

Chapter: 1611

Then, Lin Fan came to Jin Chengen, who at this time didn't even have the courage to look at him.

Anxiously lowered his head, his face was full of shame!

“Flee!”

Lin Fan spoke indifferently.

what?

Upon hearing this, Jin Chengen's expression changed and he looked at Lin Fan in amazement.

But at this time, Lin Fan felt murderous in his eyes:

“If I resolve the matter at hand and find that you are still in Huaxia, I will kill you.”

The tone is strange and calm!

It's like talking about squeezing an ant to death.

When Lin Fan left, Jin Chengen had no idea.

Because of him now, his back was completely wet with cold sweat, and there was a lingering fear in his heart.

Lin Fan's threat just now made him lose consciousness in an instant!

At that moment just now, he really realised what it means to be murderous!

When facing Lin Fan, he didn't even have the courage to resist!

He's serious!

If he didn't leave Jiangshi or China, he would really kill himself.

Next moment!

Jin Chengen gritted his teeth, and amidst fear in his heart, there was also a deep hatred.

How could he lose to Lin Fan?

How could he lose to Lin Fan?

Bai Yi belongs to him!

It was destined to be his!

Even if he is a slave, he has to stay with him for a lifetime. If Lin Fan wants to make trouble, he should die!

Then, he looked at Lin Fan's away back, and a vicious smile appeared at the corner of his mouth:

“Wait, Lin Fan, it won't be long before your wife will become my crotch plaything!”

.....

And when Lin Fan returned to the hospital with the refined pill, it was already the early morning of the next day.

“Xiao Fan, how's it going?”

The Baishan couple greeted them nervously.

Lin Fan nodded and said:

“I have asked for an elixir from the great doctor Lin, which can save Bai Yi!”

what!

Upon hearing this, the couple was immediately overjoyed. The genius doctor Lin gave the medicine?

Then Bai Yi will be saved!

The genius doctor Lin is now a famous genius doctor in China, as long as he takes action, he will definitely cure the disease.

Then, Lin Fan went straight to the emergency room.

“Husband, do you have a solution?”

Seeing Lin Fan coming back, Bai Yi asked nervously.

However, with this opening, tears of grievance burst out uncontrollably, and she was so afraid that Lin Fan would give her a negative answer.

In that case, she was afraid that she would go crazy.

Fortunately, Lin Fanzhe disappointed her, but handed the pill in distress:

“Eat, eat this, you and your child will be safe and sound!”

Ok?

Upon hearing this, Ye Yuqing and others changed their expressions and looked at Lin Fan in disbelief.

Can the medicine be cured after taking this stuff?

What do you think of the elixir?

“What is this medicine?”

Bai Yi looked at Lin Fan suspiciously.

Lin Fan explained with a smile:

“It was given by the great doctor Lin. I told you about your current situation, and he immediately refined this pill.”

Lin's doctor?

Ye Yuqing and other doctors at the municipal hospitals suddenly looked embarrassed, and only felt that they had been beaten in the face at this time.

If this pill came from the hands of the genius doctor Lin, it might have a miraculous effect.

After all, the genius doctor Lin is also a strange man!

Bai Yi took the pill with satisfaction. After about a few minutes, her face was flushed and her breathing became steady and strong.

“Husband, I feel more comfortable!”

Bai Yi said in surprise, not to mention that it was the effect of the medicine.

“That's good!”

Lin Fan gave a wry smile, then puffed, and fell to the ground.

Painful color appeared on his face!

I ran to several places tonight, and I was thinking of Bai Yi and the child all the time, which directly caused him to be anxious, and he suffered from severe angina.

But he kept resisting, but now Bai Yi finally had trouble, his tense nerves relaxed, and the exhaustion came like a tide.

“Husband, I'm sorry, it's me... I'm too useless!”

Bai Yi felt very distressed when he saw Lin Fan look like this.

The more self-blame in my heart, it was almost that his health was too bad, and he had a threatened miscarriage, which made Lin Fan so worried.

But Lin Fan shook his head and smiled bitterly:

“This has nothing to do with you. Your body has always been very good. Someone wants to harm you!”

what!

Upon hearing this, the Baiyi family's expression changed drastically!
