

Chapter: 1830

Li Xunran rushed to the balcony in a few steps and stood in front of Master Yao Lao.

“Master, it’s not good, Lin Fan has something wrong!”

Yao Lao suddenly sat up and asked anxiously, “You mean that Lin Fan had an accident? What happened to him? A car accident, or is he sick?!”

“No, no, neither.” Li Xunran shook his head repeatedly, grabbed the tea cup on the side table, and drank a few sips of tea.

Old Yao said angrily: “What half of what your girl said makes me anxious to get angry, just tell me, what is going on?!”

He eagerly wanted to know what happened to Lin Fan, so that he could decide what way to help Lin Fan, the genius doctor he valued.

Li Xunran hurriedly pulled a chair, sat down on the chair, holding the backrest with both hands, and looked at Master with a smile.

“Master, I think my apprentice is not as important as the so-called genius doctor Lin in your mind, isn’t it?”

“Smelly girl, don’t compare yourself with Lin Fan.”

Yao Lao reached out and poked Li Xunran’s forehead.

“Don’t say you don’t have that qualification, even this bad old man of mine does not have that qualification. Go and compare with Lin Fan, where the hope of Chinese medicine is.”

“Cut, what’s so great, isn’t it just getting a silver needle or something?”

Li Xunran rolled his eyes in disdain and said.

Yao Lao slapped Li Xunran’s hand anxiously.

“Oh, you kid, hurry up and talk about what’s wrong with Lin Fan?”

Li Xunran replied: “Your Lin Fan was complained and was arrested by law enforcement officers for questioning.”

When someone dared to catch Lin Fan, Yao Lao stood up and walked around on the balcony angrily.

“The law enforcement team arrested people. Needless to say, it must have been done by the Lin family.” Yao Lao said angrily.

“Lin Fan is my leader in Chinese medicine, and my hope of revitalizing Chinese medicine! Even other disciplines should respect him. On the contrary, he was conspired and complained. The Lin family wanted to destroy my Chinese hope!”

“Shameful, really shameful, this is the shame of the medical profession! With such superb medical skills and noble morals, Lin Fan was conspired by others, this is the shame of the Chinese medical profession!”

“We definitely don’t forget it!”

Li Xunran reached out and grabbed Master Yao Lao, and helped him to sit down on the sofa.

“Oh, Master, you can sit down steadily. If you walk back and forth, my eyes will be dizzy.”

Yao Lao still said restlessly:

“No, I have to unite with famous people in the industry to appeal to the boss and let them release Lin Fan. If they don’t agree, we will meet the lord again!”

Li Xunran smirked and blinked.

“Master, you go to see the lord, what if the lord doesn’t give you old men and women face?”

“Impossible! The lord knows the righteousness, how can he be short-sighted like the Lin family, I must save Mr. Lin Fan out anyway!”

Yao Lao said emotionally,

“Even if it is to catch my old life, I will not hesitate.”

“Chuck.” Li Xunran couldn’t help laughing and said:

“Master, don’t get excited, Lin Fan is in trouble!”

Then, Li Xunran told how Huo Dongying reported Lin Fan, and then Lin Fan was quickly released by the law enforcement team, telling the whole story again.

Only then did Yao Lao relax, but he slapped the armrest of the sofa hard, cursing.

“What kind of thing is Huo Dongying? I think he is the Huo Family Shao’s boss, so I dare to do things with the Lin Family’s support? I dare to frame Lin Fan! I think he is looking for death!”

Li Xunran also scolded:

“Isn’t it? That Huo Yingdong is not something. He has no ability to catch the woman he wants, so he has a grudge against Lin Fan and retaliates against Lin Fan.”

Yao Lao snorted coldly:

“You pass on my order and do everything possible to clean up the Huo family. The chairman of my Washington Pharmaceuticals, can’t let people be bullied in vain! The Huo family’s instigation, unexpectedly raised such a rubbish son, must be severely punished. !?”
