

Chapter: 1755

Borrow money?

Bai Yi finally understood why Wang Youcai was looking for her.

Not only Bai Yi, the faces of Shen Yumei and Bai Shan also became unsightly at this moment.

No wonder Wang Youcai and Wang Zhijun had to follow them to the imperial capital, and said that there were important things to discuss with Bai Yi.

So I just wanted to borrow money from Bai Yi!

At the beginning, when their family was unwelcome in the Bai family, Wang Youcai never took the initiative to contact them, for fear of being dragged down by them.

Now that I know that Bai Yi has made money, I think about borrowing money from Bai Yi one by one.

This is disgusting!

“Bai Yi, what do you mean by not talking, don’t you want to borrow money? That’s how your family treats your savior?”

Wang Youcai questioned with a bad tone, as if Bai Yi didn’t lend him money, it was very sinful.

And Lin Fan was also amused by the other party’s shamelessness, borrowing money to be so arrogant, who gave you a face?

Bai Yi hesitated for a moment, and then said:

“Then I don’t know how much money my cousin intends to borrow?”

Willing to borrow?

Wang Youcai and Wang Zhijun suddenly raised their eyebrows, and they knew that Bai Yi did not dare to refuse.

Then, Wang Youcai stretched out his five fingers.

“Five hundred thousand?”

Bai Yi nodded and said:

“Okay, I’ll transfer the money to you immediately!”

what!

Wang Youcai jumped up immediately, pointed at Bai Yi’s nose and cursed:

“What half a million, you have a stinky beggar? You have more than half a million for a meal, don’t you? I want 50 million!”

boom!

The Baiyi family was all dumbfounded, and they all wondered if they had misheard them.

Fifty million?

Is this taking Bai Yi as a fool?

This mouth is coming. Is it possible that Bai Yi’s money came from the wind?

Is this too much?

If Wang Youcai has the ability to pay it back, that’s fine, but they borrowed the money like this and made it clear that they didn’t plan to pay it back.

Wang Youcai is now retired, and now lives on a monthly pension of 10,000 yuan, and Wang Zhijun is a waste of old people. He has been unemployed for more than 20 years.

And before Wang Youcai’s death, I’m afraid that nothing will change.

Throwing these fifty million out, wouldn’t it be meat buns hitting dogs, there is no return?

For an instant, Shen Yumei became angry and said loudly:

“Cousin, your request is too much. That’s 50 million. How can Bai Yi have so much money?”

But Wang Youcai didn’t buy it at all, and angrily said:

“Are you fooling the ghost, your family lives in a mansion worth hundreds of millions of dollars, sitting in a luxury car worth more than 10 million, you can’t even get tens of millions?”

“I think you made it clear that you just don’t want to borrow!”

Wang Zhijun also helped:

“That is, you group of white-eyed wolves, have you forgotten how our family saved you? If we hadn’t given you those buns, you would have starved to death!”

“I’m ungrateful, I knew it, it’s better to feed those buns to the dog!”

you!

Shen Yumei was so angry at the other party’s words.

Over the years, father and son have been talking about those steamed buns. Isn’t it just that the undesirable steamed buns stinks?

He refused to borrow money, but threw out a bag of steamed buns that he was about to throw away.

What’s so great?

But the other party still has the face to say that he helped them?

It’s as if Wang Youcai and the others saved their family’s life.

Shameless!

Over the years, in order to repay the so-called gratitude, isn’t it possible that they have helped Wang Youcai’s family with less?

Wang Zhijun marrying a wife, building a house, looking for a job, which is not their family’s money and effort, but the other party took it for granted.

It was as if their family owed Wang Youcai and Wang Zhijun.

Now even dare to ask for 50 million directly?

This is not just too simple, the other party has no intention of becoming a human being at all.

Bai Yi also sighed and said apologetically to Wang Youcai:

“Cousin, I really don’t have that much money!”
