

Chapter: 1725

And this time!

Lin Fan and Li Xunran just walked out of Li's house, but Li Xunran's cell phone rang.

The moment Li Xunran got on the phone, Huarong turned pale and screamed:

"What are you talking about? Master was kidnapped?"

Aside!

Lin Fan couldn't help frowning when he heard this.

Who is so courageous, but kidnapped the God of Medicine of China?

"Okay, I'll come right now!"

When Li Xunran hung up the phone, he looked at Lin Fan anxiously, but he still didn't speak, but Lin Fan spoke first.

"Needless to say, get in the car first!"

Then, the two went to the location of the incident together.

In the car, Li Xunran told Lin Fan that about half an hour ago, Yao Lao was kidnapped and kidnapped on the road.

At that time, he was discussing further cooperation with Bai Yi, but fortunately, Bai Yi was not being hijacked.

After arriving at the scene, Lin Fan saw Bai Yi sitting on the side of the road, looking frightened, and there was still fear in his eyes.

Lin Fan suddenly walked over nervously and helped her up:

"Wife, are you okay?"

Seeing Lin Fan and Li Xunran appear at the same time, Bai Yi felt a little uncomfortable.

But I also know that now is not the time to entangle this matter, I shook his head:

"I'm in trouble, but Yao Lao was taken away. They also said that if they want Yao Lao to come back, they will let the genius doctor Lin redeem him personally!"

Ok?

Li Xunran and Lin Fan frowned at the same time, and they seemed a little weird.

The kidnappers kidnapped, not for money, but to see the genius doctor Lin?

Such a strange request!

Lin Fan didn't even think that the other party actually came directly at him.

But obviously the other party still doesn't know his identity, otherwise Bai Yi should be kidnapped, not Yao is old.

"Lin Fan, save my master! You save my master!"

Li Xunran grabbed Lin Fan's hand and begged Lin Fan.

Lin Fan nodded and said:

"Don't worry, I won't let the elderly have trouble!"

But at this time, Lin Fan saw that Bai Yi's face was already red, swollen and bruised.

At the moment, his eyes shrank fiercely, and sharp killing intent burst into his eyes instantly.

"Who hurt you?"

Bai Yi shook his head and smiled bitterly:

"I have nothing to do, now the most important thing is to save Yao Lao!"

Lin Fan quickly called and asked Xu Longxiang and others to help find Yao Lao's way out.

At this time, the Lin family also received the message.

"Dad, Mr. Yao has been kidnapped, and there is still no message yet!"

Lin Zhanhua felt happy and miserable, because he also knew that Yao Lao was trying his best to help Lin Fan and the others reach a cooperation with Washington Pharmaceuticals.

Being kidnapped now is a good thing for them.

"When did this happen?"

Lin Hongtu was also a little surprised. Who is so courageous to grasp the existence of Yao Lao?

Isn't this looking for death?

"Just now, I heard them say that the kidnappers want to redeem him personally. This is interesting."

Lin Zhanli laughed.

Lin Hongtu's expression suddenly became cloudy and uncertain, but then suddenly he slapped the table and said loudly:

"Go, let's save the old man now?"

what!

Lin Zhanhua thought he had heard it wrong, and asked in disbelief:

"Dad, what are you talking about? That hometown cooperated with Lin Fan and the others. It was clear that they were not dealing with us. Why should we save him?"

"You don't understand, Yao Lao was kidnapped. We saved him. That is his lifesaver. We asked him to cancel the cooperation with Lin Fan. Does he dare to refuse?"

Lin Hongtu coldly snorted, with a sinister smile on his face:

"Furthermore, we can also take the opportunity to get to know Doctor Lin and kill two birds with one stone. Why not do it?"

"High, really high!"

Lin Zhanli gave Lin Hongtu a thumbs up and said with a smirk:

"At this time, Lin Fan's cooperation was completely wiped out!"
