as he walked.

The grass was green by the river. Among the greenery, Charmine-holding up Senior Jordan as she walked-wore a red gown that fluttered in the air.

Made with a mysterious material, the gown was light like cicada wings. With layers overlapping one another, it would flutter in the air even without a breeze.

With the blood-red color fading out into a gradient effect, it was like the setting sun painted with cold blood fading into a dream.

There was a long lace between her arms that flitted in the air. They were like two red waves, gentle and fiery.

Charmine could be likened to a red spider lily from the night; mysterious and beautiful.

Everyone watched with disbelief.

“OMG! What craft is that? How’s there such a beautiful shade of red?!”

“It’s like the sunset on her, like the flowers blooming in the darkness!”

“This material is so light. Even without the wind, it can float in the air!”

An elder said suddenly, ‘This material is the Goddess Gown kept in the museum! It’s made with the most light-weight material ever invented in the world! This material only weighs ten grams per square meter. It's very soft to the touch with a surface that resembles the glow of a wave. Only a superfine thread a fifth of a hair strand could be used to make this material. Currently, only one corporate could make this material in the world!"

"OMG! Are you exaggerating?"

"Boss Jordan is indeed Boss Jordan! She's wearing a one-and-only!"

"Argh! I want my friends to bear witness to this unparalleled gown!" Instantly, the live stream fell into an uproar as the number of viewers skyrocketed. Within a few minutes, there were as many as a million viewers just like Waverly's.

Everyone admired the beauty of her Goddess Gown in the live stream. The gown only got better the longer they looked at it-it became even more admirable.

On the other hand, Waverly's overly expensive lace and eye-catching diamonds made one feel as if she was a nouveau riche. 2

It only took a while before the viewers in Charmine's live stream went higher than Waverly's!

Waverly saw the reactions of her attendees, that many people used their phones to watch Charmine's live stream. Her fists clenched tightly.

However, thinking of something, her lips curled up beautifully.

White Camellia flowers decorated her main hall. It was a species that could only be seen once every 3,000 years. What would Charmine have to compete with her?

She led her guests to the massive crystal lift to head toward the main hall.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 932-The massive crystal lift could take up to 300 people per round, made entirely with transparent glass. When the lift went up, one could admire from above the entire Burlington.

Accompanied by many moguls, Waverly arrived at the main hall on the top floor.

Upon entering the main hall, everyone was stunned.

The entire hall was decorated with green vines. Even the pillars had been turned into gigantic and ancient-like trees.

It felt like entering a hidden magical forest upon walking through the entrance.

At the platform ahead were innumerable bell-like white flowers. They complemented the refreshing greenery on the venue incredibly well.

There were rings of white flowers that hung everywhere. The branches were bent elegantly, rejuvenating.

A few cameras shifted toward the flowers for some close-up shots. One could feel the sacredness of the White Camellia flowers even through the camera, very beautiful.

They were the once-in-every-3,000-years kind of White Camellia flowers!

The viewers in the live stream went up once again. Everyone came back to admire these once-in-a-lifetime, legendary flowers.

Unknowingly, Waverly had already changed into another gown with a simpler and purer design. She seemed so elegant and gentle, much like a beautiful Goddess.

She truly enjoyed the feeling of being cherished by everyone. She stood on the platform as she conversed elegantly with her guests. 1

At Skyview Tower.

Charmine supported Senior Jordan as she addressed the crowd, "Apologies for making everyone wait for so long."

She then glanced at the door before saying to the bodyguards, "Open up the door."

When the bodyguards Anthony had dispatched to the venue saw Charmine, they opened the door.

Charmine led the people to walk inside, through the lobby filled with black roses,

These roses were similar to the other roses. However, they were sprayed in matte black, and it looked elegant and expensive.

Different from Waverly's set up that was only limited to the platform, these black roses were arranged from the door to the staircase, then to the lift, counter, and everywhere else.

It was as if the hall had been turned into a queen's castle! 1

Charmine walked into the hall in her red gown. She stood out from the rest, valourous yet beautiful.

Everyone was stunned. Black Roses! The Turkish Halfeti Black Roses!

There were so many Black Roses carefully cultivated by the scientists, all equally priceless!

Best of all, the platform ahead was made of all Halfeti Black Roses. Even the walls on stage were filled with blooming and huge roses as big as one's face! 1

When everyone spotted the eye-catching red flower, they were utterly floored.

"Is that the Red Spider Lily? Is there such a gigantic Red Spider Lily in the world?"

"My goodness! This can go on the Guinness World Records!"

Everyone was astonished, and Charmine was equally stunned when she saw it as well.

She recalled that this was not the setup she had in mind. It seemed that Anthony had his men to secretly rearrange this.

Black Roses were indeed unique.

As for the Red Spider Lily...

A reporter walked toward Charmine and inquired curiously, “Ms. Jordan, may I ask if this is truly a Red Spider Lily? Is there such a gigantic Red Spider Lily in the world?”

“Yeah, I have to thank a friend for this. She invited me to the forest yesterday, and I discovered this gigantic Red Spider Lily by accident,” Charmine’s red lips shifted into a small smile as she answered elegantly.

At Moonlight Shore, Waverly happened to have overheard the live stream someone was playing. Hearing Charmine’s reply, she felt anger bursting out from her chest.

Charmine actually came across this gigantic Red Spider Lily! She won against her with these Black Roses and Red Spider Lily!

Worse still, she was the one who led Charmine to the Red Spider Lily... 1

Argh! She was raging!

When she was the one who planned everything carefully, Charmine once again stole away her spotlight. The number of viewers in Charmine’s live stream had scaled far higher than Waverly’s!

At that, Max walked toward Waverly and attempted to comfort her

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 933

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 933-“Waverly, don’t be dragged down to Charmine’s level. Maintain your beauty at all times. Don't forget that these aren't the best of you-your background and family are!"

The words 'background' and 'family' helped Waverly to regain her composure. She was reassured.

She regained her elegant smile once more.

Of course. She was the wealthy heiress of the D'Cruz family. What did Charmine have to compete with her?

She signaled at Max.

Soon, they arrived at the gifting ceremony.

Just like a royalty princess, Waverly sat before the exquisite stage.

The guests went forward to offer their gifts while the emcee read out,

"Patriarch of the D'Cruz family, Fredrick D'Cruz offered 20% shares!"

'The Prince of Kansas gifted nine ceramic vases as a tribute from the royal family to the D'Cruz family!"

'The Princess of Kansas gifted ten royal golden silk brocades!"

"Kansas Car Manufacturer offering a customized luxurious car!"

Each gift was extremely expensive and rare.

The live stream instantly went viral.

"OMG! I feel as if I'm watching a movie when the queen celebrates her birthday!"

"Any one of her gifts will last me for a lifetime!"

'Waverly D'Cruz is indeed Waverly D'Cruz! How majestic!"

At the Bailey mansion...

Anthony allowed his family members to bandage him.

Senior Bailey, Grandma Bailey, Susan, and the rest were watching the television in the living hall.

The screen showed two sides. One was Waverly's birthday banquet, while the other was Charmine's.

When Grandma Bailey saw how Charmine was supporting Senior Jordan, she nodded and praised, 'This girl seems cold on the outside, but she treats her family and relatives well. She's a good girl.'

"I know, right? Look at Waverly; she only cares for herself and not her family," commented Senior Bailey as he watched Waverly.

However, the extravaganza of Waverly's banquet instantly silenced everyone.

Waverly's social circle was filled with royalties and international moguls.

If the Bailey family and D'Cruz family became relatives, it would be ideal.

Charmine, on the other hand...

Those who attended were only her relatives, and there were many people that they had not met. Furthermore, there were less than 100 attendees in total.

Waverly, meanwhile, had over 1,000 attendees. From the first to the top floor, there were guests everywhere.

The contrast was too obvious...

Susan had already calmed down. "Dad, Mom, I think what you both did today was too irrational. Waverly and Anthony are a better match. However much you both don't like Waverly, you shouldn't have given the jade to Charmine. Apart from Charmine, we can still consider McKenzie. Look at it now: Charmine's background is so small and low. She'll be an embarrassment to our Bailey family!"

Chris happened to overheard them. Suddenly, he ran back to the room.

"Daddy, Daddy, it's bad! Granny is looking down on Mommy's family. They think her family isn't powerful enough. We must find help for Mommy!"

Anthony leaned on the sofa as he allowed the doctor to clean up his wound while he played with his phone.

The phone screen was showing Charmine's live stream.

His eyes lingered on Charmine and followed her as she walked.

Her red gown among the Black Roses made her look like the most stunning queen in the world. Each movement and each second of her was screenshot worthy.

As for her background...

Anthony ruffled Chris' head. "Don't worry, I've arranged for that." Just a little longer. Within a few minutes, things would turn around!

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 934

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 934- Moonlight Shore.

A few reporters surrounded Waverly to interview her.

“We heard that sixteen of the most powerful Tech Giants arrived at Burlington earlier today, claiming they came for a friend’s birthday. May we ask how you met these moguls? Are you close with them?”

Waverly had a hint of unnatural panic in her eyes.

In truth, however impressive the D’Cruz family was, they did not manage to get close with these Tech Giants. She usually would not be able to get these people.

She did not expect these moguls to have come, and never did she expect them to attend her banquet.

However, so many reporters were asking her about them, and she could not tell the truth...

Since these people have come to Burlington, they must have come to her banquet. There was no need to tell the truth.

She maintained her elegant smile as she replied to the reporters, “We’re close friends. I’m so thankful that they’ve made time from their busy schedules to attend my banquet.”

Just as she finished saying that, someone suddenly cried out in shock,

“Huh? The sixteen Tech Giant moguls went to Charmine’s Skyview Tower?” i

“What?” Waverly frowned. She snatched the phone from that person to see what happened.

True enough, she saw that all of those middle-aged and elderly men were surrounding Charmine, who used different languages to greet them. 1

“Charmine Jordan! You haven’t visited me for two years, and you didn’t even send me an invitation to your banquet,” said one of them, tone evident with displeasure. “Tell me: have you forgotten about me?”

Charmine smiled sheepishly at that. “My apologies. I thought you wouldn’t want to come to my banquet, considering we haven’t talked for two years and all.”

“You’re kidding me! You helped me to invent an anti-cancer medicine two years ago! I’d do anything for you. With just a word from you, forget attending your banquet, I’d come even if you asked me to climb up a mountain or down a river!”

The man was agitated, 1

Everyone recognized that man. He was a mogul in the field of medicine research. He had a worldwide reputation known for inventing anti-cancer drugs.

Never was it expected that Charmine had a hand in assisting the creation of his anti-cancer drugs!

What a ground-breaking revelation!

One of the other attendees curiously went forward to ask them, “However, we heard that you came to Burlington to attend Waverly D’Cruz’s birthday banquet.”

“Who’s Waverly D’Cruz?” 1

“I heard of the D’Cruz family. The plastic surgery family, no?” i

“I don’t have anything to do with the D’Cruz family. My face is a hundred percent natural!” 1

‘To attend Waverly’s birthday banquet? What a misunderstanding! That’s a rumor! We’ve come here to attend Charmine’s birthday banquet!’

“Yes, Charmine is our best friend. Please don’t bully her!”

The ten or so moguls stood their ground for Charmine, and their every word was like a harsh slap to Waverly’s cheeks.

The crowd around Waverly all looked at her mockingly.

“Didn’t Waverly say that these people are here for her birthday banquet?” 1

“Didn’t she say they’re close friends?”

‘They don’t even know her!’

“Hahaha! What a legendary embarrassment! It’ll be made into a headline in no time!”

Waverly’s face stiffened. She genuinely thought these people were here for her birthday banquet. Who would have thought that they were at Charmine’s birthday banquet?!

Charmine knew so many moguls, and all of them spoke so highly of her!

Awkward... She had never been so awkward and embarrassed before!

Meanwhile, at Charmine's banquet...

More guests were arriving.

Joey picked up the microphone and continued to call out,

"Gragoul team giving one K999. Permitted to be used under special circumstances!"

"National Science Association giving a mansion!"

"National Architecture Association giving land!"

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 935-
"Checkers Association giving a full set of natural crystal checkers!"

"E-Sports Association gifting ten franchises of internet cafes all over the country!" 1

A long list was read out, and every gift mentioned was grand and pricey!

That was not the end of it all, however...

"No.1 Antique Collector, Mr. Young bestowing a thousand pieces of antiques!"

"No.1 Ceramics Developer, Master Hahn gifting a full set of customized furniture!"

As Joey spoke, someone moved a few pieces of furniture inside: from the vases on the table to the human-sized vase; from porch decorations to indoor decorations, and everything else.

The ceramics were all in red, made with the greatest level of craftsmanship in the market as of late. They were the rarest red ceramics!

Red ceramics would only be made at 1300 degrees Celsius with 10 degrees amplitude. If the number was too low, it would turn black; if the number was too high, it would get burnt. Furthermore, only one piece could be made at a time.

The rate of success was as low as 10 percent.

These were the priceless treasures in the world!

Everyone was astonished.

'The Hahn family is indeed the Hahn family. They're indeed the only national heritage ceramics developer in the country!'

"Not long ago, Burlington was deciding on who should be protected, and in the end, Mr. Hahn was chosen to be under the Gragoul team's secret protection!"

"And yet the Hahn family actually sent Charmine such an expensive gift? She knew the Hahn family?" 1

At that moment, Senior Hahn and Grandma Hahn walked inside.

The reporters recognized them right away. They all took photos of them and tried to interview them.

They did not stop walking until they reached Charmine, and they then beamed,

"Great-Granddaughter, happy birthday!" 1

That sent everyone into a shocked frenzy.

Charmine was the great-granddaughter of the Hahn family?

Of course! Charmine's mother was Joey Young who hailed from the Hahn family. Charmine was their great-granddaughter!

No mistaking it anymore; she was indeed the Hahn family's great granddaughter!

Everyone was astonished.

At the Bailey mansion...

Initially worried, Grandma Bailey's eyes twinkled in delight when she saw what happened.

"Oh, gosh! Charmine's great-grandparents are the Hahns! Every year, I keep on waiting to get hold of their work! Oh my lord! My granddaughter-in-law is from the ceramics family I've always been a big fan of!" 2

Susan frowned. She sensed danger right away.

Grandma Bailey had always liked the ceramics of the Hahn family, and all of a sudden, she called Charmine her granddaughter-in-law. Would McKenzie still have a chance? 1

She jumped in, trying to change the course of the direction as she spoke,"

Mother, please calm down. They're not her close relatives, and they don't really have any link with Charmine. Furthermore, they're just some ceramics developers..."

"What do you know?! What do you mean, just some ceramics developers?

They're protected by the country! Since ancient times, they've been holding up our culture for generations. They're the pride of Burlington, and even the Gragoul team protects them! Do you know who the Gragouls are? They're the top-secret national organization! Currently, there's no one inheriting the Hahn family, thus they'll pass on everything to Charmine. Also, do you know who are the in-laws of the Hahn family?" refuted Grandma Bailey.

Susan was too perplexed. She had not paid attention to these things, so she did not know.

Grandma Bailey continued with excitement palpable in her tone, "Grandma

Hahn's mother is from the family of the War Department! The Cherny family! We don't even get to meet them!"

By then, Susan's head figuratively combusted.

The Cherny of War Department.

They were someone even the Baileys wanted to get to know!

Charmine had such a powerful background?

No... It could not be...

Would they have to let Anthony be with Charmine after all?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 936-While the Baileys were anxious, the attendees at Skyview Tower fell into a chaotic excitement.

This was because another group of moguls had arrived!

Four highly acclaimed celebrities, world-renowned singers, international violin masters, directors, and European's Top 10 artists had entered the hall, i

Each of them was a world-renowned mogul. They gradually went on stage and started performing uplifting repertoire that entertained the audience.

With so many influential attendees, the number of viewers on Charmine's live stream had gone up to almost a hundred million!

Charmine was dumbfounded. She did not invite these people

At that moment, her phone rang, and she took it out to see Anthony texting her,

[I want you to have the best in the world. Happy birthday.]

Her heart felt warm with surprise and delight. 2

Not only did Anthony prepare so many Black Roses and a gown for her, but he even invited so many people to help her out.

He had indeed prepared so many surprises for her...

The entire birthday banquet was so perfect that it went viral.

Furthermore, someone from the live stream pointed out that those 'unknown' guests were either secretive researchers or private generous donors. They were figures that were not usually seen in public.

The gifts and comments in the live stream increased.

On the other hand, Waverly's livestream only had a few million people watching, though they were there to only watch her fail.

Some netizens tried to make it worse than it already was.

[May I ask how Waverly feels after telling a lie?]

[No wonder Anthony said Waverly likes to tell lies. This right here is the proof!]
1

[Exactly. And why is no one from the Bailey family here? The food is about to be served, yet they're not coming yet?]

Due to the scrutiny, Waverly found an excuse to go to the dressing room backstage.

Reading the comments from the netizens, she was so furious that she crashed

the vase in hand. 1

Fredrick came in and just so happened to see that. "Don't worry, Waverly," he spoke, reassuringly with worry, "Father will speak up for you! I'll make sure the Baileys give us an explanation!"

With that said, he turned and walked out.

They made it clear about not coming to Waverly's birthday banquet. They wanted to embarrass Waverly!

Since they had announced their engagement to the public, the Baileys must at least give them an explanation!

Waverly saw him leaving. She wanted to chase after him but decided against it in the end and let him go.

It was right for the D'Cruz family to pressure the Baileys. Although Charmine's background was revealed, she was only as good as they were. 2

Waverly did not believe the Baileys to be so ruthless!

Alas...

Fredrick rushed to the Bailey mansion and growled furiously, "Are you sure you lot want to do this? You used the D'Cruz family to secure the deal between two countries, and now you want to break it up?"

"What is Mr. D'Cruz talking about? If it wasn't for your daughter almost murdering Anthony, we would've attended the banquet," Grandma Bailey bit back with a straight face.

Fredrick knew about the incident yesterday, but he did not think it was Waverly's fault.

It was so hard for him to have this daughter. This was why he would allow Waverly to get whatever she liked, and he would only support her.

"Don't forget the plan you agreed to," he warned seriously." Anthony is being too rigid. He chose to jump out of the car, and that was an accident. How could you blame it all on Waverly? I don't want to talk to you anymore, but no matter what, every one of you must attend her birthday banquet. Furthermore, Anthony and Waverly must go on stage together as a couple, rightfully so as they are!" 1

Only if the two went on stage to look like a couple could the chaos be diverted.

Senior Bailey merely said, "Apologies, but he can't go. His leg is hurt, thanks to your daughter!”

“With that said, are you sure you want to break things off with the D’Cruz family?”

If you’re not going today, the engagement will be canceled, and the two families will become enemies from now on. The business deal will be called off!”

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 937-
Fredrick scoffed, his tone ruthless as he spoke.

Still keeping his rationality, Darryl went forward and said, “Please, everyone.

Don’t be so agitated. Let’s sit down and talk it out.”

“What’s there to speak about? Cancel it if you want, be an enemy if you’re sure!”

Do you think the Bailey family will be scared? I’ve lived so long, yet this is the first time someone tried to threaten me!”

Grandma Bailey was livid as she glared at Fredrick. “From the beginning of their engagement, Waverly agreed to only be Anthony and Charmine’s decoy, but she then decided to make it real after agreeing to that. Furthermore, she’s nothing but a heiress who likes to tell lies! We don’t need someone like her! We, the Baileys, will live just fine without your D’Cruz family. We’ll be better off!”

After all, Grandma Bailey could only think of the Hahn family and the Cherny family.

These two families were her favorite families. Since Charmine was related to them, how would she not be pleased?

“Alright. As you wish! Do keep in mind that you’re the ones saying this! You better be ready to pay the price!” Fredrick growled before turning to march out furiously.

Darryl wanted to chase after him but Fredrick managed to lose him.

Darryl exchanged a worried look with Susan.

The two elders always cherished Anthony, thus when Anthony got hurt, they had lost their calm.

If one calmed down and thought it through, a big family like the D’Cruz family was not to be offended!

However powerful Charmine was, it was just a birthday banquet...

Her background was only as good as Waverly’s.

At the birthday banquet, Waverly received the news from Britney and was utterly enraged, i

The Baileys no longer wanted her at all, that they did not even fear making them their enemies, all because Charmine was the great-granddaughter of the Hahn family, related to the Cherny family?

If it was not for Charmine... Everything would have been hers!

Her anger spiked out from within.

Britney quickly comforted her, “Madam, this is the time when you have to keep calm. We need to think of a way to fix this.”

The atmosphere in the hall seemed strange.

Waverly clenched her fists as her eyes burned with rage.

The Baileys chose Charmine due to those distant relatives she had. 2

Those relatives were so distant. How could they support Charmine at all?

If these relatives did not like Charmine, how would the Baileys even like her!?

Waverly's lips slowly curved into a small smirk. "Of course, this is the time to stay calm and face it. I've been through so much pain, what's there to topple me?"

She looked at herself in the mirror as she took out her lipstick to put it on her lips. Her eyes were determined.

Anthony could only be hers!

As everyone waited on her, Waverly came out again, only this time in a red lace gown, as she walked up the stage elegantly. 2

With the greenery-backdrop, the white flowers adorned her appearance even more.

She stood on the stage and said to everyone with the microphone, "I'm so pleased and thankful for all of you who came to my birthday banquet. Now, I'm about to make a big announcement..."

Big announcement?

Everyone turned silent.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 938-
Noticing that all eyes and attention were on her, Waverly's lips curled up even more elegantly. 'The reason Anthony and his family can't attend my birthday banquet isn't due to our relationship problem. It is because Anthony got hurt yesterday.'

Murmurs filled the hall as words were exchanged. Anthony was hurt?

How could a big figure like Anthony get hurt at all?

Was it all Waverly made up to conceal the truth?

Fredrick and Max looked at Waverly strangely. She still wanted to hold the relationship and present herself as such on stage? She wanted to hold it up all by herself?

Waverly continued, "Regardless of whether everyone believes me or not, this is the truth. I'm not angry at them for not attending my birthday banquet. After all, this is just a birthday. What's more important than Anthony's health?

Furthermore, as for what happened earlier, I owe you all an apology, it's all a misunderstanding. It was so noisy that I mistook the moguls as scientists from Kansas, and that's why I made such replies. No matter what, it was on me, and I offer my sincerest apologies for that. I hope everyone can have a lovely time for the remainder of the day," she formally spoke before placing down the microphone and walked off the stage elegantly. She was exuding an air of expensiveness from within, a very pleasing sight.

Under such circumstances, she was still able to face the press with such calmness, and this displayed her formidable emotional quotient, i

The crowd was supportive of the D'Cruz family.

Furthermore, they did not want Kansas to look bad, thus the atmosphere gradually improved.

It did not take long for some celebrities to go on stage to perform. Although they were not as big names as those at Charmine's, they were well-known enough, good enough to please the audience that watched the live stream.

When nobody was noticing, Fredrick pulled Waverly to the backstage and asked suspiciously, "Waverly, why did you do that? You should announce that you're canceling the engagement. You can't wrong yourself."

"Dad, have you forgotten why I came back?" Waverly suddenly asked.

Fredrick frowned. Her goal...

After a moment, he let out a sigh. "It's my fault for not helping you more..."

"Dad, it's not your fault. You've already helped me a lot. I'm grateful for what I have now. However, you must know that I won't simply give up on my goal. I must achieve it, no matter how hard it is." Waverly's voice was gentle and soft with a hint of determination.

Fredrick grew even more worried as he asked with concern, "However, they have made it so clear now. How will the Baileys accept you?"

“Don’t worry. As long as they haven’t found a better match, they won’t simply give up on me. I only need to say a few words to them,” replied Waverly as she picked up her phone and called Grandma Bailey, i

Fredrick did not understand what she meant, but the call was already answered.

Grandma Bailey scoffed at her, “Why are you calling? You want to threaten me like your father?”

“Grandma Bailey, you’ve misunderstood. I’m calling to apologize to you. My father was too impatient, and it’s my fault. We were too impatient, and we needed to calm down. Furthermore, if Mr. Bailey and Ms. Jordan get engaged anyhow, I’ll leave. Before then, I truly love Anthony, and as long as he isn’t with Charmine officially, I’ll keep waiting however long it takes. I hope you can permit

this humble love of mine.” i

Her tone was gentle and humbling.

Grandma Bailey did not expect Waverly to say such things. All of a sudden, it seemed that she was the impatient one.

married, we can’t make an enemy out of them

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 939-

Grandma Bailey replied to Waverly, “I can promise that I’ll keep the truth from the public for the time being, but I also hope that you can keep your end of the bargain. If they become official, you and Anthony will cancel the engagement in peace.”

“Okay. Thank you, Grandma Bailey.” Waverly hung up the phone all while a scheming expression adorned her face.

‘If they became official’? Ha! How would that ever happen so long as she was around?

She then said to Fredrick, “Dad, I’ll need a favor from you after this…”

On that day, the two birthday banquets ended in glory. Charmine won!

The media picked the highlights from the event and made them into a shorter clip for easier playbacks. Sure enough, the clip became famous.

However, the most-heated search turned out to be # Charmine’s-Background.

Many people were in awe of the topic.

[Charmine’s the granddaughter of the Hahn family?!]

[I heard the Hahn family doesn’t have any heir. Will the Hahn family end up giving their wealth and fortune to Charmine in the future?]

[That’s not the most terrifying part! Grandma Hahn is from the Cherny family of the War Department!]

[Argh! The Cherny family of the War Department? How mysterious! I heard they have seven sons without a daughter. This is the legendary ‘boys club’!]

Whoever was leading the discussion, #Charmine’s-Cherny- BoysClub had made it to the most-searched list.

There were many comments on how 'seven brothers spoiling me' went viral.

There were rumors and gossip that centered this particular topic.

Of course, Charmine was too busy the entire day, sending off the moguls that she did not see the comments. She was, however, worn out at the end of the day.

Chris and Anthony were not home yet by the time she got home. With that, she laid in bed to rest.

Not long after, Chris and Anthony returned, with Luke supporting Anthony as they walked.

"Boss, the doctor said you shouldn't be walking—it'll slow down the recovery.

Ms. D'Cruz isn't back tonight yet, so why don't you stay on the first floor?"

"Alright."

Anthony walked to the first floor without even holding onto the railing.

Chris ran up behind him, supporting Anthony.

When Chris arrived by the bedroom door on the first floor and saw Charmine, he instantly left Anthony behind and ran to the third floor to find his kitten. He then ran back down.

Anthony had entered his bedroom, but just as he was about to close the door, Chris sneaked inside.

He pressed on a button and placed the kitten on Charmine's back. The kitten, as it was activated, crawled on Charmine's back in a regular pattern.

Charmine had fallen asleep out of tiredness when she suddenly felt pressure on her back, though it was soft and gentle, kneading at the muscles on her back. i

She opened her eyes and saw Chris standing by the bed. His big and watery eyes looked at her.

She was delighted. "Momo, you're back."

'Yeah. Don't move, Mommy. Stay put and let the kitten massage you. I invented this massaging feature just for you," answered Chris.

"Momo, you invented this all by yourself?" questioned Charmine as she enjoyed the kitten's massage.

'Yes! To be honest with you, I've always been interested in all kinds of research.

I can read and remember things!" said Chris proudly.

Charmine frowned. "Read and remember things?"

She suddenly had this special ability to read and remember things five years ago. Reading something up to three times would enable her to remember it, word by word, i Chris had the same ability?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 940-Chris nodded. "Yeah. Ever since I learned how to read, whenever I read the same thing three times, I'll be able to remember it clearly. I can even recite it backward." i Charmine was even more shocked. He was just like her in this sense!

Was this something that could be passed on by genetics?

With this possibility in mind, she quickly denied it.

How could that be? She bore Alexander's child, not Chris. i

After giving birth five years ago, and though she was halfunconscious, she saw the baby taken and packed up.

The baby was already dead...

Seeing that she zoned out, Anthony frowned, feeling displeased. "Momo, go back to your room and study."

"I've already studied during the day," Chris protested.

"Study again," snapped Anthony.

"No way, I want to accompany Mommy-"

Before he could finish, Anthony asserted once more, "Study three times. I'll test you!"

"No! Mommy, help me..." Chris tugged at Charmine with his puffy hands.

Charmine quickly looked at Anthony. "You can't punish him."

Anthony, who was determined, then frowned. After a moment, his tone became gentler as he spoke, "Alright, Momo. Be good, and go sleep in your bedroom."

Chris had goosebumps all over. "I'll go study in my room!"

With that said, he waved at Charmine and left the bedroom.

Once the door was shut, Anthony walked to the bed and moved the kitten on Charmine's back. He turned it off and put it by the side.

After that, he sat beside her and started massaging her neck.

Charmine frowned. "No need, I'm much more relaxed already."

"Don't move. The massager only massaged you for three minutes and twenty seconds. It's not long enough to relax your muscles," said Anthony with a straight face. His large hand massaged her with the right pressure, i Charmine was speechless.

Anthony sounded formal when he was, in fact, jealous of a kitten!

This man was hopeless. He was even jealous of a kitten...

Amid her thoughts, Anthony's hand went from her shoulder to her collarbone.

With that, he suddenly leaned in and lowered his head to kiss her.

Suddenly, the door was pushed open.

"Mommy, happy bir-"

Chris came back to wish her a happy birthday when he walked into this scene.

Before he finished his sentence, he quickly changed, "You two continue, I didn't see anything! I didn't see anything!"

With that said, he quickly closed the door again.

Face flushed red, Charmine blurted to Anthony, "Go and check on him!"

How embarrassing was it to have let the child see this...

“Momo asked us to continue, so we need to make the child’s wish come true,” said Anthony with a serious tone before lowering his head to continue kissing
