

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 99:

Anna Yun was opening his hands and standing with trembling legs in a slap from the front of the car.

She suddenly rushed out from the side of the road. If it hadn't been for Liam Lu to brake in time, I'm afraid she would have been crushed into meatloaf!

Zoey Gu narrowed her eyes subconsciously.

Now the streets are full of news that Liam Lu is about to marry her. As his appointed fiancée, she was suddenly "snatched by a knife". If she could sit still, she would not be Anna Yun.

Zoey Gu turned to look at Liam Lu and couldn't help but say.

"Marry me for the love in your heart, do you think your Anna Yun will miss you like the sea, or will he slap you?"

Liam Lu pursed his lips and glanced at her sullenly.

"Shut up! Zoey Gu, you really are a dogged dog!"

Zoey Gu was slightly startled when he heard the gnashing of his teeth.

At this moment, Anna Yun's sharp cry suddenly came from outside the window.

"Zoey Gu, get out of here!"

Anna Yun rushed over like crazy and pulled the car door. Before Zoey Gu could react, he pulled her out.

"What shameful way did you use to make Liam make such a decision?!"

She said, raising her hand to Zoey Gu suddenly.

"You..."

Suddenly a familiar and powerful aura approached behind her, and one hand firmly clasped Anna Yun's raised hand.

Liam Lu looked at Anna Yun with cold eyes, and said coldly with a strained voice.

“I will give you an explanation on this matter. But she is my wife Lu, not something you can do casually.”

After he finished speaking, he held Zoey Gu’s hand sideways, opened the car door and stuffed her in.

“Go to the hospital to take care of Alina Yin, and wait for me.”

Before turning around, Anna Yun slapped him vigorously.

Snapped.

Liam Lu’s half of Jun’s face immediately showed a clear slap print.

Zoey Gu was shocked, and raised her hand to push the door, but she heard only one word from Liam Lu coldly.

“go.”

Her hand froze in place, she glanced at him with a complicated expression, stopped talking, started the engine and drove directly to the hospital.

Anna Yun looked at Liam Lu with trembling all over.

Her cheeks on both sides were red and swollen, one cheek was covered with white gauze, her eyes were bloodshot, and her eyes were bruised. These were all left to her by Zoey Gu herself.

At this time, Anna Yun had no elegant image, and the collapse asked Liam Lu.

“Liam, why on earth is this? Why are we about to get engaged, but you have to turn around to marry her Zoey Gu?”

These years, although the blood draw is false. But before the critical moment, she always mentioned it repeatedly. It seemed that apart from this, she had nothing to keep Liam Lu from holding.

“Have you forgotten how much I love you? In order to love you, I follow all the way and draw you blood every month. If you are disappointed with me because of what I did, I can change it!”

She said, suddenly grabbing Liam Lu, raising the volume and asking loudly.

“Is it Zoey Gu? Is it because I killed her father and brother, she is about to take my fiance away, she...”

“No.”

Liam Lu quietly looked at Anna Yun, who was crumbling and sharp in front of him, and felt more and more unfamiliar. He also felt that he had never known her before.

“Sorry Xiaoshu, I was the one who lost you. But there is something that I didn’t understand until now, let alone lie to you.”

Anna Yun was taken aback, “What?”
