

Chapter: 1844

“And it can sell all of the Lin family’s properties in all forms! The old fox Lin Hongtu doesn’t know yet, but now he has fallen into our trap!”

At this time, they can already be regarded as catching turtles in the urn!

Lin Hongtu was completely trapped by them!

And Lin Fan did not expect that Lin Hongtu would be so careless that the only bank that found a loan was his Global Bank.

but!

At present, it is estimated that only Global Bank will lend them loans globally.

With the current situation of the Lin family, it can be described as worsening the situation. It is already a great favor for other banks to find them to recover their loans at this time. How can they give them new loans?

The Lin family was also aware of this, so they signed this unlimited liability loan, even if they knew it was an unequal treaty, they would not hesitate.

Because today’s Lin family urgently needs a huge amount of money to help them stand up!

“Thank you, Aunt Rowling!”

Lin Fan said with kind gratitude.

“No, Xiaofan, it should be us who should say thank you! It is because of you that Global Bank can make so much money at once, and shareholders are very happy!”

It is impossible to imagine the money that Global Bank can make if the business empire as large as the Lin family can be divided up!

Those shareholders, will all be upset?

Every shareholder of Global Bank is a super chaebol, but even with their existence, facing a business empire like the Lin family, they are salivating!

Not to mention that a person can be divided into hundreds of billions, how can they not be excited?

“For this reason, those shareholders have said that they must cooperate with you fully and strive to destroy the Lin family in the shortest time!”

Lin Fan smiled and said angrily:

“Those old foxes are eager to carve up the Lin family, right?”

Helping him is a fake, it’s true to want to make a profit quickly!

But Lin Fan didn’t care, as long as he could help him eradicate the Lin Family, it wouldn’t matter even if the Lin Family was handed over to those chaebol Lin Fan.

After chatting with Rowling for a while, Lin Fan hung up.

He looked up at the dark sky and let out a long sigh of relief:

“The Lin Family, the final battle is finally coming!”

“Mom, right away...I can take revenge for you right away!”

in a blink!

One month has passed!

During this period of time, the Lin family was surprisingly quiet, and there was no trouble finding Lin Fan again.

And the other two military seats didn’t know why, and they didn’t even come to Lin Fan. They didn’t know what kind of agreement they had reached with the Lin family.

Lin Fan is also quite wary of this!

He knew that Lin Fan and the two armies had been reluctant to make a move. They were definitely holding back a big move. This move was definitely meant to kill him!

however!

When Lin Hongtu and the others didn’t know, Lin Fan was also quietly operating all the energy that could be used.

All the shareholders of the entire Global Bank, the blood prison, and the dragon and tiger army are waiting for the opportunity!

The entire imperial capital is directly undercurrents!

Many forces have even moved to the imperial capital for fear of being implicated.

Because they all know that this is a sign that the rain is about to come and the building is full, and there is a heavy rain that is about to come, and that level of collision is not something they can participate in.

escape!

The farther you escape, the better!

otherwise!

It’s a dead end!

And just in the early morning of a certain day, Lin Fan ushered in an unexpected guest!

Lin Zhanli!

Seeing Lin Fan again, Lin Zhanli’s face was already filled with the original fear, and some were just endless mockery.

It’s like watching a dying person!

“Lin Fan, come to Lin’s house with me!”

Lin Zhanxi smiled and said, today is the time of Lin Fan’s death.

“I want to take my wife to the obstetric checkup, it’s empty!”

Lin Fan sneered and refused with disdain.
