

Chapter: 1796

Hear the words!

Wang Yanli also felt that what Wang Zhijun said was reasonable, and she snorted unwillingly:

“Okay, listen to you!”

The daughter couldn’t think about it, and felt that she had been wronged by greatness. It was because she was young and naive.

When she gets older, she will understand that there are things in this world that are more comfortable and exciting than “money”?

“Lin Fan, you trash wait for me,” Wang Yanli muttered angrily as she walked into the elevator, “Sooner or later, I will take care of you!”

In the elevator, a few guests looked at the three of them like monsters.

Wang Zhijun stretched out his hand awkwardly and pulled the corner of Wang Yanli’s clothes.

Unexpectedly, Wang Yanli was even more angry, yelling at several guests.

“What do you look at, have you ever seen an old lady getting angry?!”

——

In the ward, Lin Fan sat on the bedside.

Xu Yourong took Bai Yi’s hand, still sobbing, his eyes were red and swollen from crying.

“Bai Yi!” Xu Yourong asked with tears.”

You said my mother, how could she do that, she is my mother, oooo, oooo.”

In the private room last night, when Wang Yanli smiled flatteringly at Li Yinsheng and said those things that made her desperate, she felt that the entire sky had collapsed.

It was really “suppressing every day, and calling the land unsound”. She was thinking at the time that if Li Yinsheng was ruined, she would commit suicide and leave the world that made her so sad.

“There’s something wrong, cousin, don’t be sad!” Bai Yi said softly, patted Xu Yourong’s back:

“In the future, we can stay away from her!”

At this moment, Xu Yourong felt unprecedented guilt for Lin Fan.

If it wasn’t for Lin Fan last night, her life would have been ruined.

But before that, how did she treat Lin Fan?

It is indifference, alienation, and even contempt.

Thinking of this, Xu Yourong began to cry, half remorse, and said to Lin Fan:

“Lin Fan, I’m sorry, I was too mean to you before, please forgive me!”

Lin Fan sighed:

“If the family doesn’t talk about two things, you should raise your body before talking?”

Xu Yourong said with tears in his eyes: “But I’m really bad to you, why are you so tolerant to me? I have no eyes!”

“I... I’m sorry for you!”

The more Xu Yourong said, the more guilty he became, as if he wanted to die.

“Okay, cousin, we will have to feel uncomfortable if you cry again!” Bai Yi raised his hand to wipe the tears for Xu Yourong, teasing:

“Look at you, your eyes are red and swollen from crying. If you continue like this, you will become a tabby cat!”

After being teased by him so much, Xu Yourong burst into laughter, and then stopped crying.

Lin Fan also asked softly:

“What are you planning now?”

Xu Yourong’s expression suddenly became lonely when thinking of her mother’s face:

“I don’t want to go home now. As long as I go back, I can’t control my emotions when I see my mother.”

Lin Fan nodded: “Okay, then we won’t go home for the time being. When you feel better, we will go back.”

“Thank you, Lin Fan.” Xu Yourong whispered softly.

Only when a woman is fragile, can she deeply understand who treats herself well.

This is the case with Xu Yourong at the moment.

Looking at Lin Fan, Xu Yourong didn’t know what he thought of, his cheeks flushed, and the fawn began to pound.

Bai Yi also thought of something and reminded him: “Sister, when I get home, don’t mention what happened last night, otherwise my uncle may be very angry.”

Hear the words!

Xu Yourong sighed and nodded:

“My dad is really pitiful. He has lived in the shadow of my mom all his life. This has made my mom more arrogant and profit-only.”

“There is also Wang Zhijun, you also remember to call to remind him not to publicize the things of last night!”

Lin Fan added.

“Moreover, I also learned that Wang Zhijun was obsessed with this matter. He received Li Yinsheng’s five million yuan in benefits! He would take the initiative to introduce Li Yinsheng to your mother, and that almost killed you!”