

Chapter: 1696

What is this guy talking about?

Consider not letting him go bankrupt?

Zhang Jianjun dare not speak like that!

Although his status as Jiang Zunsheng is not as good as Jiang Zunsheng's, he is also a man with a good face in the Imperial Capital.

Let him go bankrupt?

Why is Lin Fan?

He has been in the arena for so many years, but can he still be frightened by a stinky yellow-haired boy?

However, Lin Fan still looked like he was very busy, saying:

“Some people, you can't afford to offend! There are some things you can't do!”

There is already a strong threat in the words!

Fuck!

Jiang Zunsheng yelled and swept away the tea tray on the table, and the inside fell to pieces, all to pieces!

Then, angrily pointed to Lin Fan's nose and cursed:

“You are such a hairy man, you dare to talk to Lao Tzu like this? Even Zhang Jianjun dare not put me in his eyes!”

Jiang Zunsheng is completely on fire!

Washington DC is determined to die?

Originally thought that the other party would send money to the door, but in the end he asked a yellow-haired boy to come and touch his brow?

Thought he was so bully Jiang Zunsheng!

Now!

Jiang Zunsheng completely lost his mind. This is no longer a question of money or not, but a question of face.

Even if DC Pharmaceuticals sent a yellow-haired boy to negotiate with him, it turned out to threaten him?

And Lin Fan frowned at this moment, and a murderous aura was revealed in his voice:

“I am much scarier than Zhang Jianjun!”

“If you reject my proposal, I can guarantee that in the next second, you will die even uglier than Ouyang Feifei!”

Ok?

Hearing this, Jiang Zunsheng's heart sank suddenly!

Worse than Zhang Jianjun?

Is this guy serious?

Is a young man in his twenties comparable to Zhang Jianjun in terms of status and status?

At the moment, Jiang Zunsheng looked at Lin Fan suspiciously and asked:

“who are you?”

He also reacted. Washington Pharmaceuticals shouldn't send an unknown person to negotiate with him. The guy in front of him should have some background and ability.

“My name is Lin Fan, and I am also the genius doctor Lin in their mouth!”

boom!

Jiang Zunsheng suddenly felt his brain faint, as if he had been electrocuted, and looked at Lin Fan in disbelief.

Is this person in front of him the current chairman of Washington Pharmaceuticals?

That famous super genius doctor of Huaxia, the leading figure of Huaxia Chinese Medicine?

How could he be so young?

Originally, Jiang Zunsheng thought that the genius doctor Lin should be about the same age as Yao Lao, and he would be 50 or 60 years old no matter how bad he was.

But now, he is only in his twenties?

Oh my!

At this age of twenties, sitting on a pharmaceutical empire like Washington Pharmaceuticals, this is simply a fantasy!

Throughout China, I'm afraid that no second person can be found!

just!

Soon Jiang Zunsheng reacted, what about the genius doctor Lin, didn't he ask him for peace?

Now they occupy a word of reason, that is, even Lin Fan can ignore it!

Now that public opinion is on their side, and there are audiences from all over the country paying attention to this matter, he does not believe what Lin Fan dares to do to him.

Right now, he shouted arrogantly:

“What about Dr. Lin, can he beat people casually?”

“I'm telling you, if you don't throw away ten billions of dollars today, this matter will not get through!”

Ok?

Lin Fan raised his brows, laughed with interest, and said playfully:

“So, are you planning to blackmail me?”

He thought that if he said his identity, the other party would retreat when he knew it was difficult, but he didn't even think that the other party would still go it alone.

He didn't even pay attention to it.

In this case, we can only teach a lesson!

“You can think so, but don't you have to give this money? Or else, you don't know the amount of money that you lost in a day at the Washington Pharmacy? Hehehe...”

Jiang Zunsheng smiled triumphantly, as if I would take you down.

So what about Doctor Lin, isn't he just a 20-year-old boy?

You are awesome when it comes to medical skills, but when it comes to the ups and downs of the business sea, you are my opponent Jiang Zunsheng?

“The opportunity has been given, you don't know how to cherish it!”

Lin Fan is not talking nonsense, and directly dials the number with his mobile phone:

“Do it!”
