

Chapter: 1606

A sneer came from the door of the pharmacy.

Then, a man appeared at the door of the pharmacy with a malicious grin on the corner of his mouth, staring at Lin Fan with contempt.

Kim Seung-eun?

The moment he saw the other party, Lin Fan's face suddenly became gloomy.

“Lao Jin, this man ah?”

Behind Jin Chengen followed a group of younger brothers, who stared at Lin Fan unkindly at this time.

Jin Chengen smiled contemptuously and explained:

“A trash who lives on soft food, the well-known door-to-door son-in-law of the Bai family.”

When those brothers heard this, they all laughed.

“It turned out to be him. I had long heard that Bai Yimei from the Bai family was a goddess, but he found a wasteful husband and became Jiang Shi's huge laughingstock. Seeing him today, it turned out to be very poor.”

“Boy, take half a million to buy medicine, so rich? Did your wife give you pocket money?”

“Dog thing, you offended our young master Jin? Well, if you knocked his head a few times and said something wrong, we won't be troubled by you, okay?”

A group of young masters all smirked, waiting to see Lin Fan's jokes.

It was not the first time that they bullied others, and they simply didn't care about rubbish like Lin Fan.

Lin Fan frowned, and said in a vicious voice:

“I am in a bad mood today, so no matter how good you are, don't trouble me.”

What?

A group of young masters were stunned, wondering if they had misheard, this little white face threatened them?

“Ah, I'm so scared ah, you alone a waste, how can we like?”

“Don't do this, he has to find his wife to support him, hahaha!”

A group of young masters burst into laughter, even more disdainful.

They have a superior family background and a strong background.

Would they care about the threat of a little white face?

In their eyes, Lin Fan is just an ant, trying to bring down a group of elephants, just embarrassing.

The Jincheng En more simply, directly to the pharmacy owner, said:

“One million, I want all the medicinal materials he needs, and immediately wrap it up for me!”

One, one million?

The pharmacy owner's eyes are about to stare out, so what is the next big master?

At the moment, there was a thick flattering color on his face, and he said like a pug:

“Wait a minute, this young man, I will pack the medicinal materials for you right away!”

He actually increased the price by 500,000 yuan directly. How can there be any reason not to sell?

This made him a profiteer who only recognizes money. He immediately ignored Lin Fan and decided to sell the medicinal materials to Jin Chengen.

Ho ho!

Jin Chengen sneered twice, then looked at Lin Fan provocatively:

“I'm sorry, Lin Fan, I just heard you say that you want to use these medicines to save people, right? In this way, the person in your family may have to wait to die.”

Ok?

Lin Fan frowned and instant surge of anger in my heart, cold to the druggist said:

“Boss, you have to be honest in business, and you have to pay attention to first-come-first-served in everything. These medicines are what I want first, but you sold them to others. Isn't it too honest?”

Heard this!

The pharmacy owner snorted impatiently and said in contempt:

“This is my medicine, I would like to sell to sell it, none of your business?”

“If you want, then increase the price? What kind of medicine does the poor ghost buy, don't be ashamed, get out of here!”

Hahaha!

Jin Chengen also laughed, and then gave the pharmacy owner a thumbs up:

“The boss said well, what medicine do the poor guys buy? Just wait for death!”

The pharmacy owner smiled:

“This is what I said from the bottom of my heart. A deadly poor ghost wants to grab medicinal materials from you, and doesn't take a piss to take pictures of his own virtues.”

however!

Lin Fan is fierce and brutal smile, that mouth evoke a touch of Xiemei arc:

“I said, I will not continue to increase the price. Five hundred thousand is five hundred thousand. I advise you to accept it!”

“Otherwise, you won't even have tears in your tears for a while!”
