

Chapter 990

The other side vainly tried to scare them with this atmosphere, but they were afraid that they didn't know that Jenny Jing and Biden Lu were mixing this path.

But that said, it's still on someone else's turf.

Therefore, with a cold face, Biden Lu asked Lu Lanzhi, "What's going on?"

Lu Lanzhi was also scared at this time, so she shuddered and told him what had happened.

It turns out that Lu Lanzie was originally hanging out at another bar called Nocturnal tonight.

But after playing for a while, I found that it was similar to the domestic one, which was boring, and I happened to hear from another woman who was drinking with her at the bar at the time that there was an underground bar here that was fun, so I came with her.

Arriving on this side of the world, Lucian really did see a lot of new things that he had never seen before.

She had a great time and had a great time all night.

Finally, the woman left at some point, just as a man stumbled up to her, looking as if he intended to molest her.

Lu Lanzhi had been messing around outside, and although she had always relied on her status as the eldest daughter of the Lu family, in reality, she was not a vegetarian.

Although she couldn't do anything else, she used to be forced by Old Lady Cen to practice judo, so she had no problem defending herself.

That's why Biden Lu would be relieved to let her out to play alone.

Therefore, at that time, Lu Lanzhi found something wrong with the man and subconsciously pushed him, but didn't expect the other party to pounce on her deadly after taking a step back and seeing her.

When Lu Lanzhi smelled the other man's stench, she was instantly disgusted and pushed and kicked the other man away.

But in the process of this pushing and kicking, and I don't know what happened, the other body was unsteady, but he fell to the ground, his head knocked on the glass coffee table next to him, dead.

Lucian was suddenly terrified.

She's never killed anyone, though she's always liked to fool around and never done anything good.

So when her fingers probed that the other side was actually out of breath, her first reaction was to flee.

But this side of the movement had already been noticed by those who were interested.

She was instantly surrounded by people before she had even left the booth.

Although Lu Lanzhi had also brought her bodyguards over, but she had only brought two or three, and with so many people against the Lord, and the fact that this matter seemed, on the surface, to have been a reasonable loss for her, she couldn't really kill someone and still leave unharmed, so the bodyguards had no choice.

So that's why Lu Lanzhi called Biden Lu and asked him to come over and help out.

After Biden Lu listened to her story, his face grew darker and darker.

Jenny pulled on his sleeve, secretly reminding him that he was outside at this time, so don't rush to blame Lu Lanzhi yet.

Then, look across at the man.

"Don't worry, if it's true that my aunt killed someone, we'll take responsibility to the end, but before we do that, can I take a look at the deceased?"

The person on the other side nodded when they saw that they weren't angry or in denial, and that their attitude was still good.

Jenny stepped forward and crouched down, carefully examining the deceased lying on the ground.

There were only bruises on the other's face, probably covered by tattoos, so Lucian didn't notice before.

And on his forehead, there was a large wound, from which blood was pouring out.

The brawny guy at the head said, "See, we didn't lie to you, it was your family that pushed him over and hit the table before he died, and she's still trying to deny it!"

Lu Lange retorted, "I wasn't trying to cheat! You're the ones who are talking nonsense, and it's obvious that he..."

"Auntie!" Jenny interrupted her, stopping her from saying what she wanted to say next.

After all, this was someone else's territory, and although she and Biden Lu were not afraid of each other, there were times when it was best to avoid strife as much as possible.

Besides, they will be coming over here to do business in the future, and these local snakes, try not to get into a stalemate, and there will be less trouble.

Thinking so, she examined the dead man's head more closely.

Just as I touched the back of the other man's head, I suddenly noticed a hint of something wrong.

Just as Jenny frowned, intending to examine it more closely, a voice hurriedly came over.

"Awwww, Miss Lu, what's going on here?"

The crowd turned back, but it was Boss Yu.

Boss Yu had probably just heard of their accident and had come from home, his clothes still a bit disheveled.

Jenny stood up and gave him a deep look.

"What's Boss Yu doing here?"

Boss Yu laughed, "Didn't I hear that you guys had an accident? Just hurry over here."

Jenny narrowed his eyes.

"We've only just arrived, and you've arrived so quickly, I can't tell, Boss Yu is quite well-informed."

Boss Yu's face stiffened.

In fact, although his people had gone back, he did have someone to pay special attention to the movements of Biden Lu and the others.

But he could swear to the heavens that he definitely didn't have any bad thoughts, and the reason he was doing this was simply to be able to better please Biden Lu and the others, to facilitate his service to them, and to brush up his performance value and presence in front of them.

Boss Yu smiled awkwardly, not good to say this reason directly, can only explain with a strong smile, "So it's not destiny, my family lives near here, just went out to buy cigarettes, heard people say that someone was killed here, so I wanted to come over to take a look, did not expect to come over and see is you guys."

He said, seemingly unwilling to dwell on the subject, and instead took a step forward to look at the dead man on the ground.

"Yo, why is there so much blood?"

Jenny took the handkerchief handed over by Biden Lu, wiped his fingers and said in a soft voice, "There's certainly blood from such a big hole in your forehead."

Boss Yu took a glance at her and saw that she didn't change her face or heart, and arched his hands in admiration.

"Mrs. Lu is so brave, I'm impressed, impressed."

Jenny didn't say anything and turned to ask Lu Lanzhi, "Aunt, have you seen this person before?"

She always thought it was a little strange that the man had suddenly come to see Lucian.

Lucian looked at the other, thinking, and frowned.

"I think something looks familiar, but I can't remember where I've seen it before."

Jenny raised an eyebrow.

At this point, only Boss Yu also could not help but to go forward and look over the face of the deceased, this look at the sudden shock.

"Gosh, why him?"

Jenny was stunned and turned to look at Boss Yu.

"What? Does Boss Yu know him?"

"How can you not know? Isn't this the guy who got into a fight on the street last night? It's the one that beat up someone's 1.5-meter-plus big man into the hospital!"

Chapter 991

Jenny remembered at once.

Her face also changed slightly.

Suddenly he crouched down and touched the back of the dead man's head again, with a plan in mind.

Biden Lu said in a deep voice, "What's wrong?"

Jenny shook his head, "Call the police and get the coroner to test it, I don't blame my aunt for this, I'm not afraid even if I call the police."

Lucius panicked at the sound of it.

"Jenny ah, you can't call the police ah, murder is against the law, if you call the police your aunt's life will be over."

Although the Lu family was powerful, if she really killed someone, she didn't expect Biden Lu or the two old ladies to bend the law to absolve her for her sake.

Jenny Jing reached out her hand and patted the back of her hand reassuringly, "Don't worry, you didn't kill the person."

"Huh?"

Biden Lu was very surprised, but beside that, Biden Lu had already understood something from her words.

He turned to the brawny men, "You're okay with calling the police, right?"

The men on the other side looked at each other, two of them looking at each other and seeing the guilt in each other's eyes.

They raged, "No, what's the point of calling the police when the road is settled on the road? You will either pay for it today or keep this woman's life, one life for one life, or no one will walk out of here!"

As soon as he said this, Biden Lu's eyes chilled.

Boss Yu was afraid of a fight between the two sides and was busy coming forward to smooth things over.

"Eh, guys and gals, listen to me, there's a chance that this whole thing really isn't this Miss Lu's fault, you probably don't know that, do you? Your companion had a fight with someone on the street last night, and he fought pretty hard. I just noticed a big bag on the back of his head, and I seriously doubt that it was a bruise that blocked a blood vessel. Can't really be beaten down by her, can we?"

The words made the other side look even worse.

"What? You mean you don't want to pay for it?"

Although Boss Yu had traveled south and had a lot of courage, he was after all a weak-willed businessman.

As soon as the other side's forces came up, he immediately wimped out and backed away.

A compensatory smile as I backed away, "I didn't mean it like that, it's just..."

"Okay, stop it! It's either pay for it or pay for it anyway, your choice!"

Biden Lu finally understood at this point.

I dare say that the other side is not even trying to really get justice, but is actually just trying to blackmail a sum of money.

Since he wants the money, he's in no hurry.

Biden Lu held Jenny Jing and sat down on the sofa next to the one Lu Lanzhi had been sitting on before, then looked at them in a good manner.

"It's okay if you want money, call your boss out and I'll talk to your boss."

The other side froze.

Obviously, I didn't expect that, having reached this point, Biden Lu could still be so calm.

They looked at each other with a bit of astonishment in their eyes.

Just then, a cheerful voice came over.

"Who's looking for me?"

I saw the crowd make way and a young, handsome man walked in from outside.

A group of big men, who were very arrogant earlier, came down in respect and walked over and shouted, "Boss."

The man waved his hand and looked at the man and woman sitting on the couch, followed by a big smile.

"Lu, why are you?"

Biden Lu also picked up a playful smile.

"Hahahahaha, I never thought I'd see you here after so many years of separation, I'm so happy."

The other side said, and came over to give Biden Lu a bear hug.

Everyone was stunned and didn't understand what was going on.

Biden Lu pushed him away with some disgust and laughed, "Okay, I didn't expect to meet you here, by the way, you didn't run off to do research, why did you come to this place to open a bar?"

Biden Lu was obviously very familiar with the other side of the twist.

The other smiled, "Harm, it's hard to explain."

He said, turning to his own men and asking them what this just happened.

The hand was a bit muddled in the head at the moment, but he still told him the truth about what had just happened.

The other party frowned, looked at Biden Lu, then at Lu Lanzhi, and finally, laid his eyes on the deceased.

"Let's get a coroner in here first, so they can see how it really happened."

He didn't look too good, and he obviously thought of something.

The hand was shocked and subconsciously tried to stop it, "Boss, this..."

"Don't go yet!"

When the man yelled, the other man immediately obeyed, "Yes."

Afterwards, they were told to carry the man down.

The rest of them saw the situation and knew that there was only going to be no more fun to be had in this matter today, which is why they dispersed in boredom and continued to play their own.

The bar where there had just been a murder and all the blood was still there, and now it was immediately back to singing and dancing as if what had just happened had never happened.

The man came over and smiled at Biden Lu, "It's dirty here, let's sit somewhere else."

He said, and led them to a secluded compartment on the first floor.

It's hard to think that in such a dirty and filthy underground bar, there's a big VIP box when you go upstairs.

On one side of the box were doors and walls, but on the other side was an all-glass sky garden, quite a paradise feel.

The man laughed as he took them inside, "Don't laugh, this is a resting place I've created for myself, it's too noisy down there, don't tell me you guys."

As soon as the door closed, all the sounds outside were actually isolated and couldn't be heard at all.

He smiled as he introduced it, "I was able to add ten layers of soundproof walls to create this, now does it feel quiet?"

Several people nodded.

Biden Lu took a look around, then turned to look at him.

"Go ahead! What are you doing here? I remember back then, but you followed your master and the others into the research group, so why did you come to this place?"

The other smiled, "Don't worry, you guys sit down first and I'll make you a pot of tea."

He said, letting Biden Lu and the others sit on the sofa in the garden, and then went to make tea himself.

Just as he was making tea, Lu Lanzhi curiously whispered, "Biden, who is he? You knew each other before?"

Biden Lu faintly said, "His name is Zhou Zi Ming, he used to be in the same school as me, we were classmates, I studied finance and he studied research, specializing in postgraduate chemistry, but it's been many years since I saw him."

Lu Lanzhi's face changed, "Research? That's talent, so how does that..."

Even Lu Lanzhi knew that the other party was a talent, and naturally Biden Lu didn't need to say anything.

Thinking of this, Biden Lu's eyes were deep.

Chapter 992

Zhou Ziming quickly made tea and poured a cup for each of them with a smile.

"I, ah, had an incident before and then left the research team, and it just so happened that I had a friend over here, so I came over for a visit, and I stayed and opened a bar because I liked the humanity of the place."

Zhou Ziming said as he poured the tea.

It's just not clear if that's true or not.

Biden Lu also did not pursue the question.

After all, in their position, there are times when it's no longer possible to be as simple with each other as it is with ordinary people.

Getting to the root of the matter doesn't change anything except for making the atmosphere awkward.

Jenny Jing sipped her tea and smiled, "I didn't think it was so fortunate, you guys are even classmates, and your aunt had an accident in your shop, Boss Zhou, I'm afraid no one will believe this coincidence if you say it."

Zhou Ziming moved.

Looked at her.

"This is..."

Biden Lu introduced, "This is my wife Jenny Jing, this is my aunt Lu Lanzhi, and this is Boss Yu."

Boss Yu was busy laughing and shaking hands with him.

Zhou Ziming laughed, "I see, I didn't realize you were married."

Since he was Biden Lu's wife, Zhou Ziming had nothing to hide.

He smiled awkwardly, "I'm really sorry, I should apologize to you for today's incident, the dead man, was one of the thugs in our bar, just now I checked, his death should have nothing to do with Miss Lu, but in order to convince the gang below, I still let the coroner to test it, you do not mind."

Jenny Jing smiled faintly, "Since you and Biden are classmates, of course we don't mind, we're just afraid that under your gang, we don't need forensic testing to actually know about that person already, right?"

The atmosphere instantly froze as soon as that was said.

Lu Lanzhi looked at them, her mind a little confused, feeling how she didn't seem to understand what they were saying.

Zhou Ziming took a deep look at Jenny.

"Mrs. Lu is so ice-cold smart, no wonder Biden has been single for so many years and was finally taken by you."

The stalemate lasted less than two seconds before he defused it with a smile.

He sighed, quite helpless: "Mrs. Lu is right, in fact, my men, ah, everything is good, but there are some bad habits can not change, I guess they see Miss Lu is a foreigner, and generous, so the moment they have a crooked mind, deliberately encouraged the long body abnormal Ah Fu to ram her, which led to this misunderstanding."

Lucius understood now, and stood up in a moment of excitement.

"So, I didn't kill anyone, it was you guys who touched the porcelain!"

Zhou Ziming looked embarrassed.

Jenny Jing smiled: "They are all experts in the boxing ring, they should be very familiar with this kind of injury, this person is also their colleague, they have spent a lot of time together on a regular basis, the back of his head has accumulated such a large bruise, I just saw a bulge from the outside, this means that he must have shown a lot of signs of something wrong during the day and night, such as dizziness. Such as walking in a strange posture, such as a pale face, those people obviously found something wrong with him and guessed a certain possibility, but also deliberately let him come and hit my aunt, not to say vicious, at least it can be said to be vicious, right?"

Jenny Jing's words caused Zhou Ziming's face to change completely.

Actually, it wasn't that he didn't know what Jenny had said.

Only, in the end, he was his own person, and originally had a biased mind, thinking that if he could cover up the past, it was best to cover it up first.

It would be a matter for his own family when he cleared himself back.

But I didn't expect it to be ordered by Jenny all at once now.

When Lu Lanzhi hears this, what's the point?

All at once, I couldn't sit still and raged, "Well, I thought that you guys were really looking for money from me because you were angry and pissed off about that dead guy, but now it turns out that it was simply blackmail from start to finish! Fine, if you do that, I won't be rude, I'll call the police immediately! Let's put your shitty bar out of business then!"

She said, about to take out her phone.

Biden Lu's headache caressed his forehead.

"Aunt."

He shouted.

Luci turned back, "What for?"

Jenny Jing had no choice but to calm her down, "Aunt, don't rush to call the police yet, this Boss Zhou has their own way of handling things since he and Biden are classmates, naturally, you should be a little more calm."

Lucian heard her say that, and that's when she reacted and put down her phone.

She looked to Zhou Zimei, "Tell me, what do you want to do about this?"

After a pause, he added, "I can make a deal beforehand, this matter involves me, don't look at you and Biden are classmates before I give you this face, but if you handle it in a way that makes me unsatisfied, I will just as well not let up."

She was now occupying a positive position, and at once her attitude changed.

Zhou Ziming also knew that if this matter today was not dealt with properly, there would only be no way to get rid of it.

A helpless smile stroked his forehead.

"Okay, Miss Lu doesn't have to worry, I will handle this matter beautifully and to your satisfaction, is that all right?"

Only then did Lu Lanzhi snorted softly.

It didn't take long for the coroner to bring in the test results.

As it turned out, as they expected, the other man's sudden death wasn't due to the wound on his forehead that Lu Lanzhi had hit by pushing him that way.

Rather, it was because, last night, when he was fighting with his opponent, he elbowed him in the back of the head, and he felt sick at the time, but since there was no trauma and no blood was seen, he paid no attention to it.

Later, when I returned, I did experience dizziness, nausea, and nausea.

His co-workers noticed that something was wrong with him, plus, the guy he fought with yesterday had a better relationship with them.

And this one, because of his size, has always been marginalized and discriminated against in the company, although he has always been very good at it.

So, they came up with a scheme to make a fortune out of this incident of his death.

In the end, they pick and choose among the customers and choose Lu Lanzhi, who is an outsider at first glance and has a lot of money.

Lucian is also unlucky.

She originally came over to see a novelty and spend a handful of money, but she didn't expect to be targeted and almost blackmailed for a sum.

The group didn't dare to make a big deal out of it, so they just wanted her to pay a sum of money and leave it at that.

I didn't expect to kick a metal plate this time.

Zhou Ziming sat there, his face dark and gloomy after hearing the coroner's account of it all.

And the fighters, knowing that things had been exposed, one by one, were uneasy, but at this point, they couldn't leave if they wanted to.
