

Chapter: 3110

When her father was still alive, Cai Genhua would still act in front of her father. When her father died, the nightmare of peace began.

The people in the village are broken-hearted. All day long, they say that Anning is an ominous person. Cai Genhua hates Anning, and now there is even more reason to abuse her.

Anning doesn't blame anyone, if you want to blame it, you can only blame yourself for your bad life.

Cai Genhua scolded An Ning all the way along the way. People on the road pointed at An Ning, but no one would help An Ning to speak. After all, in the eyes of the villagers, she was an ominous person.

When she finally got home, before entering the door, An Ning smelled the pungent smell of nail polish. She frowned, and when she entered the door, it turned out that An Yue was applying red nail polish.

Speaking of her half-sister, An Ning definitely wants to give a bad review! She bullied herself a lot in her last life, and it was her who was exposed to those scandals later.

In this life, I will not be so stupid.

An Ning looked at An Yue coldly, and the corners of her mouth evoked an imperceptible sinister arc.

An Yue painted the last piece of nails, raised her hand and came to An Ning, looked up and down An Ning's worn-out clothes, and mocked contemptuously: "Actually, you don't need to be unbalanced, look, my mother bought me new ones again. Clothes, originally, I should buy one for you when it's a new year, but I told my mother, you can't wear anything good, so I didn't buy it, hee hee, and you don't go to school, a junior high school Sheng, you don't need to dress up, right?"

As always, showing off, compared with the previous life, nothing that An Yue said has changed, but this time, it didn't pierce An Ning's heart.

"Oh, yes, then you should wear more clothes!" An Ning looked at An Yue coldly, and the words that came out of her mouth were so cold and indifferent.

An Yue showed a surprised look, she couldn't believe that such an expression would appear on An Ning's face, cold, ruthless, and even almost disdainful!

Seeing An Ning calmly walking by her side, An Yue was furious, and she was very frustrated and angry when she failed to be eliminated to An Ning.

"An Ning is only worthy of being my slave, servant! Uneducated and ugly!"

Listening to An Yue's scolding, An Ning didn't feel anything, but felt that the current An Yue was really childish and gave her a headache.

An Ning took the machete and went up the mountain to chop wood. As soon as I walked to the entrance of the village, I saw a group of beautiful girls in the distance. The leader was An Yue, who was wearing a light blue half-new jacket and two fashionable red flowers on her head, although she did not have the scenery of the big stars in her previous life. Ten thousand feet, but also very watery and likable.

Trying to restrain the hatred in his heart, An Ning knew that he couldn't do anything now. But the days to come are still long, and what An Yue took from her, she will take it back little by little.

But it's not that if you don't provoke her, An Yue will let you go. The whip marks on An Ning's body fully illustrate this point.

Sure enough, when An Yue saw An Ning walking this way, she rushed over with her little sister, "Yo, isn't this my sister? Is she cured?"

An Ning knew her temperament, clenched her hands fiercely, and glared at An Yue.

"Hmph, mute, when you look back, let your grandma marry you to Wang Fool at the head of the village." As soon as An Yue's voice came out, her little sisters began to make fun of her again, which is normal.

The air on the mountain is very fresh, and An Ning is thinking about the future plan while going up the mountain.

Looking at Cai Genhua's preparations, the crew will come over in about three or five days, and this is her only chance.

In the entertainment industry for eight years, although being coerced by Cheng Hao, he has never been able to perform a good script.

As an actor, self-cultivation, stance, emotional brewing and grasp, An Ning is more familiar than anyone else, eager to become a real actor, but it is never useless.
