

Chapter: 3091

For a moment, Gu Wangmeng was stunned, the two of them had a good life in the world, why did they take the child over? He looked suspiciously at the person in front of him, his expression very curious.

“Liangliang is not too young, I want him to get better education.” She lowered her head and said softly, Gu Wang suddenly understood her thoughts, and he was a little hesitant.

I’m afraid they are willing to take the child over, but Liangliang is not willing to come!

That child has lived with Mrs. Lin for a long time, and naturally she will not leave Mrs. If Mrs. Lin is also taken over, it is not impossible, but he is very clear in his heart that Mrs. Lin will definitely not leave the village.

She has lived in that village for most of her life, and has a garden to take care of, how could she come to the city center?

“You, don’t think so much, Madam and Liangliang won’t come here.” Gu Wang said bluntly.

This, Zhao YINUO also understands in her heart, but she wants to try, after all, all this is for the children.

“Tomorrow, it happens to be the weekend. I’ll ask Liangliang and his wife.”

Let her go, Gu Wang yawned and walked into the bedroom.

In the mental illness, Zhou Yang was holding the child and sitting in front of the young girl with the bobcat, looking very warm.

“Well, take a look, this is your son.” Zhou Yang said immediately after handing the child over to the young girl.

“How are you doing recently? Are you feeling better?” Lynx also asked in a low voice.

Several people communicated happily, very happy.

“I’m not going, I want to be with my grandma!” In the living room, Liangliang shouted loudly.

This shout really frightened Zhao YINUO. In an instant, Zhao YINUO completely understood the child’s mind, and he stopped reluctantly.

Zhao YINUO understands the relationship between the child and his wife, but she worries about the child’s future. After all, one day, the child will grow up.

Zhao YINUO’s eyes gradually dimmed, and he was in a bad mood.

“Child, let’s go.” Mrs. Lin suddenly came over and said in a low voice, without a trace of ups and downs in her tone. In fact, she is also reluctant to bear this child, but helpless, she wants this child to go further, she knows very well that Liangliang and Zhao ENUO will definitely learn more together.

“Grandma, I don’t want to leave, I want to be with you!” The child rushed into Mrs. Lin’s arms and shouted loudly.

For a moment, looking at the scene in front of him, Zhao YINUO was moved.

“Madam, why don’t you come with us, we can move all the flowers in the garden.” Zhao YINUO patted Madam Lin on the shoulder and said quickly.

The lady raised her head, looked at the person in front of her with relief, and felt very satisfied. Zhao YINUO has not recovered his previous memories, and it is actually quite remarkable that he can accept the child and himself.

“I’m gone. I’ve got a handful of old bones, and I don’t want to toss anymore. You should go with Liangliang.” After saying that, the lady was about to leave.

“No! If grandma doesn’t go, I won’t go either!” Suddenly, the child shouted loudly, and then ran out.

All of a sudden, Zhao YINUO was stunned. This was the first time she had seen this Liangliang with such a big temper.

“Madam, you can go with us, I know you are worried about those flowers, we can move over there, right. You see Liangliang like this, if you don’t go, he will definitely not go there, for the sake of Child, you can move in.”

Zhao YINUO said while shaking Mrs. Lin’s arm.

Mrs. Lin half-squinted her eyes and looked out the window, a hint of hesitation flashed in her eyes. She naturally hopes that Liangliang can have a bright future, but she has lived here for decades, and she really doesn’t want to leave the nest again.

“Well, when the child grows up and becomes independent, let’s move in again, okay? Don’t worry, this house is still yours.” Zhao YINUO said quickly.

Well, it’s all for the kids.
