Ye Wuya’s cold sweat completely wetted his back, and his whole body seemed to be more than ten years old in an instant. The despair and shock in his eyes were extremely rich.

Ye Ming was even more unbearable.

His body shuddered violently, and then a trace of liquid flowed down from his hips.

But he was scared to pee.

“Lin Fan is the seat of the forest! I... the person I want to kill is the seat of the forest, one of China’s four major army seats?”

Ye Ming’s face was as pale as paper.

Just at the moment.

Whether it was Ye Wuya or all the Ye family around him, after hearing his words, they were extremely indifferent.

“Ye Ming, don’t blame me! It was you, who almost killed our Ye family!”

“So, you can only use your life to ask Lin Zuo for sin!” The words fell!

A dagger suddenly appeared in Ye Wuya’s hand, and then he sent it forward.
