

Chapter 937

When Lanita received the threatening call yesterday, she didn't know who it was, but when Joan stepped in for Shen Soong, Lanita understood.

It turned out that Joan also came to Jiaxing Island to protect Suzi.

Not only that, the entire Gasing Island people also discovered that Arron had already controlled the entire Gasing Island quietly.

It was after Pan Haoyang returned to the Monarch Mansion from the scene where Joan was stabbed and settled in the Monarch Mansion, he discovered that the monarch mansion had been replaced by Arron, and the Monarch Mansion was impenetrable by the water inside and out.

It wasn't until that moment that the people in the Monarch's Mansion, Pan Haojing, Pan Haoyang, and Jarod and Lanita's family of three woke up.

It turns out that everything is nothing more than spectacles.

It turned out that the calmness they thought, and the power they thought were just superficial phenomena.

In fact, these people are already Arron's urn turtles.

At that moment, Pan Haoyang was silent, and Pan Haojing sat on the chair in shock. The entire Pan family fell into helplessness, and it was even more impossible to control the Lanita family of three.

Lanita had an unprecedented sense of fear.

She subconsciously called her grandpa's phone.

In Lanita's consciousness, Grandpa Shu was omnipotent.

Elder Shu can solve all problems.

So she cried in fear in front of her grandpa.

Lanita's cry was very effective.

When she finished speaking, although Elder Shu was extremely shocked, he still calmed his granddaughter: "Don't worry, Lanita, having grandpa with grandpa will keep you safe. Definitely!"

After closing the line, Mr. Shu sat alone for half an hour before he called Arron again.

Elder Shu made a big decision.

At this moment, Mr. Shu and Arron were on the phone. When Arron asked Mr. Shu what he wanted to do with the secret of Nagasing Island, he sighed and asked first: "Arron, Joan him..."

Here, Arron's tone was still very calm. Elder Shu was frightened if he didn't say anything, and he didn't ask Elder Shu what deal with him.

Because, it's not necessary.

Arron only calmly replied to Mr. Shu's words: "Thank you, old man, you care about Joan. He is out of danger now. When his injury stabilizes a little bit, I will bring him back to Nancheng for treatment. After all, the medical level in Nancheng is better than Gasing Island is much better."

Elder Shu's tone relaxed a little: "That's good, that's good, Joan is okay, and my heart can be considered a little more relaxed."

"Yeah." Arron responded.

"Arron..." Elder Shu spoke again.

"Huh?"

"You know, Grandpa Shu, I don't have a close relationship with your Fu family. On my side with your grandfather, your grandpa's Xia family, and your mother, we all have deep connections." Grandpa Shu said again.

His voice is unprecedentedly old, unprecedentedly weak.

Arron also knew why Elder Shu was so powerless.

However, Arron just didn't ask.

Until, at the end of the phone, Elder Shu finally summoned the courage to make the biggest decision.

He spoke slowly and solemnly: "Arron, you can't find the secret of Gasing Island in Gasing Island. Only I know this secret, and this secret is of great importance to you. Grandpa Shu, I want to take it. Secret, exchange the safety of my granddaughter Lanita's family of three. I hope their family of three can return to Nancheng safely, okay?"

Arron said three words in an extremely flat voice without any ups and downs: "No!"

Chapter 938

Grandpa Shu's voice suddenly turned into a cry: "Arron, don't you give Grandpa Shu face at all?"

"Face?" Arron asked calmly on the phone: "If you don't give you face, Lanita would have been dead six years ago. Whose child did she have six years ago, and how did her child get killed? Yes, how did she deceive me by being pregnant with someone else's child and say that it was my child? If it weren't for the father you were blocking her in the middle, do you think she would have bones?"

Elder Shu: "..."

Arron: "Also, six years later, I found my wife. The things she did to my wife, if it weren't for your face, do you think it is enough for her to die a hundred times?"

How calm Arron's voice is, it shows how cold and unchangeable.

At that end, Elder Shu forcibly endured the old cry: "Arron! Even if Lanita is so despicable, she didn't kill anyone, right? She didn't commit the crime to death, right?"

Arron: "No harm to death?"

Yubi, he sneered: "Do you think that the three of Lanita's family have not killed anyone? Father, you...don't you be afraid that one day, you regret it very much?"

The words that Arron blurted out were blocked by Suzi before him.

Suzi shook his head at Arron.

Her expression is firm.

Although she didn't know how much Arron knew, she didn't want Arron to say.

Don't say anything.

In this life, Suzi doesn't plan to have anything to do with Mr. Shu.

Because of the insult and pain that Old Man Shu brought to Suzi, Suzi would never forgive Mr. Shu.

So don't say anything!

Arron: "..."

He respects his wife's choice.

At exactly this time, Elder Shu said on the other end of the phone: "Arron, can I have a word with Suzi?"

"No!" Arron flatly refused.

He will not let Old Man Shu do any harm to his wife in his words and deeds.

However, here Suzi said: "Arron, you give me the phone, I want to hear what he wants to say."

Arron looked at Suzi, and Suzi said again: "Give it to me."

Arron handed the phone to Suzi.

Suzi's tone was extremely cold: "Mr. Shu, what you want to say, please speak directly."

"Suzi!" At the other end, the old man Shu's cry was closed, but his old and feeble tone did not change: "You are the most difficult opponent I have ever seen in my life, I have to say, you are a wonderful thing! "

Suzi smiled: "Mr. Shu, are you complimenting me? It is a great blessing to Suzi that I can get your praise. Thank you."

Elder Shu: "You can really climb up the pole! You still laugh so naturally."

Suzi still smiled: "That's natural! I, Suzi, had no pain since I was a child. My father died when I was a child. He never got a smile from the Lin family when he was twelve years old. He was arrested and imprisoned when he was just in college. After two years in prison, the only care I got was my mother-in-law. As a person like me, if I didn't learn to laugh, wouldn't my life be even more miserable?"

So I don't know anything about Suzi, just laugh.

Whether others praise me, harm me, or scold me, I will laugh! "

Elder Shu: "You..."

He coughed angrily on the other end of the phone, and after he coughed, he continued to accuse Suzi: "Suzi, you are also a woman with children now, and your children are also daughters. Have you ever thought about it wherever you go like you? Will all seduce men's behaviors teach your daughter to be bad? How will your daughter learn from you when you grow up? Why don't you leave a way for your daughter?"
