

Chapter: 3137

Of course, An Ning is not the only one who feels this abnormality. The more important thing in the play is the eldest princess. She is the second female character. She is a very lovable character. She is also from Tianhua Entertainment. Looking at Chi Fang's face carefully and looking at it, and then looking at An Ning in the air, he gave An Ning a look you know, and An Ning smiled awkwardly.

After taking the photo, there was no time to stop, just put on makeup. Huang Jingren and Lin Keke both have their own independent dressing rooms. If the rest had not contacted the makeup artist long ago, or they were not prepared at all, in the end, only An Ning and Chi Fang were left alone and went to the crew's public dressing room together. , but Chi Fang didn't seem to like seeing her, glanced at An Ning, and ignored her at all.

Because it is an ancient costume, and I have to do styling, the makeup is very slow.

Chi Fang spoke first: "What's your relationship with Yang Qingfeng?"

Chi Fang didn't speak in a good tone, but rather questioned.

An Ning was a little surprised. According to what she looked like just now, she thought Chi Fang shouldn't talk to her.

But after all, it was the first day, and An Ning followed the principle of getting along if he could get along: "It doesn't matter, he was drunk that night, and I happened to pass by."

"Really?" Chi Fang suddenly approached An Ning, but the stylist didn't expect that the shape he was making was dissipated at once.

Fortunately, the stylist seems to be very professional and not angry at all.

"Yeah." An Ning responded, not knowing why it seemed like it was easy for Chi Fang to get along with her.

More than an hour passed, the makeup artist motioned An Ning to get up to see the effect, under the light, not only the makeup artist laughed, but Chi Fang exaggeratedly grew his mouth: "You really... really suit Princess Minmin. Character, Qin Chuzhi's eyes are absolutely amazing!"

"thanks."

An Ning actually knew that her face was very malleable, but it was a pity that in the last life, because of what Cheng Hao said, she went to plastic surgery, cut her double eyelids, opened the corners of her eyes, pointed her chin and pouted her lips, and finally tossed herself. Four different, even called "snake face".

Now, An Ning clearly knows the value of this face. Although looking at it together, her face isn't very good, but her facial features are pretty good.

Especially the eyes, can control all kinds of styles.

For example, the current Minmin is still just as a young girl, so her eyes should be pure and flawless, and An Ning has done it perfectly.

"Your eyes are beautiful." The makeup artist couldn't help but praise.

After changing clothes, An Ning sat on the side, just as the first act had already started filming, An Ning kept up with the rhythm and watched and studied.

I have to say that there is a reason for the success of "Peerless Beauty" in the previous life. The acting skills of the male and female protagonists are all online, and they look smooth and natural. Even if they sit peacefully on the side, they seem to be in Chang'an Avenue in Dahua. The prince beats the horse. Passing by after the prime minister's mansion, I happened to see Lin Ye, the festival where Lin Keke escaped over the wall.

The director stared at him the whole time, and occasionally gave a sentence or two. Soon, this scene was over, and Lin Keke and Huang Jingren ended up and changed to the scene above the court.

After Lin Keke came down, he didn't go back directly, but just sat next to An Ning, took out the script, and watched the play.

"An Ning, right? You are very powerful." Lin Keke didn't have any airs, and he took the initiative to say something when he saw An Ning.

"Thank you for your compliment, senior, and I have to learn more from senior."

"I mean it, it's amazing that you can take on the role of Minmin." Lin Keke raised his head, the corners of his eyes curved into a beautiful arc, very sunny.

It seems that because of hearing this sentence, Chen Meimei, who happened to be behind, did not give Lin Keke any face: "Hmph, what's so great about getting a role based on scandal."

Chen Meimei said this in front of An Ning, without any scruples, and glared at An Ning after speaking.
