

Chapter: 3138

However, what Chen Meimei said, An Ning had no way to respond, so she could only smile indifferently. She is not without strength, she will prove it by herself sooner or later.

Fortunately, Director Qin probably felt that An Ning had never filmed, and the positioning and basic performance might not be very clear, so he called a field manager to guide him, which just solved An Ning's current embarrassment.

An Ning followed the field manager to the other side, which relieved the embarrassment.

For filming, An Ning didn't have a good script in her previous life, and Cheng Hao asked her to accept some unpopular scripts, so An Ning didn't study how to film.

But there is a dream that An Ning has never mentioned to others, that is, she wants to go to university, no matter in this life or in the previous life, this wish has never been realized.

In the last life, Cheng Hao only laughed at her for being so naive, but in this life, An Ning only went to junior high school. As soon as she graduated, Cai Genhua directly cut off An Ning's desire for it because she no longer had any spare money for her to study at home. School dream.

Although he was not able to stay in school, An Ning did not slack off in acting. As long as he had the opportunity, An Ning would continue to practice by himself, and he did not read too much.

In addition to the more or less experience in the previous life, An Ning believes that he will not be bad. It's just that I haven't had the chance to actually perform.

However, what An Ning didn't know was that, with her current strength, let alone an ordinary actor, even an old actor might not be able to have her acting skills.

The field manager originally thought that he was a newcomer in An Ning, but he was extremely reluctant to come here, and his attitude was not considered responsible. He just told An Ning about the most basic knowledge, but gradually he found that the An Ning he talked about could be consistent with An Ning on. It is no worse than those so-called big stars, so I can go back to work with confidence.

On the other side, An Ning saw that the assistant director was staring at the shooting, and subconsciously watched the entire shooting scene, but unexpectedly saw Director Qin in a corner.

Director Qin seemed to be talking to someone. The figure of that person was just hidden by the dressing room, so An Ning couldn't see it clearly.

Suddenly, it seemed that the man looked towards the theater and revealed his figure, and An Ning saw a familiar figure.

Although I didn't see the face, An Ning always felt very familiar, and I was sure that this person seemed to be the "President An" I saw last time in the bathroom.

However, the man also seemed to be very low-key, and he didn't want others to discover his existence. He just said a few words to Director Qin, then glanced at the crew again, and then disappeared.

Simply, An Ning did not take this release to heart.

Soon, after three scenes in the morning, it was An Ning.

When An Ning was on the stage, Director Qin was angry because the actors in the last show were not good enough, "Chen Meimei, there is no seniority here, only acting skills."

What Director Qin said was extremely rude, but An Ning just felt embarrassed by standing aside because he was waiting for the next scene.

Sure enough, after Director Qin returned to the producer, he saw Chen Meimei glaring at An Ning again, very tired of being heard by An Ning when Director Qin reprimanded her just now.

"You dare to laugh? A newcomer who has never acted and only gets hot. You will feel better in a while." Chen Meimei looked at An Ning and came to her conclusion, then walked to the side stool and sat down, Just waiting to see An Ning's good show.

"The second scene, An Ning, Huang Jingren." This scene is strictly speaking, An Ning's rebirth is the first scene of An Ning.

In the play, the vassal state where Princess Minmin is located won the battle. The elder brother went to the Dahua Kingdom to make peace with the order of his father Khan, and Minmin, who was the princess, followed him.

When she first arrived in Chang'an City, Princess Minmin felt that everything was very novel, and she had the coquettish attitude of a young daughter, showing her innocence.

That year, Chang'an City was prosperous. Princess Minmin and her brother were scattered in the crowd, but she didn't know it at all. She almost ran into a gangster, and happened to meet the prince Xuanyuanze, who was like an immortal, and the prince Xuanyuan rescued Minmin. love at first sight.
