

Chapter 993

Because it wasn't just Zhou Ziming's people watching them, the few bodyguards that Biden Lu had brought with him were also staring at them motionless at this point, just to prevent them from escaping.

The bodyguards that Biden Lu brought could be different from the ones that Lu Lanzhi brought.

The ones Lu Lanzhi brought with her were ordinary bodyguards, but the ones following Biden Lu were professionally trained and retired from the battlefield.

The momentum was completely different from their mixed underground black boxing.

It was a coldness and killing that could easily not be erased after being soaked in blood and battlefield.

Just stopping there makes you cringe.

Under such circumstances, they didn't even have the thought of resisting, let alone escaping.

Soon, Zhou Zimei gave his solution to the problem.

In the end, he's still his man and doesn't put up with the death penalty, but just lets the group all come and apologize to LuLangi and then each of them break an arm so that they can't make a living fighting black boxing anymore and then let go.

Lu Lanzhi was only a woman, and when she heard such words as breaking her arm, her face went white with fear.

She was fond of fooling around, and her character was not exactly kind, but in the end she had never seen such a scene.

Hearing the screams coming from outside, he also asked Jenny somewhat weakly, "Jenny, isn't this... a bit too much?"

At the end of the day, she had nothing to lose now that the matter was out in the open.

Jenny Jing said in a soft voice: "Aunt, they are black boxers, already capable of bullying others in life, but also malicious, not only do they have no sympathy, but also use the death of their colleagues to blackmail others, today we are here to investigate the truth of the matter, and Aunt, your identity is extraordinary, naturally can also be safe, but what if it was someone else? If it were an ordinary person they were blackmailing today, do you think she would still be as lucky as you are to not only perfectly resolve the crisis, but also seek the truth to clear her name?"

Lucian was stunned.

At this point, Jenny Jing faintly looked at Zhou Ziming again.

"He who carries a weapon does not use it to bully the weak and innocent, or no one will die, but heaven will die, Boss Zhou."

Where would Zhou Ziming fail to hear that she was knocking herself for saying that.

Smiling helplessly, "Mrs. Lu said so."

Only then did Jenny Jing turn to Lu Lanzhi again and whispered, "If they don't receive a heavy punishment today, they will repeat the same stunt again next time, and there will be a second victim, you are intolerant for them, so who is going to be intolerant for the next victim?"

Only then did Lucian understand and nodded his head.

"You're right, this kind of person is too shameless to let go easily."

Jenny smiled slightly.

He also said: "Moreover, only ruined their arm, but did not take their lives, if they really rehabilitate, they can still work in other jobs in the future, the arm to go to the hospital, just can not lift heavy objects and boxing, I believe that the boss Zhou is such a merciful person, will not let them go, will give them a relaxed, can let them live. Work, isn't it?"

Zhou Ziming was even more surprised this time.

He had thought that Jenny had only guessed the motives and actions of the group.

But I didn't realize that she even analyzed her own psychology.

Indeed, as Jenny had said, these people had followed him for so many years.

He wasn't a cruel man, and he couldn't really do it if he wanted to leave them alone and fend for themselves.

After all, no one knew better than him that this group of people had been trained to fight t-fist since they were young, and they lived and died in the boxing ring, and they were rich and famous, and that was how they made their living with a pair of fists.

They're used to living like this, and now all of a sudden they're left with no way to box, so what are they going to do out there?

He laughed awkwardly, "Mrs. Lu is not only ice-cold smart, but also understanding, she even guessed what I was thinking, in that case, I won't hide it, yes, that's what I was planning, but I wasn't just thinking of them either."

He said, pausing and looking up at Jenny.

"They have made mistakes, but their crimes don't deserve death, I'm sure you think so too, or else you wouldn't agree with my decision to punish them like this, but have you ever thought that they know nothing else but boxing, and if you just kick them out, how will they survive in the future?"

"Don't tell me, if they work hard enough, there are all kinds of professions out there to make a living, and if they are really willing to work as hard as ordinary people from 9 to 5, they wouldn't come here to box, so when they go out, the biggest possibility is that they will go down the wrong path and become criminals, and after all, who will suffer in the end?"

"It doesn't matter that they've come to this point, their lives are rotten anyway, but this kind of instability can easily cause social unrest, and then Mrs. Lu might have been well-intentioned and didn't want these evil people to have a good end, but they did bad things with good intentions and ended up hurting even more people, so wouldn't that be even worse?"

Jenny looked at him.

The man in front of him, with a thin figure and a pair of gold wire glasses, looked more like a high-class white collar working in an office building than a tiny king of such an underground world just by looking at the surface.

Before, she thought that she was looking the other way, but until he spat out the words, she didn't know that she wasn't looking the other way.

How else to say it, after all, what about Biden Lu's former classmates who were high achievers?

This vision, this insight, this worrying heart, is by no means an ordinary person.

She quirked her lips slightly and smiled.

"I understand what Boss Zhou said and agree with you, so I don't have a problem with what you did at all."

After a pause, he added, "But I also want your assurance that they will never do anything for evil again under your hand."

Zhou Ziming immediately looked solemn and said, "I guarantee that as long as I am here, they will never have the chance to do anything bad again, and if they do, I will be merciless and bring up their heads to ask Mrs. Lu for forgiveness."

He looked like this, making Jenny laugh all of a sudden.

"What's the excuse with me, in the end we're just minding our own business, and we have nothing to do with this."

I said, turning to look at Biden Lu. Biden."

Biden Lu smiled at the enemy and nodded as well.

He held Jenny's hand and looked at Zhou Ziming.

"We don't care about your business, and since this has nothing to do with my aunt, I'm taking the man away."

Zhou Ziming nodded incessantly and stood up.

"In any case, I still have to apologize to you for today's incident, it was the people under my command who were ignorant and rushed Miss Lu."

Chapter 994

By this time, this Zhou Ziming had already taken things to this point, so naturally, Lu Lanzhi could not blame him anymore.

So too, he smiled awkwardly and waved his hand.

"Never mind, now that you've said that, I'll be an adult and leave you alone for now."

"But remember, too, no more of those people coming out to do nonsense, or I won't be able to stop at the end."

Zhou Zimei nodded.

"Don't worry Miss Lu, I will oversee this matter to the end and never let this type of thing happen again."

The group of people saw nothing more and got up to leave.

Zhou Zimei stopped them again.

He smiled, "It is said that it is better to meet each other than to encounter each other, I did not expect to meet you this time in T. Since I am here, and I have more than a few offenses, later on, if you still want to stay in T, why don't you contact me, I can take you around, one is to make amends, and the other is to do your part as a landlord."

I said, taking out a stack of business cards and handing one to each of them.

After a faint glance, Lu Lanzhi said, "We'll stay for two more days, so I'll contact you if we need anything."

Zhou Zi Ming nodded, and only then did Biden Lu's group leave.

Out of the bar, Biden Lu did not ride in the same car as Lu Lanzhi.

Because Lu Lanzhi had driven herself over before, and Biden Lu and the others were driving another car, so when they got out, everyone got into their respective cars.

And Boss Yu, since he wasn't going back all the way with them, greeted them and left in his own car as well.

After everyone had left, Biden Lu and Jenny Jing sat in the car.

Only then did Jenny Jing couldn't help but exclaim, "I never thought that I would come out this time and it would just go over peacefully, but I would actually encounter something like this."

Biden Lu also nodded his head, "It's quite unexpected."

Jenny Jing asked curiously, "By the way, this Zhou Zimei feels so strange, I obviously feel that he has a sense of righteousness about him, why would he come to such a place and open such a smoky, underground bar that doesn't look like a serious place?"

Lu Jing looked at her with deep eyes, "Maybe he has some unavoidable hardship, I'm not really sure, we had a good relationship when we were in college, but then we went our separate ways after graduation and didn't contact each other anymore, so I don't really understand what he's been through over the years."

Jenny nodded with a snort.

"That's true, but I think he's a talent, and it's too buried to stay here."

Biden Lu held her hand.

"Well, don't get all sentimental about anyone else, how are you? Did you get scared just now, is your stomach okay?"

Jenny shook her head and smiled, "I'm fine, fine, your son is obedient and didn't disturb me, so don't worry."

Biden Lu saw this, and only then did he smile and take her into his arms.

Back at the hotel, although Jenny kept saying that he was fine, Biden Lu ran to Quexiu just in case and asked him to come over and take a look at Jenny.

Quexu and Mo Caiwei hadn't slept because they were worried about them, but now they knew they were back and came running over.

Lu Lanzhi was back in her room now and didn't come out, so Jenny told them about the bar.

They were both surprised to hear that this was happening.

Mo Caiwei sighed, "It's good that everything is fine, I was afraid that something would happen to you guys, it's not like you know anyone here, what will you do then."

Jenny smiled and patted her hand reassuringly.

"Mom, we're all fine, don't worry about it, it's just a misunderstanding."

Biden Lu also nodded, "Yes, you are not well, you should go back to rest early, we are fine here, it will be fine."

Mo Caiwei nodded at this sight.

At this time, Quexu had also finished checking for Jenny.

Biden Lu asked nervously, "How is it? All right?"

Quexu looked at him.

Looked a bit odd.

It was fine if he didn't look, but when he did, Biden Lu became even more nervous.

"Is she okay, Jenny?"

He asked again.

Quexu shook his head, "Nothing."

After a pause, he suddenly said, "You guys are pretty lucky."

"Huh?"

They were both stunned, not understanding what he meant by that.

Quexu said in a soft voice, "Congratulations, you're probably going to be two fathers at once this time."

Biden Lu was stunned, but quickly, he reacted.

"What did you, what did you just say? What do you mean two dads?"

I already had the answer in mind, but I still couldn't believe it.

Quexu said, "It means that your wife is pregnant with twins, it's still unclear whether it's a boy or a girl, but having two gestational sacs is a certainty, so you can be happy."

This was a statement that Biden Lu was really happy about.

Hugging Jenny just couldn't resist a heavy k*ss.

Mo Caiwei and Quexiu were a little embarrassed to see them, so they said to them and turned around and left to go back to their own rooms.

Jenny, however, was a little unresponsive.

Until they were all gone, her mind was still muddled, and her mind kept echoing what Quexu had just said.

Biden Lu smiled at her dumbfounded look and squeezed her face.

"Jenny, what are you thinking about? Isn't it a pleasure too?"

Jenny looked up at him.

That's when she finally reacted, and her face darkened.

"What am I happy about? Two! There are already two in the house, two more..."

Needless to say, she was already thinking about how torturous the rest of the day would be.

It's not that she doesn't like kids, but can you imagine having four kids in the house?

No matter how many maids we hire, she won't be able to keep busy when the kids want their mother.

Biden Lu knew her worries and smiled as he took her into his arms.

"Don't worry, I'll help you from now on to keep them from messing with you, Jenny, this is our child, a symbol of our love, and I'm really happy."

Jenny wasn't really unhappy in her heart.

After all, no mother is going to be unhappy that she's pregnant with twins.

Who wouldn't feel lucky to win two jackpots at once?

She couldn't help but smile at the thought of it.

Leaning his head against Biden Lu's bosom, he whispered, "Do you think they're boys or girls?"

Biden Lu whispered, "Whether it's a man or a woman, I like them all."

Jenny raised his eyebrows and looked at him.

"I hope it's a girl."

She smiled, "How nice of a girl, sweet and lovely, just like Ann."

Biden Lu laughed lightly, "Men and women can be used, if it's a girl, it's the little princess of our Lu family, if it's a boy, then when you grow up later, you can help me protect you together, isn't that also quite good?"

Chapter 995

The atmosphere was warm and welcoming, and Jenny Jing smiled as she listened to Biden Lu's words.

She whispered, "Biden Lu, thank you."

Biden Lu raised his eyebrows, hugged her and asked, "Why are you suddenly thanking me?"

Jenny leaned her head on his shoulder and whispered: "I once fell into the darkness, thinking that I would never find the light that belonged to me again in my life, I thought my life would be like this, muddling through, but since I met you, you gave me new light, gave me lots and lots of warmth and love, so Biden Lu, thank you so much, thank you for making me believe that there is still truth in this world! Love, thank you for giving me a warm home."

Biden Lu's heart was also warm and soft as he listened to her softly murmured words.

He hugged the person in his arms tighter and whispered, "If you really want to thank me, take a lifetime to do so."

Finished, lowered his head and sealed her lips.

Jenny didn't refuse, closing her eyes and feeling this rare moment of warmth.

Only after a long time did Biden Lu release her, his breathing already a bit chaotic.

Jenny looked a little confused and asked, "What's wrong?"

Biden Lu's voice was mute to the point that the big support gently caressed her face.

"Good girl, go to bed, I'm going to take a shower."

"You didn't just wash it at night..."

She suddenly paused, realizing what was happening, and her pretty face flushed.

Shoving him, he snapped, "If you're going, get going!"

Only then did Biden Lu smile and stand up.

By the time he got out of the shower, Jenny was already tired and asleep.

He came over gently and dropped a k*ss on her ear before going to bed, taking her into his arms and sleeping peacefully.

The next day, early in the morning, the geological prospector invited by Biden Lu arrived.

Biden Lu didn't let Jenny Jing run around with him anymore, but let her stay at the hotel and play with Mo Caiwei and the others, while he went to the mines with Boss Yu and the others.

Lu Lanzhi originally didn't want to go, but Biden Lu had the heart to let her hone her skills and forced her to go as well.

When Lu Lanzhi left, she was reluctant, but in Biden Lu's words, since she wanted to learn how to do business, she had to learn from the beginning, she could be ignorant of the expertise, but she had to follow along, and basic common sense had to be known.

Jenny knew in her heart that Biden Lu was really doing this for her own good.

Otherwise, depending on Biden Lu's current status and position, there would have been no need to come to this business in person.

If the business is successful and you make money, you will be able to save face in front of the old lady, and you will be able to tell the old lady how you did business here."

When Lucian heard that, he thought also oh.

How can you not keep an eye on it yourself when you have a hard time finding such a great project?

So that's what cheerfully followed.

Jenny Jing accompanied Mo Caiwei and took a break in the hotel.

In the afternoon, Biden Lu and the others returned to make sure there were no problems on the mine side, and that was when the contract was signed.

Naturally, Boss Yu was beaming with joy, after all, no matter who he found as a partner, it was not as strong as finding Biden Lu.

Apart from Boss Yu, no one was happier than Lu Lanzhi.

Although the mines aren't even dug up yet, she's already dreaming of being rich and sitting on a mountain of gold.

Lu Jingzhen has seen it all.

With the situation all done, he discussed the return trip with Jenny.

When Boss Yu saw this, he immediately stopped them.

"I know that Mr. and Mrs. Lu are busy people with their daily lives, but we've come here, so if we don't have a good time, won't it be a wasted trip? Besides, it's getting late, and it's too tiring to travel all the way back home at this time of day, so how about taking a good rest today, going to the neighborhood for some fun, and then returning in the morning?"

Biden Lu turned to look at Jenny Jing, who nodded, indicating that it was fine.

That's when he asked, "What's there to do around here?"

Boss Yu smiled, "I'll take you there tonight, I guarantee you'll be satisfied."

Seeing that he was deliberately selling out, Biden Lu did not pursue the matter and agreed to his proposal.

In the evening, the group ate dinner outside and were led by Boss Yu to the clubhouse he had arranged.

I didn't realize until I got to the place that it was a performance venue.

Boss Yu excitedly introduced, "This side is the largest performance venue in the country, there are all kinds of performances in it, not only limited to stage, magic, and some circus or something, it's just wonderful anyway."

Jenny thought he was hiding something mysterious for half a day, but it was this.

She couldn't help but laugh, "Boss Yu, you're missing the point this time, it's not new, we've all seen it before."

Lu Lanzhi also agreed, "Yes, yes, it's just a circus, there's no place not to see it, you have to come here to see it."

Boss Yu wasn't in a hurry and smiled mysteriously.

"The circus is everywhere, though, but this is different, as you'll see later."

Jenny Jing saw this and couldn't say anything else, so he sat down with Lu Lanzhi.

Things were really not what they expected.

It's all a circus, but the show here is really a lot more exciting than outside.

Rao Biden Lu, who had little interest in these, was also quite interesting to watch and occasionally chatted with Jenny Jing.

Boss Yu was relieved to see that they were all looking happy.

After the show, a group of people headed out with the crowds.

Halfway there, Mo Caiwei was suddenly bumped by someone.

She screamed in alarm, but luckily Quexu was quick-eyed enough to hold her back from being knocked over by someone.

"Is everything okay?" Quexu asked with concern.

Mo Caiwei shook her head, but Jenny frowned.

"Mom, where's the bag you were holding?"

Mo Caiwei was stunned, and that's when she reacted.

"Oh my gosh, my bag's been robbed!"

As soon as the words fell, Quexu had chased after him.

Mo Caiwei was guarded by Jenny Jing and Biden Lu, who walked outside together to wait.

Mo Caiwei is very self-conscious, "Oh my, I'm a really bad brain, I didn't even notice that the bag was gone."

I don't know if it was because the previous events had hit Mo Caiwei's psyche so hard that she couldn't remember many things, or if it was because of some other reason, but Mo Caiwei's reactions now also often became slow.

Just now, the other party was obviously a thief, taking advantage of the crowded crowd to snatch her bag, she did not even realize it.

Jenny Jing held her hand and reassured her, "Don't worry, there's nothing valuable in the bag, right?"

"No, it's just some money and a mobile phone."

"That's fine, money doesn't matter, just buy another phone when the time comes."
