

Chapter: 3136

Because it was filming with the crew, the crew provided accommodation, that is, the hotel next to the filming base, which is not a high-end place, a standard double room, and An Ning was arranged to live with a makeup artist in the crew.

“How did the script look?” After the placement, An Ning went directly to the crew, because Director Qin had a special interest in An Ning when he auditioned before, so his attitude was not bad when he saw An Ning coming.

“Well, it’s not bad.” An Ning replied, after researching in the past few days, she found that the role of Princess Minmin is really very emotional, “Princess Minmin’s emotions are very delicate, I feel like this character is alive. , She has reasons for what she does, and has her own responsibilities.”

After An Ning said this, the first person to react was the original author of “Peerless Beauty”. Although he was behind Director Qin, his expression was very excited.

This character is also her favorite. Although she hasn’t told anyone about it, she is indeed her favorite when she is creating. Although she has to be blackened later, she handles it very well and will not disgust the audience. Will sympathize and understand Minmin’s identity, understand her involuntary.

Of course, after An Ning read the script further, she had already vaguely felt it, and seemed to understand better why a character who was not a villain in her previous life became popular.

After a while, several other actors came one after another. After most of the people were there, the director held a kick-off ceremony on the spot, and everyone took a photo together. The launch conference had been held the day before, of course, I was unable to participate in the An Ning coffee seat.

“In the next few months of shooting time, I still need everyone to pay more attention. Of course, I’m going to talk about it in the front, as long as it is turned on, then in my group, no matter how famous you are, you have to follow the procedure for me.” Director Qin said.

Obviously, Director Qin and Director Wu Fang have two extreme personalities. When Director Wu was filming before, he was always gentle and gentle. Even if they occasionally did not move properly, they just corrected them with a smile.

In the last life, An Ning had also heard about Director Qin Chuzhi. At that time, Tang Qian happened to be filming her drama. Because the movements were not in place, Qin Daoqi scolded Tang Qian directly, suspecting that Tang Qian was a golden horse. How did the actress rated it?

Tang Qian was naturally unhappy, and she fell out with Director Qin on the spot. Of course, she couldn’t get anything good in the end, but she went back to filming in a disheartened manner.

After hearing this, several leading actors glanced at each other, but did not speak, probably because they had heard about Director Qin’s style of doing things before coming here.

Taking advantage of this time, An Ning roughly watched the actors in the crew.

She is a complete newcomer, so she naturally stands next to her. Next to her is the second male. She is quite a powerful actor, but when she is middle-aged, she has no traffic, so her popularity is not not tall.

“Peerless Beauty” tells a love story under the background of national hatred and family hatred. The prince Xuanyuan of Dahua fell in love with Lin Ye, the second daughter of the prime minister of his country, and the two walked step by step. A love-hate relationship with the princess of the border feudal kingdom.

Among the more important characters in this drama, Prince Xuanyuan is played by another well-known first-line actor Huang Jingren. When taking pictures, he naturally stands in the main seat, next to Director Qin.

And the heroine Lin Ye is a little actress Lin Keke under Tianhua Entertainment. She has not been in the entertainment circle for a long time, but because of her sweet voice, she can be considered to have opened up her acting career. But instead of standing in the middle, the middle C position on the other side of the director is another actor named Chi Fang.

In the play, Chi Fang plays the heroine’s best friend. She is a general and has a hot personality and dares to act. In reality, I don’t know if it’s because of the nerves or because of the background. I just stood beside the director in such a big way, and didn’t seem to notice anything wrong at all.
