

Chapter: 3075

What was very strange to Assistant Ling was that the woman did not resist at all.

In fact, when she was in the ward, she had already seen Gu Wang's face, but she had never responded, but she thanked Gu Wang for not disturbing her in the past.

"Tell me, who instructed you?" Gu Wang walked over and asked coldly, his expression returning to his previous stern expression.

"I won't say it." The woman answered bluntly.

She didn't dare to say it, the young girl said that if one day, this matter is known to outsiders, she will not let her mother go.

She closed her eyes, waiting for Gu Wang's disposal, looking like a broken jar.

Very confused! For an irrelevant woman, how could she be so loyal?

"Don't worry, as long as you speak out, I will guarantee your mother's safety, and I will find the best doctor for her." Gu Wang whispered.

All of a sudden, the woman was blinded, she never thought that this Gu Wang in front of him would actually say such a thing, it seems that he really loves this sister very much!

She snorted coldly, her expression distorted.

"Just die, I won't tell you easily, and you'd better let me go. If something happens to me in your hands one day, those in the police station The police will definitely not let you off easily!"

The woman roared loudly and kept struggling.

Really? It's just a pity that he won't let her get her wish.

"Take it away! Also, take her old mother away too!" After speaking, Gu Wang turned around and planned to leave.

What? Will he take his mother away? no! Absolutely not!

"Gu Wang, let me go! I tell you, if you have something to do, come straight to me! Don't use those rude methods to deal with my mother! She doesn't know anything! She has nothing to do with this matter. The woman roared like crazy.

Yo, she knows she's in a hurry now? Gu Wang raised his head and looked at the person in front of him seriously, a cold light flashed in his eyes, mother is important, right? That would be nice!

"Be optimistic about her mother and don't let her out of the nursing home." Gu Wang said directly.

Suddenly, the woman panicked and immediately said: "I said I said! Don't alarm my mother! She is old and can't stand the toss, so don't call her anymore."

If I knew today, why was it in the first place? Gu Wang stared at the person in front of him, his expression very fortunate. It was also thanks to a filial woman in front of him. If they met a heartless woman today, who was not afraid of the sky and the earth, they would be afraid of it. The tone will also be helpless.

"In this matter, someone is indeed instructing me behind my back." The woman said word by word, but she didn't know that these words were actually recorded by Gu Wang directly.

Finally, the culprit came out, what a vicious woman! Gu Wang beat his back hard, trying to wake himself up.

After asking the matter clearly, Gu Wang let the woman go directly. He is not an unreasonable person. After all, he should still blame the young girl.

"Where are you now? I'll go look for you." On the phone, Gu Wang's voice was very displeased.

Why are you so anxious? Lynx looked suspiciously at the phone in his hand, with a puzzled expression, "At home."

"Where's the girl? Where did she go? Is she by your side?" Gu Wang continued to ask.

"Of course not. As for where she went, I don't know." Lynx replied without any energy.

Shouldn't that girl run away? Gu Wang immediately became vigilant, his face was very cold, "Follow that stinky girl, we must investigate the truth of the matter."

track? Where are you going to follow? Lynx waited for Gu Wang's next words inexplicably.
