

Chapter: 1799

Xu Dexiang asked urgently: “Lin Fan, what you said is true? Did you lie to me?”

Although he didn’t believe it very much, at this time he could only use a dead horse as a living horse doctor.

“Dexiang, you really believe in this rubbish nonsense.”

Wang Youcai smiled and said, Xu Dexiang believes Lin Fan’s nonsense, is it too brain-ridden? .

“You shut up!” Xu Dexiang shouted.

Seeing his angry look, Wang Youcai didn’t dare to speak again.

“Am I talking nonsense, you should ask Wang Zhijun, I think he will give you a satisfactory answer.”

Lin Fan looked at Wang Zhijun with a playful smile, after all, Wang Zhijun also knew that he was the matter of the genius doctor Lin.

Ok?

Hearing this, everyone looked at Wang Zhijun in doubt, with deep curiosity in their eyes.

And Wang Youcai frowned and asked:

“Zhijun, is this guy telling the truth?”

“I... I don’t know either!”

Wang Zhijun replied stiffly. At this time, he didn’t know how to explain.

Upon seeing this, Wang Yanli quickly stood up and said:

“Dexiang, don’t listen to Lin Fan’s nonsense. He really wants to have that ability. Why bother to eat soft food at the Bai family and suffer humiliation and bullying?”

Now!

Wang Yanli pointed at Lin Fan and scolded: “Lin Fan, if you dare to talk nonsense, get out of here now, don’t make us angry here, do you know how much a waste can be?”

The other Xu family members laughed at Lin Fan for pretending to be too coerced. Even the doctor said something wrong, but Lin Fan said that one pill can last five years?

Really can blow!

Xu Dexiang, who was sitting by the bed, sighed helplessly. At this moment, he was completely desperate.

Bai Yi saw that everyone not only didn’t appreciate it, but began to accuse Lin Fan of being very worthless for her husband.

Lin Fan is Lin’s genius doctor, who is even better than Yao Lao?

He is kind to save people!

Why do these people with no eyes look down on him so much?

At this time, Xu Yourong frowned and made a bold move directly, pulling Lin Fan’s hand away from the ward.

“Couldn’t help, that trash’s help!”

Wang Youcai laughed loudly, and then said to everyone:

“Look, that trash has nothing to say, so I ran away!”

When he arrived outside the ward, Xu Yourong looked around, then asked Lin Fan in a low voice:

“Lin Fan, can the pill you gave my grandma really save my grandma?”

“Others don’t believe me, and you don’t believe me?” Lin Fan asked with a smile.

Xu Yourong nodded and said quickly:

“Of course I believe you, after all, you are the genius doctor Lin!”

Lin Fan spread his hands and smiled:

“That’s not enough. I said that it can save grandma’s life, so there is no problem. Just listen to the name and you will know that the resurrection pill, a resurrection pill, will come back from the dead to the world.”

“But... but that pill looks, too, too ordinary.”

Xu Yourong still didn’t believe it.

Lin Fan leaned in front of Xu Yourong and attached an ear canal:

“Don’t look at its dark appearance, it looks inconspicuous, but it is worth 100 million.”

“One billion, is this too expensive?!” Xu Yourong said with eyes wide open.

“Not expensive. A Pill of Resurrection can extend life for at least five years, do you think it is expensive?” Lin Fan winked.

Xu Yourong said happily: “Great, that is to say, grandma’s life is saved!”

“Okay, let’s go in quickly and give Grandma the Resurrection Pill.”

The two walked into the ward again.

Wang Yanli looked at them in disgust and said coldly.

“You Rong, didn’t you drag him away, why did you come back again?”

Wang Youcai sneered: “Some people have thick skins. Even if they know that everyone hates him, they still go in and out.”

Wang Yanli waved at Xu Yourong and Lin Fan impatiently:

“Hurry up, let your grandma live a little before leaving. Don’t let her old man get angry when she sees you.”
