

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 991

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 991- Charmine dragged Waverly into the room before Waverly could finish her sentence.

Bam!

The door was shut.

By the staircase, Anthony's well-built figure remained transfixed as his face stiffened.

What did Waverly say? Charmine cheated on him? What did she do with another man? i Was she guilty?

Luke walked in and asked, "President, would you like to fix the phone? Or have a look at the CCTV inside the room?"

Anthony's gaze turned to the shattered phone and then at the tightly shut door.

With just a nod, he would learn the truth.

However, Charmine wanted him to trust her. She wanted to tell her in person.

Inside the room...

Charmine tossed Waverly on the floor, who quickly stood up and glared at Charmine. "Charmine, what are you doing? Are you guilty? Scared? Do you know who I am? How dare you attack me? Have you thought of the outcome?"

“Hah. I’m not only attacking you, I’m going to slap you!” Charmine swung her palm and slapped her squarely across her cheek. 1

Slap!

The force sent her flying, and her cheek burned at the sheer brunt.

She fell on the floor again as she covered her face in pain, glaring daggers at Charmine as she did. “How dare you slap me! You’ll die for this, Charmine!”

“Ha! So what if I slap you? You’ve done such horrible and cruel things, and slapping you is nothing in comparison!” Charmine met the intensity of Waverly’s gaze coldly.

Waverly, who was just about to make a phone call, frowned when she heard Charmine’s words. “I don’t know what you’re talking about! You’re the one doing horrible things! How dare you cheat on Anthony with another man? You’re the horrible one!” 1

“If you hadn’t framed me from the start, would I have done so? Waverly, do you think I’m an idiot? Do you think I don’t know your plan?” Charmine glared at her with her chin held high, her lips curled up coldly.

Waverly halted. Charmine knew her plan?

Charmine scoffed, “You wanted the seniors of the Bailey family to deny Anthony to be with me from the very start. You even used the red wolf bone as a bait to bring me to the Cherny mansion and went as far as arranging the guards at the Cherny mansion with the aim of creating a bad impression of me toward the Chernys. After that, when I went to the expo, you arranged for someone to take photos, and Guy came to the Safford base because you told him. When we're in the forest, a henchman of yours stole the sword when I fainted, making it seem as though the Warrens were involved, so I went to their mansion. You knew that Guy's grandmother wants him to get married, so you used Grandma Warren to match me up with Guy. You then made us fall into the underground cellar. You're horrendous! I might still be stuck in that basement if I hadn't realized your plan now. I might even have to embrace Guy out of the cold while you take photos of us for Anthony, probably even bringing him to the basement to catch us!" 2

Charmine's every word was confidently articulated.

Waverly sat on the floor and there was a look of shock on her face.

She did not expect Charmine to have figured it out. Charmine actually knew

She had planned this for so long. What if Charmine ruined it? 1 She did not want to lose!

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 992- Waverly stood up from the floor. She tried her best to maintain a cold smile.

“Charmine, what you said are just your speculations. You’re pushing it to me when you’re the one in the wrong! I just managed to get some photos and wanted to show them to Anthony out of kindness. Don’t forget: These photos still exist no matter what you say or however you try to frame me. You did have intimate moments with Guy! If you dare, you’ll let me go out and show these photos to Anthony! You’re stopping me because you’re guilty!” i “Ha! I don’t need you to remind me! I’ll tell him what he should know. You, on the other hand...” Charmine’s figure screamed violence as her fingers moved.

Instantly, a silver needle stealthily pricked into Waverly’s body, and she suddenly felt a sharp pain that coursed throughout her body as she stood.

The excruciating pain felt like a knife was stabbed into her body, and it was as if a churning machine was trying to cut her body in pieces.

“Argh!”

She moaned out in pain as she curled up, helplessly clutching her abdomen.

“Ch...Charmine... What did you do to me?!” i

“I merely used a needle to prick on your deadly spot! If you don’t return the sword, you’ll suffer in pain that will only prolong every day until you rot to death!”

snapped the merciless Charmine. 1

She pulled Waverly in the room so she could retrieve the sword!

As long as she returned the sword to the Cherny mansion and completed the mission before Anthony realized the entire plan, she could at last obtain the red wolf bone.

She could then come clean to Anthony afterward!

Waverly knew what Charmine wanted. She repressed her pain and glared back at Charmine coldly. "Charmine, do you think you can control me this way? Don't forget that the D'Cruz family is rich with medicinal knowledge! It's just one needle, and I have ways of extracting it! For what you've done to me today, I want you to feel worse than death!" i

She then picked up her phone on the floor and phoned Max, but just as he answered, Charmine smiled coldly. "The deadly point is the most unique acupoint in the body. If you cut it open and bring it out, not only will you get a scar on your stomach, but the needle is now in your vein, and you'll die from massive blood loss if your vein is cut open!" i Waverly's hand that held her phone shook.

Scar...and die from massive blood loss...?

"No! You're lying to me, Charmine!"

On the other side of the phone, Max growled, "How can you be so cruel, Charmine, how can you be so cruel?! How dare you do this to the heiress of the D'Cruz family! I want you dead!"

'You two are the cruel ones from the get-go. I'm giving you half an hour to send the sword to the Cherny mansion! If not, once it's past half an hour, even if you agree by then, I won't help her to get the needle out!" sneered Charmine heartlessly.

Waverly and Max gasped at the same time.

Half an hour?

The sword was indeed with Max, but even if he left quickly, it would take him half an hour to get there!

Charmine even timed it precisely!

Waverly was about to speak when she suddenly felt the sharp pain all over again.

"Argh!"

She was in so much pain that she could not maintain her image anymore as she rolled on the floor.

Her forehead was coated with sweat within just a short while as her hair and clothes were drenched with sweat. She looked like a woman who had just given birth, i

Charmine then warned her out of 'kindness', "Oh, right, I forgot to tell you. If I don't remove the needle from you, you'll feel a sharp pain like what you're experiencing all over your body every two minutes."

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 993-“Any second wasted is your loss!”

Waverly was in so much pain that she nearly lost her senses as she rolled on the floor, whimpering as she did.

Max, hearing it all from the other end of the call, felt his heart wrenched at the sound.

A moment later, he conceded, “Okay! I’ll send the sword right away! You must take out the needle from her now!”

“Apologies, I must verify the sword to make sure it’s legit,” remarked Charmine.

Waverly and Max were furious but they had no other choice...

Waverly’s life was in Charmine’s hands-a second delay meant more pain for Waverly.

Max dared not to waste anymore time as he instantly hung up and left with the sword. Waverly, meanwhile, wanted to stop him but she was in too much pain. She had not felt so much pain in her life.

The pain was so overwhelming that she could not even utter one word. She could only grasp at her stomach in hopes of relieving the pain, even if just a little. i Charmine glared at her. “Before I come back, do savor this moment. This is the price you’re paying for what you did to me in the past few days!”

After scoffing that, Charmine walked out and locked the door from the outside.

For safety purposes, she put on an extra lock.

At that moment, Anthony was sitting on the sofa in the living room as he glowered.

Charmine's words still rang in his head, and he recalled how Charmine crashed the phone.

She was hiding things from him.

Charmine momentarily jolted when she spotted him, but she still walked toward him nonetheless. "Anthony, I need to go out. I'll fix it within an hour and come home. Before then, I hope you don't listen to what others say, especially Waverly. When I come back, I'll tell you everything. If you don't listen to me, we might have to break up."

Anthony frowned. Break up?

The matter was that severe?

Charmine came up to him and landed a kiss on his forehead before she solemnly spoke, "Please remember what I say. I hope you don't listen to what others say. Wait for me to come back."

With that said, she took the car key and walked out.

Anthony gazed as she walked away, eyes darkening as he did. He could hear Waverly constantly banging the door from inside the room. His hand stiffened, but he remained seated.

Chris happened to return home when Charmine went out, and she reached out to ruffle his head. “Momo, Mommy has an urgent matter to attend to. You take care of your Daddy in the meanwhile, and don’t let him speak to that ‘nobody1 or anyone else!”

“Alrighty!” Chris nodded diligently.

After getting inside the car, she drove away at high speed.

As long as she took back the sword and handed it to the Cherny family, she could get the red wolf bone to cure Chris!

She had decided at last that she would officiate her relationship with Anthony after this day. They could not go on like this anymore. 1

Meanwhile, at the Granger mansion...

Upon returning home, Guy went at it at the sandbag in the training base. Beads of sweat dribbled non-stop as his clothes were drenched. 1

Dior stood by him as she asked, confused, “Brother, what are you doing? You’ve been punching for two hours! What made you so angry? What actually happened?”

Guy said nothing as he continued to swing his fists at the bag.

A hundred kilograms of sandbag was sent flying two meters away. It was apparent that Guy was taking out his anger.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 994-Dior frowned.

She had never seen Guy in such a state before; he had always kept himself in check from a young age. Nothing could make him lose his cool other than some official matters.

Worried about her brother, she then tried to find a topic. "Brother! I'm talking to you! Are you upset? Why don't we go out for a drink? Don't you have a new friend? You haven't introduced that Charlie guy to me!" i Guy's body stiffened when she mentioned Charlie.

His eyes showed how much pain he was in. His voice was hoarse and thick as he replied, "He won't come back. We can't be friends..."

She told him she had a child and a husband; he stood no chance at all.

Everything she did in the past two days was for her family.

He thought he met the one, yet she was impossible to be with...

Frowning, Dior grabbed at Guy's hand. "Brother, what do you mean? What happened to Charlie? What happened?"

Guy did tell her that Charlie was a woman in disguise. Of course, she did not believe him.

How could there be such a handsome and bold woman in the world?

She conducted her own investigation on the matter and eventually found out that Charlie indeed existed and he was a man. Dior thus thought Guy lied to her and did not want her to get close to Charlie.

When she heard about Charlie, she was nervous and felt her heart in her throat.

Guy, however, was not in the mood to explain. He pushed her away and continued to punch at the sandbag.

Thomp! Thomp! Thomp!

The sandbag shook vigorously.

Dior saw how emotional Guy was, and she frowned deeply. "Brother! What actually happened? Why won't Charlie come back? Why can't you be friends with him? Weren't you two close? Did something happen to him? Is he heard? Does he have cancer? Is he...dead...?" 3

She slowly broke down into tears as she spoke before she ran toward Guy, blocking him from the punching bag. "I won't let you punch if you don't explain. Punch me if you dare-argh!"

Guy had swung his jab at Dior's arm before she even finished.

He did not expect Dior to run over; he was not quick enough to react.

Dior was sent flying away by the impact, i

Thomp!

She fell onto the grass.

"Dior!" Finally regaining his senses, Guy instantly rushed over to help her.

Dior pulled on his arm. "Brother, tell me: what's the matter with Charlie?!"

Her eyes were filled with worry and uneasiness.

Seeing her eyes, Guy eventually began after a long while of silence, "I didn't lie to you the other day. What I said was true.”

Dior frowned. Was it true? Was Charlie truly a woman in disguise?

Impossible...

Guy sat down beside her and told her everything from the beginning before he concluded, “She did everything to gain the support from Cherny family and get the red wolf bone. She has a child and a husband. When we parted today, she wanted me to get over her and stop having any hope at all, or I’d become her burden...”

He recalled Charmine’s cold and decisive expression and his heart twitched in pain again...

Listening to Guy’s explanation, Dior was stunned silent, unable to believe it.

Charlie truly was a woman in disguise... Charlie was someone her brother liked!

It made sense after all... No wonder Guy always protected Charlie... He acted differently around Charlie...

Alas, she truly stood no chance with this handsome young man anymore...
No more...

How rare it was for her to fall for a guy, and he turned out to be a woman!

She wanted to cry, and cry she did as she flung herself into Guy’s arms and started wailing. Affected by her emotions, he began to sob as well. 1

An adult man like him was tearing up.

Dior sobbed for quite a while before easing up.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 995-When Dior saw how her usually emotionally stable brother cried and sobbed before her, she was worried.

She had never seen her brother this upset. This was her brother's first love!

No. She had to think of a way to help her brother.

Since her crush did not become her boyfriend, she wanted this woman to become her sister-in-law!

With a thought in mind, she instantly stood up and ran away.

Guy watched her running away, thinking she was just very upset and did not go after her.

As he laid on the grass and closed his eyes, he saw Charmine's smile and action replaying in his head.

He decided to do sit-ups in an attempt to distract himself with exercises.

At the gate of the Cherny mansion.

Charmine pulled over and saw that Max was already waiting for her there. She walked over and asked coldly, 'Where's the sword?'

A bodyguard walked over and opened the box for her to examine.

There was a sword laying inside the box.

Max glared at her. 'The sword is here. You have to go back and treat

Waverly right now!'

“Apologies, but I’m now holding the upper hand, and you don’t have the right to instruct me!” With that said, Charmine walked over and reached out to get the box from the bodyguard.

The bodyguard held on to the box and looked at Max.

Max’s expression contorted bitterly, but at the thought of the pained Waverly, he had to nod.

The bodyguard let go.

Charmine thus took the sword and walked into the Cherny mansion.

The guards by the gate knew her and thus did not stop her from entering.

In the training base, the seven sons were hanging upside down as they did difficult sit-ups.

When they saw Charmine, Steve frowned. “Why is this woman here? Didn’t we say that she’s not allowed to come in anymore!?”

“Don’t speak yet. Soon, you’ll look at her differently!” said Phil smilingly as he jumped down from the bar and made his way toward her.

“Charmine, why did you come? Is that the sword?”

“Yes, this is the actual one. Where’s your father?” asked Charmine.

“He’s inside. Let’s go, I’ll bring you to him,” assured Phil as he led Charmine inside.

The other six men watched on and exchanged glances with one another, i Did their eyes play tricks on them? Why was Phil so friendly toward Charmine all of a sudden?

Did he not scorn Charmine before?

Charmine, meanwhile, ignored their gazes as she walked inside.

Hugh was on a call when they came in, and he hung up for them.

“Charmine, you came.”

“Yeah, I brought it in exchange for the red wolf bone,” said Charmine as she handed the box and opened it.

Shock and excitement rushed within Hugh as he saw the sword laying inside the box.

This was indeed the sword that belonged to the Cherny family. They had looked for it for so long, and it was finally returned to them! i

He asked with disbelief, “How did you get it? Did it not disappear without a trace?”

“It’s a long story, but that’s no matter as long as I get it back. I have other things to attend to, and I hope Mr. Cherny will keep your word,” Charmine reminded him. 1

Hugh halted and covered up the box. He then handed it to Phil.

Phil knew that they had to talk, so he accepted the box and walked out.

There were only the two of them left in the room. Hugh looked at Charmine and said, "Charmine, I remember the promise. However, I'm very sorry, I can't give you the red wolf bone yet." 2

What?

Why?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 996- Charmine frowned. She asked suspiciously, "Why?" 'To be honest with you, that red wolf bone doesn't just belong to the Chernys; me and Guy's father found it.

However, he's mostly at sea, so the bone is kept in the Cherny mansion. I phoned them up earlier to let them know that I'm giving the bone to you, and while they agreed to it, you'll have to marry Guy," Hugh explained patiently. 2 Charmine's eyes narrowed. To get married to Guy?

"Not happening. Mr. Cherny, I told you on the first day that I was married with a child."

'That's why I said that I can't let you have it for now. You need to think it through," replied Hugh.

Charmine clenched her fists. 1

That meant they would not give her the red wolf bone until she married Guy, did it not?

How was she supposed to explain everything to Anthony without the bone? 1

She asked, "Didn't you tell the Grangers about my past? I told Guy that we won't work out. The Grangers deserve someone better.”

“Charmine, what era are we in? The Grangers aren’t narrow-minded people.

They checked on you and said you have potential. They admire independent women like you, and they don’t mind about your family or your past with Julian.

As for your relationship with Anthony, they knew that the child isn’t yours. Even if he is, the Grangers voiced out, The woman that even Anthony fell for is unique.’

They want you. So, I think...” 1

Hugh sighed. “I’m stuck in the middle. I’m a man of my word, but they took the bone away. If you don’t want to be with Guy, the Cherny family will owe you a favor.” 2

His tone was hopeless and apologetic.

If Hugh was the one not letting her have the bone, Charmine could still beat him up. However, Hugh made it clear that he did not have a say in this. What else could she say?

“I understand,” came her simple reply.

With that, she turned and walked away.

Hugh gazed at her back as he called out, “You can consider Guy, Charmine. He’s a good man. The Granger family is of the national navy service.

They’re good people, unlike the Baileys. Being with Guy will make you happier than being with Anthony.” 2

Charmine did not even turn back as she marched out, only speaking with conviction as she got to the gate, 'There are many good men in the world, and I can only love one!" 1

Her cold tone was wild and arrogant.

Phil was eavesdropping outside. He did not expect Charmine to come out so soon saying that.

His respect for her instantly heightened. This cousin of his truly was admirable!

Not only was she beautiful, but she had a stunning personality and a bold way with her words!

So many people in the world dreamt of marrying Guy, yet Charmine was unwilling to and stayed loyal?

Goodness. What an idol!

Charmine drove out of the Cherny mansion, restless as she did.

She failed to get the bone. How was she supposed to tell Anthony everything?
1

She was busy for nothing in the past few days!

She thought she could officiate their relationship once she got the bone. They could get married publicly, and it would be worth all the troubles. 2

Little did she expect this to happen...

If Anthony found out about her contact with Guy, he would be so mad!

He might want to kill her... 1

Meanwhile, at Violet Residence.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 997-
Anthony was still seated on the sofa as an ominous aura emanated from him.

Chris, meanwhile, sat not too far from him as he did his homework, though his gaze would dart around from time to time.

What happened? Why did Anthony seem different?

At that moment, Luke walked in. "President, we found something. On that night, a woman was trying out a new phone not far from the Safford territory, and she used the super-zoom function to take a photo that captured the image of two people sitting on the motorbike."

As he spoke, he handed the printed-out photo to Anthony.

As Anthony was about to look at it, Chris suddenly launched toward him, snatched the photo from his hands, and tore it into pieces.

Anthony frowned. "Momo, what are you doing?"

"Argh...?" Seemingly snapping back to reality, Chris looked around and then said with a dumbfounded look, "Why am I here? Wasn't I doing my homework?"

Why am I here? Hmm! I must've been sleepwalking. Yes, sleepwalking!" he answered himself before walking back to the table. 2

Anthony's eyes darkened as he looked at Luke.

Luke instantly took out another photo. "Luckily, I made another copy."

Chris, who was walking away, suddenly turned back. He reached out to snatch the photo again when a large hand caught his small wrist, disabling him from moving. 1

Anthony looked at him. "Sleepwalking again?"

"I...I..." Chris looked around, unable to come up with an excuse.

Anthony pulled him back and put him on the sofa as he received the photo from Luke.

It was Charmine on the motorbike with Guy behind her. Although she wore a black agent costume with the collar covering her face, even with sunglasses on, her bold posture and temperament were still recognizable. 1

Guy, as the photo showed, had his hands on her waist as he sat behind her.

The photo made them seem like a couple.

Anthony's expression was dark as ink.

This photo made it apparent that it was Charmine who stole the sword from the Safford territory. 1

Charmine did it with another man! Behind Anthony's back, she came so close with another man!

It made sense... It made sense why Charmine suddenly came looking for him when he was examining the motorbike trace. She even offered him access to national security for him to investigate.

He was so touched, yet it was revealed at last she was merely trying to distract him out of guilt. 1

She had been lying to him since then!

With something in mind, he took out the mini phone from Chris' pocket, and the boy was too late to stop him.

Anthony unlocked the phone and saw his conversation with Charmine.

Charmine was actually using Chris to ruin his investigation?

Charmine was using a child!?

So, Chris wanted to ruin the evidence because Charmine asked him to? 1 Expression contorted into cold fury, Anthony glared at Chris coldly. "Chris Bailey, you're already five. How can you get fooled? If you're so stupid, do you still want your Mommy?"

Chris was dumbfounded.

He saw the photo. He did not expect his Mommy to be the hero who stole the sword!

Thinking back, Charmine used him as a cover, and she even used him to Charmine and the man behind her...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 998-With that in mind, Chris shook his head. "There must be a misunderstanding! It's probably more than what we see. As Mommy said, she asked us to wait. She'll come back later and explain to us in person!”

Anthony scoffed.

Explain? How would she explain everything? Whatever explanation she had, she still had close contact with this man!

Anthony instructed coldly, “Investigate this! Within three minutes, give me his information!”

Luke instantly went ahead to find out more about Guy and, as ordered, returned three minutes later with a thick stack of papers.

“President, he...he... Have a read of him yourself.”

Luke placed down the information and instantly went away to the door. He did not want to be involved.

Anthony frowned. Why was Luke so scared?

He picked up the documents and his face stiffened.

Guy Granger: heir of the Granger family of the Navy General family.

The Grangers and the Chernys even had an arranged marriage proposal!

Anthony suddenly recalled how Charmine denied having any contact with the Chernys when he asked, and she even blamed him for suspecting her.

It seemed that Charmine had indeed talked to the Chernys and even considered marrying into the Granger family!

Well, well!

The cold fury he emanated intensified, and it made Chris—who was next to him—shiver and ran away from him.

He had to contact Charmine right away. He had to make sure she explained everything to Anthony as soon as possible, 1

Otherwise...

Anthony was left alone in the living room. Not far away, Waverly was still knocking on the door.

She lied on the ground as she wailed in pain. It was so intense that she almost fainted. 1

She did not want to suffer for nothing. Anthony had to get the photos. She must make sure of that.

Since Anthony was not opening the door, she had other ways to make it happen!

With a thought in mind, she pulled herself up with difficulty and took out her backup phone to phone Max. “Brother, the photos... Hack Anthony’s phone and send them to him...argh! It hurts...! He must see the photos!”

Max saw Charmine leaving, and he frowned. “If you do this, Charmine won’t treat you!”

“Don’t...don’t worry... Even if I have to die, I won’t make it easy for Charmine!

Furthermore, I have something...else in mind...” hissed Waverly as she struggled to speak.

With that, Max could only relent, "Okay."

Anthony was still on the sofa in the living room, mien cold and irked.

The knocking eventually stopped.

Unable to hold it anymore, Luke mustered his courage to ask, "Boss, do you want to let Waverly out? Listen to what she has to say..."

It was not a good idea to prolong the matter, after all.

Anthony's hands that rested on the armrest tensed.

Of course he knew, but he also remembered what Charmine said before she left.

She told him to hear it from her in person.

If he listened to Waverly, the situation would only worsen.

Although he was at the verge of breaking, he had to hold on.

At that moment... Ring!

The phone on the table let out an urgent warning tone.

After a moment, his phone screen went black and started playing a slideshow of photos after photos.

There was a photo of Charmine and Guy going into the Cherny mansion together; Charmine disguised as Charlie; Charlie opening the sword box with Dior; Guy getting cut while trying to protect Charlie.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 999-The slideshow showed Charmine stealing the sword with Guy and of them leaving. There were also photos of them completely drenched in the forest,

Charmine leaning on Guy's shoulder, and also of Guy carrying Charmine to his home.

Anthony's hands clenched so tightly that his veins protruded as his gait grew bitterly, angrily cold.

Charmine cheated on him for so long and spent so much time with Guy! i Charlie was also Charmine!

No wonder he had feelings for Charlie. He thought he was becoming queer and felt sorry for Charmine, but who would have thought that Charmine was with Guy at that time! 2

He was on the verge of exploding. He wanted to crash the phone but the slideshow was still playing.

By the end of the slideshow, the photos grew even more intimate!

There was Charmine, disguised as Ann Liam, pulled by Grandma Warren as she was asked to be with Guy.

In another, Charmine was on the sofa with her clothes torn out, and Guy was bent down beside her, seemingly helping her to insert the needles.

His large hand nearly grazed Charmine's skin!

The slideshow even showed how they both fell into the basement, with Charmine falling on top of Guy's body!

Smash!

Anthony, no longer able to hold back his anger, slammed his palms against the armrest, and the impact caused visible cracks to form on the armrests. 3

Luke was terrified. He instantly went forward to turn the phone over on the table.

“Boss... These photos must’ve been photoshopped, they must’ve been!

Please calm down-please wait for Madam to be back...”

“Get out!”

Two words, cold and with fury.

Luke’s back broke out with beads of sweat.

Judging Anthony’s behavior, something big would happen! 1

He wanted to comfort him but Anthony abruptly shot up and grabbed his car key to leave.

His pace was incredibly quick as if he was a black shadow instantly that vanished into thin air.

Luke could only rush upstairs and called out, “Young Master, Young Master, it’s bad! Something big is about to happen!”

Chris fumbled with his phone as he tried to dial, but the voice repeated,

“Sorry, the number you’ve dialled is currently unavailable.”

Oh, no! Why was Charmine’s phone turned off at this moment?! 1

He had to tell Charmine!

Charmine drove a steady pace toward Violet Residence.

Her eyelids fluttered and felt as though something bad was about to happen. 1 Above all, she had no idea how to explain everything to Anthony. She did not get the bone, and without the cure for Chris' illness, she could not officiate their relationship... 1

If she could not officiate their relationship, what did she have to comfort Anthony?

Amid her tumultuous thoughts, a loud revving of a vehicle's engine was heard as a black car drove toward her, and it effectively blocked her path.

Startled, she quickly pulled up the brake.

She looked ahead to see the door opened, and a tall and well-built figure got out of the car.

It was Anthony!

Even though it was daytime with the sun shining in the sky, Anthony still exuded
a bitter-cold aura. 1

It was as if he was the lord from hell, that one look of his could pull one into a bottomless abyss. 1

Charmine's heart throbbed. Anthony...

Judging his expression, he must have figured it out.

He did not wait for her to explain to him and he already knew everything.

Just as she was about to get out...

Click!

Anthony forcefully opened her car door and grabbed her wrist to pull her out.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1000-
Charmine frowned. “Anthony, you...”

Anthony gave her no chance to speak as he pulled her to his black car and forced her into the backseat. Shutting the door and going into the car himself, he locked the door from the inside. It was the ultimate lock, and there was no way of opening it. 1

Charmine had just straightened herself, but before she could put on the safety belt, Anthony had stepped on the pedal and sped away.

The speedometer showed to the furthest right; he was driving at the fastest speed. He even drove past red lights uncaringly!

Alarmed, Charmine pulled on the safety belt and reminded him, “Anthony, are you crazy!? Stop! Stop now!” Her plea, however, fell on deaf ears as Anthony continued to sped.

The car shot out from the city and turned to the highway.

The view outside the window flew by quickly, and Charmine felt the car almost flying.

They could die at this rate! She was unafraid of death, but what about Chris? They were adults; there was no point risking their lives for a small matter like this! 1

With that in mind, Charmine looked at Anthony and warned him, “Anthony! Calm down, please! If you have seen the photos, you should know that someone else gave them to you. This was a plot-I was framed!”

Framed!?

Pah!

A vicious glint appeared in Anthony’s eyes.

So what if she was framed?

Charmine did have intimate moments with Guys! They were so close to one another!

She was clearly drugged, but she did not even call out to him under the influence and instead waited for Guy to help her?

Would she have continued to hide things from him had Waverly not act out? i

How much longer would she spend time with Guy behind his back?

With those thoughts in mind, his face froze as he drove at the fastest speed.

The friction from the car’s tires sparked fireworks against the asphalt.

Charmine yelled out rationally, “The reason I didn’t tell you is because I wanted to get Momo the-argh!”

The car made an abrupt sharp turn before she could finish, and the force threw her against the car door.

She saw golden stars as she felt lightheaded, and it was only after a long while before she regained her senses. 1

By then, the car had already pulled over into a secluded forest.

Among the trees was a double-story villa built in a minimalistic style; a square, regularly shaped modern architecture. The sight of the villa made Charmine feel uneasy.

The car door flung open at that moment as Anthony pulled at her hand and forced her out of the car, dragging her into the villa.

The aura he emitted was so cold, the atmosphere seemingly dropped dangerously low in temperature as well.

Charmine sensed that he was about to do something, thus she quickly explained, "Anthony, please calm down! I did everything for Momo! The Cherny family has the red wolf bone with them, and it can cure Momo's illness! I had to get the sword on my own in exchange for the bone. What happened in between was plotted by Waverly. She told Guy about my whereabouts to cause...argh!"

Before she could finish, Anthony had already tossed her into the villa.

He glared at her coldly. "Do you think this is a good enough reason to calm me down?"

She got so close to Guy for a red wolf bone?

All because of a red wolf bone, she chose to trust Guy in the afternoon and let him hold her to insert the needles?
