very satisfied?

When the dragon heard this, he felt humiliated, and then roared sharply, stomping on the ground suddenly, rushing over like a bull!

“The helper you got is sure to work?”

Lin Hongtu asked Benjamin with a smile.

“If he can’t do it, then we can withdraw our troops!”

Mr. Long, but the strongest in the United States, if even he can’t defeat Lin Fan, then they will voluntarily lose in this battle!

Benjamin has a confident smile on his face!

however!

As the minute and second passed, the smile on his face became more and more stiff and unnatural!

One hour passed!

Lin Fan was still dead, but there were many wounds on the dragon’s body!

At this moment, Long was out of breath and looked at Lin Fan in disbelief.

I can’t believe that this guy is so resistant to fights. His body is even stronger by steel. What is going on?

until!

The dragon was torn off an arm in full view!

Benjamin is desperate!

“Impossible, this is impossible! You...what kind of monster are you?”

The dragon roared hysterically, his eyes seemed to be looking at a devil.

Damn, he has never encountered such a terrible opponent in his life!

This guy is a crazy killing machine, he will never fall down before he fails to kill the opponent.

Lin Fan is already covered in blood and bruised all over!

But his eyes are still full of fighting spirit, and his eyes are full of fierce murderous intent like a dragon.

“Mr. Long, that’s nothing more!”

what!

The dragon’s face suddenly became gloomy, he was completely angry, and roared to fight again.

At this moment, Bai Yi was about to dizzy when he saw that Lin Fan was seriously injured, and the tears flowed crazily.

“Bai Yi don’t look, be careful of the child in his stomach.”

But Bai Yi stubbornly shook her head, she wanted to know whether Lin Fan was alive or dead.

at the same time!

In the highest organization of China, all senior executives are paying close attention.

“Are we all wrong?”

An old man covered with medals asked.

There was a dead silence, no one was speaking, and everyone’s faces were full of guilt.

It’s wrong, and it’s wrong!

Then everyone looked at the man sitting on the main seat, waiting for his order.

The man took a deep breath and shouted:

“Order He Lanxuan and Xu Longguan to support, mission goal: save the national hero Lin Fan!”

just!

An old man smiled bitterly and said:

“The two lost contact half an hour ago.”

what!

The crowd was in an uproar. The two soldiers they believed most blatantly disobeyed their orders, but Lin Fan, who was suspected and jealous by them, was dying for the country and fighting desperately?

“So courageous!!!”

An extremely angry roar resounded throughout the conference room.

At this time, the battlefield was nearing its end.

Lin Fan stepped on the corpse of the dragon under his feet, staggering.

“Kill him! Kill!!!!”

Benjamin had already seen that Lin Fan was at the end of the battle, and this time was the best time to kill him.

How many people have been killed by this miscellaneous piece, and it has caused the strongest king of the United States to hate him. After returning to China, he will definitely die.

But now, he wants Lin Fan to be buried with him!

But at this time, looking at his grandson, how bitter the smile on Lin Hongtu’s face was.

At this time, he actually admired the man in front of him!

If you hadn’t been abandoned by the Lin family in the first place, what height will you go to now?

“My Lin family, blessed!”

With a long sigh, Lin Hongtu committed suicide by drinking a bomb, still dying before his death.

Because he knew that he made an extremely wrong decision more than ten years ago, ruining the Lin family and ruining a true king.

In the face of those muzzles, Lin Fan still had a disdainful sneer on his face:

“Hua Xia Lin Zuo, guard the country here today! Intruders, kill without mercy!!!”
