

Chapter 953

It's as simple as buckling a button.

Moira, Jarod, and Lanita were frightened.

Pan Haojing and his wife not far away were also frightened.

But Pan Mingsai was a little bit courageous. She was not frightened. She looked at Arron with a little admiration, and muttered: "My fourth uncle used to be so decisive when working on the island."

Pan Mingsai glanced at Lilly and whispered: "Little attendant, your father is very similar to my fourth uncle."

"Who is your fourth uncle?" Shen Only asked.

Don't look at Lilly who is a very tugging little fart, but Lilly is willing to be called by the clown girl Pan Mingsai to be her little follower.

Being a follower of a young lady who was ten years older than himself, Lilly felt that he was very honorable.

"My fourth uncle!" Pan Mingsai gave a single glance: "My fourth uncle loves you like a damsel! My fourth uncle feels sick when he sees me, and when he sees you, he looks like a baby egg. Humph!"

Lilly smiled: "Oh...Your fourth uncle is my Uncle Pan."

Pan Mingsai: "..."

Lilly blinked his eyes: "Okay, okay, I can compensate you, I invite you to visit Nancheng, how about?"

Pan Mingsai: "...what did you...say?"

Their family is now a prisoner, okay?

Besides, she hadn't been very polite to Suzi and Lilly before in Pan Mingsai, and now Lilly invited her to play in Nancheng.

The clown girl Pan Mingsai suddenly said to Lilly: "Little attendant, yes...sorry, sister...sister can't go."

"Why?" Shen Only looked at Pan Mingsai innocently.

Pan Mingsai: "Because... you don't understand the world of adults."

Adults have love and hatred.

Unlike children, even if they cry after fighting, they won't hold grudges.

Lilly gave Pan Mingsai a glance: "It's as if you are an adult. I heard my Uncle Pan say that you are also a child, huh!"

Pan Mingsai also felt that she was a child, but she knew that she and her parents were now prisoners of Arron.

Moreover, Pan Mingsai, who was originally a little gangster, became a prisoner in his own home overnight, and when there was no turmoil in the whole Gasing Island, Pan Mingsai suddenly understood that, in fact, his father had always been a prisoner. Mediocre, nothing to do.

His fourth uncle is very capable, but his fourth uncle can't do it well, and he is also depressed.

Moreover, the Pan family on the entire island is actually not the one that is justified.

Now, the Lord is coming.

It is time for their Pan family to be dealt with.

Pan Mingsai grew up suddenly overnight, and her temperament is naturally fearless.

She looked at Arron calmly: "Hey! You are very similar to my fourth uncle. I always think you are my fourth uncle. I know you are better than my fourth uncle. So it will be a matter of time before we fall into your hands. If you want to kill or pluck, it's up to you. It's just that, can you hurry up, it's very painful for me to wait for death like this."

As soon as Pan Mingsai's voice fell, Pan Haojing said for her, "You D*mn girl! What are you talking about, Fourth Master Fu hasn't said to kill us yet."

Pan Mingsai despised his father: "Dad... can you face reality!"

Her voice just fell, but she heard Arron say: "Bring you to Nancheng, what school do you want to go to?"

Chapter 954

"What?" Pan Mingsai thought he had heard it wrong.

Suzi next to him added: "Ask you, what major do you want to study in university, so that I can arrange a school for you!"

Suzi knows her husband best.

The husband is a daughter slave.

Arron saw that the only girl, Shen, liked the little sister with a collapsed nose. The little sister was a bit bohemian, but in general, she was still an honest heart. If she can get a better education, maybe In the future, it is also an individual talent.

Most importantly, the daughter will have one more playmate.

Moreover, Arron had another meaning. To bring Pan Mingsai to Nancheng, it would be impossible for Pan Haojing and his wife to think of something wrong again.

Pan Mingsai's tears of gratitude came out immediately: "I...I...Fu...Fu Siye, you...you are really willing to let me Do you want to study in Nancheng? There are good universities in Nancheng, almost on the same level as the top cities in the world. If I can go to Nancheng to study, it is my dream. I... want to study medicine."

Studying medicine has always been Pan Mingsai's ideal.

She wants to hang the pot to help the world, cure illnesses and save people.

It's just that she hasn't told anyone about her ideal, because no one will believe that she, a young lady, has such a profound ideal.

Only at this moment, Pan Mingsai said his ideals.

Moreover, she still has an unknown side. In order to better fight for opportunities, Pan Mingsai is busy like Arron explained: "Fu Siye, in fact, I am not just a little sister. I don't do it every Sunday. In class, I will follow my father's special doctor to study medicine. I have a lot of nursing knowledge. I really want to be a doctor in the future. I want to go to the best medical university in Nancheng, okay?"

After speaking, she laughed somewhat self-deprecatingly.

A captive.

What is such a high requirement.

"If this is the case, I happen to be taking a patient back, and you will take care of this patient on the return journey," Arron said.

Pan Mingsai: "Really...really?"

"Also." Arron was expressionless, with a low tone of voice: "You don't want to go to medical school when you arrive in Nancheng."

"I will work hard!" Pan Mingsai said in a very loud voice.

At this moment, she suddenly understood why the Arron from Nancheng could occupy Jiaying Island at such a lightning speed.

The man in front of him, who is very similar to the fourth uncle, is indeed capable and courageous.

Dad is really inferior to him.

After Jiaying Island, under Fu Siye's jurisdiction, it will definitely be more prosperous than during the Pan family's jurisdiction.

"Thank you, Fourth Master Fu." Pan Mingsai bowed deeply to Arron.

After looking back, she looked at her parents.

She still doesn't know how Arron will deal with her parents.

At this time, Suzi said: "Such a monarchy, transform it into a university. In the future, your parents will not be able to receive such a good treatment. On this island, you may fish, work, and trade. In short, Be self-reliant."

Pan Haojing and his wife immediately nodded and bowed, tears filled their eyes with excitement: "Thank you, thank you Mrs. Fu. Thank you so much."

Suzi smiled and looked at Arron: "Husband, let's go."

The issue of Gasing Island is handled beautifully.

There were no casualties, no turmoil on the island, and Arron completely took over the island. Not only that, he also received so many weapons from Chengyin, Jun's family in Kyoto.

With these weapons, a large part of Arron had sufficient arsenal of his own.

And the other 30% was sold by him.

It is really a big profit.

Four things with one stone.

As for the Lanita family of three, if he returned to Nancheng and the secrets of Elder Shu were not enough, it would not be too late to kill the Lin family of three by then.

Just half a month after Arron's family of three left Nancheng, they took a special plane to go back.

At the airport, those who came to see off were all important tasks for Gasing Island.
