

Chapter: 3087

This group of ruthless guys is going to put Zhao YINUO to death!

But Ling Chen and Li Ling didn't know that in the hospital, several people were making a big move.

"Stop!" Suddenly, a man's voice came over, and several people not far away immediately stopped, with panicked expressions.

"Where do you want to push this corpse?" Gu Wang asked loudly as he walked over.

Those few people turned around and looked at the man walking slowly, they were really taken aback. Oops, why did he come? Isn't he abroad?

It's over, it's over this time! As soon as Gu Wang came, all this was done in vain.

"Gu Wang, why did you come back suddenly?"

"Oh, I heard that something happened to ENUO, so I hurried over to take a look." Gu Wang replied lightly, without a trace of ups and downs in his tone.

It's really time to come. The woman who was pushing the sick car not far away rubbed her hands tightly, feeling very nervous, "Well, it's getting late, so you should go back and have a good rest."

Saying that, she is leaving.

"Hey, don't mention it, isn't that the one killed by Zhao YINUO? Where are you going to push?" Gu Wang asked immediately, a playful arc evoked at the corner of his mouth.

"Cremation... Yes! We're going to cremate the corpse!" the woman said immediately.

In an instant, the corpse's hand moved slightly, and Xu was frightened by the word "cremation".

"That's right, then I'll go with you." With that said, Gu Wang was about to walk forward.

No no no! Absolutely not! If he goes, this person who was pretending to be dead will really die!

"You just returned to China, so go back." After speaking, the woman was about to push him aside.

"Crack!" Suddenly, Gu Wang pushed the woman directly to the corner of the wall with a force, and a murderous look flashed in his eyes. These rotten people clearly want to frame Zhao YINUO, but now they want to retreat? Impossible!

"It's okay, I'm not tired, I'll go with you." With that said, Gu Wang was about to push the sick car to the cremation room not far away.

"Hi!" The door opened.

Oops, Gu Wang, this smelly man, really pushed himself into the cremation room. The woman in the sick car gritted her teeth and felt very anxious. She held on to the sick car with a grim expression on her face.

She is not dead! Come and save her!

"Come on, just send it in." Gu Wang lifted the white cloth over the corpse.

"No no no! No! I'm not dead yet!" Just as the corpse was being pushed towards the machine, finally, the woman who pretended to be dead couldn't bear it any longer and shouted directly.

Oh, I finally woke up!

"What's the situation? She's not dead?" Gu Wang looked at the family members next to him and hurriedly asked, deliberately pretending he didn't know anything.

"I'm not dead, I don't need cremation! I'm really not dead!" The corpse grabbed Gu Wang's arm tightly and shouted anxiously.

Great, that's it!

"Okay, since you are still alive, go to the police station and tell the truth."

Police station? All of a sudden, the woman in the sick car lowered her head, what should she say? She took people's money.

Gu Wangcai didn't wait for her to agree or not, he picked her up, walked out of the crematorium, and threw her into his car.

Soon, the car stopped in front of the police station.

"Stop arguing!" Just when Shangguan Nana was arguing with the police, Gu Wang appeared in front of them with the "corpse", and for a moment, the surroundings became quiet.

"What's the situation? Aren't you already dead?" Mrs. Lin next to her shouted in disbelief.

"Tell the truth, or else..." Gu Wang deliberately pointed to the policeman next to him, his eyes full of threats.

The "corpse" was stunned for a moment, then immediately recovered the expression on his face, and then told the police the truth, hoping to alleviate some of his guilt.

The truth was revealed from then on, and at that moment, Zhao YINUO and Mrs. Lin were released directly.
