

Chapter: 1292

Just at Wan Jinrong, I couldn't help being shocked.

There was a deep consternation and panic in his eyes. He couldn't believe that Li Huai ren would be so mad that he planned to die with him?

If he died here today, then the Li family would also be violently retaliated against by the Universal Group.

Just for two old guys with unknown origins, want to fight with them to the end?

This is simply incredible!

Now!

In Wan Jinrong's heart, there was a strong and ominous premonition.

With a pair of horrified eyes, looking at Baishan and Shen Yumei, these two old rubbish, don't they have any terrible background?

In the next instant, his expression was extremely gloomy, thinking about whether to abandon Li Xiangru to save himself.

But right now!

An extremely arrogant voice resounded from the door of the bank!

"The Li family, so majestic!"

Huh?

When everyone heard this, Qi Qi looked towards the door.

Then, I saw a young man wearing a coat and looking awkward standing at the door, exuding a kind of extravagance unique to the superior.

At this time, the young man mocked Li Huai ren condescendingly, and said sarcastically:

"People who don't know, I'm afraid you think that your Li family is the lord of Jiangbei!"

Wow!

Hearing this, everyone present was completely stunned!

What is the origin of the person who dares to speak rudely to the dignified Li Family Patriarch?

This is too arrogant, right?

Everyone was shocked at this moment.

especially!

When they saw the limousines parked neatly in front of the bank, and behind the unique license plate, a look like a ghost appeared on everyone's face.

"The white Beijing brand car? Or the serial number? What a big man came here!"

"Zhangjia! This is Zhang's caravan!"

"What? Jingcheng Zhangjia? How could they appear in Xiaoxiaojiang City?"

Everyone was completely shocked!

The caravan in front of us is actually owned by the capital's wealthy Zhang family!

The capital city is a place where the warlords are fighting for competition, but as long as there is no power that can make it into the capital city, there is no such thing as an idle generation!

And this Zhang family, although it belongs to the middle and lower reaches of the capital, goes out of the capital, it is powerful and unstoppable!

"That's Zhang's grandson, Zhang Lei!"

One person exclaimed, telling the identity of the young man.

boom!

After hearing this exclamation, everyone felt as if they had been electrocuted, only feeling that their brains were blank.

I can't believe it!

Among the small branches of the Global Bank, several big figures appeared one after another, and their identities were more terrifying.

This is incredible!

Right now, everyone looked at Zhang Lei in awe.

This is the real big and young!

And they have all heard that Zhang Lei is a strong competitor for the head of the Zhang family. More than 80% of the people in the Zhang family support him as the head of the family.

In other words, this is the future Zhang Family Patriarch!

Li Huai ren's face suddenly darkened when he saw the other party.

There was a sudden bad feeling in my heart.

Although he is also the owner of a wealthy family, he can only be regarded as a local snake at best, but the Zhang family who ranks among the wealthy in the capital is a veritable dragon.

He Li Huai ren walked out of Jiangbei, shit isn't it!

But Zhang Lei walked out of the capital, but he was still afraid of the whole country!

This is the gap!

Now!

Seeing Zhang Lei standing on the opposite side of him, he became a little uneasy.

And when Wan Jinrong saw Zhang Lei's arrival, he was overjoyed, and greeted him with a flattering expression:

"Shao Zhang, you are here! The 100 billion loan you want, I have prepared for you. It's!" It's just!

"President Wan, don't worry! Before I get a loan, I want you to help me with these two old rubbish..."

Zhang Lei smiled viciously, and then he voted for the Baishan couple with bad intentions. look.

"Death to the disabled!!!"
