

Chapter 972

"Since she's the one who picked it up, let's just find her and get it back, Suki, don't start a conflict with her yet, maybe she was kind enough to pick it up and is waiting for us to claim it."

Quexu's face was a bit ugly, "I don't think she's that good-hearted, she's probably interested in your stuff, otherwise if she really wanted the owner to claim it, she'd just give it to the boss here, so why take it away quietly?"

Mo Caiwei pursed her lips and sighed.

"Don't say that, the Lu family is a powerful and influential noble family, Miss Lu shouldn't do something like this, it's really no big deal, we'll just spend the money to buy the jade pendant back."

When Quexu saw her say that, he didn't say anything else.

A short time later, Boss Yu returned.

Once inside, he smiled cheerfully and said, "How's it going?Did you find a clue?"

Mo Caiwei smiled slightly, "I've found it, but I just might have to bother Brother Yu to help us get in touch."

Boss Yu's eyebrows, a little surprised, "Yo, really found it?Who picked it up?"

Mo Caiwei was silent for a moment and opened her lips, "That's the Miss Lu who came to talk business with you last time."

When she said this, Boss Yu was in front of the water dispenser receiving water, and froze there at the sound of the action.

It wasn't until the water was almost full that I reacted by turning it off and coming over with a glass.

"Lucian?Are you sure?"

Mo Caiwei nodded, and turned the computer screen towards him again, broadcasting the video that had just been shown to him.

After reading it, Boss Yu was also somewhat speechless.

He fell silent and sighed.

"If it were anyone else, this would be easy, but this Lu Guan..."

He frowned, a little annoyed, "I don't have her contact information on hand either."

Mo Caiwei and Quexiu were both surprised, "You don't have contact information either? Didn't she say she wanted you to invest in her business last time? She didn't leave a phone number?"

Boss Yu laughed, "The words of such wealthy wives like them can be taken seriously after hearing them! One and a half billion dollars of business, she's not the head of the Lu family, where can she come up with so much money all of a sudden, I don't think this business is 80% negotiable."

He looked at the instantly dimmed brilliance in Mo Caiwei and Quexiu's eyes, but in the end, he couldn't bear it.

"How about this, you guys wait for a few days and see if she will still come back to me, if she doesn't come back, I'll try to find out her contact information for you guys, you can go directly to her, Lu Lanzhi is a bit unruly, but as long as it's reasonable, she shouldn't make things difficult for you guys."

It was only then that Quexu and Mo Caiwei nodded.

Over here, Mo Caiwei and the others were in a hurry to find Lu Lanzhi.

On the other side, Jenny was looking for her.

When she got the jade pendant, she felt something was wrong.

Back then, when Mo Caiwei died, only one necklace was left for her daughter, and the rest of the Mo family's belongings were all ruined by Kevin Jing's family.

As for the things her mother used before she died, because Kelly Wang hated her, she burned them all in one fire as well.

It was only reasonable that something like this jade pendant shouldn't be out in the open.

Did you get tricked in the first place?

Did they say they burned the stuff down, when in fact they didn't, but quietly sold the stuff?

Jenny didn't know, but she knew that she had to get to the bottom of this.

After all, all that stuff was Mother's.

Relics, no matter what, she couldn't let them go out into the world.

She had to get them back, even if they had been ruined beyond recognition, and not let them fall into the hands of anyone else.

Thinking so, she called Lu Lanzhi directly.

Across the street, Lucian was a little surprised to get her call.

"Jenny, why did you think to call me?"

Jenny smiled, "Aunt, where are you?"

"Me? I'm having a facial. Do you want to come? I'm telling you oh, the technician skills in this house can be good, you're so busy every day, and now you're pregnant, you have to pay attention to the maintenance, otherwise women age fast, be careful of men out messing around..."

Jenny heard her get more and more outrageous, and had a headache stroking her forehead.

Finally, a direct interruption, "Send me your address and I'll be right over."

When Lu Lanzhi heard this, she immediately agreed happily, "Yes, yes, I'll send you the address right away."

After the phone call was hung up, Lu Lange quickly sent the address over.

Jenny Jing took a look at the address on his phone, directly entered the navigation, and drove to that beauty salon.

Other side.

After hanging up the phone, Lu Lanzhi sent an address to Jenny and then showed off to the beauty technician next to her, "You don't know who the person who just called me is, do you? It's my nephew's daughter-in-law, who says it's just like my daughter-in-law."

"Oh my, you know well, I'm not married anymore, nor do I have children, so isn't my nephew's equivalent to my son's."

The technician smiled, "And is your nephew treating you well?"

"Of course it's good, they're very filial to me, I spend money and everything, didn't you hear? Knowing that I'm getting a facial, this hurried over to help me pay for it and come stay with me."

The group of technicians didn't know who she really was, but by the way she was dressed, they knew she wasn't just some rich guy.

They all laughed at the news and complimented, "Your niece-in-law is so sweet, you are so happy."

Lucian smiled contentedly, before lying back and closing his eyes, enjoying himself at ease.

Jenny arrived twenty minutes later.

Because she knew she was coming, Lu Lanzhi had been strong enough to stay awake even if she felt comfortable.

Hearing the sound of heels outside, she mentally shook and immediately waved her hand, signaling the technician to get out of the way and sit up.

Looking back, it was indeed Jenny who had come.

"Jenny, you're here."

Jenny Jing looked at Lu Lanzhi's bright smiling face and smiled along with it, walking over to sit down.

"Auntie is in such a good mood today, why did you think to come all the way here for a facial?"

Jenny was familiar with the ones she usually went to because she had been dragged by Lu Lanzhi a few times before.

But this family, she had never been here.

Lu Lanzhi smiled, "Those previous ones were not good technology ah, it has been those projects to do around, are tired of doing, this one was recommended to me by Huyuan two days ago, I came to try, not bad, do you want to try too?"

She looked at Jenny with an expectant face, and Jenny paused and said in a deep voice, "I'm not going to try, I came here today to find you because I have business to discuss."

She said, turning to the next few staff members.

"I'm sorry, but please step out for a moment."

Several people were stunned, and they all looked at each other.

Chapter 973

Lu Lanzhi was stunned as well, carefully looking at Jenny's face and realizing that something was wrong with her, and about knew in her heart that something was really wrong.

So they waved their hands as well and told those staff members to stand down.

Then, before compensating with a smiling face, he asked with a laugh, "Jenny, what is it?"

Jenny Jing took the jade pendant out of her bag and looked at her seriously, "Aunt, where did you get this jade pendant from?"

Lu Lanzhi was startled and looked at the jade pendant in her hand, subconsciously feeling a little guilty.

Her eyes flickered, "The jade pendant... where else would I get it from? Of course I bought it at the counter, but why do you have the jade pendant I gave Ann?"

I said, trying to reach out and grab the jade pendant, but Jenny Jing was quick enough to dodge it.

Jenny didn't want to get into too much trouble with her, so she just got straight to the point.

"Which counter did you buy it at, show me."

Lu Lanzhi's face sank as she realized what was going on.

She glared at Jenny without good grace.

"What? What do you mean by that? You are suspicious of me. It's none of your business which shop I bought the jade pendant from. Besides, I'm giving it to Ann not you, don't think you can just take anything from her just because you're someone's mother oh, I'm telling you you're a bad habit."

Jenny pursed her lips and looked at her, not speaking.

I thought it was a big deal, but it's just for a jade pendant. If you like jade pendants, go buy them yourself, why ask me? It's not like I'm in charge of finding that out for you."

It was only after she finished complaining that Jenny Jing said in a deep voice, "This is my mother's stuff."

Lu Lanzhi's heart thumped.

Turning her head and looking at her incredulously.

Jenny was afraid that she hadn't heard clearly and repeated it again.

"This is my mother's thing, the engraving on it is exclusive to her, only she could have it, so auntie, please tell me where did you get it? Even if you bought it, please tell me where you bought it from, okay?"

Lucian finally reacted now, his face changed, and then he felt a little funny.

"You...hasn't your mother been dead for years? How come it's your mother's stuff..."

She said, but the more she spoke, the more guilty she became.

I don't know what came to mind, but the face turned a little ugly all of a sudden.

Jenny had been looking at her in silence.

After half a dozen times, Lu Lanzhi couldn't stand her gaze in the end and waved her hand, impatient, "Alright, alright, I'll just tell you, I didn't buy this jade pendant, I picked it up."

Jenny frowned, "Picked it up? Where did you pick it up?"

The first thing you need to know is that you can't be too sure of what you're getting.

She said, and couldn't help but roll her eyes.

Jenny Jing, however, was keen to catch the keywords in her words.

"Gambling stone venue? Which gambling stone venue?"

"It's just that..."

In the middle of Lu Lanzhi's sentence, she suddenly paused, then as if remembering something, her eyes lit up.

She rubbed her hands in excitement, "That, Jenny ah, let's discuss something."

Jenny Jing put the jade pendant away and didn't change his face

, " said."

"Didn't I tell you about investing in a jade mine before, actually ah, this jade pendant I picked up this time, I picked it up at a gambling event held by the mineral boss I want to work with, how about this, you accompany me over there and talk to that boss about the cooperation, it just so happens that I can also take you to see the place where I picked up the jade pendant, what do you think?"

Jenny Jing this is considered to understand, rushing Lu Lanzhi is afraid that she did not agree to borrow money, want to take this opportunity to make a deal with her.

She couldn't help but lose a smile, as she had already made it clear with Biden Lu that she was willing to support Lu Lanzhi.

So, not to be denied, "Fine, but I have one condition."

Lu Lanzhi was stunned, "What conditions?"

"I can go with you to see that jade boss, but how about an agreement that if, after inspection, the minerals are indeed worth investing in this time, the money counts as our investment rather than a loan to you, and you yourself can contribute a sum of money to invest in yours, our own flesh and blood?"

Lu Lanzhi was startled, never expecting her to say those words.

Her face changed, and she was quite exasperated.

"Jenny! How can you be such a man? Do you and Biden need money that badly? You won't even spare your aunt the flesh of a mosquito?"

Jenny stood up.

"Whether it's meat or a mud pit, we don't know yet, Auntie, fifteen billion is not a small amount, are you sure you can grasp such a large investment if you were really the only one to invest in it?"

Lucian's face changed again and again, and in the end, in the end, he lost the battle.

"Then you lend me another 100 million, I'll put in 500 million, and you two will put in a billion."

Jenny didn't hesitate, "Okay, deal!"

When she said yes, she lifted her wrist to check the time.

"When will you be done with your facial?"

Lucian didn't have the good sense to rip the mask off her face.

"What's the point of doing it when you've spoiled the good mood? I'll take you to see Boss Yu right now, okay?"

Jenny quirked the corner of her lips, "Then it's hard for aunt."

Once Lucian was dressed and packed, they went out the door together.

The staff, who had been waiting outside, were shocked to see them suddenly come out, even changing their clothes.

"Ms. Land, are you leaving? Are you dissatisfied with our previous service?"

Lucian rolled his eyes in frustration.

"It's not that I'm not happy with you guys, I've got things to do, okay, I'll open the card, next time."

She said, before this twisted and followed Jenny out.

When she got into the car, Lu Lanzhi gave her address, and Jenny drove her straight to the gambling venue.

And now, inside the gambling venue, the gambling session was still going on.

After Mo Caiwei and Quexiu discussed with Boss Yu, they went back to the back of the manor, where Boss Yu had to watch over the business and naturally couldn't leave.

Now, someone just happened to open a nice piece of jade, and everyone was gathered around the stone cutter, watching the fun.

Boss Yu was an eight-sided character, and even though his eyes were focused on the stone cutting knife, he kept an eye on the doorway out of the corner of his eye.

If any big clients really came over, he would naturally take the first step to welcome them.

Just then, a familiar figure suddenly crashed into the eyes.

He was slightly stunned, a little surprised, and then he smiled.

Chapter 974

Or is it that fate is a strange thing?

It wasn't so long ago that people were saying that they didn't know when they would see Lucian again, and now here they are.

He was busy welcoming him with enthusiasm, "Miss Lu is here, quickly inside please."

Unexpectedly, Lu Lange didn't look too good today.

Boss Yu, who had traveled extensively over the years and was an astute person, quickly noticed that she hadn't come alone today, nor had she brought her fresh-faced boyfriend, but rather a beautiful young woman with her.

The woman was dressed in a competent casual suit, her features exquisite and bright, but her eyebrows were sharp and compelling, and she looked like she had worked out from years of being in a high position.

Without moving a muscle, Boss Yu restrained his eyebrows and smiled, "Miss Lu is here today, but have you thought about cooperation matters?"

Lucian rolled his eyes.

"Of course, or do you think I'd have the leisure to ask you specifically for tea?"

Said a pause, and then turned around to introduce, "Introducing to you, this is my niece-in-law Jenny Jing, President of Anning International, you know her, right?"

Boss Yu shook fiercely.

He didn't know Jenny, but Annihilation International had heard of it.

Most importantly, it's not really Serenity International either.

Rather, it was the title of Lu Lange's niece-in-law.

Who is Lu Lange's nephew?

Lu Jing-Shen! Then her niece-in-law, wouldn't that be...?

Boss Yu's face turned pale, and he even said respectfully, "I've heard a lot about you, Mrs. Lu, it's a pleasure to meet you."

Jenny Jing took his lips and smiled, reaching out his hand to shake it gently with him.

When she came in just now, she had already taken a rough glance at the entire venue.

Knowing that this was a regular gambling venue, there was about a count on the identity of the owner.

It wasn't that she was so wary, it was just that Lu Lanzhi had been so unreliable before that she had to be more than willing to confirm the other party's identity.

Jenny Jing smiled, "Boss Yu, right? I came over today because of what my aunt talked to you about earlier, about the cooperative mining of jade, and secondly, there's another thing I want to ask you for."

Boss Yu was stunned, nodding his head incessantly.

"No problem, let's say we go inside and talk."

Jenny nodded and followed him to the meeting room inside.

In the parlor, Boss Yu had his secretary make tea up before asking in a good manner, "I wonder what it is that Mrs. Lu said she wanted to ask me for help just now?"

He was a smart man and knew that although Lu Lanzhi had been ridiculous in the past, the fact that they had actually moved Jenny out this time showed that they were sincere about the cooperation.

Since it's already on the board, there's certainly no rush.

Before you do that, you might as well ask what the other person is looking for help with.

If you can do it yourself, happy to do a favor, a family like the Lu family, easily will not find someone to ask for help, once they open their mouths, it is bound to be something they can't solve on their own.

This is something that either has a specific reason or is very tricky.

Since they found themselves, it means that they can help with this matter, so how about doing a favor and making a good relationship before talking about cooperation.

In this way, even if the cooperation behind does not work out, we can still pull good relations in order to make the other party owe him a favor, and it will be much more convenient for him to do things here in Kyoto.

In just a few minutes, Boss Yu's mind was already in a thousand different places.

Jenny Jing, however, looked as if he was normal, and just took the jade pendant out.

When she took the jade pendant out, she keenly observed that Boss Yu's face had slightly changed.

Jenny Jing smiled slightly, "Previously my aunt picked up this jade pendant in your venue and has been trying to find its owner, but I've been suffering from a lack of opportunity, I came over today to ask Boss Yu if he has seen this jade pendant, do you know who owns it?"

Boss Yu laughed out loud.

This smile of his made Jenny and Lu Lanzhi a little confused as to what he meant.

Boss Yu shook his head with an undiminished smile and exclaimed, "So I say, how in the world is there such a thing as fate! This jade pendant ah of course I know, because it is the thing of one of my best friends, two days ago when Miss Lu was here, they were also here, I do not know if Miss Lu still remember, it is the one who accidentally rushed you, this jade pendant is her."

He said, and couldn't help but laugh, "Speaking of which, it's been two days since the things were dropped, and this morning they realized the jade pendant was missing, so they rushed over to look for it, but they didn't find it, and were asking me to help them look for it again, but I didn't expect you guys to send it over, do you think it's a coincidence?"

When Lu Lanzhi heard that it was Mo Caiwei's, her face changed a bit.

Some ugly.

She searched her mind as to whose bad thing it was, in favor of the woman's.

Before the moment she saw this thing exquisite compact, greedy, take this thing to coax Ann, did not send back okay, anyway, people do not know is she picked up.

Now that it's back, people might think she's really greedy for this little thing from Mo Caiwei.

Lucian is greedy, but at the same time, he is also proud.

So arrogant that they refuse to admit their love of petty crime or their lowliness in front of people.

But in reality, she is just using her own mind to figure out what other people are thinking, and when she has a villain in her own mind, she thinks everyone is a villain and will wrongfully accuse her of hiding other people's things.

Jenny didn't pay any attention to Lu Lanzhi's thoughts, she looked at Boss Yu and calmly said, "I wonder who your friend's name is? If it's convenient, can you quote me."

She originally thought that since this person was a friend of Boss Yu's, it shouldn't be difficult to ask him to introduce her.

But unexpectedly, the other side frowned with some difficulty.

"This... it's not that I'm not helping you with your introduction, it's just that this friend of mine is not well, she's been living in seclusion in the desert all these years, this time she's traveling to China with her husband, she's a quiet person and doesn't like to socialize, but don't worry, this jade pendant is very important to her, as long as I explain to her that it was Miss Lu who picked up this jade pendant for her, and she will definitely come out to meet her."

After Boss Yu said that, he was going to call.

Jenny, however, was stunned and snorted out a laugh.

"You say that this jade pendant is very important to her?"

Boss Yu noticed that she looked different, stopped the phone call and said somewhat blankly, "Yeah, what's wrong?"

"Nothing." Jenny sank into a deep breath, searching in her heart, no matter if the other party had bought or stolen this jade pendant, how could it be very important to her with someone's name engraved above it?

It wasn't too valuable after all, and someone who could afford to stroll into such a venue and make friends with someone like Boss You wouldn't be from some poor mountain, so it was evident that the other party must be lying!
