

Chapter: 3141

“You... you can’t even think of slandering me, I have nothing to do with Cheng Hao!” Immediately, he seemed to think of something: “Hmph, isn’t it just Yang Qingfeng? Don’t say that people haven’t said they want you, they want you again. How about it, it’s just an actor, and it will be two or three years after being popular, the man I like in An Yue is much more powerful and powerful than Yang Qingfeng.”

When it comes to the man she likes, An Ning naturally finds that An Yue’s whole person has changed, completely different from the one just now, and she even brings a rare little daughter’s coquettish look. An Ning had seen this kind of expression before.

When she was in the village before, An Yue had liked the son of the village chief’s family. When she mentioned him to her at that time, she had such an expression, but An Ning thought that although An Yue came to a big city, she would not like it so quickly. On someone else.

But An Yue made him look at him in a different light once again, she found someone she liked so quickly.

An Ning has an idea in her heart. She doesn’t know who An Yue likes. In her last life, An Yue had an affair with Cheng Hao, and she hurt herself so badly. If she can take the man An Yue likes back in this life, then the pair will take revenge on An Yue. To put it simply, it couldn’t be better, it’s very pleasing.

Therefore, An Ning quietly probed: “What kind of man can have Yang Qingfeng? Isn’t he the son of our village chief?”

Of course, An Yue couldn’t like the village chief’s son anymore. Hearing this, she gave An Ning a stern look: “The man I like, hum, he controls the entire entertainment industry and can cover the sky with one hand, just wait. , sooner or later you will be banned.”

An Yue’s words revealed a sense of pride, as if she had become the president’s wife.

An Ning didn’t speak, and An Ning really didn’t know how many people who could cover the entire entertainment industry with only one hand. It would be great if she could know who An Yue likes.

An Ning asked tentatively, “How can I cover the sky with one hand, I don’t know there are such people in the entertainment industry?” After An Ning finished speaking, he observed An Yue’s expression.

“Hmph, of course you don’t know, short-sighted like a hamster, the one I like is—”

An Ning just wanted to get some more news out of An Yue’s mouth, when he saw Zheng Tao rushing towards this side in a hurry, shouting: “Oh, my little aunt, why did you come here? I’m looking for it.”

When Zheng Tao saw that An Ning An Yue was standing together, he thought something was wrong, and he greeted him from afar.

And after seeing Zheng Tao coming over, An Yue quickly accepted the news.

It seems that Zheng Tao warned him before: “Sister, a person like you still doesn’t deserve to know who he is!”

Before leaving, An Yue said with her fingers crossed.

An Ning originally wanted to know who An Yue fell in love with, but she could only put it on hold for the time being and see what An Yue had to say next time.

But An Ning gradually discovered that she wanted to take revenge on An Yue, and her opponent was never An Yue herself, but Sister Luo who kept helping her, and even this Zheng Tao.

If it wasn’t for the two of them helping An Yue step by step in their last life, how could An Yue be able to become a climate on her own, let alone step by step to become an actress in the future.

When An Yue followed Zheng Tao back to her crew, as expected, she was instructed again. Zheng Tao knew that An Yue was not good enough, but it didn’t matter, just relying on this face was enough.

An Yue was unconvinced. This new manager was extremely strict, and even forgot who was the artist and who was the manager.

But An Yue didn’t dare to say much, or even to express her dissatisfaction, because the influence Zheng Tao brought to her is visible, and her popularity is increasing day by day.

Since the provocation of An Yuelai once, the days have passed, and the filming has continued as normal. An Ning’s acting skills have finally been confirmed in the filming.
