

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 981

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 981-It was far from enough to promote to other countries, even with the added benefits to the pre-existing ones.

However, there were indeed some improvements made, and he could aid them or not, but it was not worth spending too much time on.

Anthony closed the proposal and observed the situation outside, in the garden.

It was empty, without any passersby.

Had Guy gone to the pool area?

“Luke, inspect the area.”

‘Yes, Sir!’

Luke walked out and explored the mansion secretly.

Meanwhile, Guy’s cousin, Jimmy Warren-tired from playing in the pool- led a model to a spot behind the tree and had some fun.

Once they finished, they wanted to rest in the lounge when the butler abruptly stopped him. “Sir, you can’t go in. There’s a major figure inside. Senior Warren instructed that if anyone disturbed him, their leg would be cut off.”

“What kind of major figure?” spoke the nonchalant Jimmy. “Do I even have to make way for him?” 1

“Boss Bailey... The Boss Bailey...” the butler emphasized, stuttering as he did, and Jimmy’s aloof expression shifted at that moment.

Boss Bailey? There was only one Boss Bailey in Burlington!

Boss Bailey was indeed someone he should not offend.

He asked, “Why would he visit the Warren mansion?”

Although the Warrens were into biotechnology with over 100 years of history and were of the top three in this industry, they had not come anywhere close to the Bailey family.

The butler said in a small voice, ‘The Warren family’s two latest inventions are trying to get into the international market. They invited Boss Bailey over for that, so today’s incredibly crucial for it.”

Jimmy frowned. There was such a thing?

If the Warrens succeeded and got acquainted with someone like Boss Bailey, he could do anything as he pleased! i

With a thought, he left right away and said to the assistant by his side,” Pick a clean woman and send it to Boss Bailey.”

Being a man himself, he knew men well.

However powerful Anthony was, he was a man. He would think with his lower body.

If he could send a woman to sleep with Anthony, pleasing him, they might land themselves in his good books. 2

The Warrens had hope!

The assistant was terrified, however. "Sir, I...I don't dare to..."

He could be killed if he sent a woman to Boss Bailey!

"Go," Jimmy kicked his buttock. "Now!"

Meanwhile...

After Charmine parted with Grandma Warren, she went to the washroom to fix her makeup, and she only exited after making sure her makeup was still intact.

Since most of the people gathered at the pool area, there were less people in the back garden.

She easily evaded everyone's line of sight and got to the treasure chamber.

The treasure chamber was a one-story modern design building, built for Jimmy to store his collections.

He was spoiled and always bought many expensive items for his collections, though the sources of many of these items were suspicious.

Charmine looked around and spotted two guards watching over the treasure chamber. However, this was a small matter to her.

She hid behind the tree and took out a pellet she had prepared. She was about to throw it at the guards.

It was a high-tech pellet that could emit the sound of footsteps when it bounced off the ground a few times. This would be able to distract the two of them for a while, and she only needed one minute to get inside the treasure chamber.

Just as she was about to throw it, however, she felt strangely dizzy.

In the blink of an eye, she fell onto the ground and lost consciousness. 1

The moment before she fainted, she took out her needle trying to help herself.

However, it was too late, and she did not even have time to send an SOS text.

It was a strong dose of medication!

Who was it? When did they drug her?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 982-Baffled at the sudden turn of events, Charmine did not have enough time to think about it before she fainted. It was not long after that an old maid looked around and eventually spotted Charmine.

The maid frowned suspiciously. Why would Ms. Ann faint here?

Grandma Warren had tasked her to get Ms. Ann, but this woman had mysteriously fainted before she could do anything.

Had Grandma Warren asked others to do it?

Though confused, the maid paid not much thought into it-so long as she was unconscious.

She quickly went forward and covered Charmine with a bag, pretending to be carrying a heavy bag as she pulled Charmine to a room not far away. 2

On a tree far away, a person was monitoring the situation with a telescope.

After making sure Charmine was dragged into a room, his lips curled up with satisfaction as he then sent a text that read, [Madam, the plan is working.] 1 Jimmy's assistant also led a model to a room located at the far end of the building in the backyard. It was leaning onto the mountain with dim lighting. The model was new to the industry, fresh and innocent, clueless to the grim reality of this new world.

When she saw the room, she felt unusually nervous. "Sir, didn't you say you'd be showing me more materials to work with? Why did you bring me here?"

"If you succeed today, forget materials: you can become a superstar if you want to. Be smart!" commented the assistant as he spritzed a mist onto her face.

Instantly, the model felt listless and fell.

The assistant covered her with a bag and was about to carry her away, though nature called and he had to make a quick pit stop at the washroom.

He did not notice, however, that there was another person covered in a bag on the sofa by the corner.

Charmine fainted for a long while. In a blur, she heard the old maid saying to her, "Ms. Ann, I'm sorry to make you wait. I'll ask Mr. Guy to come here. It's your privilege to be able to marry into the Granger family. Do treasure this opportunity." 2

It then clicked for Charmine that it was Grandma Warren's doing, wanting her to be with Guy!

Although Guy would not do anything to her, it was still too risky. She had to avoid this.

Although she felt listless and hopeless, she still tried her best to struggle out of the bag.

By using force, she lost control and fell to the ground.

Concurrently, the model was also attempting to escape despite her dizziness.

She knew it would be much harder to escape afterward.

She tried her best to roll around, trying to get out of the door.

However, she did not realize she was going the wrong way and into a darker corner instead.

When the assistant came out of the bathroom, he saw the bag on the floor had rolled to the sofa area. Hoisting her, he slapped her and growled,"

When you see the man you're about to please, you'll be thankful and won't even think of escaping!"

Inside the lounge...

Anthony had waited a long while for Luke, but as he had yet to report anything back to him, he put down the proposal to walk out.

He never expected that the lounge's curtains were closed, despite only stepping outside for a while.

The room was dimly lit with only a pink lamp turned on. The lounge was instantly turned into something else. 1

If one knew about this place, they would know this was the Warren mansion ' lounge, but any other clueless soul would have thought he had entered a nightclub.

On the dimly lit sofa was a woman with her dress torn apart, showing off her long legs. Her collar was torn out as well, and her figure looked incredibly beguiling.

When Anthony saw her face, he frowned with displeasure. He instantly wanted to leave.

Charmine, carried into the room by Jimmy's assistant just a few minutes ago, felt like crying as she laid there on the sofa!

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 983-The assistant was baffled when he, upon taking out the woman from the bag, saw Charmine instead.

How did he end up with the wrong woman?

Was there another woman in that room?

However, it was too late...

He heard footsteps coming back from not far away. He had to tear out Charmine's dress and leave in a hurry.

Charmine thought it was going to be Guy, but never did she think it would be Anthony instead!

She thought she was hallucinating when Anthony's tall figure came in against the light.

Why...would Anthony be here? Why did he come?

Just as she was about to call out for help, Anthony looked at her for a second before he instantly turned away, seemingly disgusted.

Only then did Charmine recall she was Ann Liam, wearing the skin mask of her face.

If Anthony found out she came to the party in a disguise and was framed by someone to be sent to Guy, she would be dead meat! 1

With his back turned to her, Anthony felt awfully disgusted and was about to leave, but he had to get the phone he left on the sofa before he could.

The moment he picked up the phone, his gaze turned to the woman's long legs, and the sight of him aroused a strange feeling in him as if he wanted to...

Goodness! Why would he feel such a way about another woman?

What was wrong with him?

He had feelings for Charlie, and all of sudden, he had feelings for an unknown woman?

Charmine's heart thrashed wildly as she saw him standing not far away.

It was bad. If Anthony recognized her, she would be screwed!

She instantly used a flirty voice to say, “Boss Bailey, come here... I’ll please you right...”

She was using Ann’s voice to flirt.

Feeling his scalp itching, he instantly took his phone and marched out.

Coincidentally, Luke returned as he reported, “President, I looked around and didn’t see anyone from the Granger family. Perhaps they had left...”

“No need to look further. Tell the Warrens to be careful!”

With that said, he did not take another look at the woman and walked out, figure emitting cold anger, 1

When Luke saw the woman inside the lounge, he frowned.

“Goodness gracious...”

The Warrens were so daring to send Boss a woman? How daring!

When Charmine saw that Anthony had left, she let out a sigh of relief.

Although she wanted Anthony to help her, she could not. She must not let Anthony know she came here in disguise.

She could only watch Anthony leave.

After recovering, she sent out an SOS message through the bracelet on her wrist.

Within ten minutes, the C team would be here. There was no need to let Anthony know...After leaving the Warren mansion, Anthony had a very strange feeling.

He did not know why, but he actually had feelings for the woman on the sofa!
He

even wanted to go back and bring her with him!

Curses! What was wrong with him?

He fixed his tie and went inside the car. He instructed Luke, "Send me the information about that woman on the lounge."

While he should not be checking in on other women behind Charmine's back, that he had never felt anything for anyone, he was feeling strange recently.

He had to tackle the root of the problem!

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 984-At the Warren mansion.

Senior Warren and Grandma Warren anticipated the news on Anthony, but what they heard from Luke instead caught them by complete surprise.

They instantly berated Jimmy badly.

Jimmy defended himself, "You keep saying how I don't care, but I'm just trying to help! Who would've thought Anthony Bailey is no man-"

Slap! Grandma Warren swung her palm across his cheek before he could finish his sentence.

"How dare you speak like this! Have you not caused us enough trouble? Do you know who Boss Bailey is? He's engaged to the princess in Kansas! Why would he fall for a model? Do you think everyone is just like you!?"

'The Warren family is screwed. We're screwed! You actually sent Boss Bailey a model, and that's practically an insult to him!" Senior Warren saw red, wanting nothing more than to smack Jimmy. 1 Jimmy mumbled, "She's not a model. I was going to send a model, but somehow it turned out to be Ann... She's from a wealthy family, so how's that an insult...?"

Grandma Warren's eyelids jumped. "What did you say? Ann? You sent Ann to Boss Bailey?"

"Yeah. My assistant is a good-for-nothing guy. I don't know how he messed it up." Jimmy kicked his assistant.

Panicking, Grandma Warren instantly called out, "Go and look for Guy in the garden room! Now!"

She had sent Guy to the garden room, wanting him to be with Ann, but if Ann was sent to Anthony, then Guy would be with the model instead...!

How would a family like the Granger family accept a model?!

Someone came in at that moment and reported, "Madam, Mr. Granger is fuming. He said he can't accept what the Warren family is doing, and he won't be coming back to..."

Grandma Warren jolted and staggered.

The Warren family still needed the support from the Grangers, yet on this day, they had offended both the Baileys and the Grangers... i Impossible!

'Where's he? I need to see Guy,' she fretted. 'This is a misunderstanding. I was trying to match him up with Ms. Ann, not the model!'

Guy came from the army, and he loathed cheap tricks like this. She must come clean to him quickly.

Senior Warren held on to her. "Hold on. Just ask Guy's mother to talk some sense into him afterward. We must sort out the situation with Boss Bailey. We need to let him know that the woman we sent was Ann."

Grandma Warren realized the difference as well.

Sending a model to Anthony was very different from sending Ann Liam to Anthony.

They had to go with the mistake...

Since only a few people knew about this, they all kept it a secret, i

Anthony sat in the car and read through Ann's information, one that Luke had prepared for him. He frowned.

As strange as it was, he felt nothing as he gazed at the woman in the photo, but he felt some type of way for that same lass on the sofa...

It had been so strange lately.

At Violet Residence.

Waverly heard the updates of the situation, and her red lips curled up with satisfaction. Turning to the real Ann beside her, she spoke, "Don't worry. I saved you, so I won't harm you. Also, I admire your embroidery skill. I wonder if you could make me one?" 1

"Of...of course..." Ann nodded while shivering.

Arranged by her family to attend the Warrens' party, one that she refused to go to, she somehow fainted on the way there.

When she woke up again, she saw that Waverly had saved her.

Being in close proximity with a renowned figure such as her intimidated her. She politely accepted the strings and cloth to start embroidering.

Waverly watched her as her eyes gleamed with schemes and pleasure.

If Anthony found out that Ann spent a whole day here, he would realize that the Ann in Warren mansion was someone else.

Waverly had been plotting this for a long time, and it was finally time for things to work...

Meanwhile, at the Warren mansion... i

Half an hour ago, Guy was asked to come to the garden room, but he sensed that something was not right, so he left quickly.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 985- Coincidentally, Guy saw Jimmy's assistant bringing another woman into the lounge.

He went into the lounge the moment Anthony had left. Who would have thought that it was Ann!

He instantly used a blanket to cover her up. He tried to ask, "Charmine, is that you?"

Noticing how Guy was spot-on with his guess, she did not bother to hide it.

"It's me."

Guy was shocked. He asked her out of suspicion, never truly expecting it was her!

It made sense how he felt something was off just by staring at her back.

He felt guilty at the thought of how she was drugged and sent to this place.

"I'm

sorry for what my Grandma had done. I'll make sure she apologizes to you!"

"No need. I came here today in hopes of finding out if they have the sword in the treasure chamber. No need to cause a scene" commented Charmine as she tried her best to regain her energy.

Of course, she did not know what drug they had used against her, and her body still felt weak even after so long.

Guy quickly said, "I'll send you out. I'll find out about the sword."

'You won't be able to. I need to do it myself.'

Charmine thought of the C team's report, and she knew Guy would not be able to get inside the treasure chamber. She would meet another dead-end if they drew any unnecessary attention.

"Help me get my needles," she requested instead, "it should be on the floor."

'You mean this needle bag?' Guy handed the bag to Charmine. He happened to see the bag on the floor as he was coming in.

Charmine was delighted. It was indeed her needle pack!

With the needles, she would be able to detox herself.

She lifted her hand to receive it, but the blanket covering her fell to the floor, and as Guy was sitting beside her, he accidentally saw her long legs and the torn-open collar.

He blushed again, quickly shutting his eyes as he turned around. "I'm sorry." i

His tone was awkward and guilty.

"It's okay," came Charmine's cold reply. "Step out, I need some time."

She took out the needles and tried to prick at the right spot, but she was still weak and she had no energy. Her hand that held on the needle quavered persistently.

In such a state, she would need a long while before she could accurately prick at the right spot.

Guy was about to go out when he noticed her hand shivering. "I can help you," he offered, i Charmine frowned. Help her?

Eyes still shut, he then continued, "Don't worry, I'll close my eyes the whole time. I'll only help you stabilize the needle." 1

Seeing that her hand was shaking, Charmine knew she could not accurately needle at the right spots anyway.

It was important for the needle to be placed at the right spot. The longer it took, the harder it would be for her to detox.

"Okay," she relented, and Guy then knelt before the sofa with his eyes shut.

With the long needle, Charmine held on the bottom of the needle while Guy held on the upper end.

He was stabilizing the needle from shaking. With his help, Charmine managed to accurately execute the needle at the first spot. They then went to the second spot, then the third...

Charmine was too focused on detoxifying herself that she did not notice the pinhole camera by the corner, capturing everything. 3

She only knew that if Anthony found out about this, he would be so mad at her!

Reluctant was she as it all happened, but she had no choice. He had to help her detoxify herself.

Nonetheless, she would be able to come clean to Anthony once she retrieved the sword again.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 986- Charmine carefully pricked each needle into her body.

Guy, who knelt beside her, could feel her hard work and dedication. She could have left and returned once she recovered, but she insisted on staying and held herself together.

Guy had never seen any woman who was as dedicated.

Furthermore, they were so close to one another, and he could smell the unique feminine scent from her. He had a feeling that he had not felt before arousing in

him. i

His face was hot and his ears were red.

Charmine did not notice it all, however, as she continued to put in the last needle. The nine needles on her figure vibrated non-stop.

Gradually, the toxin in her body was removed as she recovered, and her blood returned to its healthy regulation as usual. She was as good as before.

Charmine sat up from the sofa and removed the needles swiftly.

“Let’s move,” she prompted as she poked one end of a string to a needle to sew up a dress.

The tear was effectively sewn, leaving no trace of the tear on the black dress, and the sewed-up opening made the dress even more unique.

After working on it, she packed up her needles and walked out.

Guy snapped back to reality as he quickly followed after her.

“Is there something I can help you with?”

“Cover me; I need to get to the treasure chamber. If someone comes over, try to buy me some time,” spoke Charmine as she walked toward the treasure chamber. i

Guy did not expect himself to become someone’s cover-up, but he was willing to because it was her. He quickly went forward then.

The two walked in the empty alley and, meanwhile, the Warrens were still thinking of ways to appease Anthony and teach Jimmy a lesson.

All the maids also knew how the Warrens had offended Boss Bailey. They knew something bad was coming, and they were busy enough that nobody noticed this alley.

Both Charmine and Guy successfully arrived at the treasure chamber.

The two guards were not there, to their surprise. The guards seemed to be somewhere else.

Charmine turned around to instruct Guy, "I'll go in now. Tell me if someone is coming."

"Okay." Guy nodded.

Charmine did not take long before arriving at the door of the chamber and unlocked it. She went in sideways and closed the door behind her.

The treasure chamber was like a library with treasures instead of books placed on the shelves. There were rings, necklaces, and out-of-print money.

There were hundreds of shelves going inward, and she could not tell if the sword was in here.

With that, Charmine took out her special sunglasses and wore them, allowing her to see infrared lines in space.

People would surely come rushing in if the lines so much so graze her.

Charmine tied up her dress and walked inside. She had to bend, lower her body, jump, and move nimbly like a cat. 2

After passing through, she finally arrived at a step by the wall. The wall had a control system attached to it. 1

She worked on it swiftly. With a beep, the alarm system was completely turned off.

She could at last move freely in this secret treasure without needing to worry about alarms.

Charmine removed her special glasses and walked around the shelves to look closely.

After approximately five minutes, she saw a black box by the corner of a shelf.

It was the box of the sword. It was really in here!

As she was about to march over, there were footsteps behind her. She looked around to see Guy. 1 “Why did you come in?”

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 987-“Grandma and the rest are passing by. They’re bringing Jimmy to the prayer hall, so they won’t come in,” answered Guy.

He only made sure of that before coming in.

Charmine heard sounds coming from the outside. However, the sound gradually faded away and nobody came in.

She sighed in relief afterward. “Let’s check out if the sword has any problem.”

As she spoke, she walked over with Guy following her.

The two of them worked together to open up the box.

It was empty inside!

Empty!

This was only an empty box, and the sword was taken!

How could that be? Were they trapped?

Just as she was deducing the situation, a loud sound was heard as the floor they stood on broke.

Before Charmine and Guy could react, they fell into the basement below.

Everything was happening too abruptly and they had no time to react. 1

Guy only reacted seconds later when he rolled over to let Charmine fall onto him.

Coincidentally, Charmine fell onto him and Guy made a sound, though he did not feel the pain. i

He could clearly feel Charmine's body on top of his; it was an experience he had never had before, i

His face turned hot, his ears red, and his temperature skyrocketed.

Charmine quickly reacted and instantly got off him.

She asked, "Are you okay?"

"Y...Yes." Guy snapped out of his daze and mentally slapped himself.

How could he be this way...? How could he have fantasized about her body?

What a brute!

Charmine, meanwhile, paid him no mind as she eyed her surroundings.

This was an ice-cold basement with a temperature about 12 degrees Celsius.

Cold air circulated in the space as if it was winter, i

Cold. Very cold.

There was no window in the basement, and there were only a few holes on the ceiling that allowed dim light to come in from above.

Since Charmine had turned off the power, there was no light and she could not see any more switches.

Charmine frowned. It seemed hard to get out, and they might need some time to search around. That would not do, however, and she had to quickly find a way out before she died of hypothermia! 1

She was walking around and searching the surroundings, though her head was filled with questions and doubts.

Who was it that wanted to frame her? Why did they want her to fall in here?

Was it the Warrens? She had never offended the Warrens before.

Was this a way of Jimmy keeping the sword safe? That it was not against her specifically but against anyone who tried to steal this sword?

Why, then, was the box empty?

Just as she racked her brain for an answer, a warm jacket was abruptly draped over her. Charmine turned back to see Guy had removed his jacket and placed it on her.

She quickly took it down and gave it back. "No, thank you."

"It's too cold in here-you'll catch a cold," said Guy.

She was only wearing an autumn long-sleeve dress, and the collar opened in a square opening, showing her collarbone and neck. It was too chilly.

Charmine insisted that he take back his jacket. "No need, you put it back on. I'm not cold.”

Even if she was cold, she dared not to wear Guy’s jacket. If Anthony found out, then...

The thought of Anthony suddenly raised a vague thought.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 988- However, the thought quickly escaped her. She did not seem to have grasped it.

What was what? What did she miss?

However, this was unimportant. The most important thing was to get out of the basement.

Despite her confusion, she continued to search for switches in this wine cellar.

Guy, on the other hand, was disappointed when she rejected his jacket, even though it was awfully cold. 1

What did he do wrong? Why did Charmine always reject him?

distance from him? Was she possibly upset that it was because his Grandma framed her?

With those thoughts in mind, he watched as Charmine looked around and suddenly made a very important decision.

After he took a deep breath and made a mental preparation, he said, “Ms...Ms.

Jordan, I’ll be responsible to you.”

Charmine, who diligently searched for a in every corner she could, was dumbfounded to hear his sudden confession.

She looked at him confusingly. "What are you saying?"

Guy's face flushed red. Luckily, the light was dim here and Charmine could not see it.

He clenched his sweaty hands, strangely so even though it was wintry cold.

He had lived for 29 years, and he had never been so strung up.

After being nervous for a long while, he finally had the courage to say, "My Grandma harmed you, and I saw things I shouldn't be seeing, just now..."

She was pressed on top of him when they fell. His face was even redder at the memory, and he was too embarrassed to say it out loud. 2

He could only look at her and say, "Don't worry, I'll be responsible to you. I'll discuss it with Uncle Hugh right away and I'll marry you officially."

It was only then that realization dawned on her.

So, just because he had seen her clothes torn out and cushioned her when she fell, he felt obliged to be responsible to her?

Anthony was just like that.

Were men these days even more narrow-minded than her?

"Mr. Granger, you're thinking too much," she said patiently. "I don't need you to be responsible, and you don't have to feel guilty either."

"But..." Guy frowned.

He had never been so close to the opposite gender from a young age. To him, after so many intimate contacts, he must be responsible to this woman. 1

He looked at Charmine. "I should be responsible. Everything that happened today was caused by me. I'm willing to be responsible."

"But I'm not willing! This is a small accident, and there's no need to tie knots together out of a small accident.

Furthermore, you're the heir of the Granger family. Don't let this small thing determine your future happiness," asserted Charmine before walking away to another side and resumed her search for a switch. 1

Without her phone and even a good enough source of light, she could only search randomly.

Guy frowned. She thought he wanted to marry her merely out of a sense of responsibility?

This should not end this way.

Guy gazed at her from behind, her hair flowing as she exuded a very cold temperament. 1

This figure was somehow engraved in his heart.

when Charlie fell into his arms. Perhaps it was when he sat behind her in the motorbike and held on to her waist...

No matter what, it was not only the sense of responsibility.

He clenched his fists tightly and looked at her. "Charmine, I'm not trying to marry you out of these small incidents. I ..J truly admire you, Ms. Jordan, and I like you...”

He had to say this with the greatest courage he had ever mustered, and he dared not look at her face after proclaiming such bold words, head lowered as he did. 2 Charmine, who was still looking for a clue, suddenly jolted.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 989-What did she just hear?

Did Guy just confess to her?

Charmine turned toward Guy and noticed how awkward he seemed.

Judging by his behavior, he seemed to have fallen for her...

She suddenly recalled how he had been protective over her for the past few days. Since she was only concerned about getting the sword and the red wolf's bone, she did not pay much notice to him.

Goodness... She effectively landed herself in hot soup, i

As the realization jolted her, she looked at Guy seriously and asked, “Guy, do you know why I’m working so hard to get the sword? Do you know why I want the Cherny family’s approval?”

Guy frowned. He felt an uneasiness that he had not felt before.

He had a feeling that whatever he was about to be told, he would not be able to accept it... i

As expected, Charmine continued sternly, “I’ll be frank with you: I’m married and have gotten my marriage certificate. I also have a five-year-old child.” 3

Guy's tall and well-built body jolted. He felt as if he was struck by lightning.

She was married and had a five-year-old child?

I—Impossible!

He had checked her background in the past few days. She had broken up with Julian and was not married...

The surge of courage that suddenly overtook him made him meet her gaze as he spoke, "Ms. Jordan, I know you're not married. Is this just an excuse to reject me?"

"No, it's not. I'm secretly married due to some special reasons; we don't want others to know. The reason I need the bone to cure the strange malady my child has been diagnosed with. Only this bone can save him. The reason I need to earn the Cherny family's approval is that the child's father is a well-known figure, and his family doesn't approve of a small family like the Jordans. I have to earn the Chernys' approval so that I'd be approved of his family. This is all so that I can be with him." 1

Charmine spoke clearly, one word at a time without holding anything back.

After saying that, she looked Guy in the eye. "Don't fall for me, and don't think of being responsible to me. I don't need it. I swear with my life about what I just said. It's true. If you don't believe me, I'll bring you to him after we get out of here.”

Guy was shocked and was transfixed on the spot.

His tall and well-built figure was stunned as if he was frozen.

The news hit him so harshly that he could not comprehend it.

She was actually married and even had a child!

She came to the Cherny mansion just to help her husband...

It was so rare that he fell for another woman, yet she was married to another man...

Guy experienced a feeling he had never felt before. It was as if his chest was cut open by a knife. 1

Pain. Incredibly painful. He found it hard to breathe.

Charmine saw the look in his eyes. She wanted to comfort him but did not know what to say.

She did not expect Guy would fall for her after just knowing him for two days...

Fall for her... This thought slipped past her mind. Suddenly, the alarm bell rang in her head loudly.

The thought that she did not grasp on suddenly resurfaced, and she realized then.

She finally realized why she ended up in this space-why she and Guy fell into this basement!

Oh, no! She had fallen into a trap from the start!

She had to rush and meet Anthony as soon as possible!

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 990-
Meanwhile, at Violet Residence...

Anthony was busy the entire day. When he came back to the villa, he saw Waverly sitting on the sofa.

He took no notice of her as he walked inside.

Waverly's face stiffened. She made the effort to put on a nice-looking azure blue

dress, a limited edition from a luxury brand.

Once she wore the dress, she even put on delicate makeup to make her seem even more elegant as if she was a mermaid from a fairy tale. She even stunned

herself as she gazed at her reflection in the mirror. 2

She sat on the sofa as she waited for him. Who would have thought that Anthony would ignore her?

She bit back her bitterness as she stood up and walked toward Anthony. "Mr.
Bailey, I embroidered you a sachet. It has a unique scent only available in Kansas. If you keep this with you, it'll help you in improving your sleep," she spoke as she handed him a sachet.

The sachet was also azure blue, only the size of a thumb. There was a phoenix

embroidered on it, and it looked exquisite.

However, Anthony did not even look at it nor did he turn back to her. He walked toward the staircase.

It was as if he did not hear Waverly speak. Even if he heard, he blanked her completely. 1

Waverly's face turned green.

She had lowered her standards to live in this villa for so long, yet even with all that, Anthony still had no feelings toward her. He had not changed!

Well, he must not blame her for what she would do!

She said abruptly, "Charmine isn't home; she has gone out. She went out right after you left in the morning."

Anthony frowned. She went out?

However, that did make sense. She had many companies with different matters to take care of.

Waverly continued, "Does Mr. Bailey actually think she's busy with her work?"

Have you not noticed that she's been acting weird lately? I'm sure you'd be quite interested to have a look at these photos." 1

As she spoke, she walked forward and handed a phone to Anthony.

The phone's gallery was filled with photos that he could see once he clicked it open.

Anthony eyed the phone when, out of the blue, the door was kicked open.

The two of them turned to the door.

Charmine was in her long-sleeved black dress. Some alterations were made to the original dress, and a hint of personal touch was added to the dress.

She stood before the door, exuding a wild temperament.

She marched forward and snatched the phone from Waverly, smashing it against the floor.

Waverly reeled back in utter shock, caught off-guard completely. 1

Charmine was that vulgar that she broke her phone! She was that vulgar, even in front of Anthony?!

She only found her voice after a long while, and she smiled coldly as she spoke, “Charmine, do you think I don’t have a backup after you crashed my phone? Do you think Anthony will never find out what you did?”

“Stay away from our matters. We don’t need you to get involved!” Charmine scoffed arrogantly before turning toward Anthony. “I have some personal issues to speak to her, but I’ll explain everything to you tonight,” she said. “Until then, I hope you can trust and respect me. I want to tell you everything in person.”

With that said, she grabbed Waverly by her collar and pulled her into a room. 1

Waverly wanted to struggle, but she did not have as much strength as Charmine.

Seeing that she was about to get dragged into a room, she roared out loudly, “Anthony, Charmine cheated on you! She and another man... Argh!”
