

Chapter 957

Biden Lu's eyes were deep and he nodded, "Good."

They made it all the way to the end of the hallway, where the screams in the room could not be heard from this side, and she looked out the window and asked softly, "Who do you think that Liger is?"

Biden Lu played with her soft fingers carelessly, "The Chinese will."

Jenny was stunned.

"The Chinese Society? Didn't they already..."

The words stopped before I could finish them.

Biden Lu looked at her and said indifferently, "Although the Chinese Association has fallen, there are still many small forces remaining, I guess this Li Ge should be considered one of their core figures, and this time when he wanted to get the Heavenly Book of Jade, he probably heard that the Nan Clan wanted to collect this and wanted to take it to make a deal."

Jenny nodded, remembering what had happened last night and still a little scared.

"Fortunately, it's fortunate that we got the stuff one step ahead of him, otherwise if we really let it fall into his hands, Gu Siqian wouldn't get six pieces and Bella Qiao's illness would be dangerous."

Biden Lu also nodded.

"So it's probably just fate, she didn't deserve to die, and even the heavens are helping her."

They stood for a while, until there was a bang in the corridor and Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao came out of the room.

They just walked up together holding hands.

"Well?"

Gu Si Qian's eyebrows were cold and he said in a deep voice, "The Chinese Society."

Biden Lu squeezed his eyes at Jenny Jing.

Jenny sighed, "So it is."

Her words, however, caused Gu Siqian to be stunned for a moment, quickly reacting and taking another look at Biden Lu.

"What are you going to do with it?" Biden Lu asked.

Gu Siqian said coldly, "A beating and release."

He promised Master Qiu that he wouldn't take his life, so of course he would keep his word.

Biden Lu nodded, and then lifted his wrist to check the time.

"It's getting late, we've booked tickets back to Kyoto, what about you guys? Are you coming back to Kyoto with us, or back to Lin City?"

Gu Si Qian looked at him and didn't hesitate, "Go back to Lin City."

"Well, be careful on the road then, and call anytime you need anything."

They both nodded, and the four men said goodbye to each other, before they parted.

By the time we got back to Kyoto, it was evening.

Ever since this afternoon, after seeing the blood, Jenny had been feeling a bit unwell for the rest of the day, returning home with a sickly feeling.

Biden Lu was afraid that she had caught a cold after running around all night last night, so he called his family doctor to come and take a look at her.

Jenny let the doctor examine him as he lay on the bed, laughing and angering him, "I'm just a little tired, seeing as you're so nervous and called the doctor here, those who don't know still think I'm how sick I am."

Biden Lu was beside her, guarding her while processing work on the computer, his head didn't look up back: "Don't take minor illnesses lightly, sometimes a cold can cause many after-effects, so be careful."

Since he said that, Jenny couldn't say anything else.

Seeing that the doctor had been examining him for most of the day and hadn't finished yet, he was curious and asked, "Doctor, haven't you finished your examination yet? I should be okay?"

The doctor locked eyes and didn't answer her, but suddenly turned and took a pregnancy test out of the box and handed it over.

"Ma'am, would you please go to the bathroom and test it."

Jenny was stunned, a little incredulous.

"This..." she turned her head to look at Biden Lu, who also saw it and was a bit startled.

Jenny laughed awkwardly, "That's not going to happen, we...we have measures to do."

The doctor was silent for two seconds and then explained, "All contraceptive measures are not 100% effective, so I would still recommend that you get tested and if the results show positive, I will do an in-depth examination for you."

Jenny was helpless and actually a bit preoccupied, so he took it and got up to do the examination.

Unexpectedly, at this time, Biden Lu also clamored up, his face tense and striding over, "I'll go with you."

Jennyton stiffened.

Looked up and glared at him.

"You sit your ass down!"

The doctor's still here. Two people going to the bathroom. What's it like?

Biden Lu was inexplicably aggravated by her fierceness, but a little excited at the thought of the possibility the doctor had just said.

He actually had always wanted to have another child, but firstly, he was afraid that Jenny would have a hard time, after all, having a child was too tiring and painful, and secondly, Jenny had been too busy working and accompanying An'an and little Jingze for the past few years to have a child.

So the two have been using contraception for the past few years.

Except...the previous night in Forest City.

Thinking about it, his face didn't change.

By this time, Jenny had already entered the bathroom and closed the door.

He didn't dare go in for fear of being scolded by her, so he had to guard the door.

The doctor stood beside him, the first time he had ever seen his own president look so frightened, apprehensive and cautious, and smiled with his head bowed and pursed his lips.

Unexpectedly, just after showing a little smile, he was glared at by Biden Lu.

"No laughing!"

The doctor was busy looking solemn and nodding his head in a serious manner, "Yes."

Soon, Jenny was out.

Biden Lu was busy welcoming him, "How is it?"

Jenny Jing's face was ugly, throwing the pregnancy test into his arms and saying coldly, "How was it? See for yourself!"

Afterwards, he exhaled and lay back on the bed.

Biden Lu picked up that pregnancy test and took a closer look at it, and sure enough, two bars!

There was a surge of joy, but it quickly occurred to me that Jenny Jing should not want to have a child at this time, so he even restrained his smile and walked over with a serious face.

"Wife."

He sat down on the edge of the bed, put his arm around her shoulders and said warmly, "It's okay, if you don't want this baby, we can abort it, as long as you're happy..."

Before he finished speaking, he was pushed away by Jenny.

She didn't dare look at Biden Lu incredulously, like she was looking at an unforgivable sc*mbag.

"Biden Lu! What are you talking about? Are you out of your mind? This is your child, and you're talking about aborting it! Are you out of your mind?"

Biden Lu was stunned and a bit confused.

Why was this, this drawing not what he had expected?

Jenny Jing didn't sit back in a good mood and didn't look at him, saying coldly, "I don't care, I'm going to have this child!"

Only then did Biden Lu finally respond, and he was overjoyed.

He nodded repeatedly, "Yes, raw! Must be born!"

He said, turning to the doctor, "You! Prepare a detailed examination for your wife right away, and make sure that she and the child are safe and healthy."

The doctor nodded his head and said, "Yes."

He said, thinking, "How about we set it for tomorrow? Get a detailed early pregnancy test first to make sure and then schedule a later test."

Biden Lu nodded, "Okay, just do as you say, go down and prepare."

"Yes."

That's when the doctor left.

Chapter 958

The news of Jenny's pregnancy spread quickly.

Naturally, all of the Lu family knew about it, and all of the Ji family had heard about it as well.

Ji Yunshu specially took the time to come over to see her, nephew and uncle have not seen each other for a long time, since some hot chat.

At noon, Jenny originally wanted to stay for lunch, but Ji Yunshu refused.

He looked at her lovingly and smiled, "I just took the time to come over to see you, I also had a lunch date with a friend, so I won't eat here, so pay more attention to yourself, watch your stomach, don't get too tired, and call me anytime if you have anything."

Jenny nodded and didn't force him any further, sending him out the door himself before folding back in.

Unexpectedly, after going back, before his butt was even hot, Master Lu and Old Mrs. Cen, even Biden Lu's aunt Lu Lanzhi also came.

She and Biden Lu now live in Maple Bridge Villa, not often go to the old mansion over there, one is busy, and secondly, the two old people are different from ordinary old people, feel lonely in their old age, they have their own life, if not for something, also do not like to be disturbed.

Therefore, she and Biden Lu only went over every weekend to visit, and would not normally visit.

At this point, however, the two old men came together, using their noses to figure out that they were here for the child.

Jenny smiled as she ushered them through the door, the old lady looking at her stomach, which was now flat and nothing could be seen there, but she was smiling as if she could already see her great-grandchildren.

"Aigoo, Jenny, don't get up now, sit down! I'm telling you, don't think you can be more casual with this being your second child, this woman's childbirth ah is to pass the ghost gate, even the second child is not easier than the first."

Jenny Jing smiled and ordered Aunt Liu to make tea, which is why she asked, "What are you guys doing here today?"

The old lady greeted her with a glance, "Silly child, you have good news, can't we just come over and see?"

At this point, Lu Lanzhi, who hadn't spoken, chimed in, "Yeah, yeah, we're all happy for you, we came over to see you."

In the past, Lu Lanzhi didn't like Jenny and didn't stop tripping her up.

But so many years have passed, perhaps because they have been together for a long time, and know that Jenny is not as bad as she thought, or perhaps because she saw that Biden Lu and Jenny were in a long term relationship that could not be broken up again, so she also resigned herself to her fate.

Anyway, over the past few years, she has stopped being as personal as she was in the beginning and has even been quite affectionate at times.

Jenny Jing knows that Biden Lu's parents died young, and when he was a child, he was not taken care of by this aunt to help out, so naturally, he is happy to go along with it.

When she saw Lu Lanzhi was so affectionate, she also smiled, "Thank you aunt for your concern, and you've bothered to make a trip, we only learned the news two days ago, the doctor said the baby is fine, just need to rest assured that the baby is well, don't worry too much."

The old lady nodded repeatedly, "That's good, that's good."

I said, and asked with concern, "How old are you?"

Jenny replied, "Just turned six weeks old."

"Oh, it's been six weeks, how did you just find out?"

Lu Lanzhi yelled, "You know these first three months are the most dangerous, what would you do if something happened?"

The old lady was not happy about this.

Turning her head to glare at her, "What happened? What could have happened? Don't be so surprised, okay? What three?"

The moon is the most dangerous, and you say it as if you had given birth."

"I..."

Lu Lanzhi was so angry, although she had been married, but because of the emotional disagreement with her husband, she had long since separated, and now she was single, not to mention having children, and had not even thought about it.

Now the old lady is holding this against her, which is obviously unintentional, but the listener has an axe to grind.

Seeing that her eyes seemed to be about to redden, Jenny even smiled to round things out, "Even if Aunt hasn't given birth, but I've seen a lot of her over the years, besides,

Jenny is still Aunt's hand in pulling her up, she naturally understands this aspect better than I do, I know Aunt's concern."

Only after Jenny Jing explained like this did Lu Lanzhi's face soften a little.

Plus, in the end, it was her old mother who said that, Old Mrs. Sham, and she didn't really dare to count.

So only a coquettish snort, "Mom, you'll see, it's still Jenny who can talk."

The old lady was not salty, she should say: "She was looking after your self-esteem, you think everyone is like you, a year old and still not in tune, let you find someone good to marry, you still do not want, all day with a bunch of misfits, like what!"

The old lady's words caused Lu Lanzhi's face, which had been moderating, to suddenly darken again.

She stood up, excited, "Mom, what are you talking about? What miscreants?"

The old lady's eyebrows and eyes didn't move, but her tone carried obvious contempt, "Those two third-rate little stars who were with you last time, aren't they not third-rate people?"

"They're actors! It's art! Mum, if you don't know, don't talk nonsense!"

"Making art? Heh, how come I don't see them making an art out of it? There aren't many good people like that, so don't you hang around with them."

She said, as if realizing something, and smiling again, she explained to Jenny, "I'm referring to the kind of little actor who doesn't make good movies and thinks about hooking up all the time, not you haha."

Jenny smiled, of course she understood what Old Lady Cen meant.

In fact, she had bumped into Lu Lanzhi a few times, and she was with a fresh meat, who she knew for work reasons, like a new actor who had only gained some notoriety with a web series last year.

It was hard to say how the personality was, she hadn't touched it, but Lu Lanzhi was over forty this year, and that little fresh meat was only in his early twenties, and judging by Lu Lanzhi's temper and temperament, she really didn't believe it, to say that the other party was because he liked her substance and personality.

However, these were ultimately people's private matters, plus depending on Lu Lanzhi's status, it was fine if she really wanted to keep a couple of gawkers.

Therefore, it was inconvenient for her to say more.

Jenny smiled and changed the subject, "Grandmother, during my pregnancy, An and Jingze may not be able to take care of me, and I may need your help and a hand then."

The old lady laughed, "Where are the words, family, helping is the right thing to do."

She said, smiling and patting her hand, "I know, you have to work, still pregnant, and have to take care of two children, you must be too busy, plus the children are noisy, and it will have an effect on your raising the baby, so in a while, I'll take both Jingze and An'an to the old mansion, you just need to rest well."

Jenny, however, shook his head.

"No, grandmother, you can just take Ani over to help me take care of him for a while, but as for Jing Ze, let him stay here."

Chapter 959

In fact, Jenny's idea was that the two old men were too old to suffer or listen to the noise.

Ann is now nine years old, and her temperament has grown more sedate than when she was a child, so it will not be a strain to have the two old men help take care of her, but it will be a matter of watching some of her schoolwork and daily companionship.

And Ann's character is sweet, two old man, although like quiet again, sometimes in the end also miss the company of children and grandchildren, these months to let her accompany the old man and old lady, is not a good thing.

But the little competitor is different.

At the age of three or four, when he is the noisiest, he makes the house a mess all day long, and it would only be hard for the two old men to take care of him.

How could the old lady not understand what she was thinking, her heartache for Jenny rose another layer, patting her hand and sighing, "Jenny, you've worked hard these past few years."

Jenny smiled slightly, "It's not hard, it's all I should do."

Lu Lanzhi saw that they were chatting hotly together and was reluctant to interject.

"That's right that's right, I've seen Jenny's hard work over the years ah, our family is lucky to have her, otherwise it would be a mess."

She couldn't speak, which made the atmosphere, which was still warm and harmonious, awkward.

The old lady glared at her with discontent, "You mean to tell me that I used to be in charge badly?"

Lu Lanzhi was stunned and her heart thudded.

Busy compensating for the smile, "No, I didn't mean that ah mum, I meant that Jenny is managing well."

Jenny also laughed.

Now the old lady doesn't care, the entire Lu family is managed by her, and Biden Lu trusts her very much, so Lu Lanzhi probably knows that she is a hopeless housekeeper, so the more she fawns over her, the more she fawns over her.

Jenny's attitude has always been, you are good with me, I will be good with you, handed a ladder and then go down the steps kind of person.

So also do not take Joe, smiled: "grandmother is naturally the best, aunt is not bad, before, did not also hear that you invested in some business, and made a large sum of money?"

At the mention of this, Lucian's face stiffened.

But soon recovered and smiled dryly, "Yes, it's a profit, but it's not a lot of money, I'm just having a little fun casually, and I don't have much business sense anyway, right?Mum."

Afterwards, he purposely sought the approval of the old lady.

The old lady snorted, "You do know that one."

Lu Lanzhi's face was accosted, and Jenny could not say anything else, seeing that it was almost time, he ordered Aunt Liu to start dinner.

"Grandpa, Grandma, shall we go to the dining room for dinner?"

Both Master Lu and Old Lady Cen nodded, and only then did the group walk together to the dining room.

After the meal, the old lady and the old man went home first, but Lu Lanzhi wasn't in a hurry to leave.

She was sitting in the living room, her fingers somewhat tangled together, and when she saw Jenny coming down from upstairs, she got up in a hurry, "Jenny, why did you come down?Don't you have a lunch break?"

Jenny's heart was funny, wondering if she was still here?How can you go on a lunch break by yourself?

But she didn't say it anyway, just smiled and asked, "Is there something wrong with my aunt?"

Lucius stiffened and smiled awkwardly, "I... I was a little something that I wanted to talk to you about."

Jenny nodded.

In fact, she had expected it, but today Lu Lanzhi's entire person felt wrong from the moment she walked in.

She had been friendly to herself in the past, but never to the point of flattery, or at best, face-saving peacemaking.

Today, however, she repeatedly lifted her up, figuring she had something to ask of herself.

Thinking this way, Jenny Jing's mind had already been made clear a bit, and he walked across to her and sat down, "What's on your aunt's mind, you may as well say it straight."

Lu Lanzhi also sat down and hesitated for half a second before she apprehensively said, "I've told you about this, you mustn't tell the old lady and the old man, nor must you tell Biden, okay?"

Jenny thought about it and nodded in agreement.

"I can keep my mouth shut, but if they find out from another source, I can't be blamed."

Lu Lanzhi nodded her head incessantly, "I understand, I understand."

She said, and then hesitated before she said it as if she had made up her mind.

"Jenny, it's like this, didn't I invest in a business before, that business has actually been doing quite well quite profitable, it's just that this money is earned, but it has to be put in all the time, and if you don't put in the money you can't get it out, you know what I mean, right?"

In the meantime, Jenny tapped his fingertips unconsciously against his knee for a moment and nodded, "I understand."

Jenny looked at her, and Lu Lanzhi winced nervously, looking expectant.

She asked softly, "I wonder what kind of business my aunt is pitching?"

"Jade, you know well, I love doing that."

Jenny nodded his head.

Lu Lanzhi was known for her love of jade, which was true, she used to collect jade and love to buy jade, then it developed into going to gambling stones, and now... listening to her, it was actually even bigger?

With a quirk of her eyebrow, she tried to ask, "Didn't my aunt contract a mine?"

Lucius stared in surprise.

Looking at Jenny's gaze, it was like looking at a monster.

"Geez, I told you that our Jenny is smart, I didn't even say anything, how did you guess right away?"

Jenny smiled, it wasn't really that hard.

Ever since Lu Lanzhi gambled with someone before and lost all of her family fortune, the old lady has been very tightly stuck on her finances, and she has been much more honest over the past few years.

Honestly down, naturally, a lot of money was saved, and although Jenny didn't know the exact amount, several hundred million was definitely there.

So much money, but now they came to her for a loan and said they had invested in a big business related to jade, that it was nothing but buying mines.

She doesn't object to Lu Lanzhi doing this, but she knows that she seems to be smart, but she's actually very simple-minded, and if she's not careful, she'll be cheated, even if her roots are as deep as the Lu family, sometimes she can't do anything about it.

Thinking thus, she contemplated a little and asked, "How much do you want to borrow?"

Lu Lanzhi smiled and compared her fingers, "It's not much, one hundred million will do."

Jenny knitted her brows.

One hundred million, even for the Lu family, was not a small amount.

She didn't directly agree, but said in a deep voice, "I need to discuss this matter with Biden, I can't give it to you rashly, if he agrees, I'll call the money to you at that time."

Lucian's eyes widened at the news.

"No, I told them they can't know, why can't you understand human language?"
