

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 97

The cold and rough microphone brushed Zoey Gu's chin severely, wishing to poke it directly into her mouth!

There were flashing lights in front of me, and the sound of "click, click" was endless.

It's a media reporter!

Before Zoey Gu could react, she was pushed hard against the wall next to her, and a group of people frantically surrounded her.

"Miss Gu, are you Mr. Lu's predecessor? You stayed with him in the hotel late at night, did you still have a lingering affection for him?"

"Miss Gu, I heard that Mr. Lu and his girlfriend Anna Yun not only have a daughter, but they are also planning to get engaged. Are you in the junior high position, ruining the relationship of others?"

"Miss Gu, I heard that you had many men after Mr. Lu. Climbing on Mr. Lu's bed, wouldn't he dislike your past?"

Those words that were almost humiliating, slammed at Zoey in a head and face.

She stood there with a pale face, and her body couldn't help but tremble. It took a long time before she gritted her teeth.

"I am not a junior!"

As for what kind of relationship is between Liam Lu and Anna Yun, did she destroy...

A microphone directly pressed onto Zoey Gu's face.

"Since it is not, can you clarify what is the relationship between you and Mr. Lu?"

The other party's strength was very strong, and when the microphone forced Zoey Gu's face, his hand couldn't help but push her.

She was caught off guard and slipped and fell straight towards the door.

The door was behind and opened suddenly.

A honey-colored sturdy arm stretched out, grabbed Zoey Gu, and took it directly into his arms.

Zoey Gu raised his head in shock, and met Liam Lu's deep eyes.

He had just taken a shower, with a cool vapor on his body, and his hair was still dripping back "tick, tick".

The white bathrobe was tied loosely on his body, casually exposing large areas of skin on his chest, as well as obvious scratches and bite marks on the top.

Seeing those traces, the people around rushed towards Liam Lu like hungry beasts.

"Liam!"

"Mr. Lu..."

Liam Lu held Zoey Gu tightly in his arms, sullen his face, sweeping across the crowd with a heavy expression, and suddenly reached out to the person who had just shot Zoey Gu.

Snapped.

The lens was slammed to the ground and fell apart in an instant!

Liam Lu's fierce and thunderous style shook everyone into silence for an instant, and the scene was completely silent.

Looking at Liam Lu's cold eyes, the attacked man's legs softened and fell directly to the ground.

"Lu, I'm sorry, Mr. Lu, I am not, I didn't mean to push Miss Gu."

As the man said, he looked at Zoey Gu tremblingly, only to kneel down for her.

"Miss Gu, please forgive me, I really didn't mean it..."

He is not afraid to offend Zoey, but Liam Lu, the second son of the Lu family, who is in charge of the national economy, really cannot afford to offend him.

Zoey Gu's face was pale, his hands clenched into fists, watching the hypocritical apology of the person in front of him, he couldn't help backing away.

However, Liam Lu exerted a slight force and directly pressed her into his arms, sweeping her cold gaze towards the crowd.

"She tells you that she is not a junior. But looking at your expressions, I don't seem to believe it very much?"

The media were silent one by one, and they dared not come out.

He heard Liam Lu's voice that seemed to be smiling but not smiling, and it suddenly rang.

"Then what if she is asked to speak as Mrs. Lu?"
