

Chapter: 1066

Wei Fengqiang's eyelids jumped wildly.

He faintly felt that he seemed to have made some terrible mistake.

but!

Thinking of the ten million red, the panic that had just emerged in Wei Fengqiang's heart disappeared in an instant, replaced by a thick brutality and madness:

"Huh! What are you panicking! Who cares this kid?

"This is the guard station. In our site, the dragon is holding it, and the tiger is lying!"

Say!

Wei Fengqiang said to the two police officers in front of him:

"Go get the batons, I don't believe that this kid is really hard to beat!"

"Yes! Captain!"

Hearing the order, the two police officers agreed. So he went to the cabinet of the interrogation room and took out two batons from it!

Da da da!

The two police officers, holding their batons, walked toward Lin Fan aggressively.

With every step down, the ferocious aura of the two of them will skyrocket by one point.

Looking at Lin Fan, it was like looking at a little sheep being stared at by a hungry wolf.

"Hit! You two beat me fiercely! I don't believe it, this kid's abdomen is really so tough!" Hong Qiang held his deformed arm at the moment and shouted to the two police officers. .

And heard this.

The two police officers suddenly grinned and nodded in response:

"Don't worry, Brother Hong, how he hurts you, we will return it!"

"That's right! Brother Hong, just look at it! We will definitely treat this.

Give him all the kid's overnight meal!" he said.

These two police officers had already walked in front of Lin Fan.

The two of them looked at Lin Fan with deep pity and complexity.

Naturally, they could see that Lin Fan was absolutely extraordinary, but no matter how extraordinary, he was just a murderer. After entering the guard station, he could only carry it out.

"Boy, don't blame us!"

A police officer murmured, and immediately, with his companions, they waved their batons and smashed them at Lin Fan.

Just at this moment!

Huh!

Lin Fan's head suddenly lifted, and a pair of eyes looked straight at the two of them.

When Lin Fan's eyes fell.

boom!

The two police officers immediately felt their bodies tremble involuntarily, and a cold chill instantly filled their hearts.

This feeling was as if he had been stared at by some terrifying and mysterious creature.

The batons that they raised could not fall.

especially!

The hairs on their skins started to appear on their skins, and even made the two of them feel a tingling scalp.

Ok?

When they saw that the two police officers raised their batons, they were completely stiff.

Wei Fengqiang and the others frowned.

"What are you two doing? Why didn't you smash the raised baton?

What happened? I will take care of it!

Let me do it!" Wei Fengqiang urged the two police officers.

Just heard this.

A wry smile appeared at the corners of the two police officers' lips.

"Big... Captain, I... I dare not!"

What!

Dare not?

Listening to the police officer's words, looking at his stiff body, whether it was Wei Fengqiang or the police officer around, he couldn't believe his eyes.

what happened?

The Shu puppets around did not understand what happened.

They just saw that the batons raised by the two police officers could not fall for a long time, and even their faces were as pale as paper, and the cold sweat on their foreheads dripped crazily.

As if they were experiencing something terrible.
