

Chapter: 1802

After all, still think he is the best?

Huo Dongying suddenly became a little bit happy!

How could he refuse Wang Yanli's request? He also counted on Wang Yanli to give him a few words to try to get Xu Yourong to marry him as soon as possible.

Huo Dongying pretended to promise: "Okay, Auntie, I will call a few famous doctors to see if they have time to help Granny Jiang."

He didn't say anything to death. If Wang Yanli called to urge her again, he could completely shirk that the famous doctors who had contacted would not have time to visit.

Wang Yanli said happily, "Okay, Dongying, then I will wait for your good news."

After speaking, she hung up and waited confidently for Huo Dongying's call back.

Wang Youcai felt that Lin Fan's trash had the upper hand, and he was very upset, so he urged everyone to say.

"Didn't Lin Fan keep saying that as long as grandma takes his broken pill, he can be brought back to life, should we go over and take a look?"

"Let's go, you must go and see. If that kid can't cure the old lady, we will call the police immediately and let him sit in the prison!"

"After seeing him, dare not dare to stink in front of us!"

Everyone walked into the old lady's ward again.

Seeing Mrs. Jiang still lying on her back on the bed, there was no change at all.

Seeing this, Wang Youcai suddenly sneered: "Dexiang, don't you believe that Lin Fan's pills work? Why is the mother-in-law and her elderly still unconscious?"

Wang Yanli also complained: "Dexiang, you have been tricked by Lin Fan again. He is a liar. What kind of medical skills are there from eating soft food."

Xu Yourong shouted annoyedly at Wang Yanli.

"Mom, when is this, can you shut up and stop talking?"

Xu Dexiang argued: "How could this resurrection pill be effective just after taking it? It will take some time..."

Wang Youcai interrupted Xu Dexiang and sneered:

"Do you really treat Lin Fan as a bowl of food? What kind of good medicine can be filled in his small broken bottle? What is the name of the resurrection pill? You know it is fake by hearing the name."

Xu Yourong said angrily: "Uncle, if you don't know what's going on, don't talk nonsense here! Lin Fan said, as long as you take the Pill of Resurrection, your grandma's illness will get better, and you can get out of bed and walk tomorrow."

Wang Youcai Hoho sneered and said, "Xu Yourong, are your brains burnt? Grandma's illness is so serious that she will wake up soon and be able to walk out of bed tomorrow. How is this possible?"

Lin Fan shrugged and smiled.

"Even if you think it's impossible, it's a pity that it's not you who have the final say. Grandma will wake up soon, and she will definitely be able to get out of bed and walk tomorrow."

Xu Dexiang scolded Wang Youcai angrily.

"Can you be quiet? My mother is still seriously ill. Since Lin Fan said that he can cure your grandma's disease, there is great hope!"

Seeing Xu Dexiang defending Lin Fan many times, Wang Youcai yelled outrageously.

"Lin Fan's waste can really cure grandma's disease. I immediately knelt down for him and knocked his head three times!"

Lin Fan asked with a playful smile: "Do you count?"

"Of course," Wang Youcai patted his chest, he saw Lin Fan's ability so great.

Can the waste from eating soft rice cure a dying old man?

Are you kidding me?

"As soon as the husband speaks, it is difficult to chase the horse. I am afraid that you can't cure the old lady's disease, and it may cause the old lady to die soon. What do you plan to do?"

Lin Fan nodded and said, "If I can't cure my grandma's disease, I will get out of the Bai's house immediately, and I won't step into the Bai's house again."

Before he finished speaking, Wang Yanli on the side rushed to talk.

"Lin Fan, this is what you said by yourself. If your grandma's disease can't be cured, you should get out of Bai's house immediately and stop pestering Bai Yi!"
