

Chapter: 3117

After An Yue said a few words, this incident became An Ning's fault. An Ning didn't know how An Yue would come back, and she asked Cai Genhua to let herself out. The door was opened reluctantly by Cai Genhua, and she saw An Yue. Xiao Ren behind the moon.

An Ning immediately understood that Director Wu must have known that someone was deliberately making things difficult for him, so he asked Xiao Ren to follow An Yue to find him.

"Oh, sister, you said that you are too. If you don't want to shoot commercials, you should say it in advance, so that everyone has to wait for you, and the shooting progress is delayed again." An Yue's remarks make people feel that she is sensible and kind, but An Ning is a drag and has a great prejudice against An Ning.

Cai Genhua smiled apologetically on the side, thinking that fortunately, her daughter is smart enough, otherwise she will not be subject to the discussion in the street in the future!

There was a little sweat on An Ning's forehead, but she couldn't care less now. She rejected the jacket that Xiao Ren handed over. "Thank you, no, let's go to the shooting first. The director must be in a hurry."

After all, she went out the door first and followed Xiao Ren to the crew.

Behind her, An Yue's eyes were about to burst into flames. She hated An Ning at first. She used to think of An Ning as a slave and used it as a foil for herself. She never paid attention to it, but she never thought that this foil would dare to grab the limelight with her now!

Seeing that everyone in the crew is partial to An Ning, Anyue can't wait to take An Ning's head off!

Finally came to the crew, Director Wu saw that An Ning's face was not very good, so he asked with concern, "Girl, can you hold on?"

"I can hold it, but I'm sorry everyone, coming so late." An Ning glanced at everyone guiltily, and immediately received a lot of kind understanding.

"Okay, then go and touch up your makeup." Director Wu patted An Ning on the shoulder, which moved An Ning deeply.

No matter in his previous life or in this life, Director Wu had no selfishness towards her, but he was such a good person. In his previous life, when his career was in full swing, he was found to have plagiarized and was banned from then on. After half a month, he even swallowed medicine and committed suicide... ..

All of this is full of doubts, but An Ning can't think of anything suspicious.

An Ning quickly touched up her makeup. Because of her politeness and calmness yesterday, she gave the makeup artist a good image. When she was putting on makeup, the makeup artist also gave An Ning one of the antipyretics she brought with her.

For a moment, "Okay, take a look."

"It's troublesome." To be honest, the makeup artist's skills are quite good, and at this moment, it can't be seen that An Ning has a high fever.

On the other hand, An Yue was going to watch a joke, but she still didn't believe An Ning's pale grimace could make it to the camera. As a result, he turned his head and saw An Ning looking like a clear water hibiscus. The corners of his mouth were crooked, his fingers clenched uncontrollably, "I want this makeup too." The makeup artist didn't like it that much.

In order to avoid what happened yesterday, before this shooting, Director Wu directly gave a death order: "Time is tight, we must shoot well today, or we won't shoot this commercial."

An Yue, who originally wanted to play tricks, didn't dare to joke about her future this time, so she could only cooperate with the filming.

With a frown and a smile, there are beautiful women standing and beautiful scenery, and the pictures flow naturally. Because of the investor's explanation, Wu Dao also gave An Yue a lot of shots. After a long time, all the details were shot.

"Ok! Finish work."

"The two of you will come with us tonight, there is still an hour left, you need to pack something and go back to pack it." Director Wu said, and asked Xiao Ren to follow the An Ning sisters home, under the euphemistic name of helping to get things.

An Ning looked at Director Wu gratefully, she knew that Director Wu was helping him without a trace. She remembered this kindness in her heart, and now she can't repay it, but she must pay it back in the future.

When she got home, Cai Genhua had already packed An Yue's things, two big bags and three small bags on the side.

"You don't need to bring bedding." Xiao Ren said while looking at the things on the ground, he didn't really come to be a handyman.
