

Chapter 948

"Yes! Good knife skills!"

Jenny and a few others applauded, even if it was Gu Siqian, who was in the way.

Biden Lu walked over, "I've always only known that the old man is an expert in antiques, but I didn't know that the knife was this powerful."

Master Qiu was wearing a set of practice clothes, and when he heard the news, he looked at him and asked, "Practice?"

Everyone was stunned, but Biden Lu was not surprised and smiled, "Yes."

Master Qiu then threw the knife in his hand to him, and took another one out himself, and stood in his posture, then sneered, "Young man, this is a real knife, the knives are all open-edged, no eyes, if you hurt where you cut, you can't chase me."

Biden Lu smiled, "Although the old man is good with the sword, he is old, I won't cut you, but if you accidentally flash your back, don't hold me responsible!"

As soon as Master Qiu heard this, his face immediately sank.

Bringing up the knife was a move to slash at him.

The two men immediately tangled together.

Jenny and Gu Siqian were standing on one side, all watching in awe, why didn't they think that just now it was fine, how come in the blink of an eye, the two of them are having a contest?

Although it was just a sparring session, but that was with a real knife, Biden Lu sat in his office for years, worrying about business issues, not to mention Gu Si Qian and Bella Qiao, even Jenny had never seen this knife technique, what if he really got hurt?

All she could feel was her heart in her throat, her hands clenched tightly and she was sweating with nervousness.

On the other side, however, Gu Si Qian was very calm and collected.

Master Qiu's knife skills were great, it was true, but no one knew that he wasn't actually bad at it.

Thanks to this, many years ago, he was bored and saw that a reclusive master was good at using a sword, so on a whim, he learned from him.

I didn't expect to learn this, but I was hooked, and I was learning for years at a time.

Although it had been so many years since he had used it, but his own martial arts foundation was good, coupled with his excellent memory, just a few short moves, he found his state and was able to fight with Master Qiu in no time.

The two of them went at each other, breaking up about thirty moves.

After all, Master Qiu was getting old and gradually had lost some of his strength.

He didn't expect Biden Lu to be so powerful, and his old face was taut, as if he had to have a duel to win or lose.

Jenny Jing, however, was a little worried that the two would be injured; after all, they were still demanding that Master Qiu give up the whereabouts of the Heavenly Book of Jades, so it wouldn't be good for either of them to be injured.

So, when it's almost time, you shout, "Moderation."

As soon as she finished speaking, Gu Si Qian restrained Master Qiu's knife with a beautiful movement, followed by the blade across his neck.

Master Qiu lost.

The old man's face was very ugly, and Biden Lu smiled, stepped back, took the knife back, and arched a curtsy, "Old man, I'll accept the offer."

The old man glared at him, then grunted heavily, picked up the knife and headed for the house.

The group followed in.

Biden Lu exercised for so half a day, his body had already a layer of fine sweat, Jenny Jing took a handkerchief to him, let him wipe the sweat, the four people are not polite, just sit on the chair in the living room and wait.

After about ten minutes, Master Qiu came out.

I saw that he had changed his clothes, a white tang suit, but it poured the already thin figure of the old

The people appear to be fairy-like and quite out of this world.

It's just that this out-of-this-world man has a really bad temper.

Once they came out, they sat down on the chair and looked at Biden Lu angrily.

"Say, who did you learn your knife skills from?"

Biden Lu sipped his tea and smiled faintly, "You first tell me where the Heavenly Book of Jade is."

Master Qiu choked.

A half-hearted, sneering, "Kid so ignorant, I'll ask and you'll answer, what's all that nonsense for?"

He didn't seem to have a problem with that at all.

Even Old Master Qiu, who couldn't help but choke, half-heartedly failed to find a single sentence he could refute.

He huffed in exasperation and said, "Okay, I knew you guys were after that fake jade, and I'm not afraid to tell you the truth, that fake jade, in fact, doesn't even belong to me."

As soon as this was said, Bella Qiao and Gu Siqian both turned pale.

"What did you say? You don't have the jade?"

When Master Qiu saw how surprised they were, he smiled proudly, like an old curmudgeon who had succeeded in a prank.

"Well? Didn't expect that, did you? The machinations are exhausted, but in the end it's a basket full of nothing, you deserve it!"

"You!"

Gu Siqian was so furious that he rushed up and lifted him up.

The old man's eyes were cold, "What? Still want to hit me? Don't you dare try it!"

Biden Lu raised his hand in a row, stopping him with an unpleasant frown.

"Gu Si Qian, you're not an impulsive person, don't get carried away."

Yeah, Gu Si Qian has never been an impulsive person.

As the boss of the Dragon Corps, as the ruler of the Gu family, he had always planned and acted, always had everything under control, but this time, it was a real rush.

Bella Qiao is his armor, what's not to say he's a soft threat?

Now that his soft threatened life is on the line, he's tried very hard to calm himself down, but it's like a suppressed spark, you look at it as nothing, but once the slightest source of ignition is stirred up, the fire can immediately burn up and pour out a prairie fire.

In the end, however, Kusken was sensible, and he sat back down heavily.

Biden Lu reassured the old man for a while and asked seriously, "Old man, this matter cannot be joked about, are you really sure that you don't have that thing?"

Master Qiu looked at him and was quite gloomy.

"Why would I lie to you? If you don't believe me, search it yourselves, and if you can find it from me, you'll take it away."

Biden Lu frowned tightly.

If he dared to say so, then it was evident that it should be certain that he didn't have it.

"Why didn't you tell us earlier?"

It's costing them two days of work here.

Master Qiu smiled, "You guys are stupid na, why should I tell you? I'm not the one who's going to die, and besides, just because you didn't fail to guess, doesn't mean that people didn't guess it. If she won't tell you, there's nothing I can do about it."

Chapter 949

Several people looked together at the Jenny he was pointing at.

Jenny Jing looked embarrassed, coughed, and asked, "So, that thing is indeed on your great granddaughter, Little Flower?"

At the mention of this Master Qiu's face, which was still joyful, suddenly sank.

He sighed.

"Yeah, it's on her, but I didn't give it to her, she snuck it away."

Jenny was stunned, somewhat puzzled.

"What do you mean by that?"

"Well, what do you mean!" Master Qiu sneered, "What else could it mean? I'm not sure if it's a good idea, but I never thought I'd meet a man who'd run off with him after hearing a few words, and take a lot of the family's belongings with him. Yours, if you can't find it."

He shook his head and tsked, "I've told you all I can tell you, and if I can't find it again, I can't be blamed."

The line of people were actually a little shocked.

Jenny was silent and nodded, "I understand, don't worry, we'll find it. I'll let you know when I've found the man."

This time, though, Master Qiu didn't say anything.

Only then did Jenny's group get up, take their leave of him, and turn to leave.

After leaving the Qiu villa, the group stood on the road, all of them a bit confused.

What was thought to be a staple of the board is now flying off like a boiled duck, and we're all in a bad mood.

Georgie was the first to ask, "What do we do now?"

Jenny Jing frowned and said, "Of course we have to find someone, but I heard that that little flower has been missing for some time, Master Qiu has also searched for her, but to no avail, I don't think we can find her for a while, it's not a good idea for us to stay here, so why don't we go back to Kyoto first and think of something else, what do you guys think?"

Naturally, Biden Lu had no problem with it.

Gu Si Qian, however, had some disapproval.

His eyebrows were dark and his voice was cold.

"I disagree, who knows if that old man is lying? What if it wasn't on his great-granddaughter at all?"

Jenny looked at him, "So what do you want to do?"

"Search the house."

He paused, and in the end didn't think that was a good idea, so he added, "I won't die until I search."

Jenny Jing was silent for a moment, and finally nodded, "Okay, then, we'd better make arrangements for the return trip, but we won't leave yet, until it's dark, we'll accompany you to search the Qiu family once more, and if we don't find anything more, we'll leave again. Then we'll try to find the little flower."

Kuskan nodded.

Once a few people had agreed, they left the area without lingering.

Soon the sun went down and it was night.

Four shadows sneak into the Qiu villa.

At this time, Master Qiu was already asleep.

Jenny Jing dived into the bedroom first and knocked the old man unconscious with a direct hand blade, then he commanded the other three men to search the villa in detail together.

The villa is as big as it is small.

That piece of jade is just a little bit, and it's not really an easy thing to find.

The other three left the bedroom to look elsewhere, and Jenny was in charge of finding this bedroom where Master Qiu lived all year round.

After she searched around, she didn't find the Heavenly Book of Jade in the bedroom.

In the end, I had to focus on Master Qiu.

Actually, frankly speaking, Jenny didn't hate Master Qiu.

So when faced with a search at this point, she still felt a little guilty.

Standing in front of the bed, he folded his hands and whispered, "Master Qiu, I'm really sorry, it's urgent, we have no other way, more offense today, if there is an opportunity in the future, I will double the compensation."

That said, it reached out and prodded at him.

However, after searching once, I found that the old man didn't have the piece of jade on him either.

She looked again in detail around the bed, even under the bedspread, but didn't see it.

Unfortunately, I had to sigh and turn around and walk out.

After about an hour, the other three finished finding their way out.

All four of them converged in the living room and Jenny asked, "How's it going? Did you find it?"

All three of them shook their heads in unison.

Jenny then knew that it seemed to be nowhere to be found.

She sighed and whispered, "If that's the case, then things aren't here, let's go."

Biden Lu nodded, and only then did the group leave the Qiu family villa.

However, what they didn't see was that as soon as they left the front foot, the back foot, Master Qiu, who had been lying in the bedroom, opened his eyes and sat up.

He looked out the window, where the group had left, and smirked, then flopped down on the bed, took a jacket from the side and put it on, stepping outside.

Jenny's group soon took a bus to the city and to the airport.

The autumn night wind had been very cold, and the party came in a hurry, but went back lost, and everyone was in a bad mood.

Jenny Jing patted Bella Qiao's shoulder comfortingly and said in a deep voice, "And don't be too sad, the good thing is that we already know that the stuff is on Little Flower, the next thing we need to do is just search for her with all our might, and we'll definitely find something."

Georgie nodded and managed a smile.

A group of people got on the plane.

And now, the other side.

Master Qiu came quickly to an old tree at the end of the village, took a look around and whistled.

A shadow quickly emerged from the darkness.

Master Qiu looked at him with cold eyes, "Where is the man?"

The man sneered, "What's the rush?The stuff hasn't been given to me yet."

Master Qiu's face changed.

"I can't hand over my stuff until you bring someone out and I see them."

The man was cold, "Is it you who is making the conditions, or am I making the conditions?If you don't hand it over, do you believe I'll rip the ticket right now!"

As soon as the words died down, someone suddenly came out clapping not far away.

"That's wonderful, so this is the reason why you've been refusing to tell us the whereabouts of the Heavenly Book of Jade!"

They were both shocked and turned to look, but it was Jenny Jing and Biden Lu's group who came out of the shadows.

The face changed dramatically.

The man in black, turned around and ran, Gu Siqian looked a little, immediately took a step to chase, and the two men disappeared in the blink of an eye.

Jenny Jing smilingly walked up to Master Qiu, who pointed at them in surprise, "You, you..."

Jenny Jing smiled, "Old Master, it's surprising isn't it? There's no hurry, it's too cold in here, let's go back to the house and talk."

Master Qiu's face changed again and again, and finally, in the end, he was still angry with them and followed them back.

Chapter 950

The group returned to Master Qiu's villa again.

This time back, everyone felt differently.

Half an hour ago, Jenny and his group, arrived at the airport, and were originally going to board the plane, but Biden Lu suddenly received a phone call, and then immediately informed them to get off the plane together and come this way.

It turned out that back at the villa, Biden Lu had seen that something was wrong with Master Qiu, and although he seemed to be open and honest, he was actually hiding something.

However, he didn't directly seek a showdown with Master Qiu like Jenny did, but instead, without moving a muscle, he arranged two people to guard near Master Qiu's villa to see what movements he had.

Unexpectedly, as soon as they left on the front foot, the news came on the back foot.

It said that Master Qiu left the villa alone in the middle of the night and headed to the village.

Biden Lu realized that something was wrong, which was why he brought them over with him, just in time to bump into the scene of the confrontation between Master Qiu and the man in black.

At this point, what is there that they don't understand?

Jenny was the one who hadn't expected that things would turn out even more unpredictably than she thought they would.

Everyone was now sitting in the villa's living room, and the atmosphere was awkward.

There was the sound of hurried footsteps outside.

Soon, Gu Si Qian pushed the door in.

Bella Qiao even walked over and asked, "How was it? Did the man catch it?"

Gu Si Qian's face was not too good, gloomy, and he shook his head.

Biden Lu was not surprised by this result.

The other party was not a simple person at a glance, and with the sky so dark and Gu Siqian unfamiliar with the terrain here, it was only natural that he couldn't catch anyone.

He turned to look at Master Qiu.

"Old man, shouldn't you explain this to us?"

Master Qiu's face was also ugly.

At this point, he no longer had that gloating as well as stubbornly mocking expression that he had had when he had faced them before, and his entire body was somewhat wan, sitting there, silent as a statue.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the newest version of this article. Can your great-granddaughter, Little Flower, afford to wear out?"

Her words trailed off with a visible old shudder.

Half a dozen times, he sighed grudgingly.

"I know that I can't hide this from you guys, and I'm not trying to hide it from you anymore, I'm just trying to figure out what to tell you guys about it."

The group all frowned in unison.

The old man was silent for another moment before he spoke slowly.

"It started sixty years ago..."

Sixty years ago, when times were still very turbulent, Old Master Qiu was an orphaned child, making a living in the chaotic world with his skills.

Later on, he meets Mrs. Sham and another man, and they support each other in the troubled world and become close friends.

Later, when Mrs. Cen married Master Lu, she left them, and they wished her well for her good friend, but also because of her different status and different paths, they didn't go to bother her.

The two men bonded as brothers with different surnames, sharing the same blessings and difficulties, and had a hard time surviving the most chaotic years.

They made a lot of money by dumping antiques, and they were thinking that when they had money, they would find a place to settle down and do business together, but at the end of the day, they had a disagreement.

Two people are pouring those things together, and there is inevitably a lot of illegal stuff in between, some of it so big that it's not even a matter of cutting off heads.

It's a lot of money to make, but it's all earned back with your life.

Both are married and have children, and the other wants to settle down, which Master Qiu does not understand.

But what he didn't understand was why the other person had to tell the other all the things the two of them had done over the years.

In his opinion, it's a big risk.

Because he always believes in one thing, that is, there is no impermeable wall in this world, and there is no one who will not betray each other, even if they are as close as husband and wife.

The only two types of people who won't sell out are either doing this thing together, or they're dead.

Therefore, he moved to kill some people at that time, and because of this, they had a big fight and ended up in disagreement.

He later accidentally discovered that the other man's wife's brother was actually a police officer.

He panicked at the time, plus he was paranoid, and once he had too much to drink, he was supposed to go door-to-door to that brother of his so that he could talk to him again and get the matter cleaned up and not leave a mess for himself.

But unfortunately, the brother was not at home that day, and only his wife was at home with the recently born child.

He and his wife had quarreled over a few words, and in his anger, thinking of the threat the woman posed, he killed the other by mistake.

He was also confused and half sober at the time, and just then the brother returned, saw his wife lying in a pool of blood, and naturally fought him to the death.

Master Qiu had trained hard since he was a child and his hands could be said to be rivaled by few, so he killed that brother as well.

In the end, only a child less than a month old was left.

He had wanted to kill that child as well, but perhaps because he was soft, or perhaps because, he felt that a child who was only a month old posed no threat to him, he left it alone and stumbled away.

That night, they packed up their things and left that city, never to be changed, never to mention the incident again.

Until later, his two sons and daughter-in-law, both died in accidents.

At the time, he hadn't suspected anything because he and his sons weren't in the same city, and he didn't find anything wrong when he looked at the bodies.

And then, there was the death of the grandchildren.

This time, however, he found the problem.

Although they died in a car accident, he found out that it wasn't an accident, it was a man-made accident.

Someone tampered with their car, which is why they lost their brakes and went off the highway, sped right off the railing, rolled to the bottom of the hill, and wrecked their car.

At that time, he was suspicious, but he didn't connect it to the incident sixty years ago.

Because, as far as he was concerned, it had been going on for so many years that no one else knew about it except God and himself.

The child who was only a month old, let's not say if he survived or not, and even if he did, it's unlikely that he would remember that he was the one who killed him.

So, he never made the connection between the crash and that incident.
