

Chapter 978

The sadness was as if someone had taken away the most important piece of her heart, and it was unexplainable and stiflingly painful.

Quexu noticed that something was wrong with her face and said with concern, "Caiwei, are you okay?"

Mo Caiwei shook her head and her voice was soft, "Suki, I'm also tired, so help me back to rest."

Quexu nodded.

When Boss Yu saw this, he even picked up the jade pendant from the table and handed it to her, smiling, "Then you can go back to the manor and rest well, as for the rest, we'll talk about it later."

Quexu nodded his head, which helped Mo Caiwei to leave.

Biden Lu worked overtime at the office today, had a meeting all day, and when he got home, it was already nine o'clock at night.

The kids have school tomorrow, so this is a natural time to sleep in.

After he entered the house and changed his shoes, he unexpectedly didn't see Jenny in the living room, only Aunt Liu was there alone to clean up something.

Not surprisingly.

After all, in the past, but whenever he worked late, Jenny always had to wait in the living room until he came back, and then go back to his room together to rest.

Where did you go today?

With doubts in his mind, he walked over and asked Aunt Liu as he tugged at the tie around his neck, "Where's Mrs.?"

Aunt Liu straightened up and replied, "It's upstairs in the room."

After saying that, she made a slight pause and some hesitation, "Mrs. seems to be in a bad mood today, since she came back this afternoon, she has been locking herself in her room, she hasn't even left the door, and she hasn't eaten dinner, sir, you should go up and take a look."

Biden Lu frowned, "Didn't you even eat dinner?"

"Yes, we dare not disturb, even Miss Ann and the young master she is missing, and we don't know what has happened."

Biden Lu nodded, "I know."

He carried his steps up the stairs to the bedroom door, and indeed saw that it was closed.

He pushed on the door and found it locked, so he had no choice but to knock.

"Jenny, open the door, it's me."

However, there was no sound at all inside.

Biden Lu's brows frowned even deeper, knocked twice more, still no movement, his face did not sink, and turned his head just in the corridor, instructing Aunt Liu to bring the bedroom door key over.

Aunt Liu quickly found the key and came over to hand it to him.

Biden Lu waved his hand for her to retreat, then used the key to open the door.

The bedroom was dark.

The house was so quiet it seemed as if you could hear a pin drop on the floor, no lights were on, and no one could be seen.

Biden Lu frowned and raised his hand to turn on a chandelier, the dim light shone with a pop, only then did he see clearly the figure sitting on the sofa.

"What the hell are you doing?"

Biden Lu reversed himself and closed the door, walking over quickly.

Jenny sat crouched on the couch with his hands on his knees, burying his head in the crook of his arm.

Hearing his voice, she raised her head straight up, and only then did Biden Lu realize that her face was extremely pale, and there were still hidden undried tears on her face, her eyes were also red and swollen, so it looked like she had been crying for a long time.

He was so unnerved that he sat down and took her into his arms.

"What happened? Why are you crying like that? The lights don't even turn on, and I just thought you were in trouble."

Jenny only felt no strength in her body, she cried for hours and cried tears, now leaning into his broad bosom, smelling the familiar reassuring smell, only then felt her heart, which had been overflowing with cold anxiety since this afternoon, gradually settle down.

She arched her head and found a comfortable position, leaning into his arms, and whispered, "I'm fine, I'm just a little tired."

Biden Lu frowned and raised his hand to touch her forehead, finding that it wasn't hot, it didn't look like she had a cold.

"What's wrong with you?" He asked softly.

Jenny didn't answer, and only after half a moment did he say, "I met someone today."

"What people?" Biden Lu was very patient.

"A man who was supposed to be dead, but suddenly appeared in front of me."

Biden Lu was stunned.

Jenny Jing looked up at him, his eyes a little confused, "Biden, do you think I'm bad? She obviously owes me nothing, but I'm stubbornly trying to get something out of her, stubbornly blaming her for not telling me the news that she's still alive, do you think that's selfish of me?"

Biden Lu looked at her with deep brows and eyes, "Who did you meet?"

Biden moved his lips, and it took several seconds before he said, "Mo Caiwei."

Biden Lu shook fiercely.

Jenny Jing laughed to herself, "I always thought that she was dead, when I was seventeen, she died in a car accident, for this incident, my heart has been filled with hatred, I would have loved to kill all the people who killed her, but I now know that she is not dead."

"She's been alive and well all these years, living in the desert with another man, she could have told me, but she chose not to remember, not to tell, she buried the past like rolling yellow sand, leaving no trace of it, but what about me?"

"I have always missed those times with her, every year on the Qingming Festival, I will return to Visterdem, to add a pillar of incense and a bouquet of flowers to her mantle, sincerely praying that she can join a good family in the next life, no longer have to suffer and be cheated, can be safe and happy, happy life, Biden, am I stupid? People don't even want to think about me, but I never let go."

Biden Lu remained silent as she listened to her droning statement.

It wasn't until she had finished, after a half-hearted attempt at reassurance, that she said, "I get it, she's not dead, you met her by accident, do you think she's cheating on you, or even betraying you?"

Jenny shook her head, "I don't know, I just feel sad, but I don't know why I'm sad."

Biden Lu sighed softly.

He bowed his head and kissed the tears on her face delicately, whispering, "Fool, because in your heart, she has always been the most important person, and once you thought that in her heart, you were the most important person to her too, but this time she survived in death, but chose to go into hiding and not contact you, choosing to make a clean break with the past."

"That decision made you realize that she didn't have to have you in her life, and that's why you feel so sad, like you've been betrayed."

Jenny looked up, blankly at him, "Is that so?"

Biden Lu nodded, "It should be."

Jenny thought about it and said, "Oh", "I see, but am I wrong? It seems so selfish and unreasonable of me."

Biden Lu smiled, "Such things as feelings are inherently unreasonable, it all depends on the heart."

He paused and sighed again.

Chapter 979

"You can be angry, but while you're angry, are you happy for her? After all, she's now living the life you prayed for her in disguise, quiet and ordinary and safe and happy, right?"

Jenny stared at him blankly.

For a moment, suddenly breaking into a smile, "It seems so oh."

Biden Lu doted on her and rubbed her head, "So now can you tell me what this is all about?"

Jenny thought about it and told him about today's events.

After hearing this, Biden Lu also felt incredulous.

He was silent for a moment, "So what are you going to do now?"

Jenny shook his head, "I don't know, she doesn't remember anything now, and she doesn't know me, I don't even know how I should talk to her."

"Don't worry." Biden Lu comforted her, "The events back then had too much of an impact on her, it's normal that she doesn't want to remember, it's good that the person isn't dead now and has been found by you, it's also a kind of fate, no matter what the end result is, it's already a kind of gift from the heavens that she's still alive, let's not force it too much, hmm?"

Jenny nodded.

In fact, she also understood that after so many years, it was already a loss for her that Mo Caiwei was still alive.

She shouldn't be greedy enough to ask for more, and her previous lapse was really just a bit of selfishness that she didn't want to be forgotten.

At this time, with Biden Lu's comfort and enlightenment, she had figured it out.

Jenny sighed.

"It's actually good like now, she won't remember the past, so she won't remember the hurt that Jing Tsung De brought to her, like she said herself, it's a chance for the gods to give her a chance to live again, it's the best since she can hold on to it."

Biden Lu took her into his arms and tightened his arms.

"Yes, just think of it that way and you'll feel better."

Jenny Jing snuggled into his arms, her voice a little mute, "But I still want to see her, I want to spend more time with her, I want to ask her how she's been all these years, Biden, I don't really want to blame her, I just don't know how to express the mixed feelings I have inside."

Biden Lu nodded, "I understand."

After a pause, he looked down at her, "Don't worry, I'll go with you to see her again when you've adjusted sometime, she's in Kyoto, isn't she? You still have plenty of time, plenty of opportunities to say to her what your heart really wants to say."

Jenny nodded and closed his eyes.

Biden Lu hugged her for a while, feeling the woman's breathing in his arms gradually stabilize, and finally even fell asleep, which is why he smiled helplessly.

Picked her up across the room and headed for the big bed.

Jenny slept heavily this sleep.

In the middle, she had a long, deep dream.

In her dream, it was as if she was back in her childhood, living in the Mo family's villa, she was swinging in the courtyard with two goattails, her grandfather was sitting in a rocking chair not far away and smiling at her, and Mo Caiwei came out with a fruit snack, calling out to her with a smile, "Jenny, come over and eat the fruit."

She jumped off the swing and jumped over it with glee, bumping and spilling the fruit and treats from Mo Caiwei's hands because she was so happy.

Things were scattered all over the floor and she was terrified and cried out with a "wow".

Mo Caiwei's hands and feet were busy comforting her as she wiped her tears and said, "It's okay, Jenny is good, we didn't mean it, we don't cry ah."

Jenny's tears flowed silently.

Perhaps it was knowing that the woman in the dream would never again be so tender and careful to reassure her.

Never again will I give her the warmest embrace and love and protect her at all times.

That's why Jenny felt so sad that she couldn't herself.

Mo Caiwei is still alive, but her mother is dead ah.

She had grown up in the Mo family since she was a child, and had zero impression of her real mother, and all the emotional dependence she had had since she was a child was just her own adoptive mother.

Now, however, there was not even that only bit of emotional dependence.

Jenny cried and woke up.

Biden Lu beside her noticed something was wrong and reached over to embrace her, softly coaxing her.

"Honey be good, don't cry, you're breaking my heart."

Jenny hugged his waist tightly and buried his face in his arms.

The voice was muffled, "Biden Lu, I dreamt about my mother."

Biden Lu's heart ached.

Jenny muffled, "I want to see her."

"Well, when it's morning and a little later, I'll go with you to meet her."

Biden Lu bowed his head, k*ssed away the tears on her face, and said in a mute voice, "Sleep some more, you'll have the spirit to see her only after you sleep well, won't you?"

Jenny nodded.

Burying her face in his arms again, she fell asleep.

The next day.

Jenny Jing, accompanied by Biden Lu, came to the gambling stone venue again.

After yesterday's incident, Boss Yu already knew about her relationship with Mo Caiwei, and although his heart was in awe, it also surged with great joy.

After all, let's not talk about whether Jenny and Mo Caiwei would eventually recognize each other.

He was aware of Mo Caiwei's situation over the years, and knew that she hadn't been doing too well, so it wouldn't be a bad thing if she could really find her family.

Then again, he's a businessman, and businessmen value profit, and know best when it's opportunity and what will play a big role in their future.

Although Boss Yu has no intention of using Mo Caiwei to get anything, but if he really has a ready-made network, he won't use it for nothing.

Thinking so, a secret joy rose in his heart.

Even the pace at which they greeted Jenny and Biden Lu became more and more respectful and attentive.

"Mr. and Mrs. Land, please sit inside."

He smiled, ushered them into the parlor, and after sitting down, had tea made.

Biden Lu raised his hand to stop him.

"Tea will not be necessary, I'm sure you're clear on the purpose of our visit today?"

Boss Yu's face flashed with embarrassment as he moved.

He waved his secretary out and closed the door again, which he returned to look at them with difficulty.

"I know what the two of you are here for, but I'm an outsider in this matter, so I can't say much, if you want to see Miss Mo, I can actually make contact for you, but as for whether she wants to see you or not, I can't make the decision on that."

Biden Lu's eyebrows and eyes didn't move, Jenny Jing said in a deep voice, "I won't see her first, but there are a few things I want to ask you, and I hope that Boss Yu will tell me honestly."

Boss Yu was stunned, nodding his head incessantly.

"Okay, you ask, but whatever I know, I'll know everything and say everything."

Jenny nodded and asked, "How do you know my mother?"

Boss Yu told Jenny about how he traveled to the desert, how he got separated from his tour group, how he got lost, and how he was rescued by them by mistake.

Chapter 980

Jenny listened and nodded.

"And was she already that way when you met her?"

In the meantime, Boss Yu sighed, "Yes, when I first met her, I sensed that she was different from ordinary people, she seemed to be always full of goodwill towards the world, but was sensitive and easily frightened, so I guessed that she hadn't experienced anything before."

He laughed awkwardly, "Of course, it's someone's personal business, so I didn't care to ask, but after yesterday, I realized it was because of that."

Jenny was silent.

"Actually, I have an unmerited request, and I hope that Boss Yu will agree to it."

"You go ahead."

"I'm her daughter, but she doesn't remember me now, so she's very repulsed by my proximity, but I'm still worried about her, and yesterday I saw that she seemed different from normal, both physically and psychologically, and I'd like to find a doctor to check her out."

"Of course, I didn't mean for her to think me up, I just wanted to make sure she was healthy and safe, but if I were the one to talk about it, she'd never agree, so I thought I'd ask Mr. Yu to make this appearance, and let's just say it's a doctor friend you found in Kyoto and drop by, is that okay?"

Boss Yu was stunned, then laughed out loud.

"Mrs. Land, I know you have good intentions, but from what I've seen, it's not necessary."

Jenny frowned, "How so?"

Boss Yu laughed, "You don't know, do you? The reason I was saved by him back then was because I was poisoned by a snake in the desert, and he cured me. After so many years together, your body should be fine."

Jenny was surprised, "He's a doctor?"

"Yes, if you don't believe me, you can find a familiar doctor friend and ask around in the medical community, outsiders don't know his name, but the medical community is very clear inside."

Jenny turned her head and locked eyes with Biden Lu.

Biden Lu would take the message, pulling out his phone and sending a message to Amy.

Soon, Amy's message came back.

"What? Que casa? Where is he? You actually saw that monster? oh, my god! I want to see him too, I also want to ask him a few questions that I never understood before, so hurry up and tell me where he is."

Biden Lu's expressionless face turned off the phone screen.

He turned his head and nodded to Jenny, so Jenny knew that Boss Yu wasn't lying.

This time, the matter of Mo Caiwei's body was also put to rest.

Just then, there was a slight sound of footsteps outside.

The door to the meeting room was pushed open, and Quexu helped Mo Caiwei in.

"Brother Yu..."

Her voice had only just shouted when she saw the remaining two people sitting in the room, slightly stunned, and then her face changed.

Fingers subconsciously clutched Quexu's cuffs, and Quexu, in the meantime, took her into his arms and looked at the room with cold eyes.

Jenny stood up.

"Aww, it's you guys, come and sit down."

Boss Yu was the first to react and even came out laughing and making rounds.

Mo Caiwei and Quexiu entered the house, passing by Jenny, foot

The step was slight, but in the end said nothing and crossed her to sit on the other side.

"You two, what made you think to come over here this time?"

Boss Yu knew that because of Mo Caiwei's poor health, they usually spent most of their time resting in the house and usually didn't come out until close to noon.

And now, it's only 8:30 in the morning.

Mo Caiwei pursed her lips and gave a serene smile.

"We came over to talk to Brother Yu, we've been in the capital for a few days this time, we've seen and played with everything we want to see and play with, and we're here today to say goodbye."

Boss Yu was stunned and shocked.

"Resignation? Why are you leaving so soon? Are you guys just not used to being over here?"

Mo Caiwei shook her head incessantly, "No."

She looked at Jenny with a bit of guilt in her eyes, then managed to smile, "We just still have a lot of places we want to go and don't want to waste too much time here, thank you Brother Yu for taking care of us during this time, we'll get together again when there's a chance in the future."

Boss Yu saw the situation and tightened his eyebrows.

It's a little hard to stay, but it's not good enough.

"In that case, without further ado, where do you plan to go next?"

Mo Caiwei shook her head, "We haven't decided yet, we're going to see as we go, and we'll stay a few more days wherever we like."

Boss Yu smiled at the news, though.

"That's good, you guys aren't in a hurry anyway, you can walk around everywhere, it's rare to come out for once, having fun is the most important thing."

Mo Caiwei and Quexu, both nodded.

Several people were speechless at each other for a moment, and Jenny Jing came up to her with a heavy gaze.

"Are you in such a hurry to leave because of me?"

Mo Caiwei shivered lightly.

She didn't dare to meet Jenny's gaze and her eyes flickered, "Mrs. Lu misunderstood, although I know that we have quite a history in the past, but those are already in the past, now I'm a new person and I don't remember you, so why would I run away from you?"

Jenny, however, was not convinced.

She pursed her lips for a moment and said to Boss Yu, "I'd like to talk to her alone."

Boss Yu was stunned and looked at Mo Caiwei.

Quexu frowned, and Jenny added, "I'll just say a few words, and after that I'll leave."

Mo Caiwei clutched his sleeve tightly, and after a moment, she let go in the end.

"Suki, go wait for me outside, I'll talk to Mrs. Lu."

Quexu nodded his head, which left.

Naturally, Boss Yu also went out, and Biden Lu shook Jenny Jing's hand and left right after him.

The door to the meeting room was closed silently, and Jenny looked at the woman in front of him, the years hadn't left any traces on her face, and she still looked so serene and beautiful.

She scowled as if she was no different than she was in the beginning, and the past ten years hadn't changed any of her appearance at all.

But in Jenny's eyes, it was so distant and unfamiliar.

She clenched her fingers and said quietly, "How have you been all these years?"

Mo Caiwei seemed a little nervous, half-heartedly, before nodding, "Very well."

"When did you and he...meet?"

Mo Caiwei was stunned, and it took several seconds before she realized that she was talking about Quexu.

She frowned and shook her head, "I don't remember, but I saw him as soon as I woke up anyway."
